ON THE COVER

The cover of the 2001 Kansas City Chiefs Media Guide is entitled "Reunited." It chronicles the 27-year relationship enjoyed by Chiefs President Carl Peterson and Head Coach Dick Vermeil. Chiefs Team Photographer Hank Young has captured that camaraderie with his color centerpiece, while the black and white photos come courtesy of the personal archives of Peterson and Vermeil. In the lower right, we see the duo in a '74 UCLA coaching staff photo, which marked Vermeil's first season as the Bruins head coach. Vermeil's '75 staff led UCLA to the Rose Bowl - where the lower left photo was taken - as the Bruins defeated #1 ranked Ohio State in the '76 Rose Bowl game. The top right image captures the pair in their initial NFL assignment with the Philadelphia Eagles in '76, while the top left photo depicts the duo following a victory during the '80 season which culminated an NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XV in January of '81. Finally, a solid handshake was exchanged between Peterson and Vermeil 20 years ago in Philadelphia's "war room" after the Eagles selected WR Mike Quick with the 20th selection in the first round of the '81 NFL Draft. FOUNDER

LAMAR HUNT

As the National Football League enters its 82nd season of competition in 2001, one figure remains a constant in the ever-changing world of professional athletics. Opening Day 2001 will see Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt begin his 42nd year of involvement with the game of pro football.

Whether it was serving as the driving force behind the formation of the American Football League in late '59, playing a pivotal role in the AFL-NFL merger in the '60s, or overseeing many crucial issues concerning pro football and the Chiefs franchise during the past four decades, there is little question that few other individuals have helped positively change the face of America's favorite game as much as Hunt.

As the organizer of the American Football League — which celebrated its 40th Anniversary along with the Chiefs in '99 franchise — Hunt brought together the famed "Foolish Club" comprised of the eight original AFL owners in '59, and helped the fledgling league take foot on the field for the '60 season. On June 8th of '66, the AFL-NFL merger was announced by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle and on January 15th of '67, Hunt's Kansas City Chiefs were participating in the inaugural Super Bowl. Hunt's continuing efforts have long been recognized as having an important role in the ongoing development, design and direction of the modern-day National Football League.

As the Founder of the Chiefs franchise, Hunt helped provide Kansas City with a team that became the winningest in the 10-year history of the AFL and earned spots in two of the first four Super Bowls, climaxed by winning the '69 World Championship in Super Bowl IV. As the founder of the AFL, he helped pave the way for much of the modern growth of professional football. Possibly the greatest tribute to his contributions to the sport was the naming by the league of the Lamar Hunt Trophy, which is presented annually to the champion of the American Football Conference.

Hunt's participation in the organization of the AFL was recognized when he became the first AFL figure to be honored with enshrinement in the Pro Football Hall of Fame at Canton, Ohio. That honor was extended in the summer of '72, remarkable considering he became involved in pro football just 13 years earlier. In honor of the 30th anniversary of the Chiefs victory in Super Bowl IV, Hunt was chosen to perform the official coin toss for Super Bowl XXXIV between St. Louis and Tennessee. Ironically, the winning coach that day was current Chiefs head coach Dick Vermeil.

During the summer and fall of '59, Hunt helped make pro football history by organizing the American Football League, which included his Dallas Texans franchise. After three years, the team moved to Kansas City, where the organization begins its 39th year in Mid-America in 2001. He was deeply involved in the construction of Arrowhead Stadium, a facility which celebrates its 30th Anniversary Season in 2001. Still considered among the finest sports venues in the world, Arrowhead has hosted numerous major non-NFL contests in the past year, most notably a 2001 Men's World Cup Qualifier (U.S.A. vs. Costa Rica), the 2000 Big 12 Conference Football Championship Game (Oklahoma vs. Kansas State), the 2000 Eddie Robinson Classic (Kansas State vs. Iowa) and a 2000 Women's Nike Cup Match (U.S.A. vs. Canada).

The early days of the AFL were problem-filled but Hunt saw his Texans achieve on-field success. In '62, the Texans won the AFL Championship with a double-overtime victory over the Houston Oilers, the first of three titles won by the Texans/Chiefs during the league's 10-year existence. The team repeated as champions in both '66 and '69. By winning the '66 AFL title, the Chiefs earned the right to play in the first Super Bowl against the NFL Champion Green Bay Packers. Three years later, the Chiefs claimed Kansas City's first major sports championship by defeating the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl IV.

In '82, Hunt was singled out by the NFL Alumni Association to receive the prestigious Leather Helmet Award and in February of '93, he received the Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award from the Maxwell Football Club for continuing positive contributions to the game.

Hunt has been a continuing leader in the game and few individuals have helped shape the sport more than this quiet Texan. In addition to being a principal negotiator in the merger of the AFL and NFL in the late '60s, he was a contributor to the design of the NFL playoff format. He is credited with accidentally putting the name "Super Bowl" on the NFL's championship game — the name coming from his children's toy "Super Ball." For many years, he was a persistent advocate of the two-point conversion option for pro football — an old college and AFL rule that was finally adopted by the NFL in '94. In 2000, along with Chiefs President, General Manager and CEO Carl Peterson, Hunt earned the distinction of becoming just the fourth Owner/General Manager combination to preside over a franchise for all 10 years of a 100-win decade as Kansas City compiled a stellar 102-58 (.638) regular season record from '90-99.

A year-round sports fan, Hunt is involved in several additional athletic ventures. He is one of the founding investors in the six-time World Champion Chicago Bulls of the National Basketball Association, while the Hunt family also serves as the operator of two franchises in Major League Soccer, now in its sixth season of operation. The Hunt family oversees the operations of both the defending MLS Cup Champion Kansas City Wizards — who claimed their inaugural league title in 2000 — and the Columbus Crew, who play in America's pre-eminent outdoor soccer facility, the beautiful 22,555-seat Crew Stadium. Including the most recent title with the Wizards a year ago, Hunt now prizes 11 championship rings from four different professional sports leagues (AFL/NFL, MLS, NBA and NASL), most notably a Super Bowl IV ring from '69 Chiefs, as well as AFL title rings from the '66 Chiefs and '62 Dallas Texans.

Appropriately nicknamed "Games" during his childhood, Hunt's love of sports ventures has been his true lifeblood, an enthusiasm which has transcended numerous athletic entities. Over 30 years ago, the Hunts were involved in the development of both the North American Soccer League and a tennis promotion company, World Championship Tennis. Both of those organizations are now defunct; however, in an unusual twist, Hunt's involvement in these ventures resulted years later in his induction into the respective Halls of Fame of both United States Soccer (located in Oneonta, New York) in '82 and International Tennis (located in Newport, Rhode Island) in '93. He has also been honored in the state Sports Halls of Fame of both Missouri ('95) and Texas ('84). In addition, Hunt was also inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame in '97. In '99, Soccer America Magazine named Hunt one of its "25 Most Influential People" after the 94-year-old U.S. Open Cup was renamed the "Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup" and he received the U.S. Soccer Federation's National Soccer Hall of Fame's prestigious Medal of Honor.

As President of the American Football Conference, Hunt is a working member of several prominent NFL committees, including service on the Board of Directors of the NFL Europe League.

Hunt was born on August 2, 1932 in El Dorado, Arkansas and graduated from SMU with a B.S. in Geology in '56. While at SMU, he was a three-year reserve end on the Varsity Football Team. He and his wife, Norma, have four children, Lamar, Jr., Sharron, Clark and Daniel, as well as 10 grandchildren. Together, the entire Hunt family shares a great enthusiasm for the Chiefs "Red and Gold."

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

JACK W. STEADMAN

In 2001, the Kansas City Chiefs began their 42nd season as a pro football franchise under the leadership of Jack Steadman, Chairman of the Board.

A recognized leader among pro football administrators, Steadman has structured the Chiefs organization to meet the challenge brought about by growth of the business of pro football over the years.

As the Chiefs begin their 39th season in Kansas City, and their 30th in magnificent Arrowhead Stadium, Steadman can look with pride at a list of football and administrative accomplishments the organization has achieved since moving from Dallas for the beginning of the '63 season in the old American Football League.

It was Steadman who conceived the idea of Kansas City building the dual Harry S Truman Sports Complex, which houses the Chiefs in the 79,000-seat Arrowhead, and Royals baseball in the 42,000-seat Kauffman Stadium. The complex is recognized as the finest of its kind in the world.

Steadman was promoted from General Manager to Executive Vice President and General Manager in '66; in August of '76 he was named President of the Chiefs in charge of all operating operations; and in '89 was named Chairman of the Board.

After establishing himself as an innovative, successful business man with the Chiefs, Steadman later joined Lamar Hunt in the development of Worlds of Fun. The 165-acre family entertainment complex opened in '73 and drew over 800,000 guests during its first season of operation.

In '82, HME Entertainment, Inc., completed the 60-acre family water recreation park, Oceans of Fun. In '95, Worlds of Fun and Oceans of Fun were sold to Cedar Fair.

In addition to serving as Chairman of the Chiefs and Hunt Midwest Enterprises, Inc., which owns Hunt Midwest Mining, a limestone rock mining company, and Hunt Midwest Real Estate Development Company, an underground and surface real estate development firm in the Kansas City International Foreign-Trade Zone, he also serves as the Chairman of the NFL Employees Benefit Committee.

Actively involved within the community since arriving in Kansas City, Steadman is a tireless worker and detailed organizer in many civic and service projects. He is past Chairman, President and Campaign Chairman of the Heart of America United Way, and past President of the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City. He is a past Chairman and Board Member of the Private Industry Council as well as the Full Employment Council. He serves as a director of the American Royal Association and the Starlight Theatre Association. Steadman also serves as an Advisory Trustee for Midwest Research Institute and is a member of the Civic Council. In '88 he was honored by the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City as the "Kansas Citian of the Year."

Steadman, who was born September 14, 1928, grew up in Warrenville, Ill., and in Dallas. He attended Baylor University and received his B.A. in Business Administration from Southern Methodist University. Steadman and his wife, Judy, reside in Mission Hills, Kansas.

PRESIDENT/GM/CEO

CARL D. PETERSON

As the Chiefs enter the 2001 season, no individual is more qualified, more prepared or more enthusiastic about leading Kansas City's NFL franchise into the challenges of the new millennium than team President, General Manager and Chief Executive Officer, Carl Peterson.

Peterson, who enters his 13th season as the Kansas City Chiefs top executive in 2001, unquestionably serves as the driving force of the organization and is regarded as the person most responsible for the club's return to prominence both on and off the field during the past 12 years.

On January 12th of 2001, Peterson made perhaps his boldest move to date as Kansas City's President, General Manager and CEO, luring Dick Vermeil - who guided the '99 St. Louis Rams to a victory in Super Bowl XXXIV - out of retirement to guide the Chiefs on-field fortunes, marking the first time Kansas City has boasted a Super Bowl champion head coach since the days of Hank Stram. The working relationship enjoyed by Peterson and Vermeil dates back some 27 years and has been productive in their two previous joint ventures, which included the '80 NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XV with the Philadelphia Eagles in January of '81, as well as a Rose Bowl title with UCLA in January of '76.

For the third time in his football career, Peterson has joined forces with Vermeil and current Chiefs Vice President of Football Operations/Player Personnel, Lynn Stiles to form a true gridiron trinity. The longstanding relationship between Peterson, Vermeil and Stiles dates back to '74 when Vermeil was named the head coach at UCLA. Peterson served as receivers coach and administrative assistant to the head coach, while Stiles served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator. In '75, that triumvirate helped lead the Bruins to a 9-2-1 record and the team's first-ever Pac 8 championship. That season culminated with UCLA's first Rose Bowl appearance in 10 seasons as the Bruins defeated #1 ranked Ohio State on January 1st of '76.

Later in '76, Vermeil was named head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles, while Peterson served as the club's receivers and tight ends coach, as well as the administrative assistant to the head coach. In '77, Peterson was named Philadelphia's Director of Player Personnel and became the man chiefly responsible for the acquisition of talent for Vermeil. Just one year later in '78 the duo of Peterson and Vermeil helped lead the Eagles to their first playoff appearance in 18 seasons.

In six seasons together with the Eagles from '76-81, Peterson and Vermeil combined to engineer four playoff appearances. Stiles rejoined the trio in '79 as the Eagles tight ends coach and special teams coordinator. The highlight of that four-year playoff run came just one year later when Philadelphia claimed its first division title since the club won the NFL Championship in '60. The Eagles proceeded to win the '80 NFC Championship Game and advanced to Super Bowl XV in January of '81.

"Twelve years ago, Lamar Hunt and his family gave me an opportunity to run this franchise," Peterson observed. "And at that time, there was only one person on my mind that I wanted to be head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs . . . Dick Vermeil. I've had one goal since I came here and I know that Dick now shares that goal with me. That goal is to hand the trophy that bears Lamar Hunt's name (AFC Championship trophy) to him at the conclusion of the season. Hopefully that will happen soon."

The hiring of Vermeil marked a flurry of off-season activity for Peterson and the Chiefs, igniting a renewed sense of optimism in Arrowhead Stadium and all across Kansas City. In addition to the acquisition of Vermeil - just one of four head coaches in NFL history to guide two different teams to the Super Bowl - Peterson was also the man who pulled the trigger on the trade which brought QB Trent Green to Kansas City on April 20th, just a day prior to the start of the 2001 NFL Draft. On that same day, the Chiefs also acquired RB Priest Holmes as an unrestricted free agent and WR/KR Tony Horne as a restricted free agent, marking just several of Peterson's many player personnel additions for 2001.

Making major changes to an organization is never easy, but Peterson has a history of guiding the Chiefs in the right direction. Since coming to Mid-America in late December of '88, he has not only transformed the Chiefs into a model National Football League organization, but has also built the Kansas City franchise into one of pro sport's finest and most respected entities.

When Peterson took over the Chiefs, the franchise was struggling, on the field and off, and was without any kind of national presence. Simply put, the club's reversal of fortunes under Peterson since that time have been dramatic. Under his continued guidance, the club maintains one of the most loyal national fan followings and strongest season ticket bases of any professional sports team. Boasting individual season-ticket accounts from an astonishing 43 different states and the District of Columbia, the Chiefs once again built upon their long-standing reputation for supremacy in the area of season-ticket renewals, as 97.3 percent of the club's 72,000 season tickets were renewed for the 2001. In April of this year Hunt and Peterson announced that the club's self-imposed season-ticket cap has been upped to 73,000 seats for 2001. That move allowed many individuals who had been on the Chiefs lengthy waiting list since '93 to purchase season tickets for the first time, proving to be an appropriate way to reward both the patience and the loyalty of the legions of die-hard Red and Gold fanatics.

Despite his many accomplishments in steering the overall fortunes of the franchise, at his essence, Peterson still remains a quintessential football man. During the decade of the '90s, few teams could match the level of success exhibited on the playing field by the Chiefs. From '90-99, Kansas City posted a stellar 102-58 (.638) record, making Kansas City just one of seven teams in NFL history to record 100 or more wins over the course of a single decade. Even more impressive was the fact that Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt and Peterson became just the fourth Owner/General Manager tandem to preside over a team for all 10 years of a 100-win decade.

Peterson obtained another rare distinction during the 2000 campaign by getting his 200th career regular season win of his 20-year tenure as a professional football executive with the NFL's Chiefs and Eagles, as well as the USFL's Stars. That 200th victory also marked the 600th regular season contest in the storied history of the Chiefs franchise. Both milestones were marked in thrilling fashion as Kansas City orchestrated an exciting, 23-22 comeback victory at Denver (9/24/00), as the Chiefs played their final contest ever in Mile High Stadium.

Dating back to the '77 season when he served as the Director of Player Personnel for the Eagles, teams whose personnel operations have been overseen by Peterson have produced a 205-117-2 (.636) mark. During that 20-season span - which also includes tenures as the top executive for the Chiefs and USFL's Stars - his teams have produced 17 winning records and made the playoffs on 14 occasions.

During the '90s, Kansas City finished first or second in the AFC West nine times, made seven playoff appearances, won three AFC West titles and reached the only AFC Championship Game in team history. But perhaps the greatest achievement under Peterson's tenure was the establishment of the unparalleled fan support the club currently enjoys in Kansas City.

Since the start of the '90 season, no NFL team has enjoyed a more impressive homefield advantage than the one boasted by the Chiefs at Arrowhead. Kansas City has posted an AFC-best 68-20 (.772) regular season record at their raucous home from '90-00, a mark matched only by San Francisco, which also has an identical 68-20 record over that span. Regarded as having one of the best and loudest gameday atmospheres in the entire league, the Chiefs have sold out 84 consecutive contests at Arrowhead, including four postseason games. In 2000, Kansas City enjoyed a franchise-best regular season paid home attendance of 631,365 to lead the AFC for the seventh consecutive season. The Chiefs have now paced the entire NFL in that category in six of the last seven years. In addition, over one million fans witnessed the Chiefs compete in regular season action at home and on the road for the 11th consecutive season.

Throughout his distinguished football career, Peterson has established clear-cut goals for the organizations he has guided, efficiently using all of his available resources in unison to meet his objectives. That simple formula has been at the foundation of Peterson's and the Chiefs successes since his arrival in Kansas City.

"My administrative philosophy is very simple," Peterson explained. "Hire the most talented, most creative, most innovative people possible. Give them a goal and all the support possible. Then get out of the way and let them do what they do best. Overall, my job is to create an environment that is conducive to allowing individual and collective excellence to emerge."

Under Peterson's leadership the past 12 years, the Chiefs have evolved into a habitually successful franchise. Dating back to his first season with the club in '89, the Chiefs own a 117-74-1 record, good for a solid .612 winning percentage. And during the decade of the '90s, only San Francisco 113-47 (.706) and Buffalo 103-57 (.644) could top the 102-58 (.638) mark established by Kansas City.

Over that 10-year span from '90-99, the Chiefs won three AFC West titles ('93, '95 and '97). In '93 the Chiefs captured their first AFC Western Division title since '71 and made their first-ever AFC Championship Game appearance. In both '95 and '97, the Chiefs put together league-best 13-3 records and went undefeated at home. The Chiefs have also dominated play within the NFL's toughest division - the AFC West - since the start of the '90 season. Kansas City has won more division contests than any other team over that 11-year run, producing a 60-28 (.682) ledger in division games, a figure which ranks as the best intradivision winning percentage in the entire NFL during that timeframe.

Under Peterson, the action at Arrowhead hasn't been confined to the playing field as the entire infrastructure of the stadium complex has undergone vast changes. Long regarded as one of the finest home bases for any NFL team, this list of improvements at the Chiefs complex is a lengthy one. From a natural playing surface at Arrowhead, to grass practice fields, a much-needed indoor practice complex and weight-training facilities, refurbished team meeting rooms, locker rooms, training and equipment rooms, new video and player personnel offices, the litany of upgrades goes on and on.

From a fans' perspective, there has been a new Arrowhead Club, a concession stand renovation, 33 new luxury field boxes and a pair of new, state-of-the-art ArrowVision replay screens in both end zones. In addition, all of the seats in the upper and lower levels of Arrowhead have been replaced over the past two years, making the Chiefs home truly one of the most fan-friendly stadiums in all of sport.

In recent years, Kansas City has also been among the league leaders in merchandise sales and national-television appearances (57 times, including 20 on ABC's Monday Night Football, the past nine years), as well. In 2001, Kansas City will be on the national stage for an ESPN Thursday Night telecast vs. Philadelphia on November 29th, marking just the third-ever visit to Arrowhead by the Eagles.

"Under Carl's leadership, the Chiefs have achieved a high level of respect as one of the leaders in the NFL," commented Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. "This respect has been measured in several principle areas, including development and guidance of a quality organization in every phase - front office, scouting, coaching and team."

The team's football and administrative successes have not gone unnoticed around the league. Several of the team's top coaches and administrators have received promotions to other NFL clubs. Headlining that list of Peterson protegees is former Chiefs Vice President of Player Personnel Terry Bradway, who was named General Manager of the N.Y. Jets earlier this year. Bradway spent eight years with Kansas City ('93-00) and also served three years with Peterson ('83-85) in the USFL.

In addition, four former Chiefs staff members are Vice Presidents with other teams (Mark Hatley - Green Bay, John Schneider - Washington, Phil Thomas - St. Louis and Phil Youtsey - Carolina), while three former Kansas City assistants who currently serve as NFL head coaches with other clubs (Bill Cowher - Pittsburgh, Tony Dungy - Tampa Bay and Herman Edwards - N.Y. Jets). "The greatest form of flattery (and respect) is when other teams come after our people," Peterson remarked.

But whether on the field, on the sidelines, or in the front office, the area where Peterson has always truly excelled in is unearthing talent. He and the outstanding player personnel department he has built in Kansas City have used the college draft, trades and the free agent market to build the Chiefs talent pool. No matter the round, Peterson and his scouting staff have discovered major contributors each year in the draft, including notable performers such as the late nine-time Pro Bowl linebacker Derrick Thomas (1st round - '89), recently-retired 2000 Pro Bowl center Tim Grunhard (2nd round - '90), six-time Pro Bowl guard Will Shields (3rd round - '93), four-year starting linebacker Donnie Edwards (4th round - '96) and former All-Pro guard Dave Szott (7th round - '90), just to name a very few.

The club's 2000 draft yielded a plethora of talent for the club, including four players who started games for the Chiefs a year ago: WR Sylvester Morris (1st round), CB William Bartee (2nd round), S Greg Wesley (3rd round) and CB Pat Dennis (5th round). Peterson's recent first-round resume is also impressive with the club's past five first-round selections all currently with the team in starting roles. In addition to Morris, that list includes offensive tackles John Tait ('99) and Victor Riley ('98), two-time Pro Bowl tight end Tony Gonzalez ('97) and four-year starting free safety Jerome Woods ('96).

In '93, it was Peterson who pulled the trigger on the trade with the 49ers that brought Hall of Fame quarterback Joe Montana to Kansas City, marking the only time he had dealt a number one draft choice prior acquiring QB Trent Green from St. Louis this season. The same year he acquired Montana, Peterson also made one of the best acquisitions in the history of unrestricted free agency, signing another future Hall of Famer, running back Marcus Allen. Over the years, Peterson's free agent acquisitions have been many, including the Chiefs past six Most Valuable Players, a list which includes current Kansas City performers WR Derrick Alexander (2000) and LB Marvcus Patton ('99). In addition, Peterson continues to explore crafty trade opportunities, such as the ones which landed Green this year and the deal which brought highly-productive K Pete Stoyanovich from Miami in '96.

In total, the Chiefs have produced 46 Pro Bowlers during Peterson's 12-year tenure with the club, 14 more than the club tallied in the 12 years prior to his arrival. Peterson first displayed his knack for discovering and developing young players long before he came to Kansas City, though. His reputation as one of football's top executives began in '77 as Director of Player Personnel of the Eagles.

After his rapid success in the NFL personnel ranks, Peterson was the man selected to build the Philadelphia Stars when the United States Football League was launched in July of '82. As the franchise's President and General Manager, he proceeded to assemble the most successful team in the league's three-year existence, capturing the USFL title the final two seasons. The Stars 48-13-1 overall record during regular (41-12-1) and postseason play (7-1) was easily the finest of any USFL club. His efforts were rewarded in '83 and '84, when he was named The Sporting News' "USFL Executive of the Year."

A '66 graduate of UCLA, Peterson began his coaching career as an assistant at two Southern California high schools, Wilson High in '66 and Loyola High in '67-68. He entered the collegiate ranks at Cal-State at Sonoma in '69, then was named head coach in '70. He returned to his alma mater in '72, where he served as the Bruins receivers coach under Pepper Rodgers for two years, then remained on the staff as receivers coach and administrative assistant to Vermeil when he became the school's head coach in '74.

Peterson serves on the National Boards for the Maxwell Football Club and Pop Warner Little Scholars Organization. He serves as the Chairman of the Board of Trustees for Pop Warner and is a member of the International World President's Organization. He also serves on the Board of The Third and Long Foundation, which was founded by the late Derrick Thomas. The Greater Kansas City Sports Commission presented Peterson with the '98 Special Achievement Award for Professional Athletics. Other honors Peterson have received include the '97 Pop Warner Award for Contributions to Football, the '98 Reds Bagwell Award for Outstanding Achievements in Football and the 2001 Pro Football Executive Award, presented by the All-American Football Foundation. Peterson also serves on the following NFL's Committees: College and Pro Relations, NFL Europe League Working Executives and the Youth Football Funding Board. Spearheaded by the efforts and example of Peterson and his wife, Lori, the Chiefs organization (players, coaches and front office staff) raised a team-record net of $1.94 million for local charities in 2000.

Peterson grew up in Long Beach, California, and attended both the U.S. Military Academy in West Point and UCLA. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Kinesiology from UCLA in '66, a Master's Degree in Kinesiology in '67 and later earned a Doctorate in Administration in Higher Education at UCLA in '70. He is married to the former Lori Larson of Kansas City, who is an interior design architect with H.O.K. Sports Architects. The Petersons make their home in the historic Country Club Plaza district of Kansas City, Missouri. Carl has one daughter Dawn Peterson Curlewis, who lives in Edinburgh with her Scottish-born husband, Graham.

ADMINISTRATION

DENNIS THUM

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/ ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Dennis Thum, who has played a major role in the Kansas City Chiefs front office the past 28 years, has been the club's Assistant General Manager since '89. In February of '96, he added the role of Executive Vice President to his Assistant GM duties. Thum assists Carl Peterson, the team's President, General Manager and Chiefs Executive Officer, in overseeing the football side of the Chiefs operation.

"Denny Thum is the unsung hero of this organization," noted Peterson. "Without Denny, there are many things we would not have been able to accomplish. He's invaluable to me."

The 49-year-old Thum is heavily involved in the preparation of the entire football budget, is active in the negotiations of all player contracts, monitors the salary cap, and services the coaching staff, player personnel staff, trainers, as well as the club's equipment and video staffs. He is also in charge of all training camp operations and coordinates the team's travel. In a '97 USA Today story, Thum was named one of the NFL's top 11 salary cap managers in a poll of league administrators.

Thum held the position of Assistant to the General Manager from '84 to '88, and was promoted to his current position shortly after Peterson's arrival in Kansas City 12 years ago. He served as the club's Director of Accounting in '83 and Chief Accountant in '82. The St. Louis, Missouri, native joined the Chiefs as a staff accountant in '74, the same year he graduated from Rockhurst College in Kansas City.

Born November 14, 1951, Denny and his wife, Carmen, live in Kansas City, Missouri, with their two daughters, Megan and Lindsay.

DENNIS WATLEY

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT

Dennis Watley, now in his 12th year with the Chiefs, was promoted to the post of Senior Vice President in March of '99 after serving three years as the club's Vice President of Administration. Watley oversees the team's sales, marketing, advertising, promotions, data processing, development and stadium operations of the Chiefs and the Kansas City Wizards soccer team.

He joined the club in '90 as Director of Sales and Marketing and was promoted to Vice President of Marketing in '95 and Vice President of Administration in '96. Under Watley's direction, the Chiefs have been become a model for all pro sports franchises in virtually every area. Kansas City has been the AFC's home attendance leader the past seven seasons and has led the entire NFL in home attendance six of the past seven seasons. Last year, the Chiefs extended their string of consecutive regular season and playoff sellouts at Arrowhead Stadium to 84 games. Watley has also been instrumental in developing the club's VIP tent and corporate tailgate parties, as well as the Pavilion at Arrowhead which opened in 2000, elements which have all added to the Chiefs already enjoyable pre-game atmosphere.

Over the past 11 seasons, the Chiefs have emerged as one of the best-run franchises in sports, and NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue has stated that the Chiefs game production and overall football atmosphere is "the best in the NFL."

For 16 years prior to joining the Chiefs, the 53-year-old Watley was employed by National Steel Service Centers, a one-billion-dollar metals distribution company serving eight states in the Midwest. He left National Steel in 1985 as President of the Midwest Division and joined D.W. Newcomer's Sons in Kansas City.

A native of Kansas City, Missouri, Watley attended William Jewell College on an athletic scholarship, majoring in Business and Marketing, with additional studies in Iowa and Houston, Texas. Dennis and his wife, Carolyn, have four children - Shelby, Lori, Matt and Ellen. The Watleys reside in Lee's Summit, Missouri.

HEAD COACH

DICK VERMEIL

A new crusade was officially initiated on January 12, 2001 when Chiefs President Carl Peterson named Dick Vermeil as the ninth head coach in the illustrious 42-year history of the Chiefs football franchise. The beginning of the Vermeil era in Kansas City has marked what has thus far been one of the most exciting chapters in Kansas City football history.

With a deal consummated to bring Vermeil out of a one-year coaching hiatus after winning Super Bowl XXXIV with the St. Louis Rams, Peterson and the Chiefs head coach have finally been fully reunited in Kansas City, bringing full-circle a working relationship which dates back some 27 years. While some questioned why Vermeil would come out of retirement for a second time, in the eyes of this championship-winning coach, the motivation was crystal clear.

"Personal relationships are motivating to me," Vermeil said upon accepting his third NFL head coaching post. "And that was truly the case in this situation. I really feel this was sort of inevitable. Sooner or later, it was probably going to happen that Carl and I would be back together again, rejoined to initiate a new crusade. Every time we've done it, we've been successful."

Successful, indeed.

If history repeats itself for Peterson and Vermeil in Kansas City, Chiefs fans everywhere could enjoy the results of this latest "crusade." In their two previous "crusades," Peterson and Vermeil unquestionably forged a winning combination. While the teams, the years and the uniforms have changed, the commitment and trust shared by this dynamic football duo has never wavered. Whether it was upsetting #1 ranked Ohio State 23-10 in the Rose Bowl following the '75 college season or resurrecting a long-dormant Philadelphia Eagles franchise to claim the '80 NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XV, Peterson and Vermeil's gridiron triumphs have been well-documented.

That strong personal bond and history of past successes easily explains why Vermeil was Peterson's top choice for the Chiefs head coaching job, not only in 2001, but dating back to '89 when Peterson originally came to Kansas City to steer the franchise's fortunes.

"When I came to the Chiefs over 12 years ago, there was only one individual I wanted to hire as the head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs, Dick Vermeil," Peterson observed. "So it is with a great deal of pleasure that after 12 years I have finally been able to accomplish what I set out to do at that time. I'm not concerned about my bias - and I am biased - but I firmly believe that Dick Vermeil is the premier football coach in the entire National Football League."

Revered is perhaps not too strong a term to describe the level of esteem Vermeil has earned, not only from the likes of NFL executives such as Peterson, but also from his peers in the coaching profession. Unquestionably one of the finest innovators and motivators the game has ever known, Vermeil's one-of-a-kind style has truly stood the test of time. Whether it was coaching championship football and swimming teams as a young high school coach in California, re-establishing UCLA as a national football powerhouse during his collegiate days, or reaching the highest echelon of the pro football profession by coaching a club to a Super Bowl championship, there's been virtually no challenge Vermeil hasn't stepped up to during his illustrious career.

The national respect for Vermeil truly transcends football. In fact, it eclipses the sports world entirely. In addition to his impressive litany of accomplishments as a coach, he has served as a widely-acclaimed broadcaster and has long been a highly-coveted motivational speaker. Whether it means delivering an important pregame speech to an NFL locker room, providing color commentary to a national television audience or inspiring employees of America's most prestigious Fortune 500 companies, Vermeil has filled the bill with precision, wit and a reverberating passion.

It is precisely that passion, particularly his passion for coaching the NFL's finest athletes which Vermeil pinpoints as perhaps the biggest purpose behind his return to the coaching ranks with Kansas City. Yet even though he is just one of 19 NFL head coaches ever to claim a Super Bowl ring - joining Hank Stram as the only other Chiefs head coach to own that distinction - Vermeil approaches his present challenge with little bravado, much humility and a great appreciation of the individuals who fight in the trenches each and every day - his players and coaching staff.

"We're in the business for one thing, to share the responsibility for winning," Vermeil commented. "There wasn't one thing that went on in the Rams organization that I didn't have my hands on, yet I didn't call a single play in Super Bowl XXXIV. I didn't even call a single play that entire season.

"I have my number one obligation defined," he continued. "That is to provide talented, talented athletes to a very talented coaching staff in the frame of mind to be coached. And if they don't want to be coached and if they don't want to be worked, they probably won't stay here.

"My number two objective will be to build an environment within this building that makes it exciting for everybody to come to work and feel important and be a part of it. I'm not the most important person. To me, the most important people are your players and your coaching staff, your assistant coaches. They have their hands on the product - the players - each and every day."

When Vermeil puts his talented hands on the Chiefs for the start of the 2001 regular season, it will mark the start of a quest to become the only head coach in NFL history to lead three separate teams to the Super Bowl. He is currently just one of four coaches in NFL history to lead two different teams to the "Big Game," joining the illustrious likes of Bill Parcells (Giants and Patriots), Dan Reeves (Broncos and Falcons) and Don Shula (Colts and Dolphins). Vermeil was granted entry into that elite group after leading St. Louis to a win in Super Bowl XXXIV following the '99 season. He also guided Philadelphia to an appearance in Super Bowl XV at the conclusion of the '80 season.

Vermeil is just one of four active NFL head coaches (Mike Shanahan - Denver, Mike Holmgren - Seattle and George Seifert - Carolina) who have guided a club to a Super Bowl victory. However, he becomes the third member of that elite fraternity who is currently coaching in the NFL's toughest division since '90 - the AFC West.

The Northern California native returns to the NFL in 2001 after announcing his retirement from the St. Louis Rams on February 1st of 2000. During his one-year hiatus from the coaching profession, Vermeil's schedule would indicate "retirement" was the furthest thing from his mind. In the over 11 months spanning his departure from the Rams and his arrival in Kansas City, he was honored at no less than 16 award banquets. In addition, he orated at 60 separate speaking engagements and appeared at 33 different charity functions.

Nineteen years after winning the NFL Coach of the Year honor for the initial time with the '80 Philadelphia Eagles, Vermeil was once again honored as the NFL's Coach of the Year following the '99 season with St. Louis. Not surprisingly, Vermeil was a hot commodity on the banquet circuit following St. Louis' Super Bowl victory, receiving other "Coach of the Year" honors from virtually every major event in the country, including Kansas City's own "101 Banquet", as well as the Maxwell Club, the ESPYs, the Columbus Touchdown Club, the Victor Awards and the NFL Alumni Association. Vermeil was also a consensus "Coach of the Year" pick among pro football publications in '99, including Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly, USA Today, Football News, Football Digest, as well as College and Pro Football Newsweekly.

That plethora of well-deserved accolades came following a remarkable '99 campaign with the Rams which culminated with a thrilling 23-16 victory vs. Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV on January 30th of 2000. Vermeil's '99 Rams produced a 13-3 regular season record, winning those 13 contests by an average margin of 22.9 points per game. In 11 of those games, the Rams topped the 30-point barrier. St. Louis contained its opponents to 21 points or less in all 13 of their wins as Vermeil guided the Rams to their first-ever Super Bowl victory and their first appearance in the NFL's title game since the club lost to Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XIV following the '79 season.

Despite losing current Kansas City signal-caller Trent Green to a season-ending injury in the preseason, an unheralded former Arena League and NFL Europe quarterback named Kurt Warner emerged to lead St. Louis to the NFL's promised land. Warner enjoyed one the most prolific seasons in NFL history in '99, completing 325 of 499 passes for 4,353 yards with 41 touchdowns and just 13 interceptions, good for a remarkable 109.2 passer rating. While Vermeil was unquestionably the season's most decorated coach, Warner was the league's most honored player, taking home both the NFL Most Valuable Player and Super Bowl MVP trophies.

While Vermeil takes over a Chiefs squad which is unquestionably further along than the teams he inherited in St. Louis and Philadelphia, there is little doubt his talent made an immediate impact on those two franchises, both of which had gone significant stretches without enjoying success on the playing field.

After a taking a 14-year sabbatical from the coaching profession from '83-96, Vermeil returned to the league as President of Football Operations and head coach of the St. Louis Rams on January 22nd of '97. Vermeil took over a St. Louis team which had suffered seven consecutive losing seasons and hadn't been to the postseason since '88. In just his third season as head coach of that club in '99, he guided the Rams to a franchise-best regular season 13-3 record and the lone Super Bowl victory in that team's history.

In '76, Vermeil inherited a Philadelphia squad which had not produced a winning season since '66. In just his third season with the club in '78, he landed the Eagles in the playoffs for the first time since '61, earning NFC Coach of the Year for his efforts. After leading Philadelphia to a franchise-best 12-4 record in '80 and taking the team on a trip to Super Bowl XV, he was named NFL Coach of the Year for the first time, a feat he later repeated with the Rams.

Vermeil enters his 11th season as an NFL head coach in 2001, after producing a 76-73 regular season record in his 10 previous campaigns. He went 22-26 with the St. Louis Rams ('97-99) and produced a 54-47 record with the Eagles ('76-82). He boasts a 6-4 career postseason record, including a perfect 3-0 mark during the '99 campaign with the Rams giving him an overall NFL record of 82-77 (.516). In total, Vermeil will embark on his 15th season as an NFL coach after originally entering the league with the L.A. Rams in '69.

In addition to being reunited with Peterson - as well as a host of former Rams players and coaches in Kansas City - Vermeil will also join forces once again with another longtime associate, Chiefs Vice President of Football Operations/Player Personnel Lynn Stiles in 2001. The relationship shared by the football trinity of Peterson, Vermeil and Stiles dates back to '74 when Vermeil was named the head coach at UCLA. Peterson served as receivers coach and an administrative assistant, while Stiles served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator.

In '76, Vermeil was named head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles, while Peterson served as the club's receivers, tight ends coach and administrative assistant to the head coach. In '77, Peterson was named Philadelphia's Director of Player Personnel and became the man chiefly responsible for the acquisition of talent for Vermeil. Just one year later in '78 the duo of Peterson and Vermeil helped lead the Eagles to their first playoff appearance in 18 seasons and landed the club in the Super Bowl in '80.

In six seasons together with the Eagles from '76-81, Peterson and Vermeil combined to engineer four playoff appearances. Stiles rejoined the trio in '79 as the Eagles tight ends coach and special teams coordinator. The highlight of that four-year playoff run came just one year later when Philadelphia claimed its first division title since the club won the NFL Championship in '60. The Eagles proceeded to win the '80 NFC Championship Game and advanced to Super Bowl XV in January of '81.

After spending seven seasons ('76-82) with Philadelphia, Vermeil retired from coaching during an emotional farewell speech on January 10th of '83. He finished his Eagles career as the second-winningest head coach in that franchise's history, compiling a 54-47 (.535) record. Only Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Earl "Greasy" Neale produced more victories, getting 66 wins as the Eagles head coach from '41-50. In an ironic twist, Vermeil received the Earle "Greasy" Neale Trophy for his efforts with the Rams in '99, an honor bestowed annually by Philadelphia's Maxwell Club.

Vermeil didn't stray far from the gridiron when he left the Eagles, though. Shortly after departing the sidelines, he began a 14-year broadcasting career, serving as an NFL and college football analyst for CBS and ABC from '83-96. In addition to his national television work, Vermeil was a fixture at Chiefs training camp in River Falls. When he declined the opportunity to become Kansas City's head coach in '89, Peterson did convince him to provide color commentary for the Chiefs preseason television broadcasts from '89-96, working with play-by-play men Roger Twibell and Gary Bender.

Owning many distinctions during his football career, two of the most interesting involve his involvement with the Rose Bowl. In addition to being the only head coach to lead his team to victories in both the Super Bowl and the Rose Bowl, he is also the only individual to coach a team in the Rose Bowl and later broadcast a Rose Bowl contest.

In addition, Vermeil owns the rare distinction of being named "Coach of the Year" on four levels: high school, junior college, NCAA Division I and the NFL. He began his coaching career at San Jose's Del Mar High School in '59 and received his initial head coaching assignment at Hillsdale High School in San Mateo, California in '60. After a one-year stint as an assistant at San Mateo College, he produced an 8-1 mark in his lone season as the head coach at Napa Junior College before entering the Division I ranks.

Vermeil began his NCAA Division I coaching tenure at Stanford from '65-68 working under head coach John Ralston. That star-studded staff included six future NFL head coaches: Vermeil (Philadelphia '76-82, St. Louis '97-99, Kansas City 2001); Ralston (Denver '72-76); Bill Walsh (San Francisco '79-88), Jim Mora (New Orleans '86-96, Indianapolis '98-01) and Rod Rust (New England '90), as well as longtime associate, friend and current Chiefs Director of Football Administration Mike White (Oakland '95-96).

He entered the pro ranks in '69 when he was designated as the first special teams coach in NFL history working for the L.A. Rams working under George Allen. After a one-year stint on Tommy Prothro's staff as offensive coordinator at UCLA in '70, he moved with Prothro back to the Rams, where he served as offensive coordinator from '71-72. He then coached running backs and special teams for Rams head coach Chuck Knox in '73 before taking over the head coaching reigns at UCLA the following year. He compiled a 15-5-3 (.717) record in two seasons as head coach at UCLA ('74-75), including a 9-2-1 record in '75 when Vermeil led the Bruins to their first Pac 8 Championship.

During his many years in the Philadelphia area - where his family still maintains a residence - Vermeil has found the time to help many worthy causes, making an immediate impact on those around him. Numerous Philadelphia-area organizations have benefited from his involvement including: The Mary Campbell Center, The Second Mile Center and The Boy Scouts of Chester County, whose 2000 golf tournament which bore Vermeil's name earned $100,000 for the organization.

Born in Calistoga, California at the northern end of the world-renowned Napa Valley in the heart of wine country, Vermeil was a four-sport star at Calistoga High School and was also employed in the auto repair garage of his father, Louis Vermeil. The younger Vermeil applied that work ethic learned in "The Garage" for one season at Napa Junior College, before moving on to San Jose State. He graduated from San Jose State with degrees in physical education (B.A. '58, M.A. '59) after serving as a collegiate quarterback for the Spartans. In 2000, he was inducted into the San Jose State Hall of Fame. True to his Napa Valley roots, Vermeil is scheduled to release a vintage of his own self-proclaimed "Garage Cabernet" in the near future.

Vermeil and his wife, Carol (the former Carolyn Drake) have three children and 11 grandchildren. Their son Rick and his wife Colleen are parents of grandchildren Kelly, Rick, Michael and Megan. Their son Dave and his wife Janet are parents of grandchildren Jack, Amy and Andy. Their daughter Nancy and her husband Steve Barnett are parents of grandchildren James, Tommy, Stevie and Christopher.

The Vermeils make their home in the historic Country Club Plaza district of Kansas City, Missouri. When not in Kansas City, the entire Vermeil family enjoys spending time and working on "The Ranch," a 114-acre homestead located outside Philadelphia in rural Chester County, Pennsylvania.

- Is one of just four coaches in NFL history to lead two different teams to the Super Bowl - Bill Parcells, Dan Reeves and Don Shula are the others.
- Is one of just four active coaches to guide a team to a Super Bowl victory - Mike Shanahan, Mike Holmgren and George Seifert are the others.
- Relationship with Chiefs President Carl Peterson and Vice President of Football Operations/Player Personnel Lynn Stiles dates back to '74 when Vermeil was the head coach at UCLA. Peterson and Stiles were both members of the Bruins coaching staff.
- During Vermeil's stint as head coach of the Eagles from '76-82, Peterson served as receivers and tight ends coach in '76 before assuming the role as Director of Player Personnel from '77-81. Stiles coached special teams for Vermeil from '76, '79-81 and then took over as Philadelphia's Director of Player Personnel in '82 when Peterson departed to head the USFL's Philadelphia Stars.
- Has been named "Coach of the Year" at four different levels - high school, junior college, NCAA Division I and has earned the honor twice in the NFL.
- Is the only head coach to lead teams to victories in both the Super Bowl and the Rose Bowl.
- Named NFC Coach of the Year in '78 after guiding Philadelphia to a 9-7 record and a Wild Card berth. It marked the Eagles first winning season since '66.
- Named NFL Coach of the Year in '80 after leading the Philadelphia Eagles to a franchise-best 12-4 record and a berth in Super Bowl XV.
- Nineteen years after initially winning the award, Vermeil was once again named NFL Coach of the Year in '99 after leading the St. Louis Rams to a franchise-best 13-3 record and a victory in Super Bowl XXXIV over Tennessee.
- Is the second-winningest head coach in Philadelphia Eagles history, compiling a 54-47 (.535) record with that club from '76-82. Only Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Earl "Greasy" Neale produced more victories, getting 66 wins as the Eagles head coach from '41-50.
- Produced a 22-26 (.458) regular season record with the St. Louis Rams from '97-99 and was 3-0 in playoff action with the Rams.
- Owns a 6-4 career playoff record as an NFL head coach, going 3-0 with the Rams and 3-4 with the Eagles.
- Originally entered the NFL in '69 with the L.A. Rams and was designated as the league's first special teams coach.
- Compiled a 15-5-3 (.717) record in two seasons as head coach at UCLA ('74-75), including a 9-2-1 record in '75 when Vermeil led the Bruins to their first Pac 8 Championship. UCLA made its first Rose Bowl appearance in 10 years as the Bruins upset #1 ranked Ohio State 23-10.
- Served as an assistant coach on head coach John Ralston's staff at Stanford from '65-68 that included six future NFL head coaches: Vermeil (Philadelphia '76-82, St. Louis '97-99, Kansas City 2001); Ralston (Denver '72-76); Bill Walsh (San Francisco '79-88), Mike White (Oakland '95-96), Jim Mora (New Orleans '86-96, Indianapolis '98-present) and Rod Rust (New England '90).
- Served as the head coach of the freshman team at Stanford in '65, posting a 4-0 record.
- Produced an 8-1 (.889) record in one season as head coach at Napa Junior College in Napa, California.
- Compiled a 17-9-1 (.648) record in his first head coaching job at Hillsdale High School in San Mateo, California from '60-62.
- Served as a television analyst for NFL and college football broadcasts by CBS and ABC from '83-96.
- Served as a color analyst for Kansas City Chiefs preseason television broadcasts from '89-96, working with play-by-play men Roger Twibell and Gary Bender.
- Is the only individual to coach a team in the Rose Bowl and broadcast a Rose Bowl.
- Has never coached a regular season game at Arrowhead Stadium. His only regular season meeting against the Chiefs came as head coach of the St. Louis Rams in '97 when Kansas City defeated St. Louis 28-20 at the Trans World Dome.
- Has defeated the N.Y. Giants more times (13) than any other NFL team. The Chiefs and Giants are scheduled to meet at Arrowhead in the 2001 regular season.
- Has faced every current NFL team in the regular season except Jacksonville. Kansas City will travel to face the Jaguars in the 2001 regular season.

COACHING STAFF

MIKE WHITE

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

13TH NFL SEASON (1ST WITH CHIEFS)

Mike White enters his 13th NFL campaign and his first season with the Chiefs as the club's Director of Football Administration. Owning 41 years of football expertise as a coach, a talent evaluator and an administrator, White will oversee numerous aspects of the Chiefs day-to-day football operation, working under the direction of head coach Dick Vermeil.

White and Vermeil are united for the third time during their careers in Kansas City. From '97-99, White served as assistant head coach with St. Louis under Vermeil where the tandem was responsible for helping resurrect a franchise which had not produced a winning season since '89. The culmination of those efforts came in '99 when the Rams went 13-3 and claimed a win in Super Bowl XXXIV. Prior to their association with the Rams, the duo had previously worked together as assistant coaches for Stanford from '65-68.

Before joining the Rams, White spent seven years coaching with the Oakland Raiders ('90-96), including two seasons as that club's head coach, compiling a 15-17 record from '95-96. The Berkeley, California native began his tenure with the Raiders as the club's quarterbacks coach from '90-92 and coached the offensive line from '93-94. The Raiders reached the playoffs in three of those five seasons, including an appearance in the '91 AFC Championship Game. Prior to joining the Raiders, White worked closely with former Dallas Cowboys President Tex Schramm from '88-89 to form the World League of American Football (now NFL Europe), which has grown into a valuable developmental league for the NFL.

In total, White owns 16 years of head coaching expertise, including collegiate head coaching posts at the University of Illinois ('80-87) and the University of California ('72-77). A two-time National Coach of the Year, White compiled a 47-38-3 record and three bowl appearances in eight years with the Fighting Illini. In '81 he led Illinois to its first winning record since '74 with a 7-4 mark after inheriting a team which had recorded just one winning season in its prior 14 campaigns. He then took the school to its first bowl appearance in 18 years the following season with a berth in the Liberty Bowl. His '83 squad was among the best in Illinois history, reaching the Rose Bowl and climbing to a Number 10 final AP ranking with a 10-2 record. The school also set a Big Ten record by becoming the first team ever to defeat all nine conference opponents as White earned Coach of the Year honors following the '83 campaign.

White began his NFL coaching career with San Francisco, spending two years as offensive line coach and administrative assistant to Pro Football Hall of Fame head coach Bill Walsh from '78-79. Before joining the 49ers, White spent 20 of his 28 seasons in college football in the state of California. He spent 12 years at his alma mater of the University of California, where he served as head coach from '72-77, posting a 35-30-1 record in six seasons at the helm of the Golden Bears. In '75 he was named Coach of the Year by The Sporting News following an 8-3 season in which Cal won the school's first Pac 8 championship. White originally launched his coaching career at Cal as a graduate assistant in '58, was elevated to freshmen coach in '59 and was a wide receivers coach from '60-63.

He left Berkeley for rival Stanford in '64 and served as offensive coordinator for eight seasons under John Ralston. The Stanford staff at the time included such future NFL coaches as Ralston, Vermeil, Walsh, Jim Mora and Rod Rust. With White directing the offense and Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett at quarterback, Stanford won consecutive Pac 8 titles and posted back-to-back Rose Bowl victories in '70 and '71.

A noted developer of quarterbacks in the collegiate ranks, White's many pupils included the likes of Plunkett, Don Bunce and Bob Moore (Stanford); Steve Bartkowski, Vince Ferragamo, Joe Roth and Rich Campbell (California); Dave Wilson, Tony Eason, Jack Trudeau and Jeff George (Illinois).

White participated in four sports as an undergraduate at Cal. He played offensive end on the football team from '55-57 and was team captain as a senior. He also captained the rugby team while earning three letters in that sport and competed in the decathlon, hurdles and long jump for the Cal track team. In addition, White played guard on the Golden Bears basketball team under legendary coach Pete Newell.

Coaching Career: University of California 1958-63, 1972-77 (head coach); Stanford University 1964-71; San Francisco 49ers 1978-79; University of Illinois 1980-87 (head coach); Los Angeles/Oakland Raiders 1990-96 (head coach '95-96); St. Louis Rams 1997-99. Education: University of California (B.S. '58). Born: January 4, 1936 in Berkeley, California. Family: Wife - Marilyn. The Whites have three children and four grandchildren. Their daughter Carrie and her husband Scott Chantos are parents of grandchildren Hannah (7) and Noah (4). Their son Matt and his wife Julie are the parents of grandchildren Harrison (2) and Dylan (1). Their son Chris is single.

AL SAUNDERS

ASST. HEAD COACH/OFF. COORDINATOR

19TH NFL SEASON (11TH WITH CHIEFS)

Regarded as one of the most accomplished offensive minds in all of football with experience as both a head coach and offensive coordinator, Al Saunders returns to Kansas City under Dick Vermeil as the Chiefs assistant head coach/offensive coordinator in 2001. Saunders enters his 32nd season in the coaching ranks, his 19th year in the NFL and his 11th campaign coaching with Kansas City. He previously served a 10-year stint as assistant head coach/wide receivers coach with the Chiefs under head coach Marty Schottenheimer from '89-98. During that 10-year span, he was part of a Chiefs coaching staff which helped guide Kansas City to three AFC West titles and seven playoff berths.

Saunders spent the last two seasons with St. Louis where he coached wide receivers and also served as associate head coach in 2000. During that two-year span, Saunders helped revitalize a Rams offense which helped the club steamroll its way to a 13-3 regular season record in '99 and a 23-16 triumph over the Tennessee Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV. Owning an energetic and hands-on style, Saunders hopes to invigorate the Kansas City offense in much the same way he did in St. Louis.

Presiding over high-flying offenses is nothing new for this veteran coach. In 2000, Saunders was part of a St. Louis coaching staff which helped the Rams continue the offensive onslaught the club began a year earlier. The Rams scored 540 points, good for an average of 33.8 points per game, the third-highest single-season total in NFL history. The club also led the league with an NFL-record 442.2 yards of total offense per game and paced the NFL in passing offense (327.0 ypg) for the second straight season, setting another league record in the process. St. Louis amassed 7,075 yards of total offense and 5,232 passing yards, breaking the previous marks established by the '84 Miami Dolphins.

En route to their World Championship in '99, the Rams paced the NFL with 6,412 yards of total offense, good for a remarkable 400.8 ypg average. St. Louis also led the league in passing offense with 272.1 yards per game and topped the NFL in scoring by averaging 32.9 points per contest. The 526 total points amassed by the '99 squad ranked as the fourth-highest tally in NFL annals.

The St. Louis receiving corps under the direction of Saunders was responsible for a large portion of those record-setting numbers. WR Isaac Bruce made the Pro Bowl in each of his seasons working with Saunders and led the Rams a year ago with 87 receptions, while garnering 1,471 yards and nine touchdowns. WR Torry Holt had a breakout year under Saunders' tutelage in 2000, leading the league in receiving yards (1,635) and yards per catch (19.9) while earning his first Pro Bowl appearance after grabbing 82 receptions and scoring six TDs. Holt also tied Denver's Rod Smith for the NFL lead with 30 catches of 20 or more yards while Bruce had 24.

WR Az-Zahir Hakim also made significant progress during Saunders' stay in St. Louis. After producing just 20 catches for 247 yards and one score as a rookie in '98, he quickly upped those totals to 36 receptions for 677 yards and eight TDs in his initial season under Saunders in '99. Hakim continued to flourish in 2000, grabbing 53 balls for 734 yards and four TDs.

Bruce, Holt and Hakim join a stellar list of receivers tutored by Saunders, a group that includes Pro Football Hall of Famers Charlie Joiner, Lynn Swann and Kellen Winslow. In Kansas City, Saunders is reunited with Joiner, who he coached in San Diego. Joiner later served as receivers coach on Saunders staff with the Chargers when he became head coach and will once again work under Saunders, coaching the Chiefs wide receivers in 2001.

Before initially joining the Chiefs in '89, the 51-year-old Saunders served as head coach of San Diego from the midpoint of the '86 season through the '88 campaign. He guided the club to an 8-7 record in '87, which was the team's first winning season in five years. Under his direction in during the '87 campaign the Chargers won eight straight games, the club's longest winning streak in 26 seasons. He joined the Chargers in '83 as receivers coach in what was one of the most exiting and prolific pass offenses in NFL history. Behind Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Fouts and the Chargers electrifying receiving corps coached by Saunders, San Diego set numerous team records and led the league in passing yardage in '83 and '85.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Southern California ('70-71), he then coached receivers at Missouri ('72), before heading the offensive backfield at Utah State ('73-75). He was an assistant head coach, quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator at the University of California from '76-81, leading an offense that set 32 national, conference, and school records. In '82, he served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the legendary Johnny Majors at the University of Tennessee.

Born in London, England, he was one of only four foreign-born head coaches in NFL history after becoming a naturalized U.S. citizen in '60. A four-year starter, team captain, and Academic All-America pick as a wide receiver and defensive back at San Jose State ('66-69), Saunders is enshrined in the school's Hall of Fame. As recipient of California's State Graduate Fellowship for Academic Excellence, he earned a Master's degree in education from Stanford University and was a doctoral candidate in athletic administration and sports management at USC.

Saunders has been recognized in Who's Who in America and was awarded California's prestigious Golden State Award for community leadership and service in '89. A former All-America swimmer and national record holder, Saunders is also an accomplished distance runner. In '96, he competed in the Kansas City and Los Angeles Marathons, as well as the 100th running of the Boston Marathon and was also crowned the Road Runners Club of America's (R.R.C.A.) Masters 5K National Champion.

Coaching Career: University of Southern California 1970-71; University of Missouri 1972; Utah State University 1973-75; University of California 1976-81; University of Tennessee 1982; San Diego Chargers 1983-88 (head coach 1986-88); Kansas City Chiefs 1989-98; St. Louis Rams 1999-00; rejoined Chiefs in 2001. Education: Stanford (M.A. '70), San Jose State (B.A. '69). Born: February 1, 1947 in London, England. Family: Wife - Karen; Children - sons Bob and Joe, and daughter Kori, who plays soccer at the University of Nebraska.

GREG ROBINSON

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

12TH YEAR NFL COACH (1ST WITH CHIEFS)

Respected as one of the most talented defensive tacticians in the game today, Greg Robinson brings seven years of expertise as a defensive coordinator to the Chiefs in 2001. Entering his 12th year in the NFL and his 26th season in the coaching profession, the 49-year-old Robinson comes to Kansas City after a six-year stint ('95-00) as defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos.

Robinson built his reputation in Denver by turning a struggling defense into a championship contender. After inheriting a club which ranked last in total defense in '94, Robinson made an immediate impact in his first season with the club, as the Broncos finished the '95 campaign 15th in the same category. By '96, he had turned the club into the league's fourth-rated defensive unit and by season number three in '97, the club was on its way to its first of two straight Super Bowl triumphs.

During his stellar six-season stay in Denver, the Broncos made four playoff appearances and claimed back-to-back World Championships with wins in Super Bowls XXXII and XXXIII, making them just one of six franchises in NFL history to accomplish a Super Bowl repeat. Over that six-year span, the Broncos compiled an a 64-32 (.667) regular season record, including an NFL-best 33-15 (.688) mark against their divisional foes. Denver went 11-1 mark vs. Oakland and posted identical 9-3 ledgers against both San Diego and Seattle from '95-00. The only AFC West foe Denver had a losing record against during that span was Kansas City (4-8).

Robinson's experience, particularly against AFC West opponents, was a key factor in head coach Dick Vermeil's decision to bring the talented defensive coach to Kansas City, as well as his ability to consistently construct effective and opportunistic defensive squads. The Broncos produced a +28 turnover ratio in six seasons under Robinson and ranked in the NFL's top 10 in total defense during three of his six seasons at the club's defensive helm, finishing seventh in '99 (297.1 yards per game), fifth in '97 (291.9 ypg) and fourth in '96 (279.4 ypg).

The Broncos were among the NFL's top five teams in terms of turnover ratio three of the past four seasons. In 2000, the Broncos posted a +19 mark to rank second in the league behind only Baltimore (+23). Last season, Denver racked up 27 interceptions, just one shy of Miami's league-best total of 28. The Broncos defense was also responsible for scoring six touchdowns, the second-highest tally in team history. Five of those return scores came on interceptions, tying the team mark set by Robinson's '97 Denver squad.

Denver's defenses were also stingy in the scoring column during Robinson's reign with the Broncos, producing three top 10 rankings in the all-important scoring defense category - eighth in '98 (19.3 ppg), sixth in '97 (17.9 ppg) and seventh in '96 (17.2 ppg). The team's pass defense also ranked among the league's top 10 teams in four of Robinson's six seasons with Denver, finishing eighth in '99 (188.5 ypg), fifth in '97 (179.3 ypg), 10th in '96 (196.2 ypg) and ninth in '95 (206.1 ypg).

Most dominant defensive units typically begin with the ability to stop the run, something Robinson's units did with regularity in Denver. The Broncos run defense ranked in the league's top 10 three times during Robinson's tenure with the club. In '96, Denver led the NFL by permitting just 83.2 ground yards per game. Denver ranked third in the NFL in rushing defense in '98, allowing just 80.4 yards per game, breaking the single-season franchise record Robinson's troops had established just two years earlier. Over the final 11 games of the '98 regular season and playoffs, Denver allowed just 56.6 rushing yards per game and permitted just two individual 100-yard rushers.

The performance of Robinson's defense throughout the '98 playoffs was paramount to Denver's quest for a second straight title. The Broncos allowed opponents just 53.0 rushing yards per game in the postseason and forced a remarkable 13 turnovers in just three games, giving the Broncos an impressive +12 playoff turnover ratio. Including the +10 takeaway/giveaway ratio the club posted in the regular season, Denver boasted a +22 ratio for all of '98. In each of the Broncos first two postseason games, the defense allowed opponents a team playoff record low of 14 rushing yards. Over the course of the entire postseason, the Broncos defense allowed just 25 points, culminating with a 34-19 victory in Super Bowl XXXIII vs. Atlanta.

The Broncos defense was equally impressive in '97, when Denver won its first Super Bowl. Robinson crafted the gameplan in Super Bowl XXXII which controlled the explosive Green Bay offense, resulting in a 31-24 win. Robinson's defensive unit rose to the occasion when most challenged, limiting the Packers to an 0-of-8 showing on third and fourth down attempts.

Robinson's defenses in Denver also displayed a propensity for putting pressure on the passer. In '99, the Broncos amassed 50.0 sacks, the third-highest tally in team history and the most by the club since '92. From '97-00, Denver led the AFC with 185.0 sacks, a total which ranked third in the NFL behind only New Orleans (217.0) and St. Louis (196.0).

A number of current NFL standouts owe Robinson a debt of gratitude for his involvement in their development. During his tenure in Denver, Robinson's defense produced a host of Pro Bowl performers. Defensive tackle Trevor Pryce led the Broncos sack charge with 13.0 QB takedowns in '99 to earn his initial Pro Bowl berth and followed that up with another All-Star campaign in 2000 after posting a team-best 12.0 sacks. Robinson's '96 Denver defense produced five Pro Bowl performers, including LB Bill Romanowski, S Steve Atwater, S Tyrone Braxton, DT Michael Dean Perry and DE Alfred Williams.

Robinson joined the Broncos after a five-year stint with the N.Y. Jets ('90-94). He coached the defensive line from '90-93 and served as defensive coordinator in '94 when the Jets ranked eighth in the league by permitting just 20.0 points per game. Turnovers and a stingy run defense were also a staple of Robinson's defense at his first NFL stop. During his last four years in New York, the Jets defense forced 151 turnovers, most in the AFC and second-most in the NFL during that span. They also improved from 27th in the league in total defense in '89 to eighth in '93. New York's rush defense also showed significant improvement, jumping to a fifth-place ranking (92.1 ypg) after allowing 133.5 yards per game in '89.

The Los Angeles native spent his first 15 years of coaching in the collegiate ranks and entered the NFL after an eight-year stint at UCLA ('82-89). Robinson was a member of three Rose Bowl champion squads during his tenure with the Bruins, following the '82, '83 and '85 seasons. He joins the trio of the Chiefs President Peterson, head coach Dick Vermeil and Vice President of Football Operations Lynn Stiles as former UCLA coaches now with the Chiefs who were part of a Bruins victory in the Rose Bowl. Robinson was the Bruins defensive line coach from '82-88 before switching sides of the ball and serving as offensive coordinator in '89. He had been promoted to assistant head coach for the '90 season, but opted to join the Jets instead.

Robinson began his collegiate playing career as a linebacker at Bakersfield Community College from '70-71 before moving on to play center, tight end and linebacker at the University of the Pacific ('72-74). After earning his bachelor's degree in political science in '75, he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Pacific in '75-76. He made stops at Cal State Fullerton ('77-79) and North Carolina State ('80-81) before moving on to UCLA in '82.

Coaching Career: University of the Pacific 1975-76; California State University - Fullerton 1977-79; North Carolina State University 1980-81; University of California - Los Angeles 1982-89; New York Jets 1990-94; Denver Broncos 1995-00; joined Chiefs in 2001. Education: University of the Pacific (B.S. '75). Born: October 9, 1951 in Los Angeles, California. Family: Wife - Laura; Children – Dominic, Lindsay and Leslie Ann. Dominic plays on the football team at Washington University in St. Louis, while Lindsay plays lacrosse at the University of Denver.

IRV EATMAN

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

3RD YEAR NFL COACH (1ST WITH CHIEFS)

Owning five years of experience as a Chiefs player, Irv Eatman returns to Kansas City to make his coaching debut with the club as the team's assistant offensive line coach in 2001. Eatman spent five seasons as an offensive tackle for the Chiefs from '86-90 after originally being drafted by the club in '83.

Eatman is now in his third year as a pro coach and comes back to Kansas City to help Mike Solari tutor the Chiefs offensive front. He spent the 2000 campaign as an assistant offensive line coach with Pittsburgh after serving in the same role for Green Bay in '99. With Eatman's assistance, Pittsburgh's ground attack ranked fourth in the NFL last season averaging 140.5 yards per game, a 16.1 yards per game improvement from '99 when the Steelers ranked 10th in the league.

The 40-year-old Eatman provides a valuable resource for the Chiefs offensive line, owning 14 years of professional playing experience, including 11 seasons in the NFL. Originally drafted by Kansas City in the eighth round of the '83 NFL Draft, Eatman signed with the USFL and was a three-time All-Pro offensive tackle ('83-85) for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars where Chiefs President Carl Peterson was President/General Manager at the time.

During his three-year run with the Stars, Eatman was part of a squad which posted a league-best 48-13-1 overall record, including a remarkable 7-1 postseason mark. The Stars appeared in all three of the league's championship games and claimed the final two USFL titles in '84 and '85. In addition, Eatman was named the USFL Man of the Year for his charitable efforts following the '84 campaign.

Following his tenure in the USFL and a five-year stay in Kansas City, Eatman went on to play with the N.Y. Jets ('91-92), L.A. Rams ('93), Atlanta Falcons ('94) and Houston Oilers ('95-96). In total, the Birmingham, Alabama native played in 149 regular season NFL contests and saw postseason duty with both the Chiefs in '90 and the Jets in '91.

Eatman attended UCLA where he was a two-time Lombardi Award semi-finalist, three-time honorable mention All-America selection and a two-time All-Pac 10 pick. As a senior in '82, he played on the Bruins squad which claimed a 24-14 victory over Michigan in the Rose Bowl victory. Current Kansas City defensive coordinator Greg Robinson was also at UCLA at the time, serving as the Bruins defensive line coach.

Coaching Career: Green Bay Packers 1999; Pittsburgh Steelers 2000; joined Chiefs in 2001. Education: University of California - Los Angeles (B.A. '83). Born: January 1, 1961 in Birmingham, Alabama. Family: Wife - Maureen; Children - Joshua, Emma and Lucas.

FRANK GANSZ, JR.

SPECIAL TEAMS

3RD YEAR NFL COACH (1ST WITH CHIEFS)

Frank Gansz, Jr. enters his first season with Kansas City and will serve as the club's special teams coach. Embarking on his 14th season in the coaching profession, Gansz is in his third NFL campaign after serving a two-year stint directing Oakland's special teams from '98-99. During his tenure with the Raiders, Gansz tutored some of the league's top return threats in Desmond Howard, Darrien Gordon and Napoleon Kaufman. In '98, Howard ranked fifth in the AFC with a 12.0-yard punt return average.

The 38-year-old Gansz joined Oakland following a five-year stay at the University of Houston ('93-97) where he served as the club's tight ends and special teams coach. In '96 under Gansz the Cougars established a school single-season record for highest kickoff return average. Thanks in part to Gansz's special teams unit, Houston claimed a share of the Conference USA title while appearing in the Liberty Bowl following the '96 season.

Gansz's first job in the professional ranks came in '92 where he was the special teams coach for the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League (now NFL Europe). During his lone season with the Knights, Gansz's kickoff coverage, kickoff return and punt return units led the league as his squad tallied four special teams scores.

Prior to joining the Knights, Gansz served a pair of two-year stints at the collegiate level, coaching at both Pittsburgh ('88-89) and Army ('90-91). At Pitt, Gansz was part of a staff which helped guide the Panthers to a 31-28 victory over Texas A&M in the '89 John Hancock Bowl. Gansz broke into coaching as a graduate assistant at the University of Kansas ('87). Prior to embarking on his coaching career, Gansz was a four-year performer as a defensive back at The Citadel.

Gansz's father, Frank Sr. is entering his 24th season in the NFL coaching ranks and currently serves as the special teams coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars. The elder Gansz has twice been named the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year ('89, '99) and spent five seasons ('81-82, '86-88) on the Chiefs coaching staff, including a two-year stint ('87-88) as Kansas City's head coach. It was thanks in large part to Gansz's instruction that the Chiefs blocked or deflected an NFL-record 10 kicks in '86 as the team ended a 15-year playoff drought.

Coaching Career: University of Kansas 1987; University of Pittsburgh 1988-89; Army 1990-91; New York/New Jersey Knights 1992; University of Houston 1993-97; Oakland Raiders 1998-99; joined Chiefs in 2001. Education: The Citadel (B.A. '85). Born: August 8, 1962 in Houston, Texas. Family: Single.

PETER GIUNTA

DEFENSIVE BACKS

11TH YEAR NFL COACH (1ST WITH CHIEFS)

Beginning his 11th NFL season and his 21st year in the coaching profession overall, Peter Giunta enters his initial season as the Chiefs defensive backs coach in 2001. The 44-year-old coach joins the Chiefs after spending the past four seasons ('97-00) with St. Louis, including the last three as that club's defensive coordinator. Giunta also served as the Rams assistant head coach under Dick Vermeil in '98-99 after originally joining the Rams staff as defensive backs coach in '97.

As Rams defensive coordinator, Giunta was responsible for the resurgence in the St. Louis defense which helped spark the club's remarkable run to a World Championship in '99. Those efforts culminated with a 13-3 regular season record that year and a 23-16 victory over Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV. Giunta's unit led the league in rush defense in '99, allowing just 74.3 yards per game, while ranking sixth in total defense by permitting a mere 293.6 yards per contest.

The the Rams '99 defense led the NFC with 29 interceptions, a figure which ranked second in the NFL behind only Seattle (30). CB Todd Lyght led the way, tying for the NFL lead with six pickoffs, earning his initial Pro Bowl berth in the process. St. Louis was also opportunistic, returning nine takeaways (seven INTs and two fumbles) for touchdowns in '99. Those turnovers were due in large part to a Rams pass rush which racked up 57.0 sacks, a figure which tied Jacksonville for the league lead. That charge was headlined by Pro Bowl DE Kevin Carter, who led the NFL with 17.0 QB takedowns.

Giunta also has a reputation for getting the most out of the defensive backs under his jurisdiction and stifling opponents' passing attacks. Last season, Rams CB Dexter McCleon registered eight interceptions, a total which was surpassed only by Green Bay S Jamie Sharper, who had nine. During his first season as the Rams defensive coordinator in '98, St. Louis ranked third in the NFL in passing defense, allowing 176.9 yards per game. With Giunta serving as defensive backs coach in '97 the Rams snared 25 INTs, a figure toped only by the Giants (27). Giunta's star pupil that season was CB Ryan McNeil, who led the league with nine interceptions.

Prior to joining the Rams, Giunta spent two seasons as the defensive backs coach for the N.Y. Jets from '95-96. In his initial campaign with that club, the Jets defense led the league in pass defense (171.3 ypg). Giunta was also instrumental in the development of Jets CB Aaron Glenn, who would go on to become the only Pro Bowl corner in that club's history, getting All-Star nods in '97 and '98.

A native of Salem, Massachusetts, Giunta's first NFL coaching position came coaching defensive backs for Philadelphia from '91-94. During the '91 season, the Eagles defense ranked first in the league in passing defense (150.8 ypg), rushing defense (71.0 ypg) and total defense (221.8 ypg). That marked just the fifth time in NFL history and the first time since '75 that a single team led the league in all three of those defensive categories.

Giunta's 10 seasons in the collegiate ranks began at Penn State ('81-83). During his first year on Joe Paterno's staff, Giunta was a defensive assistant before coaching the tight ends for his final two seasons. While at Penn State, the Nittany Lions claimed the '82 National Championship with a 27-23 victory over Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. In all, Penn State would claim three bowl victories during Giunta's tenure ('82 Fiesta, '83 Sugar and '83 Aloha).

Following Penn State, Giunta moved on to Brown ('84-87) where he coached both the tight ends and wide receivers before becoming the offensive coordinator ('86-87). Giunta then moved onto Lehigh ('88-90) where he was responsible for the tight ends and wide receivers. After a four-year playing career as a defensive back and running back at Northeastern ('74-77), Giunta began his coaching career in Massachusetts where he guided Swampscott High School from '78-80.

Coaching Career: Penn State University 1981-83; Brown University 1984-87; Lehigh University 1988-1990; Philadelphia Eagles 1991-94; New York Jets 1995-96; St. Louis Rams 1997-2000; joined Chiefs in 2001. Education: Northeastern University (B.S. '79), Penn State University (M.A. '83). Born: August 11, 1956 in Salem, Massachusetts. Family: Wife – Cindy; Children – Christina, John and D.J.

CARL HAIRSTON

DEFENSIVE LINE

7TH YEAR NFL COACH (3RD WITH CHIEFS)

A familiar face in the Chiefs organization, Carl "Big Daddy" Hairston returns to Arrowhead Stadium for his second tour of duty on the Kansas City coaching staff in 2001. Entering his seventh season as an NFL defensive line coach, Hairston previously coached Kansas City's defensive front from '95-96.

The 48-year old coach rejoins the Chiefs following a four-year stint ('97-00) as the defensive line coach for St. Louis under head coach Dick Vermeil. In 2000, Hairston tutored a pair of players who each topped the double-digit sack mark, DEs Kevin Carter (10.5) and Grant Wistrom (11.0). Miami, New Orleans, Tampa Bay and Washington were the only four other clubs to boast a pair of defensive linemen with 10.0 or more QB takedowns a year ago.

During the Rams 13-3 season in '99 when the club claimed the Super Bowl XXXIV title, St. Louis tied Jacksonville for the league lead with 57.0 sacks, thanks in large part to Hairston's front four. Carter led the league with 17.0 sacks and joined teammate DT D'Marco Farr in the Pro Bowl. Behind Carter's 12.0 sacks in '98, only the N.Y. Giants (54.0), Seattle (53.0) and San Francisco (51.0) produced more sacks than St. Louis (50.0). In '97, Hairston's defensive front was anchored by DE Leslie O'Neal who produced 10.0 sacks, marking the seventh double-digit sack tally of his illustrious NFL career.

Hairston began his coaching career as the defensive line coach under then-Chiefs head coach Marty Schottenheimer in '95. In his two years on the Chiefs staff ('95-96), Hairston helped guide one of the fiercest defensive fronts in football. The Chiefs compiled a 13-3 record and won the AFC West title in '95, ranking second in the AFC and third in the NFL with 47.0 sacks. Under the watchful eye of Hairston, Kansas City DE Neil Smith lead the team with 12.0 QB takedowns to earn a Pro Bowl nod, while DT Dan Saleaumua also received a Pro Bowl invitation for his efforts.

Hairston originally joined the Chiefs in '94 as a pro scout in the club's player personnel department and also assisted with the defensive line coaching duties during training camp that season. Prior to his time in Kansas City, Hairston spent three seasons ('91-93) as a college scout for the Arizona Cardinals.

One of the finest defensive ends of his era, Hairston enjoyed a stellar 15-year pro playing career. He appeared in 224 NFL contests (184 starts), registering 1,141 tackles and 94.0 sacks. He played eight seasons in Philadelphia ('77-83), six years in Cleveland ('84-89) and one season with Arizona ('90) during his tenure in the league.

A seventh-round draft pick (191st overall) of the Philadelphia Eagles and first-year NFL head coach Dick Vermeil in '76, Hairston went on to start all eight seasons he was in Philadelphia, captaining the defense from '79-83 and racking up 100 or more tackles five straight years ('77-81). In '79, he led the Eagles and the NFC with a career-best 15.0 sacks. A year later, Hairston served as a starting defensive end for Vermeil's Eagles in Super Bowl XV against the Oakland Raiders. In total, the Martinsville, Virginia, product participated in 15 career playoff contests, including four conference championship games ('80 NFC, '86 AFC, '87 AFC and '89 AFC).

A four-year starter at linebacker and defensive end at Maryland-Eastern Shore, Hairston earned collegiate All-Conference honors on three occasions and also played one season of basketball.

Coaching Career: Kansas City Chiefs 1995-96; St. Louis Rams 1997-00; rejoined Chiefs in 2001. Education: University of Maryland Eastern Shore (B.A. '85). Born: December 15, 1952 in Martinsville, Virginia. Family: Children – Carl, Jr. and Crystal.

JEFF HURD

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

7TH YEAR NFL COACH (4TH WITH CHIEFS)

Jeff Hurd returns to the Chiefs this season for his fourth campaign as Kansas City's head strength and conditioning coach. A Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist and a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, Hurd owns 18 years of experience in the health and fitness field. He joined the Chiefs in '98 after spending the previous three seasons ('95-97) as the assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars under head coach Tom Coughlin.

In his position with the Chiefs, Hurd is responsible for overseeing one of the league's most highly-attended NFL off-season conditioning programs which puts an emphasis on not only improving strength and cardiovascular endurance, but also enhancing speed and flexibility. He also supervises the club's personalized in-season training regiment designed to maintain those off-season gains.

The 43-year-old Hurd was already a familiar face in the Chiefs weight room before joining Kansas City's coaching staff on a full-time basis in '98. He worked under the direction of former Chiefs and current Washington Redskins strength coach Dave Redding for three seasons ('90-92) as a strength and conditioning assistant during training camp and also served as an intern with the Kansas City strength coaches in '93 and '94.

Raised in Parker, Arizona, Hurd served as a four-year letterman on the Fort Hays (Kansas) State baseball squad, earning a degree in physical education in '81. He also received a master's degree in physical education from Fort Hays with an emphasis in exercise physiology in '84, the same year he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant strength coach for the Tigers. After leaving Fort Hays, Hurd served as the head strength coach for Delta State ('85-86), Western Michigan ('87-93) and Tulsa ('94), in addition to a stint as the assistant strength and conditioning tutor at Clemson ('86-87) before joining the Jaguars in '95.

Coaching Career: Fort Hays State University 1984; Delta State University 1985-86; Clemson University 1986-87; Western Michigan University 1987-93; University of Tulsa 1994; Jacksonville Jaguars 1995-97; joined Chiefs in 1998. Education: Fort Hays State University (B.S. '81), (M.S. '84). Born: April 24, 1958 in Pomona, California. Family: Wife - Kathy; Children - Eric, Austin and Audra.

CHARLIE JOINER

WIDE RECEIVERS

15TH YEAR NFL COACH (1ST WITH CHIEFS)

A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Charlie Joiner brings 32 years of expertise as an NFL player and coach to the Chiefs organization as he embarks on his first season as the club's wide receivers coach in 2001. Joiner enters his 15th year as an NFL coach after serving the previous nine seasons ('92-00) coaching wide receivers for the Buffalo Bills. During that span, Buffalo merited six playoff berths, won two AFC Championships and made appearances in Super Bowls XXVII and XXVIII with Joiner on the club's coaching staff.

Two of Joiner's star pupils during his eight-year stay in Buffalo were Eric Moulds and Andre Reed. Moulds earned a pair of Pro Bowl appearances under Joiner's guidance, getting his initial bid in '98 when he recorded 67 catches for a team-record 1,368 yards and nine TDs. In 2000, he was selected to his second Pro Bowl after breaking Reed's single-season reception record with 94 catches for 1,326 yards and five scores. Reed, who played with Buffalo from '85-99, holds Bills career records for receptions (941), receiving yards (13,095) and receiving TDs (86). He ranks second in NFL history behind only Jerry Rice in both receptions and seasons with 50 or more catches (13).

Prior to joining the Bills, Joiner served five seasons ('87-91) as the San Diego Chargers receivers coach upon concluding his playing career with the club in '86. In Kansas City he is reunited with Chiefs offensive coordinator Al Saunders, who began his NFL coaching career tutoring Joiner and rest of the Chargers wideouts in '83. Joiner succeeded Saunders as the club's receivers coach in '87 when Saunders was promoted to head coach during the midpoint of Joiner's final campaign as a player in '86.

Among the receivers tutored by Joiner in San Diego was Anthony Miller, who earned back-to-back Pro Bowl berths following the '89 and '90 seasons. Miller enjoyed one of the finest campaigns of his 10-year NFL career under Joiner in '89, hauling in 75 passes for a career-high 1,252 yards and 10 TDs for the Chargers.

An 18-year NFL playing veteran, Joiner was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '96 following a career which included stints with the Houston Oilers ('69-72), Cincinnati Bengals ('72-75) and Chargers ('76-86). He played in 239 career regular season contests, the most ever by an NFL wide receiver. He also saw action in nine career postseason contests, including the '80 and '81 AFC Championship Games. He ended his career with 750 catches for 12,146 yards (both NFL all-time records at the time) and 65 TDs. Joiner earned Pro Bowl honors following the '76, '79 and '80 seasons. He was named the Chargers Most Inspirational Player seven times and was twice honored by the City of San Diego on "Charlie Joiner Day" in '84 and '86.

Joiner produced four 1,000-yard seasons during his tenure in San Diego and topped the 70-catch barrier three straight seasons from '79-81. Part of one of the most prolific offenses in NFL history, Joiner's biggest years came in the heyday of the "Air Coryell" offense playing along with fellow Pro Football Hall of Famers QB Dan Fouts and TE Kellen Winslow, as well as fellow Pro Bowl wideouts, Wes Chandler and John Jefferson.

A native of Many, Louisiana, Joiner was a four-year letterman at Grambling from '65-68. He was selected in the fourth round of the '69 draft by Houston as a defensive back and was traded to Cincinnati midway through the '72 campaign for RBs Fred Willis and Paul Robinson. He was traded to San Diego in '76 in exchange for DE Coy Bacon. Joiner was inducted into the Louisiana Hall of Fame in '90 and was officially enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 27, 1996, becoming just the 13th post-World War II receiver to be honored in Canton.

Coaching Career: San Diego Chargers 1987-91; Buffalo Bills 1992-00; joined Chiefs in 2001. Education: Grambling State (B.A. '69). Born: October 14, 1947 in Many, Louisiana. Family: Wife - Dianne; Children - Jynaya and Kori.

BOB KARMELOWICZ

DEFENSIVE LINE

10TH YEAR NFL COACH (5TH WITH CHIEFS)

Entering his 10th season in the NFL and his 27th year overall in the coaching profession, Bob Karmelowicz begins his fifth campaign as Kansas City's defensive line coach in 2001. Prior to joining the Chiefs staff in '97, he spent three years with the Washington Redskins ('94-96) and two seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals ('92-93).

A former collegiate nose tackle, Karmelowicz brings a wealth of expertise, as well as a unique and enthusiastic style to his post. Among the many novel coaching techniques utilized by the ever-crafty Karmelowicz is an off-season training regiment which includes the use of the martial arts to enhance the footwork, hand-eye coordination and the leverage abilities of his linemen.

Thanks in large part to Karmelowicz's defensive line, the Chiefs produced 51.0 sacks in 2000, an improvement of 11.0 QB takedowns from the previous year. The Chiefs defensive line was responsible for 40.0 of those sacks, matching the total produced by the entire team in '99, an amazing feat considering the rash of injuries on the club's defensive front in 2000. Those 51.0 sacks also ranked fourth in the NFL a year ago and were the third-highest tally in Kansas City history. In Karmelowicz's previous four seasons with the club, the Chiefs produced two of the three highest sack counts in team history, totaling 54.0 sacks in '97 in addition to last year's tally of 51.0.

Karmelowicz has also earned a reputation for molding young players into productive performers. After joining the Chiefs as a rookie free agent in '98, Eric Hicks started all 16 games for the club at right defensive end in '99. Under Karmelowicz's guidance in 2000, Hicks made another substantial leap. Despite missing five starts due to a knee injury, the upstart defensive end still ranked sixth in the NFL with a team-high 14.0 sacks, the seventh-highest single-season total in Chiefs history.

In 2000, free agent DE Duane Clemons also responded to Karmelowicz's coaching, racking up a career-high 7.5 sacks despite missing four contests due to a hip injury. DT Dan Williams also registered 7.5 QB takedowns for Kansas City a year ago, while versatile six-year veteran John Browning started at every position on the defensive line during the 2000 campaign. Karmelowicz is also highly regarded for his development of former Chiefs DT Tom Barndt, who started 40 games at defensive tackle for Kansas City from '97-99 after originally being drafted by the club as an offensive line prospect in '95.

In his initial season with the Chiefs in '97, the club's revamped defensive front coached by Karmelowicz was a key element of NFL's stingiest scoring defense. The club racked up 54.0 sacks, the second-highest total in franchise history, a figure which also tied for third-best mark in the league. That pass rush was led by Williams who paced the team with a career best 10.5 sacks in just his first year with the club. The team improved in stuffing the run as well in '97, yielding just 101.3 yards per game to rank fourth in the AFC and seventh in the league.

Karmelowicz has traditionally maximized the talents at his disposal, something he has done in his previous coaching assignments. In three seasons with Washington ('94-96), he worked with the likes of tackle Sean Gilbert and defensive end Rich Owens, who led the Redskins with 11 sacks in '96, just his second pro campaign. During his three years ('89-91) coaching the defensive line at the University of Miami (Fla.), he helped produce a pair of top-three overall draft picks in Russell Maryland (first overall in '91) and Cortez Kennedy (third overall in '90). His defensive line was also a key link in a Hurricanes squad which led the nation in total defense in '89 and topped the country in scoring defense in '91.

The New Britain, Connecticut, product began his career in the professional ranks with the Cincinnati Bengals ('92-93) after spending 16 seasons on the collegiate level. Prior to his three years at Miami, Karmelowicz enjoyed stints at Massachusetts ('80), Texas-El Paso ('81), Illinois ('82-86) and Washington State ('87-88). A three-year starter and a consensus Little All-America nose tackle at the University of Bridgeport, Karmelowicz began his coaching career under Frank Kush at Arizona State in '75 and went on to spend five seasons ('75-79) with the Sun Devils.

Coaching Career: Arizona State University 1975-79; University of Massachusetts 1980; University of Texas - El Paso 1981; University of Illinois 1982-86; Washington State University 1987-88; University of Miami (Fla.) 1989-91; Cincinnati Bengals 1992-93; Washington Redskins 1994-96; joined Chiefs in 1997. Education: Arizona State University (M.A. '77); University of Bridgeport (B.A. '72). Born: New Britain, Connecticut. Family: Wife - Olga; Children - Liz, Marissa and Dave.

BILLY LONG

ASST. STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

1ST YEAR NFL COACH (1ST WITH CHIEFS)

Entering his first full season in the NFL, Billy Long will serve as the Chiefs assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2001. Long's responsibilities will be to assist Jeff Hurd in the implementation of Kansas City's year-round conditioning and training regiment. He comes to the Chiefs following a nine-year stay ('92-00) at Southern University where he served as that school's strength and conditioning coach and also coached the club's offensive line.

Prior to coming to Kansas City, Long served as a longtime consultant to the St. Louis Rams organization. He originally worked with the club as the team's minority coaching intern in '94 and served as a consultant to the club since '95, working primarily during the club's training camp held at Western Illinois University in Macomb, Illinois. His arrival in Kansas City reunites Long with Chiefs head coach Dick Vermeil, who served as the Rams head coach from '97-99.

While working with the Rams, Long became a mainstay in the locker room and was credited with initiating the "Gotta go to work!" mantra, which became a battle cry for the Rams during their Super Bowl XXXIV championship season in '99. In addition to his training camp assistance, Long frequently traveled to St. Louis to help the team prepare prior to regular season contests.

Owning 20 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level, Long spent four years serving as the strength and conditioning coordinator and coaching the offensive line at Arkansas - Pine Bluff from '87-91. A collegiate guard at Alabama State, Long began his coaching career at his alma mater in '81, serving as defensive line coach and as the club's strength and conditioning coach. From '82-86 he coached the offensive line in addition to his weight room duties with Alabama State.

Coaching Career: Alabama State University 1981-86; University of Arkansas – Pine Bluff 1987-91; Southern University 1992-00; joined Chiefs in 2001. Education: Alabama State University (B.S. '81). Born: June 23, 1959 in Phenix City, Alabama. Family: Wife – Marshall; Children - Tekia and Kyler.

KEITH ROWEN

TIGHT ENDS

18TH YEAR NFL COACH (3RD WITH CHIEFS)

Entering his 18th season in the NFL ranks and his 27th year in the coaching profession, Keith Rowen enters his third season as the Chiefs tight ends coach in 2001. Rowen came to Kansas City in '99 after spending the previous two years as the offensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders.

While Rowen has a long history of tutoring blocking skills in the NFL, he has also shown a propensity for getting pass-catching production out of the tight end position. By far the brightest pass receiver this veteran coach has tutored is Chiefs TE Tony Gonzalez, who has enjoyed the two most prolific seasons of any tight end in franchise history under Rowen's guidance.

A consensus All-Pro selection in '99, Gonzalez became the first-ever Chiefs tight end to receive a Pro Bowl invitation after catching 76 passes in '99, the second-highest total by any player in Kansas City annals. Gonzalez's 11 TD catches ranked just one shy of the franchise single-season record, as well. In 2000, Gonzalez took his game to even higher level, again earning a starting role in the Pro Bowl and consensus All-Pro honors. The fourth-year tight shattered the franchise single-season record with 93 receptions and had 1,203 yards, the most ever by a Chiefs tight end, the fourth-highest total by a tight end in NFL annals and the fourth-best mark of any player in the Kansas City books. Gonzalez also established an NFL record for tight ends in 2000 by producing six 100-yard receiving games, a mark which tied as the most ever by any Chiefs receiver.

During his two seasons with the Raiders, the 48-year-old coach helped rejuvenate Oakland's ground game, as running back Napoleon Kaufman racked up 2,215 yards those two years, including a career-high 1,294 yards in '97, while guard Steve Wisniewski earned a Pro Bowl berth under his tutelage that same year.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Rowen spent three years as an offensive line coach with the Minnesota Vikings from '94-96 and four seasons ('90-93) in that same capacity with the Atlanta Falcons. During Rowen's three-year tenure with the Vikings, guard Randall McDaniel earned All-Pro honors and started in three Pro Bowls. He was also instrumental in the development of future Vikings Pro Bowl offensive linemen Jeff Christy and Todd Steussie. In '91, Falcons tackle Chris Hinton received Pro Bowl recognition under Rowen's tutelage after receiving that same honor four straight seasons ('85-88) with Rowen serving as the offensive line/special teams coach for the Indianapolis Colts. In '90, Rowen also coached special teams for the Falcons, whose specialty units ranked as the best in the league by The Dallas Morning News. During his first stint as an NFL tight ends coach with New England in '89, Rowen helped rookie TE Eric Sievers from Maryland lead the Patriots in receiving with 54 catches.

A native of New York, New York, Rowen began his pro career as the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach for the USFL's Boston/New Orleans Breakers for two seasons ('83-84). He then entered the NFL ranks in '84 as the running backs coach for the Cleveland Browns, where he worked with current Chiefs defensive assistant/quality control coach Darvin Wallis.

A three-year letterman as a tackle at Stanford from '72-74, Rowen earned All-America honors during his senior campaign. Rowen then began his coaching career at his alma mater in '75 as the team's assistant defensive line coach. After a two-year stint ('75-76) under Cunningham at Stanford, Rowen moved to Long Beach State as the offensive line coach for two years ('77-78) before spending the '79-82 seasons in that same capacity at the University of Arizona.

An 11th-round draft choice of the Philadelphia Eagles in '75, Rowen remained with the Eagles until that year's final cut before beginning his coaching career at Stanford. An academic All-America at Stanford, Rowen earned a master's degree from that institution in '77 and also holds a doctorate in athletic administration from the University of Southern California. He comes from a football background as his father, Vic, served as the longtime head football coach at San Francisco State.

Coaching Career: Stanford University 1975-76; Long Beach State University 1977-78; University of Arizona 1979-82; USFL Boston/New Orleans Breakers 1983-84; Cleveland Browns 1984; Indianapolis Colts 1985-88; New England Patriots 1989; Atlanta Falcons 1990-93; Minnesota Vikings 1994-96; Oakland Raiders 1997-98; joined Chiefs in 1999. Education: Stanford University (M.A. '77), (B.S. '75); University of Southern California (Ph.D. '80). Born: September 2, 1952 in New York, New York. Family: Children - Mandee, Holly and Kelly.

JAMES SAXON

RUNNING BACKS

2ND YEAR NFL COACH (1ST WITH CHIEFS)

Former Chiefs running back James Saxon begins his second season as an NFL coach in 2001 as he embarks on his initial year of tutoring Kansas City's running backs. Entering his fifth season of coaching overall, Saxon spent 2000 as the running backs coach of the Buffalo Bills. He returns to Kansas City after enjoying a four-year playing career with the club from '88-91.

Saxon joined the Bills on a full-time basis a year ago spending training camp with Buffalo in '99 as part of the Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. Coaching Fellowship, which is designed to give deserving minority coaches the opportunity to gain pro coaching experience. Saxon received his initial pro coaching experience serving in a similar training camp capacity with the Chiefs in '98.

Prior to entering the pro ranks, Saxon coached the running backs at Rutgers from '97-98, where current Chiefs quarterbacks coach Terry Shea served as head coach at the time. While with the Scarlet Knights, Saxon mentored RB Jackie Crooks who finished his career as the fifth-leading rusher in school history (2,434 yards). In '99, Saxon served as an assistant at Menlo College in Atherton, California, before joining the Bills.

An eight-year NFL playing veteran, Saxon was drafted in the sixth round (139th overall) of the '88 draft by the Chiefs. As a rookie with Kansas City, he made an immediate impact and received the club's prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award, which is bestowed annually to the team's top rookie or first-year performer. During his time with the Chiefs ('88-91), Saxon played in 54 games (six starts), rushing 127 times for 497 yards with five TDs. He also accumulated 37 receptions for 323 yards and had 14 kickoff returns for 193 yards with Kansas City. In '89, he helped clear the way for Chiefs Hall of Fame RB Christian Okoye, who led the league with a franchise-record 1,480 ground yards that year.

Saxon joined Miami as a "Plan B" free agent in '92. In three seasons with the Dolphins ('92-94), he played in 48 games (seven starts), registering 17 carries for 36 yards to go with 32 catches for 192 yards. He also amassed 24 tackles on special teams for the Dolphins. He returned to the Chiefs for training camp in '95, but was acquired by Philadelphia prior to the start of the regular season and played in nine contests for the Eagles.

During the course of his 111-game NFL career, the versatile Saxon was utilized as a fullback, halfback, receiver, blocker, kickoff returner and special teams coverage man. He concluded his career with 533 rushing yards on 145 carries with five TDs while also hauling in 69 receptions for 515 yards.

A native of Beaufort, South Carolina, Saxon was an honorable mention All-America fullback at San Jose State, where he produced 118 carries for 609 yards and nine TDs, as well as 78 receptions for 732 yards and four scores. He also threw four TD passes and returned 22 kickoffs. Saxon was a prep standout at Battery Creek HS in Burton, South Carolina before entering the collegiate ranks Coaching Career: Rutgers University 1997-98; Menlo (Calif.) College 1999; Buffalo Bills 2000; joined Chiefs in 2001. Education: San Jose State. Born: March 23, 1966 in Beaufort, South Carolina. Family: Wife – Shannon; Child – Devin.

TERRY SHEA

QUARTERBACKS

1ST YEAR NFL COACH (1ST WITH CHIEFS)

Owning an extensive offensive resume with 32 years of coaching experience, Terry Shea embarks on his first season as Kansas City's quarterbacks coach in 2001. Shea comes from the offensive school of Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Bill Walsh and has been particularly adept at grooming players at the quarterback position during his distinguished coaching career.

Shea has been instrumental in the tutelage of numerous signal-callers who went on to enjoy productive NFL careers. Shea's most recent pupil to burst upon the NFL scene was San Francisco's Jeff Garcia, who earned his first Pro Bowl nod after throwing for a franchise-record 4,278 yards for the 49ers in 2000. Garcia played for Shea during his two-year stint as head coach at San Jose State in '90-91.

In total, Shea owns a total of seven seasons of experience as a collegiate head coach. He comes to Kansas City after spending the past five years ('96-00) as the head coach at Rutgers University. He also served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Scarlet Knights. In '98, he was named the Big East Coach of the Year after orchestrating the second-biggest one-year turnaround in NCAA Division I history by taking a team which finished 0-11 in '97 and producing a 5-6 mark just a year later. During two of his seasons at Rutgers ('97-98) current Chiefs running backs coach James Saxon served in the same capacity for Shea.

Prior to a one-year stint as the quarterbacks and running backs coach of the Canadian Football League's British Columbia Lions in '95, Shea spent three seasons ('92-94) as the associate head coach and offensive coordinator under head coach Bill Walsh at Stanford. In Shea's initial season with the Cardinal, Stanford won its first conference title since '71 and earned a berth in the '93 Blockbuster Bowl against Penn State. The Cardinal would go on to conclude the year with a 10-3 mark, the first 10-win season the institution had seen since '40, thanks in large part to Shea's offensive unit which produced a 24-3 postseason victory over the Nittany Lions.

Shea joined the Cardinal after his two-year head coaching stint at San Jose State from '90-91 where he compiled a 15-6-2 record and led the school to a pair of Big West titles. In his initial year as head coach at San Jose State in '90, he guided the team to a 9-2-1 record and was named Pro Football Weekly's "National Coach of the Year." Shea joins a growing list of Chiefs connections to San Jose State, where head coach Dick Vermeil played quarterback from '56-58, Director of Football Operations/Player Personnel Lynn Stiles served as head coach from '76-78 and assistant head coach/offensive coordinator Al Saunders played wide receiver and defensive back from '66-69.

Shea had previously served as offensive coordinator at San Jose State from '84-86. In '86, his Spartan offense led the nation in both total offense and passing offense. Between his stints at San Jose State, he spent three years ('87-89) as the offensive coordinator at the University of California under head coach Bruce Snyder.

The San Mateo, California native began his Division I coaching career at Utah State and coached the secondary, special teams, quarterbacks and receivers during his tenure with that team from '76-81. Two of his star quarterbacking pupils at Utah State were Eric Hipple and Bob Gagliano who each went on to pursue NFL playing careers. Shea joined Utah State after a six-year stint at Mt. Hood Community College in Gresham, Oregon from '70-75, where he coached the passing game, the secondary and special teams.

Shea served as a college quarterback at the University of Oregon from '65-67. Following his graduation, he inaugurated his coaching career with a two-year tour of duty ('68-69) as a graduate assistant for the Ducks. He is also credited with authoring "The Quarterback" and producing an instructional video, "The Making of a Quarterback."

Coaching Career: University of Oregon 1968-69; Mt. Hood J.C. (Ore.) 1970-75; Utah State University 1976-81; San Jose State University 1984-86; 1990-91 (head coach 1990-91); University of California 1987-89; Stanford University 1992-94; British Columbia Lions 1995 (CFL); Rutgers University 1996-2000 (head coach); joined Chiefs in 2001. Education: University of Oregon (B.A. '68), (M.A. '70). Born: June 12, 1946 in San Mateo, California. Family: Wife – Susan; Children – Jennifer, Garrett and Daniel.

MIKE SOLARI

OFFENSIVE LINE

13TH YEAR NFL COACH (5TH WITH CHIEFS)

Entering his 13th season as an NFL coach, Mike Solari begins his fifth campaign in Kansas City guiding the Chiefs offensive line. The 46-year-old Solari joined the club in '97 after spending the previous five seasons as the tight ends/assistant offensive line coach for the San Francisco 49ers.

Thanks to the protection provided by Solari's offensive linemen, Kansas City enjoyed the second-highest offensive output in team history in 2000, as the club averaged 350.9 yards of total offense per game. The Chiefs permitted just one sack every 17.1 pass attempts to rank eighth in the league and tied a franchise record by going three consecutive games without giving up a sack a year ago. With plenty of time to throw the ball, Kansas City finished the year fifth in the NFL by averaging 259.3 passing yards per game.

But no matter the offensive attack outlined by the Chiefs, Kansas City's offensive line has been flexible enough to adapt no matter the circumstance under Solari's direction. Despite having just one running back record over 100 yards in a single game in '99, Kansas City ranked fourth in the league in rushing with 130.1 yards per game and led the NFL in rushing attempts (521). In large part, those numbers were testimony to Solari's troops who toiled on the Chiefs offensive front.

Whether it has been establishing the ground game or protecting the passer, Kansas City's offensive trenchmen have thrived in both areas under Solari. Since he joined the club in '97, the Chiefs have permitted an average of just 32.0 sacks each season and have twice ranked among the league's top five clubs in rushing ('97 and '99).

Solari's offensive line group is headlined by guard Will Shields who started all 16 games for the seventh consecutive season in 2000 and earned his sixth straight Pro Bowl berth. Kansas City also owns one of the league's finest pairs of young offensive tackles - Victor Riley and John Tait - who have thrived under Solari's tutelage after being tabbed as first-round picks by the Chiefs in '98 and '99, respectively. Solari has also had success in molding interior linemen. In '99, veteran Tim Grunhard became the first Chiefs center to earn a Pro Bowl nod since Jack Rudnay in '77, while Dave Szott received All-Pro recognition following the '97 campaign.

In '98, Solari's offensive linemen captured all of the Chiefs most prestigious individual awards, a major feat considering that the unit saw its line-up shuffled significantly several times due to injuries. Shields was Kansas City's only Pro Bowl selection, while Glenn Parker started at three different offensive line positions to merit team MVP honors and Riley earned the club's Mack Lee Hill Award which goes to the Chiefs top first-year performer. Despite an injury which sidelined Szott for the club's final 15 games, the club's offensive front still only permitted one sack for every 16.1 pass attempts, the fifth-lowest ratio in the AFC that season.

In his first season with the club in '97, Solari successfully integrated a pair of new starting tackles (Parker and Jeff Criswell) into the Chiefs line-up while maintaining the team's tradition of excellence in the trenches as the club generated 135.7 rushing yards per game, a 10.1-yard improvement from the previous season.

During his tenure in San Francisco, Solari was largely responsible for assisting in the emergence of Brent Jones as one of the league's preeminent tight ends. During his stay with the 49ers ('92-96), Jones made four Pro Bowl appearances and set a franchise record for receptions by a tight end with 68 catches in '93. As a member of San Francisco's coaching staff in '94, Solari helped the 49ers offense amass 31.2 points per game during the regular season, the sixth-highest tally in NFL history. The club upped that average to 43.7 points per game in the playoffs, en route to a 49-26 victory over San Diego in Super Bowl XXIX.

Solari began his NFL coaching career with a two-year stint under Tom Landry with the Dallas Cowboys ('87-88) where he served as an assistant offensive line and special teams coach. In '89, he joined Gene Stallings' staff as the offensive line coach with the Phoenix Cardinals and then moved on with Stallings for two seasons at the University of Alabama before beginning his tour of duty with the 49ers in '90. He initially embarked on his coaching career at Mission Bay (Cal.) High School in '76, followed by stints at Mira Costa Junior College ('78) and U.S. International ('79). He joined Boise State in '80 and helped lead the Broncos to the NCAA Division I-AA championship. After stints at the University of Cincinnati ('81-82) and Kansas ('83-85), Solari spent one season as the offensive coordinator at Pitt ('86) before joining the NFL ranks.

JASON VERDUZCO

OFFENSIVE ASST./QUALITY CONTROL

2ND YEAR NFL COACH (1ST WITH CHIEFS)

Jason Verduzco embarks on his first season as the Chiefs offensive assistant/quality control coach in 2001. He enters his second year as an NFL coach after serving as an offensive assistant for the Washington Redskins in 2000. Verduzco will be responsible for analysis and self-scouting of the club's offense, as well as the evaluation of video and computer data. He will also be engaged in compiling research on Kansas City's offensive efficiency and tendencies.

Prior to joining the NFL ranks, the 30-year-old Verduzco spent six seasons as a coach on the collegiate level, including a three-year stint from '97-99 as a defensive assistant at his alma mater, the University of Illinois. Verduzco assisted head coach Ron Turner's staff which inherited an 0-11 program and quickly transformed them into '99 MicronPC.com Bowl champions with a 63-21 victory against Virginia. Verduzco joined the Fighting Illini coaching staff following a three-year stay as the offensive coordinator at New York's Hamilton College ('94-96).

Verduzco, who spent his prep career at Antioch (California) High School, played one season at quarterback for the Canadian Football League's British Columbia Lions ('93) after a stellar four-year career as the signal caller for Illinois ('89-92), where he led the Fighting Illini to a 30-17-1 record. At the conclusion of his college career, Verduzco ranked second in the Illini annuals in pass attempts (1,083), completions (678), passing yards (7,532) and TDs (42) trailing only Jack Trudeau. With Verduzco at the controls of the Illinois offense, the Illini participated in four consecutive bowl games ('90 Florida Citrus, '91 Hall of Fame, '91 John Hancock and '92 Holiday Bowl).

During his senior campaign in '92, Verduzco was named second team All-Big Ten while taking home Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week honors twice. An honorable mention All-America selection by Football News, Verduzco ended his career as just the eighth player in Big Ten history to top the 7,000-yard plateau in career passing yards. Upon graduation from Illinois in '93, Verduzco ranked sixth on the Big Ten's all time passing list, just behind Ohio State's Art Schlichter (7,547).

Coaching Career: Hamilton College (N.Y.) 1994-96; University of Illinois 1997-99; Washington Redskins 2000; joined Chiefs in 2001. Education: Illinois (B.A. '93). Born: April 3, 1970 in Walnut Creek, California. Family: Single.

JOE VITT

LINEBACKERS

23RD YEAR NFL COACH (2ND WITH CHIEFS)

Entering his 23rd season of service as an NFL coach, Joe Vitt returns for his second season as the Chiefs linebackers coach in 2001. He joined Kansas City a year ago after spending the '99 campaign coaching defensive backs for the Green Bay Packers.

The 47-year-old Vitt helped continue the Chiefs long tradition of production from the linebacker position. That linebacker group is headlined by the vastly talented sixth-year playmaker Donnie Edwards, who has led the club in tackles three consecutive seasons. Last season, Edwards and '99 Chiefs MVP Marvcus Patton became the first Chiefs linebacking tandem to each post over 100 tackles since '78-79. Edwards and Patton combined for 294 tackles in 2000, tying the team record for the highest total ever produced by a Kansas City linebacking duo. Other key performers in the Chiefs linebacking include solid veterans Lew Bush and Glenn Cadrez. Vitt is also credited with aiding the rapid rise of third-year sensation Mike Maslowski, who vaulted into the starting lineup by mid-season year ago and earned a spot on USA Today's All-Joe team.

But turning young players into immediate contributors is nothing new for Vitt. Given a trio of rookie cornerbacks (Antuan Edwards, Fred Vinson and Mike McKenzie) and a starting free safety in just his third pro campaign (Darren Sharper) to work with in Green Bay in '99, Vitt helped the Packers youthful secondary mature quickly. McKenzie, a third-round draft choice, quickly earned a starting spot and led the club with six interceptions and 18 passes defensed, while Sharper paced the Packers with 113 tackles. The development of those performers in the secondary was a key reason Green Bay ranked third in the NFC with 26 interceptions, a figure which doubled the club's '98 total of a mere 13 pickoffs.

Vitt is no stranger to getting solid play out of the linebacker post, either. Prior to joining the Packers, he served four seasons ('95-98) as linebackers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. During the '98 campaign, his linebacking corps helped the Eagles become the league's top pass defense, permitting an NFL-low 170.0 passing yards per game. In his first season with Philadelphia in '95, he oversaw the development of linebacker William Thomas, who produced seven interceptions, was named the club's defensive MVP and earned his first Pro Bowl berth. Under Vitt's continued guidance, Thomas returned to the Pro Bowl the following year and received team defensive MVP honors the next two seasons.

From '92-94, Vitt served as assistant head coach/secondary coach for the Los Angeles Rams under head coach Chuck Knox. He joined the Rams after accruing 10 seasons of AFC West coaching experience with Seattle. He began his tenure with the Seahawks as the club's strength coach in '82 before spending the next nine years ('83-91) as Seattle's secondary coach. During that nine-year span, the Seahawks made four playoff appearances as S Kenny Easley and CB Dave Brown each earned Pro Bowl nods under Vitt's jurisdiction.

Vitt originally entered the NFL ranks as a strength coach with the Baltimore Colts under Ted Marchibroda in '79 and spent two more years with the Colts before joining the Seahawks in '82. A collegiate linebacker at Towson University, Vitt played four seasons with the Tigers before embarking on his pro coaching career.

Coaching Career: Baltimore Colts 1979-81; Seattle Seahawks 1982-91; Los Angeles Rams 1992-94; Philadelphia Eagles 1995-98; Green Bay Packers 1999; joined Chiefs in 2000. Education: Towson University (B.A. '78). Born: August 23, 1954 in Syracuse, New York. Family: Wife - Linda; Children - Joe Jr. and Jennifer. Joe Jr. is currently a senior assisting on the coaching staff at Towson University after an injury curtailed his playing career as a wide receiver for the Tigers.

DARVIN WALLIS

DEFENSIVE ASST./QUALITY CONTROL

20TH YEAR NFL COACH (13TH WITH CHIEFS)

Darvin Wallis, a 30-year coaching veteran, is now in his 13th year of service with the Chiefs as a defensive assistant/quality control coach. Wallis owns 19 years of NFL coaching experience, all of which have been spent in the AFC. He has also been a member of 12 playoff teams (seven with Kansas City and five with Cleveland), the most postseason appearances of any current member of the Kansas City coaching staff. Wallis joins former Chiefs assistants Tom Pratt (21 years), Tom Bettis (13 years) and Kurt Schottenheimer (12 years) as one of only four assistant coaches in Chiefs history to serve more than one full decade with the club. Wallis has served in his present role with the Chiefs since '89, making him the only active member of the Chiefs coaching staff to serve under Marty Schottenheimer, Gunther Cunningham and current head coach Dick Vermeil. In addition, Wallis was one of only 19 coaches in NFL history to work for a team in all 10 years of a 100-win decade as Kansas City produced a 102-58 record from '90-99.

Wallis carries out a myriad of responsibilities in his role with the Chiefs. In addition to assisting with the club's defensive backs, he is also charged with the team's defensive game analysis, where he compiles comprehensive weekly scouting reports on opposing offenses including a complete breakdown of their formations, schemes, concepts and tendencies based on hours of research and video study. Wallis also serves as the club's defensive quality control coordinator where his duties include self-scouting, the organization of computer data, as well as the design and analysis of video cut-ups. He is also responsible for special research projects in addition to compiling the club's comprehensive defensive playbook on an annual basis. Before joining the Chiefs, the 51-year-old Wallis served in a similar capacity for seven years under Marty Schottenheimer with the Cleveland Browns ('82-88) before coming to Kansas City in '89.

Prior to his stint in Cleveland, the Fort Branch, Indiana, native tutored tight ends and tackles at the University of Mississippi ('80-81), served as offensive line and strength coach at Tulane University ('78-79), and oversaw the offensive front at Adams State College ('76-77) in Alamosa, Colorado. Wallis began his coaching career at Wilcox (Ariz.) High School ('71) before taking the head coaching reigns at Ajo (Ariz.) High School ('72-75) after playing collegiately as a defensive end at the University of Arizona. In '99, Wallis completed his doctorate degree in Sport Administration from the University of Kansas joining fellow Chiefs assistant Keith Rowen who also holds a Ph.D.

Coaching Career: Adams State College 1976-77; Tulane University 1978-79; University of Mississippi 1980-81; Cleveland Browns 1982-88; joined Chiefs in 1989. Education: University of Kansas (Ph.D. '99), Adams State College (M.A. '77), University of Arizona (B.A. '71). Born: February 14, 1949 in Ft. Branch, Indiana. Family: Wife - Vicky; Children - Darvin, Jr., Tyson and Austin.

LYNN STILES

VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS/PLAYER PERSONNEL

Lynn Stiles rejoined the Chiefs football family on February 29th of 2000 when he was named the club's Vice President of Football Operations. On June 7th of 2001 he was promoted by Chiefs President Carl Peterson to the post of Vice President of Football Operations/Player Personnel. Stiles previously served as Kansas City's V.P. of Player Personnel from '92-96.

Stiles returned to the Chiefs organization in 2000 after spending the three previous seasons ('97-99) in St. Louis as that club's Vice President of Football Operations. In St. Louis he played a key role in helping current Chiefs Head Coach Dick Vermeil and the Rams produce a win in Super Bowl XXXIV in '99. He also coached the Rams tight ends in '98-99.

In his expanded role with the Chiefs, Stiles will oversee all aspects of the Chiefs player personnel department, including both the team's college and pro scouting efforts. In addition, he will also work closely with Lamonte Winston and Kansas City's player development department, which he played an integral role in establishing during his intial tenure with the team. Stiles was also instrumental in the formation of a player development program in St. Louis, working with Kevin Warren. He will also continue his work as Vice President of Football Operations, managing various day-to-day football management issues.

In Kansas City, Stiles is reunited with Peterson and Vermeil for the third time in his career. The longstanding relationship between this gridiron trinity dates back to UCLA in the '70s. Peterson served as the Bruins receivers coach and administrative assistant from '72-73 under Pepper Rodgers before serving in that same role under Vermeil from '74-75, while Stiles was assistant head coach and defensive coordinator for the Bruins from '70-75. In '75, that trio helped lead the Bruins to a 9-2-1 record, the team's first-ever Pac 8 championship. That season culminated with UCLA's first Rose Bowl appearance in 10 seasons as the Bruins defeated #1 ranked Ohio State.

In '79, Stiles joined forces with Vermeil and Peterson for the second time, this time with the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles. Stiles served as the Eagles tight ends coach and special teams coordinator, while Vermeil was Head Coach and Peterson served as the Eagles Director of Player Personnel. Philadelphia produced a franchise-best 12-4 record in '80 as the Eagles claimed the NFC Championship and advanced to Super Bowl XV.

Entering his 22nd NFL season in 2001, the 59-year-old Stiles has been a member of four Super Bowl teams, including that Super Bowl XV berth with the '80 Eagles. Stiles has earned championship rings from three of those Super Bowl appearances (XXIII and XXIV with San Francisco, XXXIV with St. Louis). In total, Stiles has been associated with teams which made six conference championship game appearances and have appeared in 24 overall playoff games.

When Peterson departed to head the USFL's Philadelphia Stars in '82, Stiles became the Eagles Director of Player Personnel from '82-86. During that span Philadelphia acquired Pro Bowl performers such as Reggie White, Randall Cunningham, Seth Joyner, Clyde Simmons and Keith Byars. The Kermit, Texas, native then joined Bill Walsh's coaching staff with the San Francisco 49ers as that club's special teams coach in '87. The next season, the 49ers claimed a 20-16 win over Cincinnati in Super Bowl XXIII. In '89, Stiles was promoted to special teams coordinator and tight ends coach by head coach George Seifert as San Francisco went 14-2 and produced a 55-10 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXIV. He also served as the team's assistant offensive line coach in '91 before originally joining the Chiefs in '92.

From '76-78, Stiles served as head coach at San Jose State where his squads won two league championships. During his first season with the Spartans, he oversaw the development of QB Steve DeBerg, who was named the Pacific Coast Athletic Conference MVP in his only year of major college football. A two-time All-Nevada selection as a prep player at Reno High School, Stiles enjoyed a stellar collegiate career at the University of Utah playing guard and linebacker, earning All-Academic and All-Conference honors, in addition to a berth in the All-American bowl after his senior season in '62. He embarked on his coaching career at his alma mater in '63 when his roommate was Seifert, who currently serves as head coach of the Carolina Panthers. Stiles also served as an assistant at Iowa from '64-69 before joining the staff at UCLA in '70.

Stiles and his wife, Marigene reside in Leawood, Kansas. They have four children - daughters Staci and Tiffanny and sons Shon and Blake, in addition to two grandchildren.

CHUCK COOK
DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Now in his 18th season as a valued member of the Kansas City Chiefs personnel department, Chuck Cook enters his fifth season as the Chiefs Director of College Scouting. He was promoted to that post in May of '97 after serving 13 years as a Regional Scout for the club, spending the majority of his efforts scouring the country's Southeast region for college talent. The 41-year-old Andalusia, Alabama native coordinates Kansas City's college scouting efforts with his primary focus being the preparation of the club for the annual NFL draft. Thanks to the efforts of Cook and his scouting staff, the Chiefs have selected an impressive resume of college performers from '98-00, including WR Sylvester Morris and a pair of talented offensive tackles - John Tait and Victor Riley - with their first-round picks.

Cook originally joined the Chiefs staff in '84 after serving as an offensive assistant with the USFL's Arizona Wranglers ('82-83). He began his coaching career under Al Kincaid at the University of Wyoming in '80 and also worked with the Cowboys in '81. Cook played wide receiver, running back and defensive back at Southern Mississippi. He was in the camps of both the Giants and Jets prior to embarking on his coaching career. He was inducted into the Southern Miss Hall of Fame in '93. His father, Hamp, serves as a scout with the New Orleans Saints.

Education: Southern Mississippi (B.A. '80). Family: Wife - Carla; Children - twin daughters Carley and Cori, and a son, Colby.

BILL KUHARICH
DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Bill Kuharich, regarded as one of the most respected evaluators of talent in the NFL, joined the Chiefs as Director of Pro Personnel in May of 2000 after spending 14 seasons with the New Orleans Saints. He spent his last three seasons with the Saints as that club's President, General Manager and Chief Operating Officer. The 47-year-old Skokie, Illinois native oversees Kansas City's scouting of all players with professional experience, including NFL Europe, the Canadian Football League, as well as the NFL. Owning 17 years of pro football experience, Kuharich previously worked with Chiefs President Carl Peterson in the USFL and also learned the trade from the late Pro Football Hall of Famer Jim Finks in New Orleans.

Kuharich began his career under Peterson with the USFL's Philadelphia Stars in '83 and was promoted to Assistant General Manager/Director of Player Personnel the following year. During the league's three-year existence, the Stars compiled a 48-13-1 overall record, made three championship game appearances and won two league titles. In '86, he began his tenure under Finks with New Orleans as Director of Player Personnel, serving in that role until '93. Finks and Kuharich inherited a Saints franchise which had never had a winning season or been to the playoffs, and proceeded to construct a squad which earned four postseason berths over a six-year span from '87-92. Kuharich later served as New Orleans' Vice President of Football Operations ('94-95) and Executive Vice President/General Manager ('96) before being named the franchise's top executive in '97.

Kuharich began his football career as a graduate assistant at Brown in '76 before coaching the offensive backfield at Hawaii in '77. The following year he went to work for the U.S. Department of Defense, while still serving as a volunteer assistant at Georgetown. In '79 he returned to coaching at St. Lawrence. He also served as an assistant at Columbia from '80-81 before joining Peterson in the USFL.

Education: St. Lawrence (M.E. '81), (M.A. '79), Middlebury College (B.A. '76). Family: Wife - Betsy; Children - Megan, Alexis and Kelli. Kuharich's father, the late Joe Kuharich, served as a college head coach at San Francisco ('48-51), and Notre Dame ('59-62). The elder Kuharich also served as an NFL head coach with the Chicago Cardinals ('52) and Washington Redskins ('54-58), in addition to a stint as the head coach/general manager of the Philadelphia Eagles ('64-68).

FRANK ACEVEDO
AREA SCOUT

Frank Acevedo enters his fifth season as an area scout for the Chiefs in the Big 12 region after spending the previous two seasons as an assistant in the club's personnel department. Prior to coming to Kansas City, the Escondido, California, native served as a running backs coach at Missouri Western ('94-95) and also spent five seasons ('85-89) as an assistant coach at San Francisco State. The 37-year-old Acevedo began his coaching career after playing two seasons as a defensive back for San Francisco State, captaining the squad as a senior when he earned all-conference honors. He began his playing career at Palomar J.C. in San Marcus, California in '82.

Education: San Francisco State (B.A. '89). Family: Wife - Phoebe, Child - Estella.

FAST FACT

The Chiefs have not been shutout in 108 consecutive regular season contests dating back to a 16-0 loss vs. the L.A. Rams (9/25/94), the second-longest streak in franchise annals. Kansas City went 179 straight games without a shutout from '63-76.

DAVE ADOLPH
AREA SCOUT

Dave Adolph enters his second season as part of the Chiefs personnel staff as an area scout. He enjoyed 21 years of coaching in the NFL including two stints with the Chiefs before becoming a scout. Adolph spent the '99 season as the assistant head coach/linebackers coach with the Chiefs. Prior to that he was the linebackers coach in Oakland ('97-98) and served as the defensive coordinator for two years in San Diego ('95-96). He spent his first tour of duty with Kansas City as a defensive coordinator from '92-94 after spending three seasons as the L.A. Raiders defensive coordinator ('89-91). Under Adolph the Chiefs ranked fifth in total defense in '94, fourth in '93 and second in '92. Adolph spent one season as an assistant in San Diego ('85) before returning to Cleveland in '86-88 as the defensive coordinator. Adoph began his career in the NFL as Cleveland's defensive line coach in '79. In '81 he took over the clubs linebackers before assuming duties as defensive coordinator in '84.

Before entering the NFL, the Akron, Ohio native amassed 16 years of coaching experience on the collegiate level. He worked with the legendary Woody Hayes at Ohio State from '77-78. He also coached at Illinois ('78-76), Kentucky ('69-72), Connecticut ('65-68) and his alma mater of Akron ('63-64). He began his coaching career at Cleveland's Shaw High School in '62.

IN MEMORIUM

LEN BEATIE 1927 - 2001

The Chiefs lost a trusted employee and a valued friend on May 30th of 2001 when longtime Kansas City scout Len Beatie passed away after a long battle with heart disease. Pictured here with Chiefs President Carl Peterson during training camp in 2000, the 74-year-old Beatie had served as a part-time scout for the Chiefs since '89 and had worked for Peterson as far back as the Philadelphia Eagles and Philadelphia Stars. His relationship with Peterson dated back over 25 years to Peterson's tenure as an assistant coach at UCLA.

Beatie scouted Northern California for the Chiefs and also for the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe. A fixture at Chiefs games in California and at training camp in River Falls, Beatie possessed a truly upbeat outlook on life, had a constant smile on his face and was always more than generous with his time, talents and treasures. He will be missed be all in the Chiefs organization whose lives he touched.

A decorated naval veteran of World War II and the Korean Conflict, Beatie was a Diamond Belt boxing champion and was the Navy's Boxing Coach of the Year in '61-62.

He was a junior college All-America selection as a football player at Monterey Peninsula College and later an assistant coach at San Francisco State University and head coach of San Francisco University. In '92 he was inducted into California's Bay Area Football Hall of Fame. True to his coaching roots, Beatie also was the founder and longtime organizer of his famed All-America football camps.

Leonard Kerr Beatie, Jr. is survived by his wife of 41 years, Joan, and their five children. Len - we're going to miss you. May you rest in peace.

FRONT OFFICE

WALLACE BENNETT
VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES & MARKETING

Wallace Bennett, now in his seventh full season with the Chiefs organization, was promoted to Vice President of Sales and Marketing in March of '99. He had previously served as the club's Director of Sales and Marketing since February of '96 after originally joining the team as Director of Sales in October of '94. The 46-year-old Bennett oversees all areas of sales, marketing, promotions, advertising, gameday production and hospitality events for the Chiefs and Kansas City Wizards soccer team. In addition, he supervises the sales and marketing efforts for all official team publications, as well as the clubs' internet sites.

Under his direction in '95, the Chiefs and their fans enjoyed a $3 million renovation of Arrowhead's concession stands. Those improvements included the addition of eight in-stadium NFL Pro Shop locations which feature a wide selection of official Chiefs merchandise.

A native of Jacksonville, Florida, Bennett came to Kansas City with 18 years of experience in the IBM Corporation. He began his career with the Fortune 500 company in '76 as a marketing representative and rose through the corporate ranks prior to joining the Chiefs organization in '94. Education: Clemson University (B.S. '76). Family: Wife - Laurie; Children - Trey and Rick.

ANITA BAILEY
DIRECTOR OF CORP. SPONSORSHIP SALES

Anita Bailey begins her 13th year with the Chiefs and her sixth season as Director of Corporate Sponsorship Sales. In that role she is responsible for the sale of all major corporate partnerships along with development and implementation of Chiefs promotions. As of February of '99, Bailey also oversees corporate sales for the Kansas City Wizards. Before assuming her current role in March of '96, the New Cambria, Missouri native spent six years as the organization's Promotions Manager. She originally joined the Chiefs in '89 as a member of the club's PR department.

Prior to her appointment with the Chiefs, Bailey spent six seasons ('82-87) in the Kansas City Royals public relations department before taking a post as the Director of Convention Services for the Adam's Mark Hotel in Kansas City. Education: Northeast Missouri State University. Family: Children - Eric and Scott.

KEN BLUME
DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT

Ken Blume begins his 13th year as the club's Director of Development. He is responsible for the sales and service of all premium seating areas for both the Chiefs and the Kansas City Wizards soccer team, as well as overseeing the Pavilion at Arrowhead and the Arrowhead Club. He coordinates the Chiefs various volunteer organizations (Chiefs Club, Red Coaters, and Alumni Ambassadors). He also oversees new construction, stadium renovations, special projects and Chiefs Travel - an in-house travel service.

The 46-year-old Blume served as the team's Director of Marketing for two years and Sales Manager for two years before taking his present post. Previously, he was Administrator with Colonial Presbyterian Church, Vice-President of Regan Supply Company, and Asst. to the President at Total Engineering Services Team in New Orleans. Education: Rockhurst College (M.B.A. '87), Texas Christian University (B.S. '77). Family: Wife - Elizabeth; Children - Dayton and Rebekah.

JULIE DORN
DIRECTOR OF SPECIAL EVENTS

Julie Dorn enters her second season as the Chiefs Director of Special Events after joining the club in February of 2000. She is responsible for the development, implementation and execution of all special events held at Arrowhead Stadium.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Dorn previously served as Director of Events for the Big 12 Conference in Dallas, Texas, where she assisted in the coordination of the Big 12 Football Championship, as well as Big 12 Basketball Tournaments. Prior to her tenure at the Big 12, she enjoyed stints at the Big Eight Conference office in Kansas City and at the University of Missouri.

A two-time All-American gymnast at Missouri ('89-90), the Minneapolis, Minnesota native was named Big Eight Conference Female Athlete of the Year in '91 and was inducted into the University of Missouri Athletic Hall of Fame in '96. Education: University of Missouri (M.S. '94), (B.S.W. '91). Family: Single.

DOUG HOPKINS
DIRECTOR OF TICKET OPERATIONS

Doug Hopkins, who has 23 years of ticketing and special event experience, begins his eighth season as the Chiefs Director of Ticket Operations. Hopkins supervises and directs ticket operations for all Chiefs games, special events, and concerts at Arrowhead Stadium. Before joining the Chiefs in '94, Hopkins held the post of Vice President of Ticketing for World Cup USA 1994.

Prior to his World Cup duties, the Redmond, Washington, native spent 10 years as the Director of Ticket Operations for the Seattle Mariners. In addition, he also served as the Director of Ticketing for both the 1990 Goodwill Games and Seattle's Kingdome. Education: Seattle University (M.B.A. '88), University of Washington (B.A. '72). Family: Wife - Maria; Children - Bradley and Alicia.

RICHARD McOSKER
DIRECTOR OF INFORMATION SYSTEMS

A member of the Chiefs since July '86, Richard McOsker enters his 16th year as Director of Information Systems. A native of Wichita, Kansas, McOsker oversees the data processing staff and coordinates the club's information systems for the Chiefs, the Kansas City Wizards and Columbus Crew soccer teams, as well as Hunt Midwest Enterprises and its subsidiaries.

Prior to his arrival at Arrowhead, McOsker served as Vice President of Data Processing for Guaranteed Foods, Inc. for six years after previously holding manager and programmer/analyst posts with that organization. McOsker also held programmer positions with Industrial Bearing and Transmission as well as Swingster Wearables. Education: Rockhurst University (B.A. '00), Kansas City Kansas Community College (A.A. '78). Family: Wife - Cindy; Children - Adam, David, Michelle and Mark.

STEVE SCHNEIDER

CHIEFS PUBLIC RELATIONS AND MEDIA POLICIES

www.kcchiefs.com: In-depth information on the Kansas City Chiefs can be found at the club's official website at www.kcchiefs.com, which contains weekly news releases, statistics, rosters, depth charts, injury reports, quotes, feature articles and player biographies. The site is updated daily during training camp and the regular season. We strongly encourage you to visit the Chiefs online, since most of the information you are seeking can be found here.

Home Credential Requests: Only accredited members of the media who cover the Chiefs and the NFL on a regular basis may apply for credentials. All requests must be made in writing a minimum of one week in advance of the game and should be directed to Chiefs PR Department at Arrowhead Stadium. (This includes preseason games. DO NOT send credential requests to training camp.) Credentials are confirmed on a week-by-week basis on Thursdays preceding Sunday games. Failure to utilize an issued credential without notifying the PR department will result in revocation of credential privileges. All field photographers MUST pick up their credentials in person at Photo Will Call on game day. No exceptions.

Road Credential Requests: If you are a regular member of the Chiefs media corps and wish to cover the team on the road, ALL requests must be submitted to Director of Public Relations Bob Moore no later than one game previous to a road contest. The Chiefs will then place a credential request to the opponent the Monday prior to a Sunday road game. Please note that opponent credential availability may be limited.

Interview Requests: Associate Director of Public Relations Pete Moris coordinates all network television requests. Brad Kuhbander handles print interviews and Patrick Herb of the Chiefs PR staff handles all radio requests. ALL requests for radio interviews must be made via fax, including names of producers and talent, studio numbers and show times.

Head Coach Availability: Head Coach Dick Vermeil is available daily during the season. Please consult PR for times and location. Coach Vermeil conducts a weekly press conference on Tuesdays during the season. (Subject to change based on game schedule). This briefing begins at 11:45 AM and is available via satellite Tuesday afernoons and on Real Audio and Video at www.kcchiefs.com. Please consult Chiefs PR for satellite coordinates.

Assistant Coach/Staff Availability: Chiefs assistant coaches are available for interviews provided PR is notified in advance. Please consult Bob Moore or Pete Moris.

Locker Room Policy/Player Availability: During the regular season players are available to the media after the conclusion of practice. The Chiefs locker room is open to the media for a maximum of one hour following the conclusion of practice each day. Any additional interviews should be coordinated through Chiefs PR. The Chiefs locker room is NOT open on the players' day off (typically Tuesdays.) QB Trent Green is scheduled to be available to the media at lunch times during the regular season. Please consult PR for time and location.

Media access at Arrowhead is limited to the fourth floor press box which serves as a work area, the PR office, and the first floor auditorium for media functions.

Open Practice: All practices are open to accredited local media provided they are cleared through the PR department. Visiting team media are NOT permitted at practice. Videotaping is permitted ONLY during stretching, warm-up, individual drills and the cool-down periods. Consult Chiefs PR for practice times.

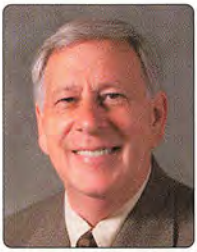

Conference Calls: The Chiefs will make Coach Vermeil and a player available to the visiting team media each Wednesday during the regular season. Consult Chiefs PR for times.

Radio Actualities: Throughout the season daily broadcast-quality radio actualities are made available to the media. They can be accessed at www.kcchiefs.com.

Player Appearance Requests: Requests for player appearances should be made in writing, no less than 30 days in advance to Director of Community Relations Brenda Sniezek. Player availability is limited during the regular season and no requests are accepted during postseason play.

Donation Requests: The Chiefs make a limited number of donations to select charitable causes in the five-state region of Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska and Oklahoma. Requests should be made in writing, no less than 30 days in advance of an event to Janet Feltham of the Chiefs Public Relations/Community Relations staff. Such donations are strictly limited to Chiefs articles. Requests for monetary contributions or tickets are not accepted.

CHIEFS RADIO NETWORK

For the 12th consecutive year, all Chiefs games will be carried in Kansas City by KCFX Radio/101.1 FM. The Chiefs Fox Football Radio Network, with KCFX as its anchor, extends throughout a seven-state region that includes Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Illinois. KCFX will broadcast all Chiefs preseason, regular season and playoff games live. One of the Midwest's most recognizable radio and television personalities, Mitch Holthus, handles the play-by-play duties for the eighth straight year. Named Kansas Sportscaster of the Year seven times, Holthus served as the voice of Kansas State athletics for 14 years and in addition to his Chiefs duties, he is also the lead TV play-by-play broadcaster for Fox Sports coverage of the Missouri Valley Conference. Adding the color analysis is Hall of Fame quarterback Len Dawson, the Chiefs all-time leading passer. Bill Grigsby, who has been on the Chiefs broadcast scene since the club's first year in Kansas City, will also provide expert commentary. Bob Gretz, sports director at KCFX, will add pre-game and post-game comments for the 12th straight season, in addition to in-game sideline updates.

THE SIMULCAST GAME

OCTOBER 2, 2000

On October 2, 2000, the Truman Sports Complex set a new attendance record for a home Chiefs game when 82,893 fans piled into both Arrowhead and Kauffman Stadiums to watch a Monday Night Football match-up with Seattle. A capacity crowd of 78,502 viewed the action live in Arrowhead, while 4,391 fans watched the Chiefs defeat the Seahawks, 24-17, via simulcast on the video board in Kauffman Stadium. The Chiefs single-venue attendance record for a home game at Arrowhead remains at 82,094 when Kansas City defeated Oakland 27-14 on November 5, 1972.

MICHIGAN
UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT (1998)
NFL: 8 (4TH WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: NOVEMBER 6, 1971
DETROIT, MICHIGAN
GP/GS: (105/86) PLAYOFFS: (2/2)

Pro Career: Big-play performer who is simply a threat to score every time he touches the ball ... A true home-run hitter who is unquestionably one of the most exciting offensive performers in the NFL today ... Enters his fourth campaign in a Kansas City uniform after signing as an unrestricted free agent with the Chiefs on March 2nd of '98 from Baltimore ... Is one of the league's most elusive open-field runners ... A sure-handed receiver who truly shows his talent once he gets into the secondary, turning even the shortest completions into dramatic gains ... Has an uncanny knack for evading some of the game's finest tacklers once he sees daylight ... Possesses all the skills to perplex opposing defenses with his outstanding hands, impressive strength and the necessary speed to stretch a secondary ... Is equally adept at making acrobatic grabs down the sideline or over the middle ... Superb size and leaping ability make him a reliable target in the red zone, as well ... Was somehow slighted in the Pro Bowl balloting a year ago after enjoying a record-breaking campaign in 2000 ... Became just the third WR in Chiefs history to win the club's Derrick Thomas Most Valuable Player Award after shattering Kansas City's single-season receiving mark with a career-high 1,391 yards ... Also earned the Chiefs nomination for the 2000 Walter Payton/ NFL Man of the Year Award for his efforts in the community ... Tied a franchise record with six 100-yard receiving games in 2000 ... Paired with Pro Bowl TE Tony Gonzalez to form the most prolific receiving duo in team history as the pair caught a combined 171 passes for 2,594 yards, becoming the first tandem of 1,000-yard receivers in the Kansas City record book ... His 78 receptions were the third-best tally in team history and the most by a KC wideout since Carlos Carson had 80 in '83 ... Led the AFC by averaging an eye-popping 17.8 yards per catch, while his team-record 24 catches of 20+ yards were the league's fourth-highest tally ... Was also a frequent visitor to the end zone, hauling in 10 TD passes in 2000 to rank third in the AFC ... Appears poised for another big season working at the "Z" wide receiver post, where he has started the past three years ... Has registered four scoring plays of 80 or more yards the past two seasons, a remarkable feat considering that Kansas City had just one TD of 80+ yards in the previous eight campaigns ... Recorded the fourth-longest reception in the NFL in 2000 with an 81-yard TD bomb after producing three of the NFL's longest offensive plays in '99 ... Became the first wide receiver and just the third player (FB Kimble Anders - '97 and RB Tony Reed - '78) in franchise history to record both the club's longest run and longest reception in a season when he did it in '99 ... After just three seasons in the Red and Gold already ranks sixth in franchise annals with 3,125 receiving yards ... Is 11th in team history with 186 receptions and needs just 12 more catches to bypass Abner Haynes (197) for the 10th spot all-time ... With 14 more receptions, would become just the ninth player in team history with 200 receptions ... Owns 55 catches of 20 or more yards, the most of any Chiefs pass catcher since the club began tracking that stat in '90 ... Along with Gonzalez, has topped the 50-catch plateau each of the past three seasons, meaning only Anders (five), Chris Burford and Otis Taylor (four) have more 50-catch campaigns in team history ... Cracked the 1,000-yard barrier for the first time as a Chief in 2000, reaching that mark in a mere 11 games, tying Taylor ('66) as the fastest KC player to ever do so ... Now owns three 1,000-yard campaigns after doing it in back-to-back seasons with Baltimore in '96 and '97 ... During those two seasons with the Ravens, combined with Michael Jackson for 36 TD grabs, a mark equalled only by Minnesota's Cris Carter and Jake Reed over that span ... Has scored 38 career touchdowns in three different fashions, scoring 36 times as a receiver, once as a runner and one time as a punt returner ... An accomplished pass catcher who needs just 24 more catches to reach reception number 400 for his career and is 633 yards shy of reaching the 7,000-yard barrier ... Frequently gets his catches in big bunches with 21 career 100-yard receiving games to his credit (three with Cleveland, six with Baltimore and 12 with Kansas City) ... Those 12 100-yard games with the Chiefs tie him with Chris Burford for third in franchise history ... Has seen duty in 105 regular season games (86 starts), catching 376 passes for 6,367 yards (16.9 avg.) with 36 touchdowns ... Owns 22 career kickoff returns for 432 yards (19.6 avg.) and 11 punt returns for 171yards (15.5 avg.), including a 69-yard TD ... Has also rushed the ball 11 times for 149 yards, with an 82-yard TD ... Has one career fumble recovery to his credit, as well ... Started two playoff games for the Browns in '94, posting five catches for 69 yards ... Originally entered the NFL as the second of two first-round draft picks (29th overall) of the Cleveland Browns in '94. That pick was originally a compensatory pick awarded to the Philadelphia Eagles for the loss of Reggie White and was acquired by Cleveland in exchange for the Browns second-round pick in '94 (40th overall) and their second-round pick in '95 (58th overall). At Kansas City (1998-00): After sitting out his first game with Kansas City in '98 due to a rib injury, has seen action at WR in 47 straight games (45 starts) for the Chiefs ... Has produced three straight seasons with 50 or more receptions, giving him 186 receptions for 3,215 yards (16.9 avg.) and 16 TDs with Kansas City ... Also has five rushes for 127 yards, including an 82-yard score. 2000: Started all 16 games at WR ... Received the club's Derrick Thomas Award as the club's MVP ... Had 78 catches for a team-record 1,391 yards (17.8 avg.) and 10 TDs, totals which were all career highs ... Also had three carries for 45 yards (15.0 avg.) ... His 78 receptions were the third-highest single-season total in franchise history, trailing only Gonzalez (93 in 2000) and Carlos Carson (80 in '83) ... Led the AFC in yards per catch (17.8 avg.) ... In the AFC, only Rod Smith - Denver (1,602) and Marvin Harrison - Indianapolis (1,413) had more receiving yards, while only Harrison (14) and Tim Brown - Oakland (11) had more receiving TDs ... Alexander and Gonzalez became the most prolific receiving duo in Chiefs history in 2000, combining for franchise records in receptions (171) and yards (2,594) by teammates, becoming the first pair of 1,000-yard pass catchers in team history. Andre Rison and Kimble Anders ('97 - 131 receptions) and Carlos Carson and Henry Marshall ('83 - 2,139 yards) held the former records ... His 78 receptions ranked as the third-highest total in team history, while his 10 TDs tied for fifth ... His 24 receptions of 20 or more yards were the most by a Chief since the club began tracking the stat in '90 which broke his own mark of 20 in '98. Only Smith (30), Torry Holt - St. Louis (30) and Randy Moss - Minnesota (25) had more, while Isaac Bruce - St. Louis also had 24 ... Tied for sixth in the NFL with three catches of 50 yards or more ... Had six 100-yard games, tying for the highest single-season total in team history (Taylor '66; Carlos Carson '83; Gonzalez '00) ... Only Smith (eight), Moss (eight), Harrison (eight) and Eric Moulds - Buffalo (seven) had more 100-yard games. Minnesota's Cris Carter and Holt also had six ... Moss and Carter joined Alexander and Gonzalez as the only other NFL teammates to each produce six or more 100-yard receiving games in 2000. Alexander and Gonzalez were the first duo in team history to each have four or more such games in a year ... Caught a team-high five passes for 50 yards and a 21-yard TD vs. Indianapolis (9/3), getting his 300th career reception and his 5,000th career yard in that contest ... Recorded a team-high five receptions for 54 yards and a 16-yard TD strike in the fourth quarter at Tennessee (9/10) ... Caught four passes for 48 yards vs. San Diego (9/17) ... Hauled in three passes for 35 yards at Denver (9/24), including a 22-yard game-winning TD strike with 2:21 left in the game ... Produced five catches for a season-high 153 yards (30.6 avg.) vs. Seattle (10/2). Accounted for 90 yards of a momentum changing three-play, 95-yard drive in the third quarter, getting a season-long 73-yard catch and a 17-yard TD strike ... Caught five passes for 78 yards vs. Oakland (10/15) ... Totaled five catches for 117 yards with a 30-yard TD pass vs. St. Louis (10/22) ... Collected four passes for 137 yards and tied a career high with two TDs (59 and 50 yards) at Seattle (10/29). It marked the first time the Chiefs produced a pair of 50+ offensive scoring plays in one game since WR Stephone Paige hauled in TD passes of 56 and 84 yards vs. San Diego (12/22/85) ... Recorded his third straight 100-yard receiving game and his second consecutive two-TD game with a career-high nine catches for 139 yards and a pair of TDs (nine and 48 yards) at Oakland (11/5) ... Caught two passes for 48 yards at San Francisco (11/12) ... Had seven catches for 146 yards vs. Buffalo (11/19) and added one carry for eight yards ... Hauled in four passes for 67 yards at San Diego (11/26) ... Produced five catches for 116 yards and an 81-yard TD at New England (12/4). The 81-yard score was the fourth-longest pass play in the NFL in 2000 and tied as the fourth-longest reception of his career ... Collected six passes for 81 yards vs. Carolina (12/10) and gained 26 yards on an end around to gain a first down which allowed the Chiefs to run out the clock in a 15-14 win ... Totaled five catches for 79 yards and one carry for 11 yards vs. Denver (12/17) ... Caught four passes for 43 yards at Atlanta (12/24), surpassing Carson's team single-season receiving yardage mark in that contest. 1999: Played in all 16 games for the first time in his pro career, getting 15 starts ... Led all Chiefs wideouts and ranked second on the squad behind Pro Bowl TE Tony Gonzalez with 54 catches for 832 yards (15.4 avg.) and a pair of scores ... Also had two carries for 82 yards, including that 82-yard TD ... Produced three of the NFL's 10-longest offensive plays and was the only player with more than one ... That 82-yard TD jaunt was the longest rushing play in the entire league a year ago and tied as the second-longest run in Chiefs history ... In fact, Alexander's three offensive plays of 70+ yards in '99 were more than 28 other teams in the league combined for all season (all but Baltimore and Denver) ... Recorded two of his five longest career receptions and led the club with 11 catches of 20 or more yards ... Joined Gonzalez as two of just 10 players in Chiefs history to own 50 or more receptions in two or more seasons ... Produced six catches for 154 yards and a TD at Chicago (9/12), including an 86-yard TD reception, the longest TD reception of his career, his longest catch as a member of the Chiefs, the longest pass play of the year in the AFC and the fifth-longest reception of the season in the NFL ... Collected six catches for 117 yards vs. Denver (9/19), giving him back-to-back 100-yard games for the second time as a Chief ... Recorded his first carry as a Chief for no gain at San Diego (10/3) ... Tallied two catches for 25 yards vs. New England (10/10) before leaving the contest in the second quarter due to a rib contusion ... Posted two catches for 113 yards, including an 81-yard TD bomb off a perfectly-executed play-action fake which sucked in both the corner and the safety, giving him a clear path to paydirt vs. San Diego (10/31). It was the seventh-longest pass reception in the NFL on the year and tied as the fourth-longest grab of his career ... Missed his only start of the year when the club opened in a two-TE formation at Indianapolis (11/7) ... Recorded a team-high seven receptions for 41 yards at Tampa Bay (11/14) ... Had a season-high eight receptions for 101 yards vs. Seattle (11/21). It was his 15th career 100-yard receiving game, his sixth as a Chief and his fourth of the season ... Tallied two receptions for 20 yards and scored on a career-long 82-yard reverse vs. Pittsburgh (12/18), the longest rushing play of the year in the NFL. It was his first career rushing TD and tied for the second-longest run in Chiefs history with the late Joe Delaney who also posted an 82-yard jaunt vs. Denver (10/18/81) ... Posted four receptions for 42 yards at Seattle (12/26). 1998: Although slowed by a painful rib injury to start his debut campaign in Kansas City, was red hot by the season's end, missing his third straight 1,000-yard season by a mere eight yards ... Played in 15 games with 14 starts ... Ranked third on the squad with 54 receptions which went for a team-high 992 yards, giving him a career-best 18.4 yards-per-catch average, as well as four touchdowns ... Was hindered by injuries to start the year, catching just five passes for 69 yards (13.8 avg.) in the club's first five games ... Quickly heated up over the final 11 games, hauling in 49 passes for 923 yards, including all four of his touchdowns ... Also accounted for 20 of the club's 42 (47.6%) passing plays of 20+ yards on the year ... Suffered a costal cartilage injury to his rib cage in a preseason game at Minnesota (8/15), forcing him to miss the final two preseason contests and the season opener vs. Oakland (9/6) ... Started his first game as a Chief at Jacksonville (9/13), grabbing two passes for 41 yards ... First score in a Kansas City uniform came on an eight-yard pass at New England (10/11) ... Did not start, but had a season-long 65-yard catch and scamper vs. Pittsburgh (10/26) ... Made three catches for 76 yards, including his 200th career reception vs. the N.Y. Jets (11/1) ... Hauled in seven passes for a team-high 91 yards at Seattle (11/8) ... Had the second-biggest receiving day of his career, catching five passes for a whopping 173 yards and a 35-yard TD at San Diego (11/22). Produced four plays of 30+ yards and drew two pass interference calls for 62 yards, as well ... Recorded the third two-touchdown performance of his career with 15 and 30-yard scoring grabs vs. Arizona (11/29), catching six passes for 116 yards to become the first Kansas City receiver to record back-to-back 100-yard receiving games since J.J. Birden in '94 ... Made six receptions for 97 yards at the N.Y. Giants (12/20), surpassing the 4,000-yard career receiving mark. At Baltimore (1996-97): Spent two seasons in Baltimore after the franchise moved from Cleveland following the '95 campaign ... Played in 30 games (27 starts) for the Ravens, hauling in 127 passes for 2,108 yards, (16.5 avg.) with 18 scores ... Pro Career: Powerful run blocker and steady pass protector entering his second campaign in Kansas City . . . Could be a prospect to see duty at either guard or tackle for the Chiefs in 2001 . . . Played both right and left tackle during his tenure at Boston College, but worked primarily at the right tackle post for the Chiefs a year ago . . . Saw his lone regular season game duty at left guard in 2000 and could see more extensive time working at the guard post this season . . . Owns a wealth of talent and continues to hone his technique working on the offensive front . . . Provides the Chiefs with yet another talented, young offensive lineman . . . Is reunited in Kansas City with former college teammate, RB Mike Cloud, who the Chiefs tabbed in the second round of the '99 NFL Draft . . . Was active for four games a year ago, seeing duty in one contest . . . Joined the Chiefs as the club's sixth-round selection (188th overall) in the 2000 draft. 2000: Was active for four games, playing in one contest . . . Was active at Tennessee (9/3), but did not play . . . Took one snap at left guard in place of an injured Jeff Blackshear vs. Carolina (12/10) . . . Was active vs. Denver (12/17) and at Atlanta (12/24), but did not play.

College: Started 31 of 33 career games during three seasons at Boston College . . . Was one of the key components in a Boston College offensive line that helped Cloud become the school's all-time leading rusher with 3,597 yards . . . In three collegiate seasons recorded 147 knockdown blocks . . . Started all 11 games at right tackle in '99 . . . Earned first team All-Big East Conference accolades . . . Registered a career-best 63 knockdowns . . . Returned to the roster in '98 after a one-year absence and made a powerful impact . . . Started the first nine games at left tackle as he totaled 40 knockdowns blocks on the season . . . Helped clear the path for Cloud who ranked third in the nation with a 156.9 yards-per-game rushing average . . . Sat out the '97 season for personal reasons . . . Started all 11 games at right tackle in '96 . . . Posted 44 knockdown blocks on the season . . . Redshirted as a true freshman in '95 . . . Majored in Human Development at Boston College.

Personal: Earned All-State, All-Region, All-District and All-Area accolades as a senior at Chancellor High School in Fredericksburg, Virginia . . . Was named to the Richmond Times-Dispatch Top 30 and the Roanoke Times Top 25 teams . . . Captured All-District basketball honors after leading his team in scoring and rebounding . . . Also lettered in track, setting a school record in the shot put with a toss of 53' 6" . . . Full name: Darnell LaShawn Alford . . . Married, wife Kathy . . . The Alford's reside in Kansas City, Missouri.

Pro Career: Fifth-year coverman entering his initial season with Kansas City after signing with the Chiefs as an unrestricted free agent from St. Louis on April 17th ... Will be tutored in Kansas City by Chiefs defensive backs coach Peter Giunta who spent the past four years with Allen in St. Louis, including the past three years ('98-00) as defensive coordinator ... Expected to compete for playing time at the club's left cornerback position and in the Chiefs sub-defenses ... Is also expected to contribute on special teams ... Adds depth and experience to an already talented Chiefs secondary ... During his tenure with the Rams, arguably faced the NFL's finest fleet of receivers in practice every day, allowing him to refine his coverage skills against some of the league's top performers such as Isaac Bruce, Torry Holt and Az-Zahir Hakim ... Saw his most extensive pro duty during the Rams run to Super Bowl XXXIV during the '99 campaign, seeing duty in all 16 regular season games and meriting a pair of starts ... Set career highs in '99 with a pair of interceptions, 39 tackles (34 solo) and eight passes defensed ... Has seen action in 57 regular season games with four starts ... Has registered 62 tackles (53 solo), two interceptions (76 yards), 13 passes defensed and 11 special teams tackles ... Saw action in four postseason games for the Rams, producing two tackles, a pass defensed and a special teams tackle ... Originally entered the league as a fifth-round selection (158th overall) of St. Louis in the '97 NFL Draft. At St. Louis (1997-00): Appeared in 57 games (four starts) for the Rams during his four seasons in St. Louis ... Produced 62 tackles (53 solo), two interceptions, 13 passes defended, half a sack (-1.5 yards) and 11 special team tackles ... Racked up two tackles, a pass defensed and a special teams stop in four postseason games ... Played in St. Louis victory against Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV. 2000: Played in 11 games with one start ... Finished the regular season with two tackles (one solo) and four stops on special teams ... Was inactive for the first two games of season vs. Denver (9/4) and at Seattle (9/10) ... Was inactive vs. Atlanta (10/17), at Kansas City (10/22) and at San Francisco (10/29) ... Registered fourth career start when the Rams opened in their dime package vs. Carolina (11/5) and recorded season-high two special teams tackles ... Played on special teams in the NFC Wild Card Game at New Orleans (12/30), making one special teams tackle. 1999: Played in all 16 regular season games with two starts ... Recorded season highs in tackles (39), interceptions (two), passes defensed (eight) and special teams tackles (five) ... Collected half a sack (-3.0 yards) of Scott Mitchell vs. Baltimore (9/12) and collected one special teams tackle. Was also on the receiving end of a lateral after a Todd Lyght interception and was credited with 36 return yards ... Recorded the first interception of his NFL career against Jeff Garcia and returned it a career-long 40 yards vs. San Francisco (10/10) ... Posted a career-high six tackles vs. New Orleans (11/28) ... Got his second INT of the year in the fourth quarter at New Orleans (12/12) ... NE LOUISIANA
FREE AGENT (2001)
NFL: 15 (1ST WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: AUGUST 15, 1962
ALEXANDRIA, LOUISIANA
GP/GS: (99/75) PLAYOFFS: (7/2)

Pro Career: Charismatic quarterback enters his 15th pro season and entering 2001 is the senior signal-caller in all of the National Football League ... Will be 39 years and 29 days old on Opening Day vs. Oakland (9/8/01), making him the oldest active QB in the league this season ... Signed with Kansas City as a free agent on April 20th of this year ... Expected to work as the Chiefs number three QB this season behind Trent Green and Todd Collins ... Has seen virtually every defense imaginable in his previous 14 pro seasons and should provide a solid sounding board for not only Green and Collins, but the entire Chiefs offense ... Is a seasoned competitor who still throws a good ball ... Owns the skills, desire and ability to step into the lineup at a moment's notice ... Has been a popular personality in the locker room of the teams where he's previously been stationed around the league and has already hit it off in Kansas City ... Possesses a fun-loving personality which typically is infectous in the locker room ... Spent a substantial portion of his career as a starter, but has called upon his minor league baseball experience by performing well out of the bullpen in his most recent NFL seasons ... Perhaps his best work in a supporting role came during Denver's run to a second straight Super Bowl title in '98 when he saw action in place of the legendary John Elway in seven contests. Started four of those games and posted a pristine 4-0 mark as the Broncos compiled a 14-2 regular season record and claimed a victory in Super Bowl XXXIII ... Also received a Super Bowl XXXII ring with Denver the previous season in '97 ... The 2001 campaign marks the third straight season Kansas City has boasted the most seasoned performer in the league after having the venerable Warren Moon on the roster the past two years ... Is 69 days older than the NFL's second-oldest active NFL QB, Doug Flutie (San Diego), who was born on October 23rd of '62 ... Is 222 days older than the league's third-oldest active QB, Randall Cunningham (Dallas), who he teammed with in Philadelphia from '93-94. However, Cunningham actually began his NFL tenure a year earlier than Brister in '85 due to Brister's minor league baseball stint after high school ... While he currently owns the distinction of being the elder statesman of active NFL quarterbacks, at the time of his initial start as a rookie in '86, was actually the youngest QB to start in the league that season. Received that first starting nod with Pittsburgh on Monday Night Football, opening at Cincinnati (10/13/86). Was eventually surpassed later in the year by three younger signal-callers making their initial starts (Bernie Kosar - Cleveland, Chuck Long - Detroit and Mike Tomczak - Chicago) ... Entered the NFL with Pittsburgh ('86-92) and also enjoyed stints with Philadelphia ('93-94), the N.Y. Jets ('95), Denver ('97-99) and Minnesota ('00) prior to coming to Kansas City ... Like Cunningham, did not play during the '96 season ... Has played in a grand total of 99 regular season games (75 starts) ... Has completed 1,207 of 2,212 passes (54.6%) for 14,445 yards and 81 touchdowns good for a 72.3 rating ... Has rushed 188 times for 523 yards (2.8 avg.) with eight TDs ... Owns a career record of 37-38 as a starter (28-29 with Pittsburgh, 4-6 with Philadelphia, 1-3 with the N.Y. Jets and 4-0 with Denver) ... Did not start any contests during his one-year tenure with Minnesota ... Has five 300-yard games to his credit, getting three with Pittsburgh and two with Philadelphia ... Has participated in seven postseason games (two starts), completing 34 of 62 passes (54.8%) for 356 yards and a score ... Has reached either the NFC or AFC Championship Game in three of the past four seasons, getting back-to-back Super Bowl rings with Denver in '97 and '98, while going to the NFC title game with Minnesota a year ago ... Originally drafted in the third round (67th overall) of the '86 NFL Draft by Pittsburgh out of Northeast Louisiana ... Was also selected in the 11th round (80th overall) by the New Jersey Generals in the '86 USFL Draft but did not sign with the rival league ... Chosen by the Detroit Tigers in the fourth round of the '81 baseball free agent draft as well. At Minnesota (2000): Competed in two games completing 10 of 20 passes for 82 yards with one interception ... Also rushed five times for 20 yards ... Completed a four-yard pass to Cris Carter vs. Arizona (11/12) when he finished the game for Duante Culpepper ... Saw his most significant action of the season in the regular season finale at Indianapolis (12/24) when he came into the game in the first quarter to replace an injured Culpepper, completing nine of 18 passes for 78 yards ... Saw time on the Vikings final drive of the game in an NFC Divisional Playoff contest vs. New Orleans (1/6/01). At Denver

(1997-99): Saw action in 10 games (four starts) during three seasons in Denver ... Completed 96 of 160 passes (60.0%) for 1,121 yards with 10 touchdowns and six interceptions good for a 91.9 rating ... Rushed 25 times for 121 yards with one score ... Saw action in four playoff games including Super Bowl XXXII and XXXIII ... Won two Super Bowl rings with Denver in '97 and '98. 1999: Played in two games and completed 12 of 20 passes for 87 yards with three interceptions good for a 30.6 rating, and rushed twice for 17 yards ... Began the season as the backup, then was designated the third quarterback for Weeks 5-9 and was inactive for Weeks 10-11 because of an injury to the oblique muscle in his left side ... Tore cartilage in his knee in practice on November 4th, which further hampered his efforts to return to the field ... He was active for each of the final five games of the season, as the backup to Brian Griese, but did not play ... His two appearances were fourth quarter relief stints at Kansas City (9/19) and vs. the N.Y. Jets (10/3) ... Directed the final two drives at Kansas City (9/19) and completed nine of 15 passes for 65 yards ... Led Denver on its final two drives vs. the N.Y. Jets (10/3). 1998: Played in seven games with four starts, completing 78 of 131 passes for 986 yards with 10 touchdowns and just three interceptions, good for a career-best rating of 99.0 ... Rushed 19 times for 102 yards (5.4 avg.) with one touchdown ... Did not have enough pass attempts to qualify for the league rankings, but that career-best passer rating would have ranked second in the AFC and fifth in the NFL ... Was an integral part of the club's run to a Super Bowl XXXIII title ... Saw his first action vs. Dallas (9/13), completing his only pass for 38 yards to Ed McCaffrey ... First significant action of the season came when he replaced Elway (hamstring) midway through the second quarter at Oakland (9/20) and led the Broncos to a win by completing 10 of 17 passes for 140 yards and two touchdowns. His first TD went three yards to Howard Griffith, marking his initial scoring toss since a game at Indianapolis (10/29/95) as a member of the N.Y. Jets ... Got his first start as a member of the Broncos at Washington (9/27), marking his first start since getting an opening nod vs. New England (11/5/95). Led Denver to a 38-16 win by completing 16 of 24 (66.7%) passes for 180 yards and two TDs. His winning performance in a starting role was the first by a Broncos quarterback other than John Elway since current Denver offensive coordinator Gary Kubiak led Denver to a 14-10 win in relief at Washington (11/20/89) ... Started again the next week vs. Philadelphia (10/4) and tied a career high with four touchdown passes en route to completing 16 of 29 (55.2%) passes for 203 yards ... Started vs. San Diego (11/8) when Elway was suffering from strained rib muscles, completing 20 of 33 passes for 229 yards and two touchdowns in a 27-10 Broncos win ... Fourth start of the season came at Kansas City (11/16) on Monday Night Football, as he led Denver to a 30-7 win by completing 13 of 23 passes (56.5%) for 180 yards and he rushed five times for 53 yards, including the longest run of his career, a 38-yard touchdown on a bootleg in the first quarter ... Played in two of the Broncos three postseason games seeing action in relief of Elway in the fourth quater of both the AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Miami (1/9/99) and Super Bowl XXXIII vs. Atlanta (1/31/99). 1997: Signed with the Broncos in the offseason after a year away from football and began the season as the third quarterback ... Promoted to the backup position after the 13th game and spent the final three games of the regular season in that role ... Only action of the season came in the season finale vs. San Diego (12/21) when he replaced Elway in the third quarter. His totals for the day and the season included six completions in nine attempts for 48 yards ... Also rushed four times for two yards ... Made a postseason appearance, finishing the AFC Wild Card game vs. Jacksonville (12/27) piloting the Broncos on their final scoring drive, which was capped by a Vaughn Hebron six-yard touchdown run ... Served as the backup quarterback for the rest of Denver's playoff run which included a 31-24 victory vs. Green Bay (1/25/98) in Super Bowl XXXII. At N.Y. Jets (1995): Played nine games with four starts after signing with the N.Y. Jets as an unrestricted free agent on March 1st of '95 ... Completed 93 of 170 passes (54.7%) for 726 yards with four touchdowns and eight interceptions ... Also carried the ball 16 times for 18 yards ... In the season opener at Miami (9/3) he spelled Boomer Esiason and went five-of-eight for 37 yards ... Completed 13 of 23 passes for 112 yards with a touchdown and an interception at Buffalo (10/8) ... The next week at Carolina (10/15) completed 17 of 41 passes for 143 yards ... A week later vs. Miami (10/22) he completed 15 of 26 passes for 152 yards with two touchdowns in a 17-16 win ... He followed that at Indianapolis (10/29) by hitting on 19 of 31 attempts for 154 yards, a touchdown and an interception. At Philadelphia (1993-94): Saw action in 17 games (10 starts) during his two years in Philadelphia ... Completed 232 of 385 passes (60.3%), good for 2,412 yards with 16 touchdowns and six interceptions which translated into an 85.8 rating ... Rushed 21 times for 46 yards. 1994: Played in seven games (two starts) as the backup to Randall Cunningham ... Completed 51 of 76 passes for 507 yards, two touchdowns and one interception good for a 89.1 rating ... Also rushed one time for seven yards ... Served as the holder on field goals and PATs for the season's first five games ... Started the final two games of the year, eclipsing the 300-yard passing mark for the fifth time in his career with a 26-of-37, 325-yard, one-TD performance in the season finale at Cincinnati (12/24). 1993: Started eight games and finished fourth in the NFC (seventh NFL) with an 89.4 passer rating ... Completed 181 of 309 passes for 1,905 yards, 14 touchdowns and five interceptions good for a 84.9 rating ... Ran the ball 20 times for 39 yards ... Led Philadelphia to a 4-2 record over the final six games ... Took over for Cunningham in the fourth game of the season at the N.Y. Jets (9/3) and started two games before missing the next five games with neck and ankle injuries ... He led a 75-yard game-winning drive at Washington (11/28) that culminated with a two-yard pass to James Joseph with 46 seconds remaining in regulation to give the Eagles a 17-14 victory ... Brister set career-highs for attempts (45) and completions (27) at Dallas (12/6) ... Topped the performance a week later with 28 completions on 48 attempts for 299 yards and a score vs. Buffalo (12/12) ... Had three TD passes at New Orleans (12/26) ... Threw for three touchdowns and 350 yards and led a 68-yard overtime drive that set up the game-winning field goal in the season finale at San Francisco (1/3/94) on Monday Night Football. At Pittsburgh (1986-92): Played in 61 games (57 starts) during his seven seasons in Pittsburgh ... Attempted 1,477 passes with 776 completions (52.5%), good for 10,104 yards with 51 touchdowns and 57 interceptions good for a 69.8 rating ... Carried the pigskin 124 times for 341 yards with seven scores ... Helped lead Pittsburgh to playoff appearances in '89 and '92. 1992: Played in six games, starting the final four games in place of an injured Neil O'Donnell to get the club into the playoffs ... Completed 63 of 116 passes for 719 yards with two touchdowns and five interceptions good for a 61.0 rating ... Carried the ball 10 times for 16 yards ... Led the team to two comeback victories, including a 23-13 win vs. Cleveland (12/27) that clinched a home playoff contest for the Steelers. 1991: Started the first five games for Pittsburgh before a sprained knee forced him out of the next eight contests ... Made eight starts on the year ... Completed 103 of 190 passes for 1,350 yards with nine TDs and nine INTs good for a 72.9 rating ... Ran with the pigskin 11 times for 17 yards ... Returned to the starting lineup for the final three games of the season ... Produced a 5-3 mark as a starter. 1990: Started all 16 games for the first time in his career and had his best year as a pro, setting career highs in attempts (387), completions (223), passing yards (2,725), touchdown passes (20) and passer rating (81.6) ... Rushed 25 times for 64 yards ... The 20 scores were the most by a Pittsburgh quarterback since Terry Bradshaw's 22 in '81 ... Ranked sixth in the AFC and 10th in the NFL in passer rating ... Had an outstanding day at Denver (10/14) completing 21 of 28 for a career-high 353 yards and 4 touchdowns in a 34-17 win, including a career-long 90-yard touchdown pass to Dwight Stone ... Earned AFC Offensive Player of the Month honors for October. 1989: Started 14 games for the Steelers and finished the season with a 73.1 passer rating ... Completed 187 of 342 passes for 2,365 yards and nine touchdowns and 10 interceptions ... Also ran the ball 27 times for 25 yards ... Had a stretch of eight games without throwing an interception after throwing three on opening day vs. Cleveland (9/10)... Set a Steeler record with 15 consecutive completions at Detroit (10/1) and finished 21 of 27 for 267 yards and a touchdown to earn AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors ... Sprained his left knee vs. Cincinnati (10/8) forcing him to miss the next two games, but came back to lead the team to wins in five of their last six games ... Was 15-of-33 for 127 yards in Pittsburgh's 26-23 overtime AFC Wild Card victory at Houston (12/31) ... Was 19 of 29 for 229 yards and a score the next week in the AFC Divisional Playoff loss at Denver (1/7/90). 1988: Won the Steelers' starting job over Todd Blackledge and Steve Bono and led the team with six rushing touchdowns ... Attempted 370 passes with 175 completions for 2,634 yards with 11 touchdowns and 14 interceptions good for a 65.3 rating in 13 starts ... WEST VIRGINIA

DRAFT: (NO. 3 - 1996)
NFL: 6 (6TH WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: SEPTEMBER 30, 1973
MIAMI, FLORIDA
GP/GS: (51/39) PLAYOFFS: (1/0)

Pro Career: Mild-mannered Floridian proved to be one of the most versatile and valuable members of the Chiefs defense a year ago, starting at all four positions on the club's defensive front ... Unsung performer goes about his business quietly, toiling in the trenches diligently for Kansas City ... Joins S Jerome Woods and LB Donnie Edwards as the longest-tenured members of the Chiefs defensive unit ... All three of those defenders were tabbed by Kansas City in the '96 NFL Draft ... Entering his sixth NFL campaign in 2001 after producing his finest pro season to date last season ... Expected to battle Dan Williams for the starting nod at the club's "Eagle" defensive tackle post this year ... After injuries cost him all but eight games in '98-99, was the only Chiefs starting defensive lineman to make it through the 2000 season unscathed ... Played in all 16 games for the first time in his career and opened all 16 of those contests ... Started six games at right DT, five games at left DE, four contests at right DE and opened one game at left DT ... Set career highs with 71 tackles (43 solo) and 6.0 sacks (-31.0 yards) and ranked fourth on the team with a career-best 33 special teams stops ... Held together an injured-riddled defensive front and was a key reason Kansas City produced 51.0 sacks, the third-highest total in team history ... Rebounded in fine fashion in 2000 after a training camp Achilles injury cost him the entire '99 campaign and a back ailment kept him out of eight games in '98 ... Originally broke into a regular role as a starter with the club at right defensive end in '97 ... Possesses tremendous strength and surprising quickness which allow him to harass quarterbacks ... Frequently collapses the pocket, setting up sacks for his teammates ... Has seen duty in 51 regular season contests (39 starts), totaling 181 tackles (107 solo), 12.0 sacks (-52.5 yards), 84 quarterback pressures, two fumble recoveries, a forced fumble, an interception and two passes defensed ... Also owns one career playoff appearance ... Tabbed by the Chiefs in the third round (68th overall) of the '96 draft. 2000: Started all 16 games, opening games at all four positions on the defensive line (six at right DT, one at left DT, four at right DE and five at left DE) ... Established career highs with 6.0 sacks (-31.0 yards), 71 tackles (43 solo) and 33 QB pressures ... Also added one INT, one pass defensed and a fumble recovery ... Was fourth on the team in sacks and sixth in tackles ... Was one of five defensive starters to open all 16 games in 2000, marking the first time in his career he saw duty in every game ... Posted six tackles and one QB pressure at right DT vs. Indianapolis (9/3) ... Produced five tackles and two QB pressures at right DT at Tennessee (9/10) ... Started at right DE for the injured Duane Clemons vs. San Diego (9/17), producing a sack of Ryan Leaf (-9.0 yards), two QB pressures and four tackles ... Started at right DE at Denver (9/24), setting a career high with 11 tackles (seven solo) and two QB pressures ... Started at right DE vs. Seattle (10/2), registering five tackles and two QB pressures ... Started at right DE vs. Oakland (10/15), recording 1.0 sack (-6.0 yards) of Rich Gannon, three solo tackles, one QB pressure and also recovered a Gannon fumble ... Started at left DT for the injured Chester McGlockton vs. St. Louis (10/22), intercepting his first career pass (no yards) off Kurt Warner and recording a sack of Trent Green (-6.0 yards), four tackles and four QB pressures ... Started at left DE for the injured Eric Hicks at Seattle (10/29), producing seven tackles (five solo), five QB pressures and one pass defensed ... Started at left DE at Oakland (11/5), getting two tackles (one solo) and three QB pressures ... Totaled five tackles, 1.0 sack (-4.0 yards) of Jeff Garcia and one QB pressure at left DE at San Francisco (11/12) ... Had one tackle and five QB pressures at left DE vs. Buffalo (11/19) ... Posted three tackles and two QB pressures at left DE at San Diego (11/26) ... Had two tackles (one solo) and one QB pressure at right DT at New England (12/4) ... Contributed two solo tackles, 1.0 sack (-5.0 yards) of Steve Beuerlein and a QB pressure at right DT vs. Carolina (12/10) ... Produced four tackles and one QB pressure at right DT vs. Denver (12/17) ... Had seven tackles and 1.0 sack of Chris Chandler (-1.0 yard) at Atlanta (12/24). 1999: Missed the entire preseason and regular season schedule when he suffered a right Achilles injury at training camp in River Falls on August 9th ... Was subsequently placed on injured reserve on August 31st, where he spent the remainder of the year. 1998: Played in eight games (eight starts) at left defensive end, contributing 37 tackles (19 solo) and six QB pressures ... Inactive with a right ankle injury for the regular season's first two weeks vs. Oakland (9/6) and at Jacksonville (9/13) ... WASHINGTON STATE
FREE AGENT (2000)
NFL: 9 (2ND WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: DECEMBER 2, 1969
ATLANTA, GEORGIA
GP/GS: (120/76) PLAYOFFS: (4/1)

Pro Career: Solid all-around linebacker enters his second campaign with Kansas City after joining the Chiefs as a free agent on March 4th of 2000 following a seven-year stay with San Diego ... Highly-regarded by Kansas City after competing against him twice a year with the Chargers for seven seasons ... Enters camp in 2001 as the top candidate to fill the starting role at the club's left outside "SAM" linebacker post ... Split the starting chores with Mike Maslowski at the left outside "base" LB post a year ago ... With Maslowski moving to his more natural middle linebacker post in 2001, Bush's primary competition for the starting role at LOLB will likely come in the form of 10-year veteran and longtime Broncos LB, Glenn Cadrez ... Versatile performer who has played both inside and outside during his pro career and also worked at defensive end in college ... Played in all 16 games (eight starts) in his debut season with the Chiefs in 2000 ... Racked up just his second career INT a year ago, getting it against his former club in a 42-10 romp vs. San Diego (9/17) in his first NFL contest against the Chargers ... Physical player who can stuff the run, as evidenced by his ability to work inside ... Also has the athletic skills to rush the passer, drop in coverage or chase down plays from the backside ... Provides an excellent complement to Donnie Edwards at the club's other outside LB post and Marvcus Patton in the middle ... Should this Washington State alum ward off Cadrez for the starting LOLB spot, it would give the Chiefs a trio of starting linebackers who all hail from the Pac 10, joining UCLA products Edwards and Patton ... Originally made a name for himself as special teams standout for San Diego, but quickly progressed as a defensive player and became a mainstay in the Chargers starting lineup, opening 68 of the 72 games he's played in since '95 ... Was named the Chargers Special Teams Player of the Year as a rookie in '93 ... Took over the team's starting outside linebacker role in '95, but showed his versatility by also starting at inside linebacker in '97 ... Has seen duty in a total of 120 regular season games (76 starts), tallying 275 tackles (224 solo), 4.0 sacks (-21.0 yards), two INTs for 33 yards, nine passes defensed, five fumbles forced, four fumble recoveries and five QB pressures ... Owns 38 career special teams tackles, as well ... Also owns four career playoff appearances with one start, including duty in Super Bowl XXIX following the '94 season with San Diego ... Has recorded a pair of tackles, a fumble recovery and a pass defensed in postseason action ... Originally entered the league as the second of San Diego's two selections in the fourth round (99th overall) of the '93 NFL Draft. At Kansas City (2000): Played in all 16 games, getting eight starts at LOLB ... Recorded 33 tackles (24 solo), one INT for 33 yards, five QB pressures, a sack (-6.0 yards), a forced fumble and four special teams tackles ... Started the first six games of the year, getting three tackles in his Chiefs debut vs. Indianapolis (9/3) ... Compiled three tackles, one QB pressure and a tackle on punt coverage at Tennessee (9/10) ... Posted his second career INT vs. San Diego (9/17) when he stepped in front of a Ryan Leaf pass, returning it 33 yards. Also recorded two solo tackles and a pair of QB pressures against the Chargers ... Totaled a season-high seven tackles (five solo) and one QB pressure at Denver (9/24) ... Recorded six tackles vs. Seattle (10/2) ... Tallied four solo stops vs. Oakland (10/15) ... Saw reserve action at LOLB when the team opened in a dime package vs. St. Louis (10/22), notching his first sack as a Chief against Kurt Warner (-6.0 yards), one QB pressure and a solo tackle ... Saw reserve action at LOLB when the team opened in a nickel package at Seattle (10/29), racking up five solo tackles and forcing a Shaun Alexander fumble ... Made two tackles in a starting role at Oakland (11/5) ... Started at LOLB at San Francisco (11/12) ... Saw action on special teams vs. Buffalo (11/19) ... Had one tackle on punt coverage at San Diego (11/26) ... Saw action on special teams at New England (12/4) and vs. Carolina (12/10) ... Recorded one tackle apiece on punt coverage vs. Denver (12/17) and at Atlanta (12/24). At San Diego (1993-99): Saw duty in 104 games (68 starts) in seven seasons with the Chargers, producing 242 tackles (200 solo), 3.0 sacks (-15.0 yards), an INT, nine passes defensed, four forced fumbles, and four fumble recoveries ... Racked up 34 special teams tackles, as well ... Produced two tackles, a fumble recovery and a pass defensed in four games (one start) of postseason action. 1999: Saw duty in all 16 games (14 starts) at outside linebacker, tallying 44 tackles (40 solo), one sack, one fumble recovery and two passes defensed ... Tackle total was seventh on the squad and second among the club's linebackers behind only team MVP Junior Seau ... Posted four tackles apiece at Kansas City (10/31), vs. Denver (11/7) and at Oakland (11/14) ... Recorded his lone sack of the season (-3.0 yards) and three tackles vs. Cleveland (12/5) ... Garnered six solo tackles vs. Oakland (12/26) ... Tallied a season-high seven solo tackles in a 12-6 triumph at Denver (1/2/00). 1998: Started all 10 games he played in at outside linebacker ... Missed the final six games of the year with a knee injury ... Finished the season with 18 tackles, one sack, two passes defensed and one forced fumble ... Posted a season-high four stops vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/27) ... Made two tackles and recorded his lone sack of the season (-7.0 yards) vs. Baltimore (11/15) before leaving the game with a sprained MCL in his right knee ... Was inactive for the next five games and was placed on injured reserve December 26th, one day before the season finale at Arizona (12/27). 1997: Saw duty in 14 games (13 starts) ... Opened seven games at outside linebacker and six more at the inside linebacker post ... Of his six starts at inside linebacker, five came in place of an injured Kurt Gouveia and one in place of an injured Seau ... Tallied 56 tackles (51 solo) and three passes defensed while adding one tackle on special teams ... Opened the year at weak inside linebacker spot in place of Seau at New England (8/31), responding with five tackles ... Started at weak inside linebacker vs. Indianapolis (10/26) after Kurt Gouveia was lost for season with a disc injury in his neck with Seau taking Gouveia's spot and Bush moving to Seau's post ... Suffered a strained left hamstring on punt coverage and did not return vs. Seattle (11/9) ... Was inactive vs. Oakland (11/16) and at San Francisco (11/23) ... Returned to the starting lineup vs. Denver (11/30), recording one tackle ... Started vs. Atlanta (12/7), vs. Kansas City (12/14) and at Denver (12/21), posting a season-high eight tackles against the Broncos. 1996: Started all 16 games for the first time in his career, producing a career-high 64 tackles (48 solo), one sack, two fumble recoveries and a pass defensed ... Also notched seven special teams stops ... Recorded his first career sack (-5.0 yards) and six tackles at Seattle (11/27) ... Tallied seven tackles at Chicago (12/14) ... Produced a season-high nine stops vs. Denver (12/22). 1995: Saw duty in 16 games (15 starts), compiling 56 tackles, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, one INT, one pass defensed and a special teams tackle ... Opened the season starting at Oakland (9/3), vs. Seattle (9/10), at Philadelphia (9/17) and vs. Denver (9/24) ... Played, but did not start at Pittsburgh (10/1), producing six tackles and his first career INT ... Returned to the starting lineup, posting a career-high 10 tackles at Kansas City (10/9) ... Chalked up seven tackles vs. Dallas (10/15) ... Recovered a fumble on the opening kickoff to help set up a Chargers score vs. Cleveland (12/3) ... Recorded five tackles, forced one fumble and recovered another at the N.Y. Giants (12/23) ... Started the club's AFC Wild Card playoff game vs. Indianapolis (12/31), recording two tackles and one pass defensed. 1994: Saw reserve duty in all 16 regular season games, plus the club's three playoff contests including Super Bowl XXIX ... Ranked third on the squad with 12 special teams tackles and forced one fumble ... Recovered a muffed punt vs. the L.A. Rams (11/27) ... Recorded two tackles in the playoffs, seeing special teams action in the AFC Divisional Playoffs vs. Miami (1/8/95), the AFC Championship Game at Pittsburgh (1/15/95) and Super Bowl XXIX vs. San Francisco in Miami (1/29/95). 1993: Saw action in all 16 games as a rookie, posting two tackles on defense ... Led the squad with a career-high 13 special teams tackles and was named the club's Special Teams Player of the Year ... His 260 total plays on special teams led the club, as did his five special teams stops inside the opponent's 20-yard line ... Got his lone tackles on defense vs. the L.A. Raiders (11/21) and vs. Miami (12/27).

NFL: 6 (2ND WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: MAY 23, 1974
RIVERSIDE, CALIFORNIA
GP/GS: (70/28) PLAYOFFS: (5/2)

Pro Career: Top-flight pass rusher spread his wings in Kansas City a year ago ... Joined the club as an unrestricted free agent from Minnesota on March 24th of 2000 ... Former first-round draft choice immediately impressed Kansas City a year ago and stepped into a starting role for the club at right defensive end, where he is slated to work once again ... High-intensity performer possesses a lethal combination of speed, power and long arms which allows him to create havoc coming off the edge ... Is adept at the art of the sack and strip, as well ... Known for getting a good jump off the ball in pass rushing situations, but is also a staunch run defender ... Was poised for a prolific season in 2000 after getting a career-high 2.5 sacks in the season's second game, but suffered a hip injury in that contest at Tennessee (9/10/00) which hampered him for the remainder of the campaign ... Sat out the next four contests, but rebounded to start the final 10 games of the year ... Despite missing a quarter of the season, still racked up a career-high 75 tackles, more than double his previous personal-high of 32 he set with Minnesota in '99 ... Also added 7.5 sacks to rank second on the club in his debut season with the Red and Gold, just two sacks shy of his career mark of 9.5 he established in his final year with the Vikings ... Should he stay healthy, certainly has the potential to become a double-digit sack artist, particularly with the threat of Eric Hicks working at the Chiefs other DE position ... Appears to have finally found his NFL niche at defensive end ... Played defensive end in the collegiate ranks and was moved to linebacker by Minnesota, but was then switched back to defensive end by the Vikings midway through his rookie campaign ... Frequently gets his sacks in bunches, owning seven contests with 2.0 or more QB takedowns ... Has produced a pair of multi-sack games during his tenure with the Chiefs ... Has seen action in 70 games (28 starts) during his five NFL seasons, collecting 26.0 sacks (-129.5 yards), 165 tackles (100 solo), 7.5 tackles for loss, 113 QB pressures, seven fumble recoveries, six forced fumbles and 11 passes defensed ... Playoff tested, played in the postseason each of his last three seasons with the Vikings, seeing action in five playoff games with two starts ... Owns six tackles, a sack, four QB pressures and a pass defensed in postseason play ... Originally entered the NFL in the first round of the '96 draft (16th overall) out of California, where he was a teammate of Chiefs Pro Bowl tight end Tony Gonzalez. At Kansas City (2000): Started 12 games at right DE and led all Chiefs defensive linemen and finished fifth on the team with a career-high 75 tackles (39 solo) ... Despite missing four games due to an injury, tied for second on the team with 7.5 sacks (-36.5 yards) and tied for third with six passes defensed ... Also had one forced fumble, a fumble recovery and 38 QB pressures ... Tallied seven tackles and three QB pressures in his Kansas City debut vs. Indianapolis (9/3) ... Posted eight tackles, a career-high 2.5 sacks (-14.5 yards) (1.0 - Steve McNair -1.0 yard; 1.5 - Neil O'Donnell -13.5 yards), a career-high seven QB pressures and had a pass defensed at Tennessee (9/10). Delivered a bone-jarring hit which knocked McNair out of the game in the fourth quarter ... Was inactive vs. San Diego (9/17), at Denver (9/24), vs. Seattle (10/2) and vs. Oakland (10/15) due to a hip injury suffered at Tennessee (9/10) ... Started at right DE vs. St. Louis (10/22), producing eight tackles (three solo) and six QB pressures. Also had two passes defensed, one of which was intercepted by John Browning ... Totaled five tackles, two QB pressures and recovered a Shaun Alexander fumble at Seattle (10/29) ... Posted six tackles and three QB pressures at Oakland (11/5) ... Compiled 10 tackles (six solo), 1.0 sack (-6.0 yards) of Rob Johnson and three QB pressures vs. Buffalo (11/19) ... Contributed four solo tackles, one forced fumble, 1.0 sack (-8.0 yards) of Ryan Leaf, four QB pressures and two passes defensed at San Diego (11/26) ... Recorded five tackles and one pass defensed at New England (12/4) ... Collected six tackles, three QB pressures and 2.0 sacks (-5.0 yards) of Steve Beuerlein vs. Carolina (12/10) ... Totaled two tackles and five QB pressures vs. Denver (12/17) ... Had a career-high 11 tackles (seven solo), two QB pressures and 1.0 sack (-3.0 yards) of Chris Chandler at Atlanta (12/24). At Minnesota (1996-99): Saw action in 58 games (16 starts) during four seasons in Minnesota, collecting 18.5 sacks (-95.0 yards), 90 tackles (61 solo), 7.5 tackles for loss, 75 QB pressures, six fumble recoveries, five forced fumbles and five passes defensed ... Added six tackles, a sack, four QB pressures and a pass defensed in five games (two starts) of postseason play. 1999: Saw duty in 16 games (nine starts), tallying 32 tackles (26 solo), 9.0 sacks (-47.0 yards), one tackle for loss, 31 QB hurries, three passes defensed, four fumble recoveries and three forced fumbles ... Also notched four tackles, two tackles for loss, three QB pressures and one pass defensed in two playoff starts ... Posted a key fourth-quarter sack of QB Chris Chandler, forcing a field goal attempt that sailed wide left in a season-opening 17-14 win at Atlanta (9/12) ... Recovered a fumble vs. Oakland (9/19) ... Recorded 2.0 sacks (-15.0 yards) of Brett Favre at Green Bay (9/26) ... Made one tackle, knocked down a season-best two passes and matched a season-high with four QB pressures vs. Tampa Bay (10/3) ... Made two tackles and posted a sack for a one-yard loss at Detroit (10/17) ... Notched two QB pressures vs. San Francisco (10/24) ... Recorded two tackles, two QB pressures and a fumble recovery at Denver (10/31) ... Tied a career high with two forced fumbles at Chicago (11/14), while also producing four tackles, 2.0 sacks (-6.0 yards) and two QB pressures ... Had three tackles and two QB pressures at Kansas City (12/12) ... Tallied a season-high five tackles, a sack (-2.0 yards), two QB pressures and a forced fumble at the N.Y. Giants (12/26) ... Got the fifth two-sack game of his career with 2.0 sacks (-20.0 yards) vs. Detroit (1/2/00) ... Racked up two tackles, a tackle for loss, a sack (-8.0 yards) and two QB pressures in a starting role in the NFC Wild Card Playoffs vs. Dallas (1/9/00) ... Started in the NFC Divisional Playoffs at St. Louis (1/16/00) and produced two tackles, a tackle for loss, a QB pressure and a pass defensed. 1998: Played in all 16 games for the first time in his career, starting four times ... Posted 29 tackles (21 solo), 2.5 sacks and one pass defensed ... Also ranked second on the club with 44 QB pressures, trailing only John Randle ... Started at DE vs. Tampa Bay (9/6) ... Pro Career: Third-year runner enters training camp in 2001 as the Chiefs number two RB behind unrestricted free agent signee Priest Holmes . . . Turned in a solid off-season program and with his blend of running and pass-catching skills, should prove a nice fit for Kansas City's revamped offensive scheme . . . In addition to seeking a larger role on offense, could also get onto the field for the the Chiefs as a kickoff return artist after leading the club in that department a year ago . . . Scrappy performer who has come up with some of his biggest games at crucial times . . . Registered a pair of scores in 2000, getting one on a run to account for the game-winning score in a Monday Night Football contest vs. Seattle and his second on a blocked punt return in a victory over the defending Super Bowl champion St. Louis Rams . . . A versatile runner with the speed to get around the edge and the toughness to lower his shoulders between the tackles . . . Has appeared in 27 games (four starts) in his two prior campaigns with Kansas City ... Owns 65 carries for 212 yards (3.3 avg.) and one touchdown ... Has also caught five passes for 41 yards and has returned 38 kickoffs for 807 yards (21.2 avg.) ... Also has a TD on a blocked punt return and four special teams tackles ... Was one of seven different players (including six RBs) to lead Kansas City in rushing in a game as a rookie in '99, a first in franchise history ... Breakthrough game of his rookie season was a 37-34 come-from-behind win at Oakland (11/28/99) when he gained 54 of his team-high 58 yards in the second half, a total which accounted for nearly half of his yardage tally for the entire season ... Joined the Chiefs as Kansas City's second round draft choice (53rd overall) in the '99 NFL Draft ... Was the seventh running back selected overall behind Edgerrin James, Ricky Williams, James Johnson, Rob Konrad, Kevin Faulk and Joe Montgomery. 2000: Played in all 16 games on special teams and saw duty at RB in six games (four starts) ... Had 30 carries for 84 yards and one TD and two receptions for 16 yards ... Led the team with 36 kickoff returns for 779 yards (21.6 avg.) ... Also produced three special teams tackles ... Saw reserve duty at RB vs. Indianapolis (9/3), recording two carries for five yards and returning five kickoffs for 111 yards (22.2 avg.) ... Made his first career start at RB at Tennessee (9/10), recording seven carries for 10 yards ... Had eight carries for 21 yards vs. San Diego (9/17) ... Started at RB at Denver (9/24), rushing four times for five yards and hauling in one pass for a career-long 13 yards ... Started at RB vs. Seattle (10/2), totaling six carries for 36 yards and his first career TD, a 15-yard run for the go ahead score with 4:26 remaining in the game in a come-from-behind 24-17 win. Also had one catch for three yards and one KO return for 20 yards ... Started at RB vs. Oakland (10/15), producing three carries for seven yards and one KO return for 24 yards ... Saw action on special teams vs. St. Louis (10/22), returning John Baker's punt which was blocked by Bracy Walker six yards for a TD in the first quarter. Also returned three KOs for 60 yards ... Saw action on special teams at Seattle (10/29) ... Returned two kicks for 58 yards, including a 34-yarder at Oakland (11/5) and contributed one tackle on KO coverage ... Took back three KOs for 68 yards at San Francisco (11/12) ... Returned three KOs for 65 yards vs. Buffalo (11/19) ... Returned three KOs for 48 yards and made one stop on punt coverage at San Diego (11/26) ... Set career-highs in kickoff returns (six) and yards (157), including a career-long 38-yard runback at New England (12/4) ... Recorded two KO returns for 40 yards vs. Carolina (12/10) ... Took back two kickoffs for 43 yards vs. Denver (12/17) ... Had five KO returns for 85 yards and one tackle on KO coverage at Atlanta (12/24). 1999: Lined up on special teams in 11 games ... Also saw duty as a reserve RB in eight contests, producing 35 carries for 128 yards (3.7 avg.) ... LOUISIANA - MONROE

DRAFT (NO. 5B - 2000)
NFL: 2 (2ND WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: JUNE 30, 1978
SHREVEPORT, LOUISIANA
GP/GS: (16/13) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Aggressive young corner made the leap to the NFL ranks in a big way during his rookie campaign ... Declared early for the draft after just three years at Louisiana - Monroe, coming to Kansas City as a fifth-round selection a year ago ... Was expected to contribute on special teams and perhaps compete for a spot as an extra defensive back, but instead vaulted into Kansas City's starting lineup for 13 games at left CB ... Is expected to compete with 13-year NFL veteran Ray Crockett at left corner in 2001, but it will be tough to keep him off the field after playing such a big role a year ago ... Should benefit greatly working with a respected coverman such as Crockett ... Gifted bump-and-run performer who isn't afraid to get physical with opposing receivers ... Has already displayed a knack for dislodging the ball from opponents and fits Kansas City's traditional mold for defensive backs which puts a premium on takeaway skills ... Is still learning the nuances of the pro game and should continue to grow as he gets more game experience ... Was one of three rookies to start in the Chiefs secondary in 2000, joining S Greg Wesley and CB William Bartee ... Has played in 16 regular season contests (13 starts), producing 70 tackles (56 solo), seven passes defensed, two fumble recoveries and one fumble forced ... Owns one interception and two quarterback pressures ... Has 10 special teams tackles to his credit, as well ... Originally entered the NFL as the Chiefs second selection in the fifth round (162nd overall) of the 2000 NFL Draft. 2000: Played in 16 games with 13 starts at left CB ... Tallied 70 tackles (56 solo), one INT, a forced fumble, two fumble recoveries, two QB pressures and 10 special teams tackles ... Ranked second on the team with seven passes defensed ... Saw action as the nickel CB and played on special teams vs. Indianapolis (9/3), registering one pass defensed in his NFL debut ... Replaced an injured CB James Hasty in the fourth quarter at Tennessee (9/10) and recorded his first pro tackle, a pass defensed and a special teams tackle ... Made his first NFL start at left CB vs. San Diego (9/17), contributing five tackles, two passes defensed and one tackle on KO coverage ... Collected seven tackles and forced a Rod Smith fumble at Denver (9/24). Also had two tackles on KO coverage ... Made four solo tackles, had a KO coverage stop and recovered a Shaun Alexander fumble in the fourth quarter of a 24-17 Monday Night Football win vs. Seattle (10/2) ... Tallied a career-high nine tackles (seven solo) and a pass defensed vs. Oakland (10/15) ... Collected three solo tackles, a pass defensed and a career-high three tackles on KO coverage vs. St. Louis (10/22) ... Amassed six solo tackles and got his first career INT (no yards) off Jon Kitna in the fourth quarter at Seattle (10/29). Also made a key tackle on Seattle's final drive to help preserve a 24-19 win ... Collected five tackles and one QB pressure at Oakland (11/5) ... Made three tackles and one special teams stop at San Francisco (11/12) ... Had seven solo tackles vs. Buffalo (11/19) ... Saw reserve action at CB at San Diego (11/26) ... Compiled four tackles and a special teams stop at New England (12/4) ... Produced four tackles and a pass defensed vs. Carolina (12/10) ... Tallied five solo tackles and a pass defensed vs. Denver (12/17). Also recovered a fumble forced by Jerome Woods at the end of a 25-yard Mike Anderson run on the Broncos opening drive which changed the momentum in a 20-7 Chiefs victory ... Had six tackles at Atlanta (12/24).

College: Started all 34 games during his career after redshirting his first season with the Indians ... Ended his college tenure with 180 tackles (151 solo) and a school-record 36 passes defensed ... Also had 13 career interceptions, just two shy of the school-record ... Returned two of those pickoffs for scores ... Also returned one punt for a touchdown ... Earned All-Independent honors by Football News and first team All-Louisiana honors by the Louisiana Sports Writer's Association and Louisiana Football Magazine ... Opened all 11 contests and led the team with 10 passes defensed in '99 ... Tied for the team lead with three interceptions and totaled 40 tackles (32 solo) ... Earned third-team All-America honors from Football News after leading the nation with seven interceptions for 196 yards and two TD returns as a sophomore ... That INT total tied the school single-season record ... Also compiled a career-high 75 tackles (11 solo) ... His 18 passes defensed set a school record ... Returned an interception 100 yards for a TD vs. Nicholls State ...

Earned second team All-America honors by The Sporting News as a redshirt freshman ... Started all 12 games at left cornerback ... Tallied 65 tackles with three tackles for loss and one sack ... Tied for the team lead with three interceptions and had eight passes defensed ... Had 11 tackles and a sack vs. Louisiana Tech ... Redshirted as a true freshman ... EASTERN KENTUCKY
NFL: 5 (2ND WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: NOVEMBER 15, 1973
HARRODSBURG, KENTUCKY
GP/GS: (55/28) PLAYOFFS: (1/1)

Pro Career: Tremendously talented tight end entering his fifth pro campaign and his second year in the Red and Gold ... Originally inked with Kansas City as a free agent on July 11th a year ago ... Successfully rebounded from a knee injury which cost him the entire '99 season, only to be hindered by an injured clavicle in 2000 ... Bounced back from that injury to see duty in 14 games for the Chiefs last year ... Is expected to work as the Chiefs second tight end in 2001, working behind two-time Pro Bowler Tony Gonzalez ... Is a massive target for quarterbacks and gives Kansas City a whopping one-two punch when he and Gonzalez align in two-TE sets ... Has yet to fully tap his vast potential, but when healthy has shown the ability to be one of the league's most dynamic players at his position ... Has the size and strength to be a dominating blocker and the speed to split seams in the secondary ... Should be even further utilized in Kansas City's new offensive scheme which puts an even more increased premium on efficiency in the passing game ... Has seen action in 55 regular season games (28 starts) with the Eagles and Chiefs ... Owns 42 catches for 583 yards (13.9 avg.) with four touchdowns ... Also started one postseason game with Philadelphia as a rookie ... Originally entered the league as the second-round selection (54th overall) of the Eagles in the '96 NFL Draft. At Kansas City (2000): Played in 14 games at TE (two starts) ... Finished the year with two receptions for 26 yards and one tackle on special teams ... Was inactive vs. Indianapolis (9/3) and at Tennessee (9/10) with a clavicle injury suffered in the preseason ... Saw his first action in a Chiefs uniform in a reserve role at TE vs. San Diego (9/17) ... Caught one pass for six yards vs. Buffalo (11/19) and had a tackle on a blocked FG attempt ... Saw action as the club's second TE at San Diego (11/26) and at New England (12/4) ... Had one reception for 20 yards vs. Carolina (12/10) ... Started at TE vs. Denver (12/17) and at Atlanta (12/24) when the team opened in a two-TE set. At Philadelphia (1996-99): Was cut by the Eagles on June 17th of '99 after failing a team physical ... While injuries slowed him during his final two campaigns in Philadelphia, was considered one of the top receiving threats for the Eagles ... Appeared in 41 games (25 starts) during his tenure with the Eagles ... Caught 40 passes for 557 yards (13.9 avg.) with four TD receptions. 1998: Started 10 games before suffering a season-ending knee injury ... Registered 18 receptions for 132 yards (13.2 avg.) ... Hauled in a career-best four passes at Washington (10/11) ... Tore the posterior cruciate ligament in his left knee at Green Bay (11/29) and was subsequently placed on injured reserve on December 1st. 1997: Played in 15 games (four starts) despite the fact that he was slowed in the preseason by a knee injury suffered during mini-camp ... Totaled seven receptions for 93 yards (13.3 avg.) and four TDs ... Started four of the first six contests before seeing his role reduced when the offense went to a three WR set ... Turned a short pass into a 31-yard TD vs. Pittsburgh (11/23) after running over three would-be tacklers ... Added another 31-yard TD grab in the season finale at Washington (12/21). 1996: Emerged as one of the league's most promising tight ends during his rookie season when he played in all 16 games (12 starts) ... Recorded 15 receptions for 332 yards (22.1 avg.) with two touchdowns ... Capped the season by earning NFL All-Rookie Team honors from Pro Football Weekly, Football News, and Pro Football Newsweekly ... Six of his 15 catches during his rookie year covered 24 yards or more ... In the season opener at Washington (9/1), set up a TD when he snared a 54-yard pass from Rodney Peete ... In his fourth game as a professional, he hauled in a career-long 58-yard pass to set up another score vs. Atlanta (9/22) ... Registered his first TD as a pro vs. Carolina (10/27) as he connected on a nine-yard pass from Ty Detmer ... Went on to set up TDs with a 21-yard, highlight-film catch vs. Washington (11/17) and a 32-yard reception at Arizona (11/24) ... Hauled in his second career TD on a 14-yard reception from Detmer vs. the N.Y. Giants (12/1).

College: Lettered at Eastern Kentucky where he played TE and was also utilized as a part-time pass rusher as a defensive lineman ... Despite playing in a run-oriented offense, completed his collegiate career with 41 receptions for 615 yards and three touchdowns, plus 19 rushes for 199 yards (10.5 avg.) including two touchdown runs of 68 and 55 yards ... During his senior campaign, had 20 receptions for 221 yards (11.0 avg.) and two touchdowns ... On defense he registered 4.0 sacks and five tackles, while forcing one fumble and recovering two others ... During his Colonel career, he helped EKU reach the Division I-AA playoffs in all four seasons ... Majored in Psychology at Eastern Kentucky.

Personal: Is the youngest of 11 children ... His brother James was a free safety at Kentucky State and once participated in a Dallas Cowboys training camp, while another brother, Walter, participated in a training camp for the New Jersey Generals of the USFL ... Was a four-sport star at Harrodsburg (Ken.) High School, earning All-State honors in football as he played multiple positions, including middle linebacker, quarterback, offensive tackle, fullback and wide receiver ... Also lettered in basketball, baseball, and track ... Enjoys listening to music and reading ... Formed the "Dunn 4 Kids Foundation" with his siblings in 2000, which benefits charitable organizations in Kansas City and Lexington, Kentucky ... Full name: Jason Adam Dunn ... Single ... Resides in Blue Springs, Missouri.

UCLA
NFL: 6 (6TH WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: APRIL 6, 1973
SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA
GP/GS: (78/64) PLAYOFFS: (1/1)

Pro Career: Multi-talented and incredibly gifted linebacker is unquestionably one of the most versatile defensive performers in the entire National Football League ... Enters his sixth pro season and his sixth with the Chiefs in 2001 ... Will be the starter at the club's right outside "WILL" linebacker position, a spot he has manned the past two seasons ... Former fourth-round draft choice was arguably one of the biggest steals of the '96 NFL Draft ... An enthusiastic and energetic performer whose zest for life and the game of football rubs off on his teammates, his coaches and his ever-growing legion of fans in Kansas City and across the country ... Has fun at whatever he does, whether it's chasing down the league's top offensive players on Sundays or working with kids through his charitable causes on Tuesdays and in the off-season ... Is truly a unique commodity in today's era of specialization ... An adept defender in all phases of the game, can stuff the run like a defensive lineman, can rush the passer as well as an elite sack artist or can drop into coverage with the skill of a safety ... A true playmaker who owns three career defensive touchdowns, a total topped by just six other individuals in Chiefs history ... May in fact do too many things too well, which may somehow explain his relative lack of national postseason accolades ... Possesses blazing speed and incredible quickness which allows him to make plays from sideline to sideline, making him too valuable as a coverage man to send as a pass rusher with regularity ... Makes the most of those pass-rushing opportunities when he gets them, though ... His lack of gaudy sack numbers seems to be the only logical explanation as to why he has yet to receive a well-deserved Pro Bowl invitation ... Certainly is highly respected by his adversaries across the league and is annually one of the top vote-getters on both the players' and coaches' Pro Bowl ballots ... Those infrequent opportunities to rack up sacks may be the only reason why his tally in the fan vote has seemed to come up just short in recent years ... Despite those recent Pro Bowl snubs, continues to be undaunted, playing the game in quest of the NFL's ultimate team prize, not personal recognition ... Even without widespread national acclaim, is truly appreciated for his talents in Kansas City ... A very viable candidate to become the next representative in the Chiefs long-standing lineage of legendary linebackers which includes Pro Football Hall of Famers such as Bobby Bell and Willie Lanier, as well as the late Derrick Thomas, who was a mentor to Edwards during his first four seasons in the NFL ... In '99, Edwards joined the esteemed likes of Bell and Lanier as the only LBs in team history to pick off five passes in a single season ... Got two more INTs in 2000 to give him 10 pickoffs in his career, making him just the fifth linebacker in franchise annals to top the double-digit mark in the department ... The four Chiefs LBs who rank ahead of him in the career INT category are all enshrined in the Chiefs Hall of Fame - Canton honorees Lanier (27) and Bell (26), as well as Jim Lynch (17) and Sherrill Headrick (15) ... Since moving into a starting role for the Chiefs in '97 has been one of the NFL's most consistently productive linebackers ... Has racked up a remarkable 581 tackles since the '97 campaign, good for an eye-popping average of 145.3 stops per season from '97-00 ... Owns four straight seasons with 100-plus tackles and shows no signs of slowing down ... Based on that per-season average of 145 tackles, would need to continue that tepid pace for nearly two-and-a-half more seasons to surpass LB Gary Spani's franchise record of 999 career tackles, with a current estimated time of arrival at that record coming somewhere in the middle of the 2003 campaign ... Should he top the century mark in takedowns for a fifth consecutive year, would break the franchise record in that category, eclipsing the current franchise standard of four which he presently shares with Chiefs Hall of Fame inductee, S Deron Cherry ('83-86) and Spani ('78-81) ... Has led Kansas City in tackles for three consecutive years ('98-00) and could be the first Chiefs player to pull a four-peat in that department since MLB Tracy Simien ('92-95) ... Is coming off a 151-tackle season in 2000, which matched the career mark he initially established in '98 ... Those 151 stops are tied for the third-highest single-season mark in team annals and are just six shy of Spani's team record of 157 in '79 ... His 294 tackles in '98-99 and '99-00 were the most by a Chief in back-to-back seasons since Spani combined for 302 with 149 in '80 and 153 in '81 .... Truly durable performer is the owner of the longest starting streak of any active Chiefs defender at 41 games, opening 63 of a possible 64 games since becoming a full-time starter in '97 ... The lone blemish on that starting mark came vs. Pittsburgh (10/26/98) when he sat out due to a hip injury ... Although just in his sixth pro season, is already one of the elder statesmen on the Chiefs defense ... Joins fellow '96 draftees S Jerome Woods and DT John Browning as the longest-tenured Chiefs on the club's defensive roster ... Only G Will Shields and FB Tony Richardson have been with Kansas City longer than that esteemed defensive trio ... Always has the team concept in mind, which explains his willingness to play wherever he can help the squad the most ... Took over the starting chores at ROLB in '99 season after fellow UCLA alum Marvcus Patton took over the chores on the inside ... In 2000, Edwards (151) and LB Marvcus Patton (143) became just the second Chiefs linebacking tandem to top 100 tackles two straight years. Spani (144 in '78 and 157 in '79) and Thomas Howard (106 in '78 and 116 in '79) were the first defensive duo in Chiefs history to turn that rare LB double-play ... Edwards and Patton combined for 294 tackles a year ago, tying the team record for a defensive duo in a season. Spani (157) and DE Art Still (137) originally established the mark in '79 ... Before sliding to the ROLB spot in '99, had previously manned the club's starting middle linebacker post from '97-98, taking over that role in just his second NFL campaign ... Despite not possessing the bulk of a prototypical middle linebacker, quickly dispelled any concerns about his size by producing 301 tackles (194 solo) in his first three pro campaigns, as he frequently fended off 300-pound guards and centers with ease ... Has seen duty in 78 regular season games, missing only the '96 season opener and a '98 contest vs. Pittsburgh ... Owns 64 starting nods, including a string of 41 straight, and has opened one postseason contest ... In addition to his 595 stops (418 solo), has amassed ten interceptions, 13.0 sacks (-108.5 yards), 23 passes defensed, 54 QB pressures and 16 special teams stops in his four previous NFL seasons ... Has three touchdowns on defense, getting one score on a fumble return and two TDs on interception runbacks ... Was part of Kansas City's stellar defensive draft of '96, tabbed by the Chiefs in the fourth round (98th overall). 2000: Started 16 games at ROLB, collecting a team-leading 151 tackles (119 solo), 1.0 sack (-9.0 yards), three QB pressures, one fumble recovery and a pass defensed ... His 151 tackles tied a career high and tied as the third-highest total in team history ... Became the first Chief to lead the team in tackles three straight seasons ('98-00) since LB Tracy Simien did it four straight years from '92-95 ... Had eight double-digit tackle days and produced three games with 16 or more stops ... Tied for second on the team with two INTs, returning one for a 42-yard TD ... Recorded an interception for a three-yard return off QB Peyton Manning vs. Indianapolis (9/3). Also collected eight tackles (seven solo) on defense and got a stop on punt coverage, his first special teams tackle since '97 ... Returned a Steve McNair INT 42 yards for a score at Tennessee (9/10), adding five tackles ... Contributed five solo tackles, two QB pressures and a pass defensed vs. San Diego (9/17) ... Posted 10 tackles at Denver (9/24) ... Registered 12 tackles vs. Seattle (10/2) ... Totaled a team-high 16 tackles (13 solo) vs. Oakland (10/15) ... Enjoyed a collossal day in a 54-34 victory vs. St. Louis (10/22). Set a career-high with 17 tackles (13 solo), recovered a Kurt Warner fumble and added a QB pressure. Spent most of the day shadowing 2000 NFL MVP, RB Marshall Faulk who was held to just 67 rushing yards on the day. Those 17 stops broke his career high of 16 tackles which he had established the previous week ... Collected his first sack (-9.0 yards) of the season against Jon Kitna and had four tackles (two solo) at Seattle (10/29) ... Produced 11 tackles (10 solo) at Oakland (11/5) ... Had five tackles at San Francisco (11/12) ... Contributed three tackles vs. Buffalo (11/19) ... Posted eight tackles at San Diego (11/26) ... Totaled 16 tackles (11 solo) at New England (12/4) ... Registered 10 tackles (seven solo) vs. Carolina (12/10) ... Compiled five tackles (four solo) vs. Denver (12/17) ... Had 16 tackles (13 solo) at Atlanta (12/24). 1999: Started all 16 games at the right outside "stack" linebacker position, leading the club with 143 tackles (105 solo) ... Had a career-best five interceptions, one of which he returned for a TD ... Those five pickoffs tied a franchise record for linebackers, joining Bell ('68) and Lanier ('75) as the only other player with a quintet of interceptions in a season ... Those five INTs were also the most by an NFL linebacker since Philadelphia's William Thomas had seven in '95 ... Also collected 3.0 sacks (-18.0 yards) and two fumble recoveries, one of which resulted in a TD ... Forced two fumbles, recorded three passes defensed and added 17 QB pressures ... Produced five double-digit tackle games and was one of seven defensive starters to open all 16 games ... Picked up a fumble by QB Shane Matthews and sprinted 79 yards for the first TD of his career at Chicago (9/12) ... Collected a season-high 12 tackles and forced a Terrell Davis fumble vs. Denver (9/19) ... Produced a sack of Charlie Batch (-2.0 yards) vs. Detroit (9/26) ... Got his first interception of the year off Jim Harbaugh (no return) at San Diego (10/3) ... Produced a team-high 10 tackles vs. New England (10/10) and snapped Drew Bledsoe's string of 129 straight attempts without an INT when he made a leaping grab of a Bledsoe pass and returned it 15 yards ... Picked off a Stoney Case pass at Baltimore (10/21) and returned it three yards before pitching to Reggie Tongue, who returned it 46 yards for a TD ... Produced seven tackles (six solo) and one QB pressure vs. San Diego (10/31) ... Tallied a sack of Peyton Manning (-10.0 yards) at Indianapolis (11/7) to go along with seven tackles, a QB pressure and one pass defensed ... Recorded nine tackles and a QB pressure at Tampa Bay (11/14) ... Tallied a team-high 11 tackles and two QB pressures vs. Seattle (11/21) ... Recorded a team-high nine tackles and a sack of Rich Gannon (-6.0 yards) at Oakland (11/28) ... Posted eight tackles and two QB pressures at Denver (12/5) ... Produced a team-high 10 tackles vs. Minnesota (12/12) and forced a fourth quarter Randy Moss fumble which he recovered at the Chiefs seven-yard line ... Earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors vs. Pittsburgh (12/18) after intercepting a pair of Mike Tomczak passes, the first of which he returned 28 yards for a TD. Had a four-yard runback on his second INT and also recorded a team-high 13 tackles ... Posted a team-high 12 tackles at Seattle (12/26) ... Produced eight solo tackles and a career-best three QB pressures vs. Oakland (1/2/00). 1998: Started at middle linebacker in 15 contests ... Was the leading tackler on the club with 151 stops (97 solo) and also ranked second on the squad with a career-high 6.0 sacks (-54.5 yds.) ... His 151 tackles were the most by a Chief since Deron Cherry had 151 in '88 and were the third-highest tally since the team began officially recording tackles in '77 ... Had six tackles and one sack of Jeff George (-13.0 yds.) vs. Oakland (9/6) ... Recorded a team-high 14 tackles at Jacksonville (9/13) ... Tallied a team-best 11 stops, recovered a fumble and was credited with one QB pressure vs. San Diego (9/20) ... Matched a season high with 15 tackles (11 solo) at Philadelphia (9/27) ... Produced 14 stops at New England (10/11) ... Missed his only start over the past two seasons after being listed as inactive with a hip injury vs. Pittsburgh (10/26) ... Notched 12 tackles vs. the N.Y. Jets (11/1) ... Posted 11 tackles (five solo), a half of a sack of Warren Moon (-7.0 yds.) and two QB pressures at Seattle (11/8) ... Had a six-yard sack of Bubby Brister vs. Denver (11/16) ... Contributed eight tackles, one forced fumble and one QB pressure at San Diego (11/22) ... Posted a team-best 10 tackles and a career-high two sacks of Jake Plummer (-19.0 yds.) vs. Arizona (11/29) ... Tallied eight tackles (four solo) and a half sack of John Elway (-4.0 yds.) at Denver (12/6) ... Registered a team-high 11 tackles and one QB pressure at the N.Y. Giants (12/20) ... Tied a season high with 15 tackles (13 solo) at Oakland (12/26), including a sack of Wade Wilson (-9.0 yds.). 1997: Wrestled the starting middle linebacker post away from longtime stalwart Tracy Simien and produced dramatic results ... Started all 16 games, totaling a whopping 136 tackles (85 solo) to rank second on the squad behind Reggie Tongue (142) ... Had a team-high four forced fumbles and added 2.5 sacks (-20.0 yards), a pair of INTs, a fumble recovery, 20 QB pressures, 11 passes defensed and two special teams tackles ... Opened the year with 12 tackles and a forced fumble at Denver (8/31) ... Led the team with a career-high 15 tackles at Carolina (9/21), adding a pickoff of Kerry Collins which he returned 12 yards to set up a Marcus Allen TD run ... Credited with half of a sack of QB Warren Moon (-10.5 yards) and a forced fumble vs. Seattle (9/28) ... Enjoyed a stellar day vs. San Diego (10/16), collecting nine tackles, a sack (-4.0 yards), two QB pressures, a forced fumble and an interception off of Jim Everett ... Produced nine stops, two QB pressures and a forced fumble at St. Louis (10/26) ... Recorded 10 tackles, half a sack (-5.5 yards) and recovered a John Elway fumble which led to a touchdown vs. Denver (11/16) ... Teamed with Joe Phillips on a sack of Warren Moon at Seattle (11/23) ... Suffered a sprained thumb vs. San Francisco (11/30), but returned to the game ... Recorded a team-high 13 tackles, with a QB pressure, a batted ball and two special teams takedowns at San Diego (12/14) ... Started the club's AFC Divisional Playoff outing, recording five tackles and a pass defensed vs. Denver (1/4/98). 1996: Played in the club's final 15 regular season contests, starting one game ... Saw duty primarily on special teams before seeing an expanded role on defense down the stretch ... Finished the year with 14 tackles (12 solo), half a sack and one interception for 22 yards ... Added a QB pressure, three passes defensed and 13 stops on special teams ... Was inactive for the season opener at Houston (9/1) with a shoulder injury ... First NFL action on defense came vs. Seattle (9/15) when he recorded a pair of passes defensed and two special teams stops ... Added three tackles vs. Denver (10/27) ... Had a career-high three special teams takedowns vs. Green Bay (11/10) ... Enjoyed a break-out game in his initial pro start Thanksgiving Day at Detroit (11/28), recording a team-high eight tackles, half a sack, a QB pressure and an interception of Scott Mitchell which he returned for 22 yards to set up a second-quarter Kansas City score.

College: Enjoyed an outstanding college career at UCLA ... Saw action in 39 games (35 starts) during his four years, collecting 254 tackles, 21.5 sacks, 38 tackles for a loss, 12 forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and six interceptions ... Finished his college career ranked third in career tackles for a loss and fifth in sacks ... Had his senior season interrupted by a back injury which forced him to miss five full games ... Still started six games and contributed 29 tackles, two sacks and two forced fumbles as a middle linebacker ... Started all 11 games at right outside linebacker as a junior, leading the team with 106 tackles and 12.5 sacks, which was the second-highest single-season total in Bruins history (Carnell Lake - 13.5 in '87) ... That year he also had three INTs, two forced fumbles and one recovered fumble ... Earned third team All-America honors from the AP as a junior ... Tied a UCLA single-game sack record with 4.5 vs. SMU as a junior ... Started all 11 games as a sophomore, recording 63 tackles, six forced fumbles, two INTs and two sacks ... Ranked fourth on the team with 61 stops and had five sacks as a redshirt freshman ... Also spent time on the Bruins baseball squad before focusing full-time on football ... DRAFT (NO. 1 - 1997)
NFL: 5 (5TH WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: FEBRUARY 27, 1976
TORRENCE, CALIFORNIA
GP/GS: (63/47) PLAYOFFS: (1/0)

Pro Career: After just four professional seasons with Kansas City, this two-time Pro Bowl tight end has already established himself as one of the elite offensive performers in the entire National Football League ... At the ripe young age of 25, the best days for this sensationally talented competitor would seemingly still lie ahead ... Has lined up in a variety of different formations for the club, starting on the line of scrimmage, split out and even in the backfield and will likely continue to be utilized in a multitude of formations in the Chiefs new, high-flying offensive scheme ... Poses match-up problems for defensive backs and linebackers alike with his combination of speed, size and athleticism ... Can stretch a defense vertically with his speed and takes great pride in his blocking skills at the point of attack on the offensive line ... Endowed with outstanding leaping ability, which, combined with an amazingly flexible six-foot, four-inch frame, permits him to stretch out to make some sensational snags ... Possesses outstanding body control and a fluid running style after the catch ... Credits many of his moves on the gridiron to his basketball background, which included a stint on Cal's '97 "Sweet 16" NCAA Tournament team during his collegiate career ... Those roundball attributes are especially apparent when he goes up in the crowd to pull down a "rebound" or when he pivots and "blocks out" defenders to establish pass-catching position ... Is a truly devoted hoops junkie who has his own backyard court ... Spends a good portion of his off-seasons playing in elite pro summer leagues with NBA stars ... Typically celebrates touchdown receptions by emphatically slam-dunking the pigskin over the crossbar ... Became the first Pro Bowl tight end in Chiefs history following the '99 season and earned a starting spot in that game for the AFC once again in 2000 ... Was one of just nine of last year's Pro Bowlers to be unanimous choices of the players, coaches and fans ... Selected as a consensus first team All-Pro selection for the second consecutive year in 2000, including a berth on Dr. Z's Sports Illustrated All-Pro squad, as well the All-Pro units of the AP, USA Today, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly, in addition to College and Pro Football Newsweekly and Football Digest ... Also earned All-AFC accolades from Pro Football Weekly and Football News ... Possesses an unquenchable thirst to be the considered the very best at his position, which helps explain both his relentless work ethic and passionate quest for excellence ... Takes extra repetitions after practice, whether in the off-season, training or regular season and is almost always the last member of the squad off the field ... Is not satisfied with the success he has enjoyed thus far in the league and is constantly pushing himself and his teammates to strive for perfection ... Brings an upbeat, yet humble personality to practice every day and has not gotten caught up in the glare of the media spotlight ... Is unquestionably one of the brightest stars on the Chiefs roster, but is always quick to put team aspirations ahead of his personal accomplishments ... Soared to new record-breaking heights during his fourth pro season in 2000, shattering several NFL records for tight ends and breaking an abundance of Chiefs single-season standards ... In his fifth pro campaign in 2001 is poised to enter uncharted territory in many career sections of both the NFL and the Kansas City record books ... Shattered the Chiefs single-season reception record with 93 catches in 2000, abolishing Carlos Carson's previous mark of 80 in '83 ... His 1,203 receiving yards last season were both the fourth-highest tally in Kansas City history and the fourth-highest mark by a tight end in NFL annals ... Is rapidly charging up the Chiefs career receiving chart with 261 career catches, the most-ever by a Kansas City tight end and the eighth-highest all-time tally in franchise annals ... Needs a mere 18 more catches to surpass RB Ed Podolak (288) for the seventh spot and 91 receptions to bypass WR Carlos Carson (351) for sixth position ... Has 3,041 career receiving yards and requires just 61 more to surpass the total of 3,101 established by Chiefs Hall of Fame inductee Fred Arbanas, who owns the seventh-highest yardage tally of any player in franchise history ... Also ranks seventh in team history with 24 touchdown catches, needing 10 more to overtake Henry Marshall and Carson (33) who are tied for fifth and would surpass Arbanas' total of 34 for fourth place with 11 more scores in 2001 ... Has constructed a streak of four straight games with a TD catch each of the past two years, just one game shy of the team record ... A year ago, posted six 100-yard receiving games, the highest single-season mark in NFL history by a tight end, a tally which also tied a Kansas City record shared by WR Otis Taylor ('88), Carson ('83) and current teammate, WR Derrick Alexander (2000) ... That streak included four straight 100-yard outings, which gave him sole possession of both the NFL record for tight ends and the Kansas City single-season mark in that department ... Has established a blistering pace during his first four pro seasons, seeing action in 63 games (47 starts), racking up 261 catches for 3,041 yards (11.7 avg.) with 24 TDs ... Those numbers from the first four seasons of his pro tenure are better than any amassed by any of the six other Pro Bowl tight ends who were active in 2000 and owned at least four years of NFL experience (Ben Coates, Shannon Sharpe, Frank Wycheck, Chad Lewis, Wesley Walls and David Sloan) during their initial four NFL campaigns. Coates came the closest with 179 catches for 2,099 yards (11.7 avg.) and 19 TDs with New England from '91-94 ... Gonzalez's stats from his first four NFL seasons also stack up very favorably against the five tight ends currently enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Mike Ditka, John Mackey, Jackie Smith, Ozzie Newsome and Kellen Winslow) and are topped only by the player whom he most frequently draws comparisons to, Winslow. The former University of Missouri and San Diego Chargers luminary played in just 48 games during his initial four pro seasons ('79-82), but still piled up 256 receptions for 3,041 yards (13.1 avg.) with 27 TDs, giving him six fewer catches than Gonzalez, exactly 300 more yards and just three more touchdowns than the Chiefs TE over that span ... Based on career per-game averages - which provides a more meaningful comparison - Winslow is the only Hall of Fame tight end with better marks than Gonzalez. In 109 career regular season contests, Winslow averaged 5.0 catches, 61.8 yards, 12.5 yards-per-catch and 0.41 TDs per game. In 63 career regular season games, Gonzalez has averaged 4.1 catches, 48.3 yards, 11.7 yards-per-catch and 0.38 touchdowns per game ... Could bypass the first of those five Canton enshrinees in receptions this year, needing 71 more catches to overtake longtime Colts stalwart John Mackey's tally of 331 ... Formed one of the NFL's most potent and prolific receiving tandems with Alexander in 2000 ... Paired with Alexander to become the first duo of Kansas City pass catchers to each amass over 1,000 yards in a single-season as Alexander established a franchise record with 1,391 aerial yards ... Combined with Alexander to total 171 catches for 2,594 yards, a team single-season record for a receiving tandem, breaking the previous marks held by Andre Rison and Kimble Anders (131 receptions in '97) and Carson and Marshall (2,139 yards in 83) ... Joined Alexander in the 50+ catch club for the third consecutive year ... Only Kimble Anders (five), Chris Burford (four), Otis Taylor (four) and Alexander (four) have more career seasons with 50 or more receptions in Chiefs history ... Had six 100-yard games, meaning only Denver's Rod Smith (eight), Minnesota's Randy Moss (eight), Indianapolis' Marvin Harrison (eight), and Buffalo's Eric Moulds (seven) had more ... Gonzalez and Alexander each had six 100-yard games, meaning the only other pair of NFL teammates to each have six individual 100-yard outings were Moss and Cris Carter (six) of the Vikings. He and Alexander also became the first duo in team history to each have four or more 100-yard outings in a single year ... In 2000 became the first Chiefs player other than a running back to lead the club in receptions in consecutive seasons since WR Stephone Paige in '89-90 ... Had three games with 10 or more catches a year ago, breaking Burford's previous club standard of two 10-catch contests in '63 ... Is the only player in franchise annals to produce double-digit receptions in back-to-back games, doing so at New England (12/4/00) and vs. Carolina (12/10/00) ... Was one of just five NFL players and the only TE to top the 10-catch plateau three times in 2000, joining Keenan McCardell (Jacksonville), Muhsin Muhammed (Carolina), Harrison (Indianapolis) and Joe Horn (New Orleans) ... His 169 receptions from '99-00 were the most catches in back-to-back seasons in Chiefs history, shattering the previous mark of 137 established by Carson in '83-84, while his 2,052 receiving yards over that span were the fourth-best tally over two seasons in team annals ... Has racked up 20 TD catches over the past two years, a marked topped only by the total of 21 amassed by Burford ('62-63) and Stephone Paige ('85-86) ... Went four straight games with a TD catch in 2000, just one shy of the team record of five shared by Burford ('62) and Taylor ('66) ... Owns 33 career receptions of 20 or more yards, the fourth-highest career total since the club began recording that stat in '90 ... Continued his onslaught on the record books in 2000 after establishing himself as the league's finest tight end with a spectacular '99 campaign which saw him catch 76 passes for 849 yards in 15 games, totals which ranked the highest by any player at his position in the NFL that year ... Single-handedly shattered the team's combined mark for catches by tight ends by catching 76 passes himself in '99, breaking the previous mark of 73 catches by all KC tight ends in '97 ... Got hot down the stretch of the '98 campaign when he produced 24 of his 59 catches (40.7%) and both of his touchdowns during the season's final five weeks and carried that momentum over to '99 ... Moved into the starting lineup in '98 after an impressive rookie campaign in '97 ... Received the club's prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award bestowed annually to Kansas City's top rookie or first-year player after compiling 33 catches for 368 yards and two TDs during his initial pro season ... Has seen action in a total of 63 regular season NFL contests with 47 starts ... Only contest he missed was the '99 season opener due to a preseason knee injury ... Enters the 2001 campaign with a streak of 31 consecutive starts dating back to the second game of the '99 campaign ... Has recorded 261 receptions for 3,041 yards (11.7 avg.) with 24 TDs and a long reception of 73 yards ... Also used those athletic skills to block a punt in '97 and recover an onside kick in '98 ... Owns one career postseason appearance, getting three catches for 27 yards and a 12-yard TD in '97 ... Ranked atop Kansas City's wish list heading into the NFL's annual selection meeting in '97 and the Chiefs moved up five spots in the first round to select this highly-coveted tight end with the 13th overall selection in a draft-day trade with Houston. The Chiefs obtained the Oilers first-round pick (13th overall - used on Gonzalez) and their fourth-round pick (110th overall - used on Barnes) in exchange for Kansas City's original first-round selection (18th overall - used on DE Kenny Holmes), a third-round pick (81st overall - used on T Scott Sanderson), a fourth-round pick (116th overall - subsequently traded by Houston to New Orleans) and a sixth-round selection (181st overall - used on LB Dennis Stallings) ... Declared for the draft following his junior season. 2000: Started 16 games at TE, catching a Chiefs single-season record 93 passes for a personal-best 1,203 yards (12.9 avg.) and nine TDs ... A consensus All-Pro and All-AFC selection ... His 1,203 receiving yards were the fourth-highest single-season total in team history and the fourth-highest by a TE in NFL history ... Those 93 catches were the third-highest total by a TE in NFL history, coming just three receptions shy of Coates' mark of 96 established in '94 with New England ... Became the first player other than a RB to lead the team in receptions in consecutive seasons since WR Stephone Paige did it in '89-90 ... Led all NFL TEs in receptions, yards and TDs ... Ranked sixth in the AFC and 10th in the NFL in receptions, eighth in yards and tied for fourth in receiving TDs ... Recorded double-digit receptions in three contests, a first in team history ... Had 13 catches of 20 or more yards, the most of any NFL TE on the season ... Caught two passes for 34 yards vs. Indianapolis (9/3) ... Hauled in two passes for 16 yards at Tennessee (9/10) ... Had four receptions for 43 yards vs. San Diego (9/17) ... Produced 10 receptions for 127 yards, including a 15-yard TD at Denver (9/24). That contest marked his first 10-catch game and the initial 100-yard outing of his career ... Snared three passes for 34 yards, including a 15-yard TD vs. Seattle (10/2) ... Caught seven passes for 100 yards and a 14-yard TD vs. Oakland (10/15) ... Grabbed five passes for 117 yards and a nine-yard TD vs. St. Louis (10/22). It was his fourth straight game with a TD, the second-longest streak in team history. It was also the first back-to-back 100-yard games by a NFL TE since Shannon Sharpe did it vs. San Diego (10/6/96) and vs. Baltimore (10/20/96). Eclipsed the club's career mark for receptions by a TE (198 - Fred Arbanas) and moved into eighth place on the all-time receptions list with a 14-yard pass in the third quarter, as well. Also reached the 200-catch plateau on a 30-yard pass in the third quarter, a milestone which came in his 54th NFL game, making him the second-quickest Chief to reach the milestone (Burford - 52 games) ... Secured eight passes for 101 yards at Seattle (10/29). Surpassed Walter White (2,396) for second place among Chiefs TEs all-time in receiving yards ... Became the first TE in NFL history to record four consecutive 100-yard receiving games at Oakland (11/5), catching nine passes for 134 yards ... Totaled four catches for 46 yards at San Francisco (11/12) ... Had nine catches for 76 yards and a career-high tying two TDs (nine and 13 yards) vs. Buffalo (11/19) ... Had a streak of 44 consecutive games with a reception dating back to 12/7/97 vs. Oakland snapped at San Diego (11/26) when Warren Moon started at QB. That streak is tied as the third-longest in team history with Carlos Carson (12/20/81 - 9/12/85) ... Set career highs for both receptions and yards with an 11-catch, 147-yard outburst which included a four-yard TD in a Monday Night Football contest at New England (12/4). Set a NFL record for TEs and tied a club mark with his sixth 100-yard game of the season. His 11 catches tied as the second-highest single-game total in Chiefs history ... Surpassed Carlos Carson's club record of 80 receptions ('83) with his 81st catch vs. Carolina (12/10), a 14-yarder in the fourth quarter. Finished the day with 10 catches for 96 yards and a six-yard TD, his third double-digit reception game of the year ... Caught four passes for 46 yards vs. Denver (12/17) ... Had five catches for 86 yards and a 21-yard TD at Atlanta (12/24). 1999: Started 15 games at TE, leading the team with 76 catches for 849 yards and 11 TDs ... Became the first Chiefs tight end to make a Pro Bowl appearance and was also a consensus first team All-Pro selection ... Was the first Kansas City tight end to lead the club in catches since Walter White had 48 in '77 ... Among AFC pass catchers, only Indianapolis' Marvin Harrison (12 TDs) could top Gonzalez's 11 TDs, which were the most ever by a Kansas City tight end. Carolina's Wesley Walls was the only NFL tight end with more scoring grabs, hauling in 12 touchdowns ... Those 11 TDs tied as the second-highest total in team history and were the most in 37 seasons, trailing only Burford's 12 scoring catches in '62 ... Had a touchdown catch in four straight contests in '99, coming one game shy of the team record of five consecutive games with a TD reception shared by Burford and Otis Taylor ... At the time, those 76 catches were the second-highest seasonal tally in team history ... Was inactive in the season-opener at Chicago (9/12) due to a knee injury suffered in the preseason at Jacksonville (8/26) ... Eclipsed the career 1,000-yard receiving mark with a 20-yard reception in the second quarter vs. Denver (9/19) ... Tallied seven receptions for 72 yards and a TD vs. Detroit (9/26), getting his 100th career reception in that contest ... Produced seven catches for 68 yards and a 12-yard TD catch at San Diego (10/3) ... Posted the first two-TD game of his career with 11 and 22-yard scoring grabs at Baltimore (10/21), leading the squad with four receptions for 54 yards ... Tallied six catches for 62 yards at Tampa Bay (11/14) ... Captained the offense vs. Seattle (11/21), collecting a team-high eight catches for 62 yards ... Tallied three receptions for 90 yards at Oakland (11/28), including a career-long 73-yard catch and run for a TD ... Collected a team-high five receptions for 35 yards, including a 10-yard TD catch at Denver (12/5) ... Recorded a team-high six receptions for 63 yards and two TDs vs. Minnesota (12/12) ... Recorded a team-high six receptions for a season-high 93 yards and two TDs vs. Pittsburgh (12/18). It was his third career two-TD game and his fourth straight game with a score, producing six TDs over that four-game span ... Posted a season-high nine receptions for 86 yards at Seattle (12/26) ... Produced a team-high six receptions for 56 yards, including a seven-yard TD catch vs. Oakland (1/2/00). 1998: Started all 16 contests at tight end ... Joined G Will Shields and C Tim Grunhard as the Chiefs only offensive performers to open every contest ... Ranked second on the club with 59 catches and 621 yards receiving (10.5 avg.) and two TDs ... Caught at least three balls in all but two games and caught four or more passes in seven of the season's final nine contests ... Hauled in three passes for 47 yards, including a 31-yard snag in his first career start vs. Oakland (9/6) ... Had a season-high seven receptions for 67 yards at Jacksonville (9/13) ... Caught three passes for 31 yards at Philadelphia (9/27) and recovered an onside kick by the Eagles with one minute remaining to preserve a 24-21 Chiefs victory ... Grabbed three passes for 49 yards, including a 31-yard catch vs. Pittsburgh (10/26) ... Hauled in four passes for 35 yards vs. Denver (11/16) ... Had a season-long 32-yard reception at San Diego (11/22) ... Caught five passes for a team-high 65 yards vs. Dallas (12/13) ... Snared six passes for 68 yards, including his first touchdown of the season at the N.Y. Giants (12/20) ... Caught five passes for a season-high 76 yards at Oakland (12/26), including a 20-yard TD. 1997: Played in all 16 regular season games, collecting 33 catches for 368 yards (11.2 avg.) and two TDs in addition to a blocked punt on special teams ... First pro catch was a 22-yard effort from Elvis Grbac at Denver (8/31) ... Made a diving 21-yard TD grab for his inaugural NFL score at Miami (10/5) ... Caught four receptions for 53 yards and hauled in a key two-point conversion in a 28-20 win at St. Louis (10/26) ... Corralled four passes for 56 yards vs. Pittsburgh (11/3), including a spectacular 30-yard grab over the back of LB Levon Kirkland who had perfect coverage on the play ... Enjoyed a career day with a seven-catch, 69-yard effort at Jacksonville (11/9) ... Helped account for back-to-back TDs in the second quarter vs. San Francisco (11/30). Caught two passes for 19 yards including a two-yard TD reception from Rich Gannon and then stretched out with one hand to block a Tommy Thompson punt on the 49ers ensuing possession, returning the ball to the three-yard-line which set up a Marcus Allen TD run on the next play in a 44-9 romp over the 49ers and his former college coach, Steve Mariucci ... Hauled in four balls for 37 yards at Seattle (11/23) ... Caught a team-high three passes for 15 yards at San Diego (12/14) ... Caught three passes for 26 yards with a 12-yard TD grab in the third quarter of Kansas City's AFC Divisional Playoff appearance vs. Denver (1/4/98) after being ruled out of bounds on an apparent three-yard TD catch earlier in the quarter.

College: In three seasons with the California football program, played in 33 games catching 89 passes for 1,302 yards (14.6 avg.) with eight touchdowns ... Also saw action in 82 career contests (16 starts) as a member of the Cal basketball squad, averaging 6.4 points and 4.3 rebounds per game ... Flourished under the offense of then-Cal head coach and current San Francisco 49ers head coach Steve Mariucci as a junior in '96, ranking third on the team with 46 receptions for 699 yards (15.9 avg) and five TDs ... Became just the second tight end in Cal history to earn first team All-America accolades (David Lewis in '82) ... A first team All-Pac 10 Conference selection ... His 46 catches tied BYU's Itula Mili for the best mark among NCAA tight ends, while his 699 receiving yards were the nation's top mark at that position ... On the basketball court, he helped lead Cal to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament ... Played in 28 games (six starts), averaging 6.8 points and 4.5 rebounds per game ... Started all three of the club's tourney games in place of injured Pac 10 Player of the Year, Ed Gray and posted a season-high 23 points in Cal's second-round NCAA tournament win over Villanova ... Played in all 11 gridiron games as sophomore, finishing third on the team with 37 receptions for 541 yards (14.6 avg) and two TDs ... Best outing of the year was a 10-catch, 150-yard performance vs. Stanford that included a 23-yard score ... Played in 28 games (seven starts) as a member of the basketball squad, averaging 5.3 points and 4.6 rebounds per game ... Appeared in 10 football games as a freshman reserve, catching eight passes for 62 yards (7.8 avg) with one touchdown ... Played in 26 basketball contests (three starts) as a freshman in basketball, averaging 7.1 points and 3.9 rebounds per game ... Scored a career-high 29 points and posted nine rebounds vs. Washington State ... Majored in Communications at Cal.

Personal: A prep sensation in both football and basketball at Huntington Beach (Cal.) High School ... Caught 62 passes for 945 yards and 13 touchdowns while leading the team to the Southern Section Division III title game as a senior ... Was a first team All-State selection as a tight end and a linebacker ... Orange County & Sunset League Most Valuable Player in basketball as he averaged 22.0 points per game, shooting 65 percent from the field (234 of 365) in his final year ... Was named the Co-Orange County High School Athlete of the Year along with Tiger Woods ... Brother, Chris, has served as a model for fashion designer Tommy Hilfiger ... Served as a consultant for the movie "Any Given Sunday," an Oliver Stone production ... Appeared on an episode of HBO's "Arliss" during the 2000 offseason ... Formed the "Tony Gonzalez Foundation" in '98 which supports the Shadow Buddies program, as well as the Boys and Girls Clubs. Shadow Buddies are smiling dolls given to ill individuals - particularly children and the elderly - in order to help speed their recovery. Gonzalez is the only NFL player or athlete of any kind to have his own Shadow Buddy, which comes complete with a Chiefs hospital gown with "Gonzalez #88" on it. Over 5,000 Tony Gonzalez Shadow Buddies have been distributed in Missouri, Kansas, California, New York and Texas to date. Expanded his involvement with Shadow Buddies in 2001 by providing 50 "Know Your Buddy Book" kits to schools in Missouri, Kansas and California. This educational program teaches students about the diversity of medial challenges, and encourages kids to increase their compassion and understanding of others' differences ... Served as the Chiefs United Way spokesperson in 2000 and 2001 ... Was the NFL Spokesperson for the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure for Breast Cancer in '99 and 2000 ... Pro Career: A new chapter in Chiefs history was ushered in on April 20th of this year when QB Trent Green was acquired by Kansas City after lengthy trade negotiations with St. Louis ... Kansas City consummated the deal for Green just hours before the start of the 2001 NFL Draft the next day, landing the talented passer on the western side of the Show Me State after a two-year stint on Missouri's eastern bank in St. Louis ... The Chiefs acquired the services of this highly talented field general along with the first of the Rams two selections in the fifth round (150th overall - used by Kansas City on RB Derrick Blaylock) in exchange for Kansas City's first-round selection (12th overall - used by St. Louis on DT Damione Lewis) ... Polished, poised, professional and popular are perhaps the best descriptors to capture the essence of this highly-affable and highly-coveted signal-caller ... Already a charasmatic figure in both the Arrowhead locker room and the Kansas City community, Green embarks upon his eighth NFL season and his first in the Red and Gold in 2001, hoping to mark a new course for both himself and the Chiefs franchise ... While Kansas City is striving to regain its winning ways this year, Green hopes to complete a remarkable comeback odessey after a devastating knee injury cost him the entire '99 regular season and his starting job in St. Louis ... After previous pro stints in San Diego ('93), Washington ('95-98) and St. Louis ('99-00), the Chiefs hope Green's fourth NFL stop will be both a long and prosperus stay, as well as his final stop of his pro football journey ... Reunited in Kansas City with head coach Dick Vermeil, assistant head coach/offensive coordinator Al Saunders and a host of other former Rams comrades, Green is surrounded by a a variety of offensive weapons in Kansas City and will serve as the triggerman in the Chiefs revamped offensive attack ... Born in Cedar Rapids, Iowa (the same city where current Rams starting QB Kurt Warner attended high school), Green spent the majority of his youth in Missouri, prepping at Vianney High School in Kirkwood, Missouri just outside of St. Louis ... What was envisioned to be a happy homecoming to Missouri for Green in '99 took a painful turn shortly after he inked with the Rams as an unrestricted free agent from the Washington Redskins on February 16th of '99 ... Was poised to lead St. Louis as that club's starting QB in '99, but his hopes for the year were dashed before the start of the regular season ... In just his third appearance with the Rams in the '99 preseason vs. San Diego (8/28), suffered a devastating knee injury when he tore the ACL, MCL and lateral meniscus in his left knee ... While the Rams would recover from Green's loss and complete a remarkable march to Super Bowl XXXIV with Warner at the club's helm, Green has spent the past two seasons overcoming lingering effects of injuries ... Came back to play in eight games with five starts for St. Louis a year ago, but those injuries did require further surgery this off-season ... Although sidelined for the Chiefs off-season program and mini-camps this spring due to that medical procedure and subsequent rehab, both the team and Green are optimistic he will be on the field at full strength for training camp in River Falls ... Fortunately for all involved, is already well-versed in the club's offensive scheme which came from St. Louis along with Vermeil and Saunders ... Saunders was schooled in this offensive philosophy during his days working in San Diego's "Air Coryell" offense in the '80s, while Green's hands-on familarity with this high-octane offensive framework dates back to his time with both Washington and St. Louis ... With the Redskins was tutored by the likes of current San Diego offensive coordinator Norv Turner who was Washington's head coach at the time, as well as current Rams head coach Mike Martz who served as the Redskins quarterbacks coach and was the head coach in St. Louis last season with Saunders serving as the Rams offensive coordinator ... Is a seemingly perfect fit for this scheme which puts more of a premium on accuracy and precision than sheer arm strength ... In 2000, he led the NFC with a 101.8 efficiency rating which is a testament to the quick-witted decision making this offense demands ... Has seen action in 24 regular season NFL contests with 19 starts ... Has completed 423 of 750 (56.4%) of his passes for 5,504 yards with 39 touchdowns and 16 interceptions, good for an 88.1 rating ... Owns a 2.4 to 1 TD-to-INT ratio, a 5.2 TD percentage and just a 2.1 INT percentage ... Has also rushed 62 times for 186 yards (3.0 avg.); scoring two TDs ... Has an 8-11 record as an NFL starter (6-8 with Washington, 2-3 with St. Louis) ... Owns five career

300-yard passing games, including three last season with St. Louis and two with Washington in '98 ... Originally entered the league as an eighth round draft pick (222nd overall) by the Chargers in the '93 NFL Draft. At St. Louis (1999-00): Played in eight games with five starts with all of that regular season duty coming with the club in 2000 ... Completed 145 of 240 (60.4%) passes for 2,063 yards with 16 touchdowns and five interceptions, good for a 101.8 rating ... Also rushed 20 times for 69 yards and one touchdown ... Signed with the Rams as an unrestricted free agent in 1999. 2000: Saw duty in eight games (five starts) in place of an injured Kurt Warner ... Completed 145 of 240 passes (60.4%) for 2,063 yards, 16 touchdowns, and five interceptions good for a 101.8 rating ... That 101.8 rating ranked topped the NFC and was just nine-tenths of a point behind Denver's Brian Griese (102.9), who led the league ... Did not play in first four games of season vs. Denver (9/4), at Seattle (9/10), vs. San Francisco (9/17) and at Atlanta (9/24) and listed as the Rams number two QB behind Warner ... Saw his first regular season action as member of the Rams vs. San Diego (10/1), completing three of four passes for 75 yards and one touchdown, a 48-yard completion to RB Marshall Faulk ... Did not play vs. Atlanta (10/15) ... Entered the game in third quarter vs. Kansas City (10/22) after Warner left the contest with a broken finger. Completed 15 of 21 passes, good for career-high completion percentage (71.4) to go with 205 yards with three touchdowns and one interception. Connected on scoring passes of 31 yards to TE Roland Williams, as well as 22-yard and four-yard TD passes to WR Isaac Bruce ... Made his first start in a St. Louis uniform the following week at San Francisco (10/29), registering his third career 300-yard passing game. Completed 22 of 39 passes for 310 yards and two touchdowns vs. the 49ers and tied a career high with five rushing attempts for six yards ... Started vs. Carolina (11/5) completing a season-high 29 of 42 passes for a career-high 431 yards and two touchdowns, good for an 118.3 passer rating. Those 431 yards were the seventh-highest single-game passing mark in the NFL on the year. ... Started at the N.Y. Giants (11/12), tying a career high by throwing four touchdown passes (one yard to Williams, five yards to WR Torry Holt, eight yards to WR Ricky Proehl and 34 yards to Bruce) after completing 27 of 45 passes (60.0%) for 272 yards and rushing for an 18-yard score ... Started his fourth straight game vs. Washington (11/20), completing 23 of 38 passes for 366 yards with two TDs and firing a season-long 64-yard pass to Holt in second quarter ... Started vs. New Orleans (11/26), hitting the mark on 20 of 41 passes for 289 yards with TD passes of 35 yards to Az-Zahir Hakim and 19 yards to Proehl ... Played in second half of regular season finale at New Orleans (12/24) after Warner left the contest with concussion and completed six of 10 passes for 115 yards. Led the Rams to a pair of pair of scoring drives in a 26-21 victory which propelled St. Louis into the playoffs ... Did not play in the NFC Wild Card game at New Orleans (12/30) the following week. 1999: Missed entire regular season after tearing ACL, MCL and lateral meniscus in left knee in the third preseason game vs. San Diego (8/28) when he was tackled by SS Rodney Harrison ... Completed 28 of 32 passes for 406 yards with two touchdowns in three preseason contests, good for a 126.8 rating ... His completion percentage of 87.5 was highest among NFL quarterbacks who had at least 30 attempts in the preseason. At Washington (1995-98): Played in 16 games with 14 starts in two seasons with the Redskins ... Completed 278 of 510 passes for 3,441 yards with 23 touchdowns and 11 INTs, good for an 81.6 rating ... Produced a 6-8 record as a starter for the Redskins with all of those opening nods coming in '98. 1998: Saw action in 15 games (14 starts) completing 278 of 509 passes (54.6%) with 23 touchdowns and 11 interceptions ... Set single-season career highs in every statistical category, including pass attempts (509), completions (278), yards (3,441), and touchdowns (23) ... His 509 pass attempts are still third most in Redskins history, trailing only Jay Schroeder (541 in '86) and Brad Johnson (519 in '99) ... Led Washington to a 6-3 record over the final nine games of the year ... Stepped in for an injured Gus Frerotte at the N.Y. Giants (9/6), hitting on 17 of 25 passes for 208 yards and two touchdowns ... Made his first NFL start following week vs. San Francisco (9/14), completing 14 of 25 passes for 201 yards and one touchdown ... Completed 27 passes on a career-high 54 attempts for 383 yards at Seattle (9/20) ... Launched a career-long 75-yard TD pass to WR Michael Westbrook vs. Denver (9/27) ... Only game he did not see action in came at Minnesota (10/18) ... Completed 21 of 31 passes for 225 yards with one TD pass and scored his first rushing touchdown on a one-yard run vs. the N.Y. Giants (11/1) ... Started vs. Arizona (11/22), completing a career-high 30 of 49 passes for 382 yards establishing a career high with four touchdowns (15, 12 and 11 yards to Westbrook and a 16-yarder to WR Leslie Shepherd), as well as a two-yard rushing touchdown ... Started at Carolina (12/13), completing 23 of 42 passes for 257 yards and two touchdowns in a 28-25 win ... Guided the club to a 20-16 win at Tampa Bay (12/19) with the deciding margin coming on a 15-yard TD pass to RB Stephen Alexander in the fourth quarter ... Had 223 yards in a season-ending 23-7 loss at Dallas (12/27). 1997: Saw duty in one game, attempting one pass ... Served as the third quarterback for first the 15 games of the season ... Saw his first regular season NFL game action vs. Philadelphia (12/21) with his lone pass attempt falling incomplete. 1996: Was listed as the third QB for all 16 regular season games and did not see game action. 1995: Did not take a regular season snap the entire season as Washington's third quarterback. Canadian Football League (1994): Signed with British Columbia of the Canadian Football League on October 28th of '94 ... Dressed for two games, but did not see any action and was subsequently released on November 10th. At San Diego (1993): Earned a spot on San Diego's roster as the club's third quarterback ... Was inactive for all 16 games and did not take a regular season snap after joining the club as an eight-round (222nd overall) draft choice.

College: Finished his collegiate career at Indiana near the top of virtually every major passing category ... Completed 421 of 755 passes for 5,400 yards with 23 touchdowns and 32 interceptions during his career with the Hoosiers ... At the time of his graduation, ranked second on the Hoosiers career charts in pass attempts and completions, while coming in third all-time in passing yardage, career total offensive yardage (5,916) and total offensive plays (1,060) ... His 23 TD passes ranked fifth at the time, as well ... Also gained 516 yards rushing and scored 20 rushing touchdowns, making him just him one of just 10 players in Indiana history with 20 or more career TDs ... Saw duty in 10 games as a senior in '92, completing 154 of 278 passes (55.4%) for 1,780 yards with seven TDs and 10 INTs ... Set single-season school records for yards passing (2,627) and yards of total offense (2,829) as junior in '91 ... Antwaan Randle El subsequently surpassed both of those marks ... Also set career highs in touchdown passes (13) and rushing touchdowns (11) as a junior ... Finished his junior year by completing 200 of 339 passes with 12 TDs and 14 INTs, good for a 59.0 completion percentage which still ranks second on Indiana's single season passing chart ... Guided the Hoosiers to 24-0 victory over Baylor in Copper Bowl that season ... Connected on 60 of 128 pass attempts for 934 yards with four TDs and seven INTs as a sophomore in '90 after hitting on seven of 10 attempts for 59 yards as a freshman in '89 ... Graduated from Indiana with degree in Business.

Personal: A three time All-Conference and All-District choice in football at Vianney High in Kirkwood, Missouri ... Completed 114 passes for 1,458 yards and 14 touchdowns as a senior ... Was also twice named team MVP in basketball after averaging 20.0 ppg and once scoring 40 in a contest ... Enjoys playing basketball, golfing, hunting and fishing ... Established Trent Green Family Foundation in '99 to support organizations such as Children's Miracle Network, St. Louis Children's Hospital, and Guardian Angel Settlement ... The Green family made large donation to St. Louis Children's Hospital to fund the Star Bright Room at the hospital ... Plans on continuing his charitable efforts with the Star Bright Room at Kansas City's Children's Mercy Hospital ... Full name: Trent Jason Green ... Married, wife Julie with two sons, T.J. (4) and Derek (2) ... The Greens reside in Leawood, Kansas.

TEXAS A&M
DRAFT (NO. 5A - 2000)
NFL: 2 (2ND WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: SEPTEMBER 1, 1978
LUFKIN, TEXAS

Pro Career: Shifty second-year performer making the switch from running back to wide receiver in 2001 ... A true triple-threat performer who could make a difference for Kansas City as a receiver, runner or return man ... Heads into training camp as one of the Chiefs top candidates to return punts this season and also owns experience returning kickoffs ... The switch to wide receiver will hopefully give the Chiefs more opportunities to get him on the field as well, particularly in third down situations ... Is an elusive runner with breakaway speed and a natural pass catcher, a combination which the Chiefs hope to be a potent mix for defenders once Hall hits the open field ... Saw action in five games on special teams as a rookie in 2000, returning 17 kickoffs for 258 yards and six punts for 37 yards ... Was selected by the Chiefs in the fifth round (153rd overall) of the 2000 draft. NFL Europe (2001): Played in nine games with nine starts for the Scottish Claymores ... Missed one game with a groin injury ... Ranked sixth in the NFLEL with 34 reception and eighth with 462 yards for five scores ... Led the league with 26 kickoff returns for 635 yards (24.4 avg.) and was second in punt returns with 15 for 177 yards (11.8 avg.) ... Finished second in the NFLEL with 1,286 combined net yards. 2000: Played on special teams in five games, returning 17 KOs for 358 yards (21.1 avg.) and six punts for 37 yards (6.2 avg.) ... Was inactive for the first three games due to a back injury ... Made his NFL debut at Denver (9/24), returning five KOs for 108 yards (21.6 avg.) ... Returned three KOs for 81 yards (27.0 avg.), including a 35-yarder, and two punts for 27 yards vs. Seattle (10/2) ... Took back three KOs for 84 yards (28.0 avg.), including a career-long 36-yarder, and one punt for 11 yards vs. Oakland (10/15) ... Returned two KOs for 24 yards and two punts for -2 yards vs. St. Louis (10/22) ... Took back four KOs for 61 yards and one punt for one yard at Seattle (10/29) ... Was inactive for the final eight games of the season.

College: Finished his career at Texas A&M with 4,707 all-purpose yards, the second-highest tally in school history, trailing only Darren Lewis, who racked up 5,138 yards from '87-90 ... Also ranks second in the Aggies all-time books with 943 career punt return yards behind Rod Harris who had 971 from '85-88 ... Established the Texas A&M single-season punt return record with 573 yards on 43 runbacks (13.3 avg.) as a freshman in '96 ... Saw action in 43 career games (25 starts) for Texas A&M registering 522 rushing attempts for 2,818 yards (5.4 avg.) and 22 TDs ... Those 2,818 rushing yards rank seventh in school history ... Finished his career with eight 100-yard rushing contests ... Also caught 22 passes for 260 yards ... Had 78 career punt returns for 943 yards, good for a 12.1-yard average and two TDs ... Returned 32 kickoffs for 686 yards (21.4 avg.), as well ... Final collegiate tally showed 654 total touches for 4,707 yards and 24 TDs ... Averaged 109.5 all-purpose yards per game. Appeared in six games, starting four contests before being ruled ineligible for the remainder of the season in '99 ... Finished the year with 53 carries for 179 yards (3.4 avg.) and a pair of touchdowns ... Added five receptions for 59 yards (11.8 avg.) ... Produced 134 yards on 11 punt returns (12.2 avg.) and 34 yards on three kickoff returns (11.3 avg.) ... Played in all 13 games, starting nine contests his junior year in '98 ... Led the team in rushing with 243 carries for 1,024 yards (4.2 avg.) and eight touchdowns ... Caught six passes for 92 yards (15.3 avg) ... Returned eight kickoffs for 172 yards (21.5 avg.) and had seven punt returns for 28 yards (4.0 avg) ... Averaged 101.2 all-purpose yards per game ... Established career highs in a monster game vs. Kansas, getting 177 yards on 36 carries with three TDs ... Played in 12 games with 11 starts as a sophomore ... Led the team with 134 carries for 973 yards (7.3 avg) and nine touchdowns ... His 7.3 yards-per-carry average established a school season-record ... Grabbed eight passes for 97 yards (12.1 avg.) ... Gained 208 yards with a score on 17 punt returns and had 156 yards on seven kickoff returns (22.3 avg.) ... Finished the year with an average of 119.5 all-purpose yards per game ... Played in all 12 games with one start as a redshirt freshman ... Ranked third on the team with 92 carries for 642 yards (7.0 avg.) and three touchdowns ... Set school season-records with 43 punt returns for 573 yards (13.3 avg.) and a score ... Added 324 yards on 14 kickoff returns (23.1 avg) and 12 yards on three catches (4.0 avg) ... Amassed 212 all-purpose yards vs. North Texas ... A Sociology major at Texas A&M.

Personal: An All-American selection as a senior at Nimitz High School in Houston, Texas ... Despite playing in only seven games due to a knee injury as a senior, still rushed for over 900 yards that year ... Full name: Damieon Dante Hall ... Single ... Resides in Humble, Texas.

FREE AGENT (2001)
NFL: 1 (1ST WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: JANUARY 17, 1976
RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

Pro Career: Free agent wideout entering his second NFL training camp ... Spent the spring of 2001 playing for the Frankfurt Galaxy of NFL Europe ... Originally inked with Kansas City as a practice squad performer on December 7th of last season ... Made enough of an impression working on the scout unit to merit a free agent contract with the Chiefs for 2001 after going to camp with San Francisco a year ago ... Is slated to work in River Falls at the club's "Z" receiver position ... Could also work on special teams ... Was released by the 49ers on August 8th of 2000 ... Subsequently signed to Detroit's practice squad on October 16th before being released November 7th ... Signed to Kansas City's practice squad on December 7th where he spent the remainder of the season ... Originally entered the NFL as a rookie free agent with San Francisco on April 28th of 2000. NFL Europe (2001): Played in 10 games (eight starts) for the Frankfurt Galaxy ... Ranked seventh in the NFLEL and second on the team with 488 receiving yards ... Caught 27 receptions to rank 11th in the NFLEL and second on the team.

MARYLAND
NFL: 4 (4TH WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: JUNE 17, 1976
ERIE, PENNSYLVANIA
GP/GS: (32/27) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Remarkable NFL success story who seemingly overcomes every obstacle thrown his way, whether on or off the field ... Enters his fourth campaign with Kansas City in 2001 and his third as the club's starter at left defensive end ... Was arguably the club's most productive defensive performer in 2000, getting 14.0 sacks despite starting just 11 contests ... That sack tally tied as the seventh-highest in Kansas City history, ranking third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL last season ... Became just the fourth Chiefs player to ever top the 14.0-sack mark, joining the elite company of the late Derrick Thomas ('90, '92), Neil Smith ('92-93) and Art Still ('80, '84) ... Was named to USA Today's All-Joe team for his efforts, a honor which is bestowed annually to the league's top blue-collar performers ... Received second team All-Pro honors from Football Digest, as well ... After putting up those impressive numbers a year ago, will undoubtedly see more attention from opposing pass protectors in 2001 ... Possesses a lethal combination of speed, power and agility ... Continues to add new moves and techniques to his pass-rushing repetoire ... Has enjoyed a remarkable rise to his present status as one of the league's most promising young pass rushers after initially coming to the Chiefs as a relatively obscure and undersized rookie free agent in '98 ... Became the only rookie free agent to make the club's Opening Day roster in '98 ... Packed on plenty of muscle mass the following off-season after weighing in with the Chiefs at 261 pounds ... With that extra bulk, quickly rose through the ranks the following year ... Earned the starting spot at left defensive end in '99 after John Browning was lost for the year with an injury in training camp ... Won that starting job despite learning during camp in River Falls that his infant daughter Shayla was diagnosed as having a severe heart condition. Eventually left camp for a brief time to be with his wife and daughter as Shayla underwent open-heart surgery ... With Shayla given a clean bill of health in 2000, entered his second season as a starter a year ago only to be faced with his only medical obstacle ... Was off to a phenonemal start to the 2000 campaign, getting 7.0 sacks in the Chiefs first six games, only to be felled by a right knee sprain vs. St. Louis (10/22) ... That injury was diagnosed as a condition which would keep him out of the lineup a minimum of six weeks, but returned to the Chiefs lineup just four games later vs. Buffalo (11/19) ... Rebounded from that temporary setback to start the final four games of the year ... In 2001 is seeking to become the first Chief to post double-digit sacks in consecutive seasons since Neil Smith in '94-95 ... Showed the ability to get sacks in big bunches a year ago, recording five of his seven career multi-sack games in 2000 ... Also has shown a penchant for producing big plays in prime time contests ... Racked up a career-high 3.0 sacks in a 24-17 Monday Night Football win vs. Seattle (10/2/00) and got his his first NFL score on a pivotal 44-yard fumble return in the fourth quarter of a 31-28 win vs. Minnesota (12/12/99) in a Sunday night contest ... Should make an even bigger impact for the Chiefs this season after putting a full season of starting experience under his belt ... Continues to hone his technique with defensive line coach Bob Karmelowicz ... Has seen action in 32 career regular season games, with all 27 of his starts coming in '99 and '00 after appearing in three games on special teams for the Chiefs in '98 ... All of his defensive stats have come the past two seasons ... Has racked up 131 tackles (64 solo), 18.0 sacks (-98.0 yards), two forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries, one of which he returned for a 44-yard TD ... Owns 74 quarterback pressures and four passes defensed, as well ... Produced a forced fumble and two tackles in three games of special teams action as a rookie ... Originally entered the NFL with the Chiefs as a rookie free agent out of Maryland in '98. 2000: Played in 13 games at left DE with 11 starts, missing three games due to a knee injury ... Selected to USA Today's All-Joe team and was a second team All-Pro pick of Football Digest ... Led the team and was third in the AFC (sixth in the NFL) with a career-best 14.0 sacks (-73.0 yards) ... Also ranked third on the squad with 33 QB pressures and added a pair of passes defensed ... Became just one of four players in team history to record 14.0 or more sacks in a season, joining the late Derrick Thomas ('90, '92), Neil Smith ('92-93) and Art Still ('80, '84) ... Had five multi-sack games on the season ... Registered 61 tackles (35 solo), 41 QB pressures, two passes defensed and a fumble recovery ... Produced 7.0 sacks in the season's first six games ... Tallied six tackles, three QB pressures and a sack of Peyton Manning (-6.0 yards) vs. Indianapolis (9/3) ... Had five QB pressures, a sack of Steve McNair (-4.0 yards) and seven tackles (four solo) at Tennessee (9/10) ... Registered his third career 2.0-sack game vs. San Diego (9/17) with a pair of sacks for -15.0 yards on Moses Moreno ... Recorded seven tackles, four QB pressures and recovered a Rod Smith fumble at Denver (9/24) ... Enjoyed a monster night on Monday Night Football vs. Seattle (10/2), producing a career-high 3.0 sacks (-23.0 yards) of Jon Kitna and added a personal-best six QB pressures. Those 3.0 sacks were the most in a game by a Chief since Derrick Thomas had 6.0 vs. Oakland (9/6/98) ... Captained the defense along with CB James Hasty and LB Marvcus Patton vs. Oakland (10/15), posting five tackles and four QB pressures ... Totaled three tackles and four QB pressures vs. St. Louis (10/22) before leaving the game in the third quarter with a right knee sprain ... Saw reserve action at left DE vs. Buffalo (11/19) after missing the last three games with a knee injury suffered vs. St. Louis (10/22), recording six tackles (four solo) and one QB pressure ... Saw reserve action at left DE at San Diego (11/26), posting 2.0 sacks (-7.0 yards) of Ryan Leaf and one QB pressure ... Produced three tackles, two QB pressures, a sack (-5.0 yards) of Drew Bledsoe and one pass defensed at New England (12/4) ... Tallied six QB pressures and 2.0 sacks (-4.0 yards) of Steve Beuerlein vs. Carolina (12/10) ... Amassed 2.0 sacks (-9.0 yards) of Gus Frerotte, one QB pressure and a pass defensed vs. Denver (12/17) ... FREE AGENT (2001)

NFL: 5 (1ST WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: OCTOBER 7, 1973
FORT SMITH, ARKANSAS
GP/GS: (48/19) PLAYOFFS: (4/1)

Pro Career: Fifth-year running back making his debut in the Red and Gold in 2001 after signing as an unrestricted free agent with the Chiefs from the Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Ravens on April 21st of this year ... Talented Texan was part of a bounty of Kansas City acquisitions that day, joining QB Trent Green who was obtained in a trade with St. Louis and WR Tony Horne who inked with the Chiefs as a restricted free agent from the Rams ... Supremely confident all-around performer whose passion and enthusiasm for the game rubs off on the teammates around him ... Gives the Chiefs the true halfback they have been seeking to feature in the club's offense ... Expected to carry the load at the starting halfback position for the team in 2001 and beyond ... Will run behind one of the league's most talented lead blockers, FB Tony Richardson ... Although clearly not as decorated as 2000 NFL MVP Marshall Faulk of St. Louis, does possess an explosive build and style similar to Faulk's ... Provides Kansas City with a multi-purpose threat out of the backfield, making him a key cog in the Chiefs new offensive setup which is much like the system Faulk excelled in for St. Louis ... Former rookie free agent made a name for himself in Baltimore as a hard runner and an accomplished pass catcher ... Caught a franchise-record 13 passes in a single game for Baltimore in '98 ... In addition to good hands, possesses the ability to turn a short pass into a long gain as a receiver and has breakaway speed as a runner ... Became the first Ravens runner to ever post a 1,000-yard season when he piled up 1,008 yards in '98 ... Is reunited in Kansas City with former Ravens teammate WR Derrick Alexander ... A solid all-around performer willing to sacrifice himself for the benefit of the entire team ... Accepted a reduced role in Baltimore a year ago to allow Jamal Lewis to blossom which helped pave the way for the Ravens march to a victory in Super Bowl XXXV ... Is expected to see plenty of the pigskin for the Chiefs as both a runner and receiver ... Regarded as a true locker room leader, was one of the most popular and inspirational players on the Ravens roster according to his former teammates ... Is quickly acquiring a similar reputation in Kansas City, as well ... Has seen action in 48 career regular season games with 19 starts ... Owns 459 carries for 2,182 yards (4.6 avg.) with 10 touchdowns in his first four seasons ... Has produced seven 100-yard rushing games in his career with the Ravens owning a perfect 7-0 mark in those contests ... Added 88 receptions for 585 yards (6.6 avg.) and one TD ... Produced 90 first downs during his tenure in Baltimore ... Has also returned five kickoffs for 51 yards and owns seven special teams tackles ... CLEMSON
RESTRICTED FREE AGENT (2001)
NFL: 4 (1ST WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: MARCH 21, 1976
QUEENS, NEW YORK
GP/GS: (39/0) PLAYOFFS: (4/0)

Pro Career: Former rookie free agent who has emerged as one of the NFL's most feared return threats ... Came to Kansas City as a restricted free agent from St. Louis on April 20th, a date which yielded a wealth of talent for the Chiefs as QB Trent Green was acquired in a trade from the Rams and RB Priest Holmes signed as an unrestricted free agent from Baltimore on the same day ... Is slated to handle Kansas City's kickoff return chores and will work behind Sylvester Morris at the club's "X" receiver position ... Was a key member of a St. Louis squad which made a remarkable run to a win in Super Bowl XXXIV in '99 under head coach Dick Vermeil ... Gives the Chiefs the home run threat in the return game that they were missing a year ago. Kansas City did not return a punt or a kickoff for a touchdown in 2000, a stat Horne hopes to change in his initial season with the Red and Gold ... Is one of the most exciting young kick returners in the NFL and is capable of taking it the distance every time he puts his hands on the pigskin ... Regarded as a true difference-maker in the battle of field position, owning a 25.0-yard career kickoff return average ... Has a history of forcing opposing kickers to kick out of bounds or short kick because of the danger he presents ... Has seen duty in 39 regular season games, returning 143 kickoffs for 3,577 yards (25.0 avg.) with four touchdowns ... Those 3,577 KO return yards are second in Rams all-time annals behind only Ron Brown (3,918 from '84-89, '91) ... His four KOR scores tie Brown for the top mark in team history, while his 25.0-yard KOR average is second to Brown (26.3 avg.) ... Horne's 143 KO returns are the third-most in St. Louis annals behind Drew Hill (171) and Brown (169) ... Has produced at least one KO return score of 100 yards or more in each of his first three pro campaigns, with all three of those 100+ scores coming against Atlanta ... Owns six career TDs (four KO returns, two receiving) ... The Rams went 4-1 in games which Horne produced a score and averaged 42.3 points in those four victories ... Has caught four passes for 32 yards, with two of those receptions resulting in touchdowns ... With six TDs on 147 combined NFL touches (143 KO returns, four receptions), averages a score once every 24.5 touches ... Also served as one the Rams top coverage artists ... Recorded 59 special team tackles with one fumble recovery in his three years with that club, an impressive average of 19.7 per season ... Ranked among the club's top four special teams tacklers each of his three seasons in St. Louis ... Also has one punt return for 16 yards and has rushed twice for six yards ... Owns four games of playoff experience with 14 kickoff returns for 336 yards (24.0 avg.) and one touchdown, the only KO return for a score in Rams playoff history ... Also added four tackles on special teams in postseason play ... Originally entered the NFL as a rookie free agent with St. Louis in '98. At St. Louis (1998-00): Appeared in 39 games in three seasons with the Rams ... Returned 143 kickoffs for 3,577 yards (25.0 avg.) with four TDs ... Also caught four passes for 32 yards with two scores ... Had a fumble recovery and 59 tackles on special teams ... Returned 14 kickoffs for 336 yards (24.0 avg.) with one TD in four games of postseason action ... Added four special team stops in playoff action, as well ... Earned a Super Bowl XXXIV ring with the Rams in '99. 2000: Played in 11 games as a reserve wide receiver and on special teams ... Was hampered by a toe injury which cost him the final five games of the season ... Completed the year with 57 kickoff returns for a team single-season record 1,379 yards (24.2 avg.) and one touchdown ... Those 1,379 KO return yards surpassed his previous mark of 1,306 in '98 ... His 57 returns were the second-highest single-season mark in Rams history behind Drew Hill's 60 in '81 ... Ranked fifth in the NFC and 10th in the NFL in kickoff return average ... Also caught four passes for 32 yards with a pair of TDs ... Tied for fifth on the team with 16 special teams tackles ... Also returned one punt for 16 yards and rushed two times for six yards ... Returned a career-high eight KOs for 145 yards in the season opener vs. Denver (9/4) ... Had a season-high three special teams stops at Seattle (9/10) ... Registered his first career reception for an 18-yard touchdown courtesy of Kurt Warner vs. San Francisco (9/17) ... Rushed one time for a three-yard loss at Atlanta (9/24) ... Made NFL history vs. Atlanta (10/15) when he combined with Darrick Vaughn of Atlanta to become the first duo from opposing teams to return consecutive kickoffs to open a game in NFL history. Vaughn opened the game with a 96-yard KO return and Horne responded with a career-long 103-yard scoring jaunt on the Falcons ensuing kickoff. That 103-yard

TD tied as the third-longest in franchise history. Also caught a career-high two passes for eight yards, including a three-yard TD from Warner against the Falcons ... Registered his initial NFL punt return for 16 yards vs. San Diego (10/1) ... Tied a career-high with eight kickoff returns, setting a St. Louis single-game record and a career-high with 267 return yards at Kansas City (10/22), for the third-highest single-game yardage total in NFL history. Had a long KO return of 66 yards in that contest at Arrowhead ... Recovered a fumble on special teams vs. Carolina (11/5) ... Rushed one time for nine yards, caught a pass for six yards and collected four kickoff returns for 106 yards at the N.Y. Giants (11/12) ... Was inactive for the final five games of the regular season with a toe malady ... Returned to action to produce five kickoff returns for 69 yards in NFC Wild Card Game at New Orleans (12/30).

1999: Played in 12 games on special teams and saw limited duty at receiver ... Was a first team All-Pro selection of Sports Illustrated as a kickoff returner ... Finished the year with 56 returns for 1,306 yards (29.7 avg.) with one TD ... Added 16 special teams tackles ... That 29.7-yard KOR average led the NFL, making him the first St. Louis player to lead the league in that category since Ron Brown averaged 32.8 yards per return in '85 ... Tied for the NFL lead with two kickoff returns for touchdowns ... His KOR average of 29.7 yards tied Travis Williams ('71) for fifth-highest single-season mark in team history ... Ran back a kickoff for a 97-yard touchdown vs. San Francisco (10/10) ... Returned his second KO for a score in as many weeks at Atlanta (10/17). Became the first Ram since Verda (Vitamin T) Smith in '50 to return kickoffs for touchdowns in consecutive weeks ... Saw duty in all three postseason contests, turning in nine kickoffs for 267 yards (29.7 avg.) and one touchdown ... Also added a pair of special team tackles ... Became the first Rams player to ever return a kickoff for a TD in postseason play when he rattled off a franchise postseason-long 95-yard runback vs. Minnesota (1/16/00) in the NFC Divisional Playoffs. Also established a St. Louis record with 174 kickoff return yards against the Vikings, surpassing the 129 yards amassed by Woodley Lewis at Detroit (12/21/52) ... Returned four kickoffs for 55 yards vs. Tennessee (1/30/00) in Super Bowl XXXIV at Atlanta. 1998: Played in 16 games primarily as a kickoff returner and a punt team specialist ... Returned 56 kickoffs for 1,306 yards (23.3 avg.) ... Those 56 KO returns were the most-ever by a rookie in NFL history ... His 1,306 KOR yards set a Rams rookie record and were the third-highest tally by a rookie in NFL annals ... Also registered 22 tackles on special teams, including a career-high four stops at Buffalo (9/20) ... Returned a season-high seven kickoffs for 175 yards at Atlanta (11/1) ... Had a season-high 206 kickoff return yards on four returns, including a 102-yarder for a score vs. Atlanta (11/29). That return marked the first St. Louis KOR for a score since Gaston Green's 99-yard TD return at Pittsburgh (11/3/90).

College: Was a four-year letterman in football at Clemson ... Started all 12 games and finished with 70 receptions for 907 yards as a senior ... Was named a first team All-ACC all-purpose player and second team All-ACC wide receiver as a senior ... Majored in Marketing at Clemson.

Personal: Won the state championship and holds the school record in the 110-meter high hurdles at Richmond City (N.C.) High School ... Full name: Antonio Tremaine Horne ... Single ... Resides in Rockingham, North Carolina.

TURNOVER TRIPLE CROWN

Over the past 11 seasons ('90-00), no NFL team has been more proficient in the turnover department than Kansas City. The Chiefs streak of 11 straight years with a positive turnover ratio is the longest such string in the NFL since the AFL-NFL merger in '70. The only other team to go 10 consecutive years with a positive turnover ratio over that span was Philadelphia ('86-95).

WISCONSIN - LA CROSSE
NFL: 3 (3RD WITH CHIEFS)
FREE AGENT (1999)
BORN: JULY 11, 1974
THORP, WISCONSIN
GP/GS: (31/5) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Hard-hitting and hard-working Wisconsinite continues to make believers out of those who doubted he could fulfill his pro football aspirations ... Has earned the respect of his peers in the NFL's hardhat-and-lunchpail crowd with his "throwback" approach to the game ... Continued his ascent in the pro football world by breaking into the Chiefs starting lineup at the left outside "base" linebacker post late in the 2000 season ... Started five of the club's final six games of the year at that position, posting double-digit tackles in three of those contests ... Has shifted back to his more natural, and appropriately-named middle "MIKE" linebacker position for 2001 ... Excelled playing that MLB post in both NFL Europe and in the collegiate ranks and looked very comfortable working there during Kansas City's off-season program ... Could provide a legitimate challenge to incumbant Marvcus Patton for the starting role at that spot in River Falls ... Will certainly be hard to keep off the field in 2001 after his stellar finish to the 2000 season ... That move into the starting lineup last season signaled another dramatic step in this third-year linebacker's unlikely path to success in the National Football League ... Was a member of USA Today's All-Joe Team in 2000, a squad which annually recognizes the league's top blue-collar performers ... Was also selected to Dr. Z's Sports Illustrated All-Pro team a year ago for his special teams efforts ... Completed an arduous journey to the NFL in Œ99 after playing in NFL Europe that spring and competing in the Arena Football League in '98 ... Initially entered the pro ranks as a rookie free agent with the San Diego Chargers in '97, but was cut before the start of the regular season ... Part of a growing list of current NFL players who honed their skills in NFL Europe, including the likes of '99 NFL MVP, Kurt Warner of the St. Louis Rams ... Arguably one of the most exciting defensive performers to ever come out of the European league ... After establishing himself as one of the league's most competitive special teams performers in Œ99, built on that reputation by upping his tackle count in the kicking game in 2000 and earning the starting spot on defense by season's end ... Despite taking on an increased role on defense in 2000, still led the squad with 25 special teams stops, making him the only KC player with 20 or more such tackles ... In two seasons with the Chiefs, has played in 31 of a possible 32 games ... Produced 59 of his 60 career tackles on defense last season ... Also owns 48 special teams tackles, 2.0 sacks (-5.0 yards), a fumble recovery, a forced fumble, three passes defensed and four QB pressures with Kansas CIty ... Displayed an amazing feat of durability and desire in Œ99, playing in a total of 30 pro games, seeing action in 11 contests with the Barcelona Dragons to go with 19 preseason and regular season outings in Kansas City ... Despite his circuitous path to the NFL, made the most of his long-awaited opportunity with the Chiefs ... Honed his special teams skills at the hand of ace special teamer LB Greg Manusky and finished second on the squad with 23 special teams tackles in Œ99, the most by a Kansas City rookie since '94 ... Was a landslide winner of the club's prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award, presented annually to the Chiefs top first-year performer ... Has the ability to long snap, which originally was one of the reasons Kansas City signed him in Œ99 ... Was inked by the Chiefs after earning Team Ironman honors as a linebacker, fullback and special teams performer for the Arena League's San Jose Sabercats in '98 ... Terrorized NFL Europe in the spring of '99 by setting a league single-season record with 105 tackles ... Hails from tiny Thorp, Wisconsin (pop. 1,657), located approximately 90 miles east of the Chiefs summer home in River Falls ... Played for NCAA Division III football powerhouse Wisconsin - La Crosse which has produced several other NFL performers including former Pro Bowl guard Tom Newberry of the L.A. Rams ('84-96) and current Green Bay Packers wide receiver Bill Schroeder ... Played in the same collegiate league as UW-River Falls and has seen game action on Ramer Field where the Chiefs conduct training camp ... Originally began his pro tenure as a rookie free agent with San Diego in '97. At Kansas City (1999-00): Has seen action in 31 games with five starts ... Owns 60 tackles (47 solo), a fumble recovery, a forced fumble and 2.0 sacks (-5.0 yards) ... Has also accumulated three passes defensed, four QB pressures and 48 special teams stops. 2000: Saw duty in all 16 games on special teams and took defensive snaps in 14 games, starting five of those contests ... Captained the club's special teams unit ... Selected to Dr. Z's Sports Illustrated All-Pro team (special teams) and USA Today's All-Joe team ... Finished the year with 59 tackles (46 solo), 2.0 sacks (-5.0 yards), one fumble recovery, a forced fumble, four QB pressures and three passes defensed ... Led the club with 25 special teams tackles, three shy of the club record of 28 set by Ken Jolly in '84 ... Tied a career-high with four special teams tackles vs. Indianapolis (9/3) ... Saw action on special teams and as a short yardage LB vs. Seattle (10/2), tallying one solo stop on defense and three special teams tackles ... Took snaps on defense in place of an injured Lew Bush vs. Oakland (10/15), recording one tackle ... Tied a career-high with four special teams stops at Seattle (10/29) ... Went into the lineup at LOLB on the club's second defensive series at San Francisco (11/12), compiling a career-high 12 tackles (nine solo) and a personal-best three QB pressures ... Made his first career start at LOLB vs. Buffalo (11/19), amassing two tackles (one solo) and 1.0 sack (-1.0 yard) of Rob Johnson ... Posted four solo tackles, a fumble recovery, 1.0 sack (-4.0 yards) of Ryan Leaf and one pass defensed at San Diego (11/26) ... Contributed 10 tackles (eight solo), a forced fumble and three special teams tackles at New England (12/4) ... Saw reserve action at LOLB when the club opened in a nickel package vs. Carolina (12/10), tying a career high with 12 tackles (10 solo), while adding a pass defensed and two stops on KO coverage ... Started at LOLB vs. Denver (12/17), producing eight tackles (six solo) and one QB pressure ... Totaled seven tackles (five solo) and a pass defensed at Atlanta (12/24). 1999: Earned the club's prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award as Kansas City's top first-year performer ... Saw duty in 15 games on special teams, ranking second on the squad with 23 tackles, the most by a first-year Chief since Monty Grow had 23 in '94 ... Got 15 of his stops on kickoff coverage and eight on punt coverage ... Served as a linebacker in goal line and short yardage situations in five games, posting one solo tackle on defense ... Also saw punt snapping duty in one game ... Saw action in his first NFL contest on special teams and as a reserve LB at Chicago (9/12) ... Registered one solo tackle on defense and recorded two special teams tackles vs. Denver (9/19) ... Tallied a career-high four special teams tackles vs. Detroit (9/26) ... Captained the special teams vs. New England (10/10) and at Baltimore (10/21), getting a team-high with three special teams tackles vs. the Ravens ... Captained the special teams and had a pair of special teams stops vs. San Diego (10/31) ... Left the game vs. Seattle (11/21) due to a mild head trauma suffered on the opening kickoff, but returned to action later in the contest ... Was inactive the following week at Oakland (11/28) due to that injury ... Tallied two special teams tackles at Denver (12/5) and handled all of the club's punt snapping duties in the second half, replacing an injured Ralph Tamm ... Had a pair of special teams stops vs. Pittsburgh (12/18) ... Saw duty on the club's goal line defense at Seattle (12/26) and posted two special teams tackles. NFL Europe (1999): Was easily the most dominating defensive performer in NFL Europe in '99 ... Simply did nothing but make plays during his tenure in Barcelona ... Served as a starting linebacker for the club and helped lead Barcelona to a World Bowl match-up vs. Frankfort ... Led the league with 105 tackles and four interceptions ... Those 105 tackles broke the previous NFL Europe single-season mark of 95 set by the Rhein Fire's Anthony Fieldings in '95 ... Earned NFL Europe Defensive Player of the Week honors after becoming the first linebacker in league history to record three INTs in a single game vs. Amsterdam (4/17), including one which he returned for a 30-yard TD ... Received Defensive Player of the Week honors again after posting 16 tackles, a pass defensed and a pair of special teams stops at the Scottish Claymores (5/9) ... Had an incredible 10 stops the following week vs. Frankfort (5/15) ... Posted eight tackles in a 38-24 World Bowl setback vs. Frankfort (6/20). Arena Football League (1998): Served as a fullback, linebacker and special teams performer for the San Jose Sabercats, helping lead the club to the playoffs ... Was a team captain and earned Team Ironman honors ... Was a teammate of K Billy Stoyanovich, younger brother of former Chiefs K Pete Stoyanovich ... Played in 12 of the club's 15 regular season contests, leading the squad in rushing with 33 carries for 149 yards (4.5 avg.) with seven TDs ... Also caught 10 passes for 86 yards ... Ranked fifth on the team with 28 tackles (14 solo), adding two passes defensed and a forced fumble.

College: Concluded an outstanding four-year career at UW-La Crosse by earning Division III All-America honors as a senior in '96 ... Helped lead the club to the NCAA semi-finals before losing to eventual national champion Mt. Union his final season ... Also voted to the prestigious American Football Coaches All-America squad which includes both Division II and III players ... Named the Wisconsin State University Conference's (WSUC) Most Valuable Player, the first defensive player to win that honor in over a decade ... Captained the Eagles squad as senior, as well ... Became the only player in school history to earn UW-La Crosse's Top Rock Award three times, an honor bestowed annually to the club's Most Valuable Defensive Player ... Finished his career with 279 tackles (21 for loss), 5.5 sacks and 10 interceptions ... Had seven pickoffs, 86 tackles and one sack as a senior ... RUNNING BACK - 6-0 - 223

LOUISVILLE
NFL: 2 (2ND WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: SEPTEMBER 9, 1976
ELIZABETHTOWN, KENTUCKY
GP/GS: (11/0) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Second-year running back who looks primed for more playing time in 2001 . . . Was one of the club's most pleasant surprises during work this off-season, looking substantially leaner and faster than a year ago . . . Made the switch from #46 to #22 and now looks more like a traditional halfback as opposed to a bulkier fullback by virtue of a smaller jersey number, alone . . . Can play either position, but will likely concentrate on the halfback post this season . . . Could also see action in single-back sets, as well . . . Tough runner who is difficult for a single defender to bring down . . . Seemingly gets tougher to tackle the closer he gets to the goal line . . . Expected to compete with Mike Cloud for action behind starter Priest Holmes . . . Saw reserve action in 11 games at running back and on special teams as a rookie in 2000 . . . Carried the ball 67 times for 179 yards (2.7 avg.) with a long of 22 yards and four touchdowns . . . Those four rushing scores were the most by a Chiefs rookie since Herman Heard also had four in '84. That total tied as the sixth-highest rookie mark in team annals . . . Originally entered the NFL as a fourth-round selection (115th overall) of the Chiefs in the 2000 NFL Draft. 2000: Saw reserve duty in 11 games at RB . . . Was third on the team with 67 carries for 179 yards and a team-leading four rushing TDs . . . His four rushing TDs were the most by a Chiefs rookie RB since Herman Heard had four in '84 . . . Carried the ball three times for 15 yards with a 12-yard long vs. Indianapolis (9/3) . . . Rushed seven times for four yards at Tennessee (9/10) . . . Totaled a career-high 18 carries for 58 yards and one TD vs. San Diego (9/17). His first NFL score came on a one-yard plunge in the fourth quarter . . . Recorded six carries for eight yards at Denver (9/24) . . . Saw reserve duty at RB vs. Seattle (10/2) . . . Rushed seven times for 18 yards vs. Oakland (10/15) . . . Registered four totes for six yards, including a two-yard TD run vs. St. Louis (10/22) . . . Got three carries for four yards at Seattle (10/29) . . . Was inactive at Oakland (11/5), at San Francisco (11/12), vs. Buffalo (11/19), at San Diego (11/26) and at New England (12/4) . . . Recorded three carries for three yards vs. Carolina (12/10) . . . Rushed 14 times for a career-high 59 yards, including a career-long 22-yard run and a two-yard TD vs. Denver (12/17) as the Chiefs rolled up 264 rushing yards on the day, the club's highest rushing output since amassing 310 yards vs. Detroit (10/14/90) ... Had two carries for four yards, including a one-yard TD run at Atlanta (12/24).

College: Powerful runner who appeared in 37 games (18 starts) at Louisville ... Carried the ball 499 times for 2,599 yards (5.2 avg.) with 27 touchdowns ... Finished his career with 11 100-yard rushing games ... Also caught 54 passes for 369 yards (6.8 avg.) ... Closed his tenure as Louisville's fifth-leading career rusher with 2,599 yards ... His 27 rushing TDs rank second in school annals behind only Lenny Lyles who had 35 ground scores from '54-57 ... Despite playing with a fractured right hand for most of the '99 campaign, led the club in rushing again with a career-best 1,289 yards ... That yardage tally was the most by a Louisville back since '78 ... Started 10 games at running back for the Cardinals and was a first team All-Conference USA selection as a senior ... Produced seven 100-yard games on the year despite missing one contest because of surgery to repair his broken hand ... Had a career-best 188 yards and four TDs vs. UT-Chattanooga ... Played in 11 games with one start his junior season ... Finished second on the squad with 307 rushing yards on just 43 carries, giving him an impressive 7.1 yards-per-carry average ... Added a team-best three rushing scores and five receptions for 39 yards ... Played in nine games with six starts in '97 ... Tough performer who bounced back from a torn ACL in the first game of the '96 season to lead the squad in rushing in '97 ... Despite missing two games was still Louisville's leading rusher, churning out 120 carries for 573 yards with five touchdowns ... Accumulated 384 of those yards and all five scores in the final three games of the season after starting the season as a backup ... Returned to starting lineup vs. East Carolina, getting 33 carries for 139 yards and four scores. All four of those TDs came in second quarter, tying the NCAA record shared by Corey Dillon (Washington), Howard Griffith (Illinois) and Dick Held (BYU) ... Entered the '96 season as the club's starter at tailback, but his season ended after just 13 plays when he tore his anterior cruciate ligament ... Originally slated to redshirt in '95, but was forced into action midway through the season due to lack of depth behind starter Calvin Arrington ... Played in six games ... Finished the year with 96 carries for 416 yards and two touchdowns on the ground despite not getting a carry until the season's seventh contest ... His 416 yards were the second-highest mark by a freshman in school history behind Greg Hickman who got 648 yards in '79 ... Graduated from Louisville with a degree in Justice Administration ... Currently pursuing a master's degree in Sports Administration.

JACKSON STATE
DRAFT (NO. 1 - 2000)
NFL: 2 (2ND WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: OCTOBER 6, 1977
NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA
GP/GS: (15/14) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Exciting young receiver entering his second season in Kansas City after enjoying the most prolific receiving campaign of any rookie in Chiefs history a year ago ... Suffered a right knee injury on the next-to-the-last workout of the club's off-season program on June 20th ... Underwent a surgical procedure to repair an ACL tear on June 22nd ... As of press time, the extent and the length of his rehabilitation process is still undetermined ... Was expected to be a major contributor in 2001 after enjoying a promising rookie campaign ... Hauled in 48 passes in 2000, surpassing the previous rookie standard established by Chris Burford in the franchise's initial season of '60 ... Seattle's Darrell Jackson (53) and Cincinnati's Peter Warrick (51) were the only NFL rookies in 2000 to post more receptions, while only Jackson (713) had more receiving yards ... Finished his debut season with 48 catches for 678 yards (14.1 avg.) and three TDs ... Earned All-Rookie Team accolades from both Pro Football Weekly and Football News ... Is expected to produce even bigger things in 2001 and beyond with Pro Football Hall Fame WR Charlie Joiner serving as his position coach ... Was in the club's starting lineup at the "X" receiver spot by the second week of the regular season in 2000, a position he shows no signs of relinquishing any time soon ... An excellent leaper who seemingly gets stronger once he goes airborne ... Possesses a strong upper body which frequently allows him to go up and pluck the pigskin out of a crowd ... Often makes even the most difficult catches appear routine ... Is dangerous in the open field once he makes the catch and has the ability to separate from even the speediest defenders ... Has already shown the ability to break out for a big game, getting 112 yards and three TDs in his first-ever start at Arrowhead vs. San Diego (9/17/00), becoming the first Chiefs rookie to ever haul in three touchdowns in a single game ... Had two of the club's team-record 14 individual 100-yard receiving efforts in 2000 ... Gives the Chiefs a third legitimate receiving target to go with Pro Bowl TE Tony Gonzalez and WR Derrick Alexander who combined for the club's other 12 100-yard performances a year ago ... Owns a lanky running style which reminds some of the same gate exhibited by Chiefs Hall of Fame wideout, Otis Taylor ... Entered the NFL as Kansas City's first round draft choice (21st overall) in the 2000 NFL Draft ... Became the first wide receiver tabbed by the Chiefs in the first round of the draft since the club took Anthony Hancock from Tennessee in '82 ... Just one of seven players in Jackson State annals to be selected in the draft's opening round, joining CB Rashard Anderson who was taken just two picks later (23rd overall) by the Carolina Panthers ... Other Jackson State alums picked in the drafts opening round include: late Pro Football Hall of Famer RB Walter Payton (Chicago - '75), WR Jerome Barkum (N.Y. Jets - '72), DE Donald Reese (Miami - '74), LB Robert Brazile (Houston - '75) and G Lester Holmes (Philadelphia - '93) ... Was the first Jackson State player selected by Kansas City since the club took WR Tim Barnett in the third round of the '91 draft ... In addition to Barkum and Barnett, other notable pass catchers to come out of Jackson State include the likes of current NFL performers Jimmy Smith (Jacksonville) and Cory Bradford (Green Bay) ... Joined fellow SWAC performer S Greg Wesley of Arkansas - Pine Bluff, who was drafted in the third round of the 2000 draft by Kansas City. 2000: Played in 15 games at WR (14 starts), producing a Chiefs rookie single-season record 48 catches for 678 yards (14.1 avg.) and three TDs ... Also completed one pass for 31 yards ... Ranked second among NFL rookies in receiving yards, was third in receptions and tied for third in TD catches ... Was the club's third WR vs. Indianapolis (9/3), catching three passes for a team-high 58 yards (19.3 avg.) in his NFL debut, including a long of 31 yards ... Made his first career start at WR at Tennessee (9/10), catching three passes for 44 yards, becoming the first rookie WR to start for Kansas City since Lake Dawson at Buffalo (10/31/94) ... Produced six catches for 112 yards (18.7 avg.) and three TDs (36, nine and 20 yards) vs. San Diego (9/17). His three TDs tied for the second-highest total in franchise history, were the most-ever by a Kansas City rookie and the most since Otis Taylor had three vs. the N.Y. Jets (11/16/69). Also became the first Chiefs rookie to tally a 100-yard receiving game since Dawson had 101 yards vs. Houston (12/18/94) ... Hauled in four passes for 64 yards vs. Oakland (10/15) ... Posted five receptions for 64 yards vs. St. Louis (10/22). Also completed a 31-yard pass to Derrick Alexander after accepting a lateral from QB Elvis Grbac ... Was inactive due to a shoulder injury at Seattle (10/29) ... Tied a career high with six catches for 102 yards, including a career-long 47-yarder at Oakland (11/5) ... Tallied four receptions for 38 yards vs. Carolina (12/10).

College: Saw action in 41 games (28 starts) during his tenure at Jackson State, collecting a school-record 175 passes for 3,188 yards (18.2 avg.) with 34 touchdowns ... His 175 catches surpassed the prior standard of 171 career receptions established by Willie Richardson ('59-62), who spent nine NFL campaigns with the Colts ('63-69, '71) and Dolphins ('70) ... His 3,188 receiving yards ranked second in school history behind Richardson (3,616) ... Those 34 career receiving TDs put him second only to Richardson (36), as well ... Topped the 1,000-yard mark as both a junior and senior, owning two of the three 1,000-yard receiving seasons in school history. Richardson had the other with 1,237 yards in '60 ... Also registered seven carries for 133 yards and two TDs during his collegiate career ... Got 125 of his 175 receptions, 2,397 of his 3,188 yards and 30 of his 34 TDs in his final two seasons with the Tigers ... Started all 11 games as a senior in '99, finishing the year with 63 receptions for 1,139 yards (18.1 avg.) and 13 scores ... His 63 catches ranked second in school annals (Ron Lewis - 67 in '88), while his yardage tally was third in school history and his TD tally was second behind his 17 scores in '98 ... Was a first team All-America selection of SportsPage.com and an All-Southwestern Athletic Conference first-team choice, as well ... Ranked 11th in the nation with an average of 103.6 receiving yards per game ... Also carried the ball five times for 100 yards (20.0 avg) with a pair of touchdowns ... Had four catches for 103 yards and four touchdowns vs. Alabama State ... Ran for a career-long 79-yard TD vs. Arkansas - Pine Bluff and recorded five catches for 85 yards ... Hauled in a season-best 10 balls for 166 yards vs. New Haven ... Gained a career-high 200 yards and had three touchdowns on seven receptions vs. Alcorn State, recording a career-long 95-yard TD in that contest ... Started all 11 games as a junior, leading the team with 62 receptions for a school-record 1,258 yards (20.3 avg.) and a team-record 17 touchdowns ... Remarkably, all 17 of his scores came in the club's final six games ... His 62 catches also ranked third in school history ... Was a first team All-America selection of The Sports Network and was a first team All-SWAC pick ... Had seven 100-yard games on the year ... Set a single-game school record with five touchdown catches (50, 13, seven, 35 and 11 yards) vs. Grambling, finishing the game with eight catches for 201 yards ... Saw action in all 11 games with six starts as a sophomore ... Earned All-SWAC second team honors after ranking third on the team with 46 receptions for 739 yards (16.1 avg) and four touchdowns ... Appeared in eight games as a redshirt freshman, finishing the year with four catches for 52 yards, good for a 13.0-yard average ... Redshirted as a true freshman in '95 ... Majored in Criminal Justice at Jackson State.

Personal: Was a standout performer on the gridiron for coach Emmitt Smith at McDonough 35 High School in New Orleans, the same school that produced former Chiefs defensive end Neil Smith. Morris wore jersey #81, the same number worn by Smith during his prep days ... Full name: Sylvester Morris, Jr. ... Nicknamed "Cat" ... Single ... Resides in Overland Park, Kansas.

Pro Career: Athletic young linebacker entering his second season in Kansas City ... Was one of the most pleasant surprises of training camp in 2000 when he became the only rookie free agent to land a spot on the club's Opening Day 53-man roster ... Hard-hitting tackler possesses plenty of natural instinct for the game and has a true nose for the ball ... Made a big impact on special teams a year ago, but will likely challenge for playing time in a number of the club's sub-defenses in 2001 ... Heading into this season is penciled in as the top back-up to Donnie Edwards at Kansas City's ROLB post ... Despite not taking any defensive snaps during the regular season a year ago, could work his way onto the field this season after enjoying a complete off-season of tutelage with Chiefs linebackers coach Joe Vitt ... Ranked fifth on the team with 14 special teams stops last season despite seeing action in only 10 games ... Played in the club's initial 10 contests before a shoulder injury sidelined him for the remainder of the campaign ... Expected to once again be one of the team's top special teams performers ... Originally entered the NFL as a rookie free agent from Marshall in 2000. 2000: Played in the first 10 games of the year before being sidelined by a shoulder injury ... Worked exclusively on special teams in those 10 contests, recording 14 special teams tackles to rank fifth on the squad ... BORN: JULY 14, 1976
BAKERSFIELD, CALIFORNIA

Pro Career: Third-year wideout expected to compete for increased playing time on offense for the Chiefs ... Could also challenge for the starting job at the club's "X" receiver post left open by WR Sylvester Morris' off-season knee injury ... Should also be in the mix as a return specialist in 2001, owning experience returning both punts and kickoffs for Kansas City ... Continues to improve his overall offensive skills ... Has the size and strength to out-muscle defenders for the ball, but also has the speed to get downfield ... Works hard in practice, runs good routes and should continue to develop as an offensive threat ... Is also a consistent contributor as a coverage man on the specialty units ... Has seen action in 26 regular season NFL contests with Kansas City, seeing duty in all 16 games a year ago after playing in 10 contests as a rookie ... Has returned 15 kickoffs for 303 yards (20.2 avg.) and 10 punts for 101 yards (10.1 avg.) ... Also owns three receptions for 41 yards and 18 special teams tackles ... Gives the Chiefs another connection to Southern California. Although vastly outnumbered by UCLA alums on the Kansas City roster, will be able to share Trojan tales with Chiefs assistant head coach/offensive coordinator Al Saunders who began his coaching career at USC in '70-71 ... Joined Kansas City as a fourth-round draft selection (108th overall) in '99. 2000: Played in 16 games on special teams with five punt returns for 50 yards (10.0 avg.) and 14 KO returns for 279 yards (19.9 avg.) ... Was third on the squad with 16 special teams tackles ... Also saw action at WR in eight games, catching three passes for 41 yards (13.7 avg.) ... Had one run for a seven-yard loss, as well ... Returned two punts for 18 yards and had a special teams tackle on punt coverage vs. Indianapolis (9/3) ... Handled punt and KO return duties and appeared on offense at Tennessee (9/10). Returned three KOs for 63 yards (21.0 avg.) with a career-long runback of 27 yards ... Played in a reserve role at WR and on special teams vs. San Diego (9/17), catching his first career pass for eight yards and returning three punts for 32 yards and two KOs for 44 yards. Also had three special teams tackles. Left the game temporarily with a back contusion, but did return ... Saw duty at WR and special teams at Denver (9/24), recording a tackle on KO coverage ... Saw action on special teams and as a reserve at WR vs. Seattle (10/2) ... Tied a career high with three special teams tackles vs. Oakland (10/15) ... Made one stop on punt coverage vs. St. Louis (10/22) ... Saw action on special teams and at WR at Seattle (10/29), collecting one tackle on KO coverage ... Saw action on special teams and at WR at Oakland (11/5), returning five KOs for 90 yards (18.0 avg.) and recording two tackles on KO coverage ... Had one carry for a seven-yard loss and one KO return for 24 yards at San Francisco (11/12) ... Caught a career-high two passes for 33 yards vs. Buffalo (11/19), including a career-long 27-yard catch. Also returned one KO for 17 yards and had one tackle on KO coverage ... Saw action on special teams at San Diego (11/26), at New England (12/4) and vs. Carolina (12/10) ... Made one tackle on KO coverage vs. Denver (12/17) ... GP/GS: (176/134) PLAYOFFS: (11/6)

Pro Career: Poised 12th-year pro set to anchor the Chiefs defense from his middle linebacker position for the third consecutive year ... Not only brought his chiseled physique to Kansas City when he signed as an unrestricted free agent from Washington on April 27th of '99, but also infused the Arrowhead locker room with his commitment to being the very best ... Earned the club's Derrick Thomas Award as the club's Most Valuable Player in his inaugrual season with the club ... Joined the late Thomas as the only other Chiefs linebacker to be named the club's MVP (Thomas won the honor in both '91 and '94) ... Achieved another milestone in 2000 by scoring the first touchdown of his distinguished NFL career, hitting paydirt on a 24-yard INT return at San Diego (11/26) ... The embodiment of professionalism, provides the ultimate example to his teammates of how to work, whether it's in the weight room, in the classroom or on the field ... Maintains a quiet demeanor, but speaks volumes by the way he carries himself ... A relentless worker who pushes both himself and his teammates to their maximum potential ... Patton's stringent year-round workout regiment is largely responsible for his unprecedented durability, particularly when one considers the position he plays ... Has not missed a single game since entering the league in '90, seeing action in 176 consecutive contests dating back to his rookie campaign with Buffalo ... Owns a total of 134 starts and has opened 127 of his last 128 games ... Had a streak of 118 consecutive starts dating back to the '93 season opener snapped last year when the Chiefs opened in a dime defense vs. St. Louis (10/22) ... Despite coming to the Chiefs with relatively little fanfare, proceeded to pay immediate dividends for the club ... Set the tone for Kansas City's defense in '99 by producing a career-high 6.5 sacks, racking up a team-high 20 tackles for loss and registering a career-best 14 quarterback pressures ... Tallied 143 tackles a year ago, marking the eighth consecutive season he had topped the 100-tackle barrier, an even more remarkable feat considering he turned the trick for three different teams during that span ... Can play any linebacker position, but is most comfortable on the inside ... Took over the Chiefs MLB spot in '99, facilitating the move of fellow UCLA alum Donnie Edwards to an outside linebacker post ... Along with Edwards, is part of an ever-growing contigent of former Bruins coaches and players in Kansas City, a list which includes the likes of President Carl Peterson, head coach Dick Vermeil and defensive coordinator Greg Robinson ... Came to Kansas City after a four-year stint with Washington from '95-98, where he was the Redskins leading tackler three of those four seasons ... Pro Career: Dependable and versatile defensive lineman entering his fourth season with the Chiefs in 2001 ... Is expected to shift to the left defensive end post behind Eric Hicks this season after working primarily at defensive end and on special teams during his first three seasons with the club ... Rotated into the lineup as a reserve at both end and tackle a year ago and appears to have found his niche on the outside of Kansas City's defensive front ... Despite seeing limited action on defense, has always given the club quality snaps when he has been called upon ... Played both tackle and end in college, giving him plenty of experience juggling the responsibilities of both spots, an attribute which has made him a valuable commodity in Kansas City ... Continues to hone his technique and is a frequent visitor to the film room ... Made the club as a sixth-round draft choice in '98 and has played in 27 games for Kansas City over the past three seasons ... Has seen action in 10 games apiece the past two years after playing in seven games as a rookie in '98 ... The bulk of his special teams action has come as a member of the kickoff return unit ... Owns three tackles on defense, a sack (-9.0 yards) and two QB pressures ... Joined the Chiefs as the club's sixth-round selection (181st overall) in the '98 NFL Draft. 2000: Played in 10 games, totaling two solo tackles and one QB pressure ... Was inactive vs. Indianapolis (9/3) and at Tennessee (9/17) ... Saw first action of the year on defense vs. San Diego (9/17), making one solo tackle after seeing reserve action at both DT and DE ... FULLBACK - 6-1 - 232

AUBURN
FREE AGENT (1995)
NFL: 7 (7TH WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: DECEMBER 17, 1971
FRANKFORT, GERMANY
GP/GS: (87/34) PLAYOFFS: (2/0)

Pro Career: Unquestionably one of the most versatile and personable performers on the Chiefs roster ... This talented fullback enters his seventh season in the NFL in 2001, his seventh year in the Red and Gold ... Immensely popular both in the locker room and the Kansas City community, is truly one of the NFL's "good guys" ... Known across the league simply by his moniker of "T-Rich" ... Plays the game with passion and humility, bringing a selfless attitude to work every day ... Serves as an excellent role model for his teammates with his exemplary work ethic and all-giving approach to the game ... Has established himself as one of the most reputable leaders in the Chiefs locker room and continues to earn the esteem of his teammates ... Among active Kansas City players, only six-time Pro Bowl G Will Shields has spent more time on the Chiefs roster than Richardson, who joined the club as an unheralded free agent in '95 ... Came to Kansas City after spending the '94 season on the practice squad of the Dallas Cowboys where he learned the finer points of the game from the likes of RB Emmitt Smith and FB Daryl Johnston ... Obviously picked up plenty from that Dallas backfield tandem ... After paying his practice squad dues, is now regarded as one of the league's finest performers at his position ... Is likewise held in the same high esteem for the way he carries himself both on and off the field ... Truly launched his career into overdrive the past two seasons, starting his last 32 consecutive games and racking up some substantial stats in the process ... Has been recognized as the starting fullback on Dr. Z's Sports Illustrated All-Pro squad the past two seasons ... Expected to move back into a true fullback role to clear holes for RB Priest Holmes in 2001 after splitting time between the two backfield positions a year ago ... Should he continue his high level of play at the FB post this year, would likely draw serious Pro Bowl consideration ... A true professional, who epitomizes what it means to be a true team player, as evidenced by his move back to a more traditional fullback role in 2001 ... Will still likely play a large role in the club's offensive plans, owning the ability to play either backfield position or can work alone as a single back ... Possesses superb pass-catching skills and surprising speed in addition to his aforementioned blocking affinity ... That triple-threat ability makes him an integral part of Kansas City's goal-line and short-yardage packages ... Has done virtually everything in his power to help his team and his teammates get better since joining the club ... Began his career working as a scout team service back, but it quickly became apparent that this was a player who needed to be on the field ... Initially earned his stripes as a special teamer and serving as a lead blocker in short-yardage and goal line situations clearing the way for the legendary Marcus Allen ... Elevated his status by developing into one of the league's pre-eminient special teams performers, posting double-digit tackles in the kicking game five straight years from '95-98 ... Entered the '99 campaign as the club's starting fullback and opened all 16 games for the first time in his career ... Finally got an opportunity to fully showcase his offensive skills down the stretch in '99 when he carried the bulk of the club's rushing load, getting 284 of his 387 rushing yards (73.4%) in the season's final five games ... Truly emerged as an offensive force to be reckoned with in 2000 when he started all 16 games, including five as the club's halfback ... Led the team in rushing with 147 carries for 697 yards (4.7 avg.) with three TDs and ranked third on the squad with 58 receptions for 468 yards (8.1 avg.) with three scores ... His 1,165 total yards were the most yards of total offense by a Chiefs RB since Christian Okoye had 1,492 yards in '89, while his 697 rushing yards were the most by a Chief since Marcus Allen had 830 in '96 ... Cranked off a monster game vs. Denver (12/17/00), pounding out a career-high 156 rushing yards, the highest single-game tally by a Chiefs RB since Barry Word racked up a franchise-record 200 yards vs. Detroit (10/14/90). That contest marked his initial 100-yard rushing game ... Ranked among the NFL's elite in terms of yards-per-touch average in 2000 ... Led all AFC running backs and ranked third in the NFL in that department behind Marshall Faulk - St. Louis (6.6) and Tiki Barber - N.Y. Giants (6.1), averaging 5.7 yards per touch on his rushes and receptions ... Despite his increased offensive workload, is still one of the best lead blockers in the business ... Excels at escorting his teammates into the end zone with his battering-ram style, blowing even the best linebackers and defensive linemen off the ball ... Dishes out the same kind of punishment when he gets the ball in his hands and is tough to bring down in the open field ... A powerful runner when it comes time to move the chains, is frequently the player whose number is called to pick up the tough yardage ... Enjoys making contact at the point of attack and brings that same punishing and tenacious style of play to the Chiefs special teams ... Although his role on the specialty squads has decreased, he needs only four more stops in the kicking game to record his 100th career special teams stop ... From '95-99, only Greg Manusky (124) produced more special teams stops in a Chiefs uniform than Richardson (94) ... Has seen duty in 87 career regular season games with 34 starts, posting 267 rushes for 1,168 yards (4.4 avg.) and six scores ... Needs just 332 more ground yards to become the 17th player in Kansas City history to crack the 1,500-yard career barrier ... Owns 89 career receptions for 565 yards (6.3 avg.), with seven of those catches resulting in touchdowns ... Owns two career playoff appearances with the Chiefs, as well ... Came to Kansas City as a free agent on February 28th of '95 ... Originally entered the league as a rookie free agent with the Dallas Cowboys in '94 and spent his rookie campaign on that club's practice squad. 2000: Started all 16 contests (five at RB, 11 at FB) for the second consecutive season and was named to Dr. Z's Sports Illustrated All-Pro team at fullback for the second straight year ... Led the team in rushing with a career-high 147 carries for a personal-best 697 yards (4.7 avg.) and three TDs ... Was third on the team with 58 receptions for 468 yards (8.1 avg.) and a career-high tying three TDs ... His 1,165 total yards were the most yards of total offense by a Chiefs RB since Christian Okoye had 1,492 yards in '89 ... His 697 rushing yards were the most by a Chief since Marcus Allen had 830 in '96 ... Led all AFC RBs and ranked third in the NFL behind the Rams Marshall Faulk (6.6) and the N.Y. Giants Tiki Barber (6.1), averaging 5.7 yards per touch (rushes and receptions) ... Also had two special teams tackles ... Started his first career game at RB vs. Indianapolis (9/3), carrying the ball 13 times for 58 yards (4.5 avg.). Had a team-long 16-yard run in the second quarter to eclipse the 500-yard milestone for his career. Also caught two passes for 24 yards, including a 13-yard TD ... Started at FB at Tennessee (9/10), tallying 14 carries for 28 yards, as well as one catch for two yards ... Started at RB in a one-RB, two-TE set vs. San Diego (9/17), recording six carries for 40 yards and four receptions for 22 yards, including a one-yard TD ... Started at FB at Denver (9/24), rushing 14 times for 35 yards and one TD, while catching two passes for 35 yards ... Started at FB vs. Seattle (10/2), totaling 11 carries for 53 yards and grabbing one reception for six yards ... Started at FB vs. Oakland (10/15), leading the team in rushing with five totes for 25 yards and recording five receptions for 31 yards, including a 15-yard TD ... Tallied two carries for two yards and a 16-yard reception vs. St. Louis (10/22) ... Rushed four times for 18 yards, caught two passes for 10 yards and made a tackle on punt coverage at Seattle (10/29) ... Produced three totes for 18 yards with a one-yard TD at Oakland (11/5) and had seven catches for 51 yards ... Set career highs in receptions (eight) and receiving yards (81) at San Francisco (11/12) and also had four carries for 19 yards ... Rushed eight times for 44 yards, caught four passes for 30 yards and added a tackle on punt coverage vs. Buffalo (11/29) ... Posted nine carries for 52 yards and three receptions for 27 yards at San Diego (11/26) ... Totaled six carries for 30 yards and three receptions for 32 yards at New England (12/4) ... Had 17 carries for 89 yards and tied a personal-best with eight catches for 56 yards vs. Carolina (12/10) ... Set career highs in rushing attempts (23) and rushing yards (156) in the finest performance of his career which included a career-long 33 yard run and a 28-yard TD

romp in a 20-7 win vs. Denver (12/17). His 156 yards were the most by a Chiefs RB since Barry Word had 18 carries for a franchise-record 200 yards vs. Detroit (10/14/90). Also caught three passes for 13 yards in that contest ... Carried the ball eight times for 30 yards and had four receptions for 32 yards at Atlanta (12/24). 1999: Started all 16 games at FB, marking the first time in his career that he had played in every regular season game ... Captained the club for 10 of those contests ... Posted 84 carries for 387 yards with one TD and 24 catches for 141 yards ... Had one rushing TD and tallied 19 special teams tackles (11 on kickoff coverage and eight on punt coverage) ... Registered three carries for 19 yards, caught four passes for 24 yards and made two special teams stops at Chicago (9/12) ... Lone score of the year was a one-yard TD run vs. Denver (9/19) ... Racked up three special teams stops apiece at Baltimore (10/21) and vs. San Diego (10/31) ... Recorded two carries for four yards and a season-long 29-yard reception vs. Seattle (11/21) ... Set season highs with five receptions for 37 yards at Oakland (11/28) ... Breakout game as a ball carrier came at Denver (12/5) when he smashed his previous career marks, gaining 80 yards on 12 carries, including a career-long 26-yard jaunt. Became the sixth different Chiefs player to lead the squad in rushing in a game on the season, marking a first in franchise history ... Followed up that performance by posting 11 carries for a team-high 57 yards vs. Minnesota (12/12), including a 25-yard long ... Produced an identical 11 rushes for 57 yards with a 25-yard long the next week vs. Pittsburgh (12/18) ... Had a team-high eight carries for 20 yards while grabbing two passes for nine yards at Seattle (12/26) ... Posted eight carries for 70 yards vs. Oakland (1/2/00) with a 24-yard long. 1998: Captained the Chiefs special teams in '98, seeing action in 14 contests with one start at fullback ... Tallied 20 carries for 45 yards and two touchdowns on the ground, while catching two passes for 13 yards ... Recorded 11 tackles and forced a pair of fumbles on special teams, as well as recovering a blocked punt ... Forced a fumble and made three tackles on special teams vs. Oakland (9/6) and also converted a pair of third-down opportunities on the ground ... Scored his initial NFL rushing touchdown from one-yard out vs. San Diego (9/20), adding a season-long 15-yard reception ... Rushed a season-high four times for a season-best 13 yards vs. Seattle (10/4) ... Started at fullback vs. Pittsburgh (10/26) ... Converted first downs on all four of his rushes, good for 13 yards and a two-yard TD vs. the N.Y. Jets (11/1). Had three tackles and a forced fumble on special teams vs. the Jets, as well ... Suffered a sprained knee at San Diego (11/22) and did not return ... Listed as inactive with that knee injury vs. Arizona (11/29) and at Denver (12/6) ... Returned to action vs. Dallas (12/13) and recovered a blocked punt by Brian Roche which he returned for 10 yards. 1997: Played in 14 contests as a short yardage fullback and a special teams performer ... Finished the year with two carries for 11 yards and three touchdown receptions for a total of six yards ... Came up with 21 special teams tackles to rank third on the squad behind only Manusky and Danan Hughes ... Caught a one-yard TD toss to put the Chiefs ahead to stay in a 22-16 win vs. Buffalo (9/14) ... Added a three-yard scoring grab the next week at Carolina (9/21) and devastated venerable LB Sam Mills with a lead block which paved the way for a one-yard Marcus Allen TD run ... Had a season-high three special teams tackles apiece at St. Louis (10/26) and vs. San Francisco (11/30) ... Corralled his third TD pass of the year on a two-yard lob from Rich Gannon vs. Oakland (12/7) ... Served as lead blocker on Marcus Allen's 123rd and final rushing TD, a three-yard score vs. New Orleans (12/21) ... Played but did not record any stats in the club's playoff game vs. Denver (1/4/98). 1996: Played in the first 13 games of the season as a blocking back and a special teams performer ... Pro Career: Lanky fourth-year performer made the switch from wide receiver to tight end during Kansas City's second mini-camp in June of 2001 . . . The Chiefs toyed with that idea of that position change a year ago, but did not have time to implement that plan after acquiring this talented pass catcher on October 11th . . . Joined the club after being released by San Diego eight days earlier . . . Enters his initial training camp with Kansas City after spending a little over two seasons with the Chargers, playing in 37contests with that squad . . . Gives the Chiefs yet another option in the receiving game and has the ability to line up split out or on the line of scrimmage, much like Tony Gonzalez . . . The move to tight end will likely provide him with a better opportunity to get on the field with a host of other talented players on the roster at receiver . . . Began his collegiate career playing tight end at Stephen F. Austin and will have his initial opportunity to work at that post on the pro level this season . . . Is a tall, physical target with excellent leaping ability . . . Becomes particularly dangerous in the red zone when quarterbacks can lob the ball up to him over smaller defenders . . . Will require some added bulk in order to be utilized as a pure blocker at the point of attack, but will likely defer to Jason Dunn in those situations in 2001 . . . Never had an opportunity to get fully integrated into Kansas City's offensive scheme a year ago, but should benefit greatly from an entire off-season and training camp under a new coaching regime with the Chiefs . . . Has size and strength to overpower corners and speed to outrun linebackers . . . Works well in traffic and has surprising speed in the open field . . . Has seen action in 38 regular season games with 23 starts . . . All but one of those games came in San Diego with his lone snaps in a Chiefs uniform coming in last year's season finale . . . Played in five games with San Diego a year ago, catching three passes for 35 yards, before coming to Kansas City . . . Owns 73 receptions for 914 yards (12.5 avg.) and two TDs in his three previous seasons . . . Also has two carries for 11 yards to his credit . . . Was selected by San Diego in the second round (59th overall) of the '98 NFL Draft . . . The Chargers traded their first-round pick in 2000 to Tampa Bay to move up to select him. At Kansas City (2000): Saw action in one game on special teams with Kansas City and was inactive for nine contests . . . Played in five games with San Diego, catching three passes for 35 yards, prior to being released by the Chargers on October 3rd . . . Signed with Kansas City on October 11th . . . Played in a total of six NFL games with both clubs . . . Was inactive vs. Oakland (10/15) and vs. St. Louis (10/22) . . . Was active at Seattle (10/29), but did not play . . . Was inactive at Oakland (11/5), at San Francisco (11/12), vs. Buffalo (11/19), at San Diego (11/26), at New England (12/4), vs. Carolina (12/10) and vs. Denver (12/17) . . . Saw his initial duty with the Chiefs when he saw action on special teams at Atlanta (12/24). At San Diego (1998-2000): Played in 37 games (23 starts), producing 73 receptions for 914 yards (12.5 avg.) and two TDs . . . Also had two carries for 11 yards. 2000: Appeared in five games before being released on October 3rd . . . Caught three passes for 35 yards . . . Registered a six-yard catch at Oakland (9/3) and hauled in two balls for 29 yards vs. Seattle (9/24). 1999: Participated in all 16 games (14 starts) . . . Ranked fourth on the team and second among wideouts with 40 receptions for 429 yards (10.7 avg.), while his receiving yardage tally was the squad's third highest . . . Also added two rushes for 11 yards . . . Set a career high with 86 receiving yards, including a career-long 50-yarder, on a team-high four catches in the season-opener at Cincinnati (9/19) . . . Hauled in a career-high six passes for 42 yards vs. Green Bay (10/24) . . . Had a team-high five receptions for 41 yards vs. Denver (11/7) . . . Also hauled in five catches for 64 yards at Minnesota (11/28) . . . Caught four passes for 51 yards vs. Oakland (12/26). 1998: Played in all 16 games with nine starts as a rookie . . . Registered 30 catches for 450 yards (15.0 avg.) with two TDs . . . Ranked fourth on the team with 450 receiving yards . . . Also was tied for fourth on team with 30 receptions and tied for second with two TD catches . . . Moved into starting line-up and caught one pass for 14 yards in his initial NFL game, a season-opening win vs. Buffalo (10/6) . . . Started at Tennessee (9/13), catching two pass for 47 yards . . . Returned to starting line-up vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/27) . . . Caught one pass for 11 yards in a 13-10 win vs. Philadelphia (10/18) . . . Started vs. Seattle (10/25), producing a season-high five catches for 55 yards, including his first career TD from QB Ryan Leaf . . . Started vs. Baltimore (11/15), making three catches for 16 yards . . . Added three more catches for 44 yards in a start vs. Kansas City (11/22) ... Caught one pass for 20 yards in a start vs. Denver (11/29) ... Had a season-high 76 yards on four receptions in a start at Washington (12/6) ... Started at Seattle (12/13) and caught three passes for 56 yards ... Caught four passes for 72 yards vs. Oakland (12/20), including a 39-yard scoring offering from quarterback Craig Whelihan over Raiders cornerback Charles Woodson ... Had three catches for 39 yards at Arizona (12/27).

College: Was an All-Southland Football League first team selection and Offensive Player of Year as a senior in '97 ... Finished career ranked sixth on school's career records list with 2,037 yards receiving ... Appeared in all 44 career games, including 18 starts ... In '97, started all 11 games, catching 47 passes for 1,358 yards and 13 touchdowns ... Led collegiate ranks and set NCAA Division I-AA season-record by averaging 28.9 yards per catch ... Was third in nation with an average of 123.5 yards receiving per game ... Accounted for 58 percent of team's total offense ... In '96, played in 10 games, starting once at tight end ... Notched 16 receptions for 218 yards and four TDs ... Averaged 13.6 yards per catch ... Appeared in every game in '95, starting six contests at TE ... Caught 14 passes for 259 yards and five TDs ... Led the team to a 34-2 decision over Eastern Illinois in Division I-AA playoffs ... In '94, served as a reserve tight end, seeing action in every game ... Notched nine catches for 202 yards ... Became the first Stephen F. Austin TE to gain over 100 yards in a game, grabbing three receptions for 104 yards in a victory over Southwest Texas State ... Redshirted as freshman in '93 ... Majored in Marketing at Stephen F. Austin.

Personal: Led Anahuac High to a pair of District 23-AAA titles as QB ... Two-time All-District and All-Region pick ... Earned All-State and All-District honors in basketball ... Lettered in track, holding school record in long jump with mark of 23' 1" ... Worked with students at Serra High School in San Diego during 2000 offseason as part of NFL's Youth Football Internship Program ... Full name: Mikhael Roy Ricks (pronounced Michael) ... Single ... AUBURN
NFL: 4 (4TH WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: NOVEMBER 4, 1974
SWANSEA, SOUTH CAROLINA
GP/GS: (48/47) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Mammoth right tackle entering his fourth season in Kansas City ... Has been a mainstay in the Chiefs starting lineup since the second game of his rookie year in '98 ... Has started 47 straight contests since that time ... Joined the club as Kansas City's first-round choice (27th overall) in the '98 draft and has played in all 48 regular season contests for the club over that span, opening all but one of those outings ... Has continued to improve at his craft each season and should be even better in his fourth professional campaign ... A large portion of Riley's development can be attributed to six-time Pro Bowl right guard Will Shields, who has started 127 consecutive games dating back to the second game of his rookie year in '93 ... The consistency of Shields playing alongside Riley has no doubt rubbed off on the young tackle ... The duo of Shields and Riley has provided a formidable anchor on the right side of Kansas City's offensive front ... Powerful performer poised on a massive frame, yet is surprisingly agile and athletic for a man his size ... Superb drive blocker who has been a consistent contributor to the Chiefs running game ... Continues to improve as a pass protector and continually holds his own against some of the league's fiercest defensive ends ... Was initially tabbed to work at left tackle when he was drafted in '98 ... Instead, was thrust into the starting line-up at right tackle in just his second NFL contest due to an injury to All-Pro left guard Dave Szott in the season opener ... Quickly proved he could perform at a high level in this league and proceeded to start the club's final 15 games at the right tackle post in the Chiefs reshuffled offensive front ... Earned the team's prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award in '98, presented annually to Kansas City's top first-year performer ... Played virtually every offensive snap in the club's five preseason contests in '98, work that paid off when he was forced to assume a larger role during the regular season ... Originally entered the league as a first-round draft choice (27th overall) of Kansas City in the '98 NFL Draft. 2000: Started all 16 games for the second consecutive season ... Was part of an offensive line which helped the Chiefs passing game amass a franchise-record 259.3 passing yards per game ... Also contributed to another franchise record as the Chiefs did not permit a sack in three straight games, marking just the second time in team history ('88) that had happened. KC did not permit a sack at New England (12/4), vs. Carolina (12/10) or vs. Denver (12/17). 1999: Started all 16 games at right tackle in just his second pro campaign ... Was an integral part of a Chiefs offensive front which helped the club rank fourth in the NFL in rushing with a 130.1 yards per game average ... Also helped protect QB Elvis Grbac, who was sacked just 26 times, the fourth-lowest total in the league. 1998: Played in 16 games with 15 starts as a rookie ... Worked at left tackle in his first pro game before opening the club's final 15 contests at right tackle ... Voted by his peers as the club's Mack Lee Hill Award winner, presented annually to the Chiefs most outstanding rookie or first-year player ... Appeared in several series at left tackle in his first NFL action vs. Oakland (9/6) ... Received first professional start at right tackle at Jacksonville (9/13), as Glenn Parker switched from right tackle to left guard to compensate for Szott's injury ... Helped pave the way for Bam Morris' 137-yard rushing effort vs. Dallas (12/13). Eventually left that game with an ankle injury, but did return ... Returned to the line-up the next week at the N.Y. Giants (12/20) ... Part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack of QB Elvis Grbac in the season finale at Oakland (12/26).

College: Saw duty in 42 regular season contests (33 starts) and opened two bowl games during his tenure under Terry Bowden at Auburn ... Played in all 12 games at left tackle as a senior, starting every contest but the Mississippi State outing ... A first team All-America choice of the Football Writers Association ... Tabbed as a first team All-Southeastern Conference selection by Football News ... Led the team with 53 knockdowns, helping an offense that averaged 280.7 yards per game passing ... Played in all 11 games as a junior, starting 10 contests at right guard, all but the Alabama-Birmingham contest ... An honorable mention All-America and first team All-SEC pick by Football News ... Registered 79 knockdown blocks on the year ... Appeared in 10 games at left tackle as a sophomore, with four starts ... Played in all 11 games as a true freshman, starting the final eight match-ups of the year at right tackle ... An All-SEC freshman team pick by the Knoxville News-Sentinel ... Saw duty in 575 plays as a true freshman ... Part of an Auburn offense which averaged 410.0 yards per game ... Earned his first career start in a 38-0 shutout of East Tennessee State as the Tigers amassed 479 total yards ... Majored in Liberal Arts at Auburn.

Personal: An All-State and All-Area selection at Swansea (S.C.) High School ... Only played two years of prep football, starting at offensive guard and defensive end ... Led the team to a pair of state titles ... Also served as the starting center on the basketball team, averaging 20 points and five rebounds per game ... Lettered in wrestling and track, as well ... Uncle, Marshall Riley, was a defensive tackle at Auburn from '77-80 ... Full name: Victor Allan Riley ... Married, wife Kym, with a daughter, Victoria (1) ... The Rileys reside in Overland Park, Kansas.

Games Played/Games Started: 1998 (16/15), 1999 (16/16), 2000 (16/16) — 48/47.

STREAKS AND MILESTONES: Has started 47 consecutive games at right tackle for the Chiefs, the second longest active streak on the team.

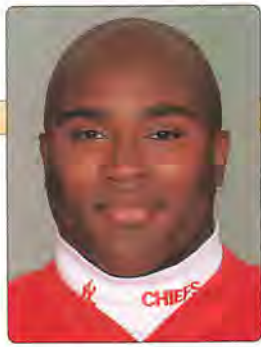

FAST FACT

Dating back to the '94 season, the Chiefs are 16-1 against opposing head coaches making their initial regular season visit to Arrowhead Stadium.

FAST FACT

Since the start of the '95 season, the Chiefs own a 37-11 (.771) record at Arrowhead Stadium. Denver is the only AFC team with a better home record over that same span at 39-9 (.813).

NEBRASKA
DRAFT (NO. 3 - 1993)
NFL: 9 (9TH WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: SEPTEMBER 15, 1971
FORT RILEY, KANSAS
GP/GS: (128/127) PLAYOFFS: (6/6)

Pro Career: Six-time Pro Bowl right guard is arguably the finest player at his position in the league today and is regarded by many as the NFL's finest offensive lineman, period ... Mild-mannered performer speaks volumes with his consistently high level of play ... Is an asset to the club both on the field and in the Kansas City community ... With the retirement of Tim Grunhard, becomes the longest-tenured player on the Chiefs roster ... Has been with Kansas City since joining the club as a third-round draft choice in '93, giving him two more years of experience than his closest competitor, FB Tony Richardson, who signed on in '95 ... Remarkably durable performer has not missed a single contest in his eight previous campaigns, playing in 128 straight games ... Truly gifted performer has made his name at right guard, but has seen action in three games at left tackle for the club, including a start at that position vs. Carolina (12/10/00) ... Made his first NFL appearance at Tampa Bay (9/5/93), a game which also marked Joe Montana's initial game in a Kansas City uniform ... Owns the longest active starting streak of any player on the KC roster, opening 127 consecutive games dating back to the second contest of his rookie season ... Has been a mainstay in the Kansas City lineup since his initial NFL start at Houston (9/12/93) ... Has earned six consecutive Pro Bowl berths following the '95-00 seasons, giving him the longest active streak of any Chiefs player ... Those six Pro Bowl nods are also the most ever by a Kansas City offensive lineman ... Joins Chiefs Hall of Famer Ed Budde and as the only other guard in team history to merit a Pro Bowl invitation ... Last season, matched Budde's streak of six straight AFL All-Star or Pro Bowl appearances accumulated following the '67-72 seasons ... Can match Budde's seven overall AFL All-Star and Pro Bowl berths ('64, '67-72) with one more Pro Bowl invitation ... Should he garner a seventh straight Pro Bowl nod this season, would join some very prestigious Chiefs company. Would become just the third player in team annals with seven or more Pro Bowl appearances, joining Pro Football Hall of Famer Bobby Bell and Chiefs Hall of Famer, the late Derrick Thomas, who share the franchise record with nine. Would also become only the seventh player in Chiefs history with seven or more AFL All-Star or Pro Bowl berths. Bell holds the record with 10, Thomas and OT Jim Tyrer have nine, DT Buck Buchanan had eight, while LB Willie Lanier, QB Len Dawson and Budde each were thus honored seven times. Of that sevensome, all seven are in the Chiefs Hall of Fame, while Bell, Lanier, Dawson and Buchanan are also enshrined in the Pro Football Hall ... In addition, joined Thomas as the only other active player to be named to the Chiefs 40th Anniversary Team in '99 ... Despite his highly-decorated status, is a true team player who puts the good of the whole ahead of his own personal gain ... Humble performer has spoken volumes on the field with his consistently high level of performance ... Is also one of the team's most active players in the Kansas City community, participating in numerous charitable projects and was named Pro Football Weekly's "Humanitarian of the Year" in '99 ... Considered one of the most valuable performers on the Kansas City roster and is a key reason the Chiefs ranked third in the league in rushing from '95-99 with a 125.4 yards-per-game average over that five-year span ... The lone remaining active member of the group largely responsible for those helping the Chiefs amass those gaudy ground numbers. For eight seasons was the junior member of the offensive line "Law Firm" which was referred to in the Arrowhead locker room as the single entity of Szott, Grunhard and Shields. That interior line triumvirate is widely regarded as one of the finest in the illustrious history of the franchise ... His commitment to constant improvement has been evident since joining the Chiefs in '93, as he has displayed an uncanny ability to take his game to a higher level each year ... An instinctive performer who can out-smart, out-maneuver, or simply overpower opponents and is endowed with innate ability to decipher the best means of attacking each particular adversary ... Is equally effective in the trenches or the open field and is particularly adept as lead blocker on plays which require a pulling guard ... Was Kansas City's first draft selection in '93, going in the third round (74th overall) ... Arguably the steal of that year's annual selection meeting after being the 11th offensive lineman chosen. 2000: Captained the Chiefs offense along with C Tim Grunhard ... Opened 15 games at right guard and one game at left tackle ... Was selected to play in his sixth straight Pro Bowl. Those six straight trips to the Pro Bowl are surpassed in Chiefs history only by Derrick Thomas' record nine straight from '90-98. LB Willie Lanier ('71-76) and S Deron Cherry ('84-89) also represented the Chiefs in six consecutive Pro Bowls ... Was a key reason the club set a franchise-record with 4,388 passing yards ... Filled in at left tackle for an injured John Tait at New England (12/4). It was his second career action at left tackle. He also filled in at left tackle at Cleveland (9/24/95) when injuries sidelined John Alt and Jeff Criswell ... Made his 125th consecutive start and his first NFL start at left tackle vs. Carolina (12/10) in place of Tait ... Returned to his starting spot at right guard vs. Denver (12/17) ... Kansas City tied a franchise record by not permitting a sack in those three consecutive contests vs. the Patriots, Panthers and Broncos, even more impressive considering Shields saw substantial action at left tackle in two of those games. 1999: Started all 16 games at right guard for the sixth consecutive year and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive year ... Was a first team All-Pro selection of The Sporting News ... A major contributor to the Chiefs punishing ground attack which ranked fourth in the NFL, averaging 130.1 yards per game ... Also helped protect QB Elvis Grbac, who was sacked just 26 times, the fourth-lowest total in the league ... Captained the offense vs. Denver (9/19), vs. Detroit (9/26) and at San Diego (10/3) ... Made his 100th consecutive start at right guard vs. New England (10/10) ... Captained the offense along with Dave Szott at Tampa Bay (11/14). 1998: Started at right guard in all 16 games for the fifth consecutive season, earning Pro Bowl honors for a fourth straight year ... Credited with his first career reception in the third quarter of the monsoon game vs. Seattle (10/4), hauling in a Rich Gannon pass that was batted back at the line of scrimmage by Seahawk defensive lineman Phillip Daniels for a four-yard gain. 1997: Merited a Pro Bowl appearance for the third consecutive season for his stellar play on Kansas City's offensive line ... Started all 16 regular season games for the fourth straight year ... Once again decorated as one of the NFL's best at his position, earning All-NFL first team honors from College and Pro Football Newsweekly and second team recognition from Football Digest ... Was a first team All-AFC pick of Football News ... Part of a Kansas City offensive line which helped the Chiefs roll up 135.7 rushing yards per game to rank fourth in the AFC and fifth in the NFL, marking the third straight season the club was among the league's top five rushing offenses ... Delivered a devastating block which helped spring Kimble Anders on a 55-yard screen play in a 35-14 romp at Carolina (9/21) ... Started in the playoffs vs. Denver (1/4/98), his sixth postseason appearance. 1996: Continued to establish himself as a force to be reckoned with on the offensive line ... Opened all 16 games for the Chiefs at right guard for the third consecutive season and earned his second straight berth in the Pro Bowl, his first as a starter ... Became the first Kansas City guard to appear in back-to-back AFC-NFC Pro Bowls since Ed Budde in '71 and '72 ... Was a first team All-AFC selection of both UPI and Pro Football Weekly ... Helped the Chiefs average 125.6 yards per game on the ground, the league's fourth-best total. 1995: Made his first Pro Bowl appearance and was named first team All-NFL by USA Today and Sports Illustrated ... Started all 16 regular season contests at right guard, in addition to the club's playoff tilt ... A pivotal part of a Chiefs offensive line which cleared a path for the NFL's top rushing offense ... It marked the first time in franchise history that Kansas City had ever led the league in that category ... That same offensive line was also proficient in protecting the passer, allowing an AFC-low 21 sacks ... Opened at right guard at Cleveland (9/24), but injuries to starting tackles John Alt and Jeff Criswell forced him to step in at the right tackle spot ... Despite never previously taking a snap at that position in his life, he stepped in and performed in a winning fashion. 1994: Started all 16 regular season games plus the playoff affair at right guard ... Was a model of consistency all season long ... Key part of an offensive front that permitted just 19 sacks, the fewest in Kansas City history and the third-fewest in the NFL in '94. 1993: Made an immediate impact on the Chiefs offensive line as a rookie, starting 15 of 16 games at right guard ... Also started three playoff contests ... His 18 combined starts are the most ever by a Chiefs rookie ... Team's third-round pick was named to almost every all-rookie squad, including Pro Football Weekly, Football News and Football Digest ... Earned the club's Mack Lee Hill Award, the team's most prestigious rookie honor ... Szott, the team's starting left guard, suffered a knee injury in the season opener at Tampa Bay (9/5), and, the following week at Houston (9/12), Shields started at right guard and Danny Villa moved to left guard.

College: Was a rare three-time All-Big Eight choice ... Became the second Outland Trophy winner to ever play for the Chiefs (Bobby Bell, '62) ... Was also a finalist for the Lombardi Trophy in '92 ... Was a first team All-America selection of the AP, Football News, Walter Camp and Kodak and a consensus All-Big Eight choice as a senior ... Was a second team All-America pick by AP as well as a first team All-Big Eight choice as a junior ... The first Husker lineman since center Dave Rimington ('80) to earn conference first team honors as a sophomore ... Became the first player from the state of Oklahoma to play for the Huskers ... Owns a Communications degree from Nebraska.

Personal: Was an All-State choice at Lawton (Okla.) High School ... Selected state Lineman of the Year by the Daily Oklahoman ... Lettered three years as an offensive guard and defensive tackle ... Was also a member of the track squad ... Established the "Will to Succeed Foundation," which has developed a number of innovative programs. A complete listing of all Shields' charitable efforts are on the foundation's website at www.will2succeed.com. Several major components of the "Will to Succeed Foundation" include: Serving as a spokesman and on the Board of Directors for the Marillac Center for Children which benefits children with emotional and behavioral disorders; "Operation Breakthrough" which helps meets the needs of disadvantaged children served by St. Vincent's Family Center; "Team Esteem," a program for inner-city youths which rewards academic and personal improvement with trips to cultural events and Chiefs games ... Is also a board member for the Kansas City Stop Violence Coalition ... Conducts annual youth football camps in his hometown of Lawton, Oklahoma, as well as locations in Iowa and New Jersey ... Received the inaugural "Arthur S. Arkush Humanitarian of the Year Award" presented by Pro Football Weekly in '99 which recognizes "an NFL player whose contributions to the community and charitable causes are both outstanding and hands-on" ... Was named one of the "99 Good Guys in Sports" by The Sporting News last season, as well ... Was the 2000 NFL recipient of "The Citizenship Through Sports Award" which is presented by the Citizenship Through Sports Alliance which annually recognizes athletes from all sports for "outstanding citizenship, sportsmanship, ethical conduct and community service ... Part of the "School is Cool Jam" conducted at the University of Nebraska which brought over 17,000 students together for the purpose of mentoring, motivating and stressing the importance of education ... An active participant in the KC Reads program and the Storytelling 2000 Celebration which both promote reading to Kansas City area youths ... Full name: Will Herthie Shields ... Married, wife Senia, one daughter, Sanayika (9), and two sons, Shavon (8) and Soloman (4) ... The Shields family resides in Overland Park, Kansas.

Games Played/Games Started: 1993 (16/15), 1994 (16/16), 1995 (16/16), 1996 (16/16), 1997 (16/16), 1998 (16/16), 1999 (16/16), 2000 (16/16) — 128/127. Playoffs: 1993 (3/3), 1994 (1/1), 1995 (1/1), 1997 (1/1) — 6/6.

Pro Career: Accomplished punter who is recognized around the league as one of the NFL's best at his craft ... Enters his 12th pro campaign and his first with Kansas City in 2001 ... Inked with the Chiefs as an unrestricted free agent from Atlanta on March 9th of this year ... Comes to Kansas City after previous pro stints with Pittsburgh ('90-91), Tampa Bay ('92-94) and Atlanta ('95-00) ... His off-season signing was likely overshadowed by other players acquired by the Chiefs such as QB Trent Green, RB Priest Holmes and a host of others, but may prove to be one of the most important pickups of the year for the Red and Gold ... When asked at the club's June mini-camp who the most impressive performer on the team was, head coach Dick Vermeil's answered without hesitation: "The punter probably has been the most impressive player. It's glaring how good he is." Glaringly good is perhaps the best descriptor for this talented punting specialist ... Doesn't necessarily boast the strongest leg in the NFL, but arguably has no peers when it comes to placing a ball wherever he wants with pinpoint accuracy ... Instead of looking at the gross average, one can get a true appreciation of Stryzinkski's game by tracking his net average, as well as his perennially-high numbers in both punts inside the 20 and forced fair catches ... Punt return yards allowed is also a category where he typically excels ... A true asset to a club's punt coverage unit who is an outstanding weapon in the critical battle of field position ... An outstanding directional kicker who specializes in placing the ball outside of the hashmarks, to pin opponents' return men on the boundaries ... That knack for punting precision, combined with extremely high hang times makes him one of the toughest punters to rack up return yardage against in the entire league ... Since the league went to a 16-game schedule in '78, teams Stryzinski has punted for own six of the top 10 stingiest marks in punt return yardage allowed over that span ... His best effort in that area came in '97 with Atlanta when opponents tallied a mere 55 return yards against Stryzinski the entire season ... Relinquished just 126 punt return yards a year ago with the Falcons, which ranked as the ninth-lowest tally over that span and the lowest in the NFL last season ... Also annually ranks among the NFL's leaders in forcing fair catches . . . Has forced 335 fair catches over his career and has led the league in that category on five separate occasions, turning that trick in '90, '91, '92, '94 and '97 . . . Also specializes in pinning opponents deep in their own territory, placing at least 20 kicks inside the 20-yard line each of the past eight seasons . . . Gets the ball off in a hurry and is rarely responsible for getting a punt blocked . . . Had an amazing streak of 557 consecutive punt attempts without a block from '93-00 . . . Is coming off one of the finest seasons of his pro career in 2000 . . . Led the NFC with a career-best 37.9-yard net punting average, a figure which ranked second in the NFL and rated as the second-highest single-season tally in Falcons history . . . Also tied a career high with 27 punts inside the 20 for the second straight year, ranking second in the NFC and seventh in the NFL in that department in 2000 . . . Consistent performer has seen action in a total of 176 regular season NFL games, playing in all 16 games in all 11 of his prior pro campaigns . . . Has punted the ball 847 times for 34,019 yards, good for a 40.2-yard gross and a 36.2-yard net . . . Owns 229 career kicks inside the 20-yard line and has only 62 touchbacks . . . An experienced postseason performer, has seen action in four postseason games, punting the ball 13 times for 524 yards, good for a 40.3-yard gross and a 40.2-yard net with five kicks inside the 20 and one touchback . . . Was a part of an Atlanta squad which reached Super Bowl XXXIII following the '98 campaign . . . Experienced the same winding journey many specialists take in the league before eventually catching on with a club . . . Prior to making Pittsburgh's 53-man roster in '90, spent time with the Saints, Browns and Colts . . . Caught on with New Orleans' practice squad in October of '89 after being waived by Cleveland in training camp . . . Also spent a week in Browns camp in '88 after originally entering the NFL as a rookie free agent with Indianapolis earlier that year. At Atlanta (1995-00): Saw action in 96 games in six seasons for the Falcons . . . Punted 469 times for 18,982 yards good for a 40.5-yard gross and a 36.8-yard . . . Landed 142 punts inside the 20 with just 34 touchbacks . . . Forced opponents to make 185 fair catches, as well . . . Saw action in four postseason games, including the club's berth in Super Bowl XXXIII following the '98 season . . . Signed with Atlanta as an unrestricted free agent on February 20th of '95. 2000: Appeared in all 16 games for Atlanta, booting the ball 84 times for 3,447 yards, good for a 41.0-yard gross and a 37.9-yard net . . . Tied a career high with 27 punts inside the 20-yard line and only five touchbacks . . . Punted the ball for 95 yards on two kicks for a 47.5 average with neither kick being returned and one traveling 51 yards vs. San Francisco (9/3) . . . Punted 272 yards for a 38.9 average with one dropping inside the 20 at Denver (9/10) . . . Named the special teams MVP by the coaching staff for his performance at Carolina (9/17) when he punted six times for 257 yards (42.8 avg.), while surrendering only one return for five yards . . . Allowed only two returns for minus one yard on five punts for 207 yards and a 41.4 average vs. St. Louis (9/24) . . . Booted the ball a season-high eight times for 296 yards and 37.0 average while dropping half of his kicks inside the 20-yard line at Philadelphia (10/11) . . . Punted five times for 183 yards and dropped two inside the 20 vs. the N.Y. Giants (10/8) . . . Kicked five times for 213 yards for a 42.6 average and placed three kicks at the five, 12, and four-yard lines at St. Louis (10/15) . . . Nailed four punts for 176 yards including a season-long 60-yard bomb vs. New Orleans (10/22) . . . Averaged 40.0 yards on three kicks for 120 yards vs. Carolina (10/29) . . . Booted four kicks for 177 yards for a 44.3 average vs. Tampa Bay (11/5), but suffered a block to snap a streak of 557 consecutive punts without a block dating back to '93 when he was playing for Tampa Bay . . . Tied a career high with 10 punts for 439 yards for a 43.9 average with three kicks landing inside the 20 and forcing five fair catches at Detroit (11/12) . . . Punted 222 yards on five kicks for a 44.4-yard average . . . Booted the ball eight times for 313 yards and a net average of 39.1 yards at Oakland (11/26) . . . Dropped two of three kicks inside the 20 vs. Seattle (12/3) . . . Punted seven times for 281 yards and a 40.1 average with five kicks being returned for five yards at New Orleans (12/17) . . . Kicked for 87 yards on two attempts, good for a 43.5 average vs. Kansas City (12/24). 1999: Saw action in all 16 games . . . Punted 80 times for 3,163 yards, good for a 39.5-yard gross and a 37.1-yard net in 16 games . . . BRIGHAM YOUNG

NFL: 3 (3RD WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: JANUARY 26, 1975
PHOENIX, ARIZONA
GP/GS: (27/18) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Powerful young offensive tackle appears poised for a breakout season in 2001 ... Was one of the Chiefs most impressive offensive performers this off-season and looks ready to take his game to the next level ... Entered the starting lineup at left tackle late in his rookie campaign before taking over those duties on a full-time basis in 2000 ... Possesses the prototypical size, strength and agility to play the position, owning almost identical proportions as the standard-bearer at left tackle, Jacksonville's five-time Pro Bowler Tony Boselli (6-7, 320) ... Has all the tools and the tenacity to make the transition from a consistent player at his position to a truly dominant performer ... Mild-mannered off the field, shows a nasty side once he crosses the stripe onto the playing surface ... Relentless competitor who refuses to appease would-be pass rushers, putting up a tooth-and-nail fight on every down ... With Tait anchoring the left tackle post in 2000, the Chiefs amassed one of the most prolific passing seasons in team annals, racking up 4,149 aerial yards, good for second-most in team history ... Kansas City also tied a team record by going three consecutive games without allowing a sack in 2000, another testament to Tait and the rest of the Chiefs talented offensive front ... Those pass-blocking skills should prove valuable in Kansas City's new offensive scheme which puts a premium on a precision passing attack ... A dedicated technician who has made dramatic strides in each of his two previous seasons with Kansas City ... Tabbed with the 14th overall selection in the '99 NFL Draft by the Red and Gold, was the first lineman taken that year, a distinction he continues to justify ... Tait's selection marked the first time in Chiefs history the club had used its initial draft pick to select an offensive tackle two consecutive years after taking Victor Riley in '98 ... Joins Riley to give the Chiefs an imposing pair of young bookends for their offensive front ... Pairs with Riley to provide Kansas City with not only an explosive pair of drive blockers in the running game, but also an adept duo of pass protectors ... Despite missing all of training camp and the preseason in '99 due to a contract holdout, made rapid progress upon joining the club on September 9th of that year ... Played in 12 games with three starts as a rookie, seeing action at left tackle and also working as a wedge man on the club's kickoff return unit ... Continued that progress in 2000 when he started all 15 contests he played in ... In total, has seen action in 27 games for the Chiefs with 18 starts ... Was the club's first draft choice from Brigham Young since tabbing center Orrin Olsen in the eighth round of the '76 draft ... Originally entered the NFL as a first-round selection (14th overall) of Kansas City in the '99 NFL Draft. 2000: Started 15 games at left tackle ... Left the game in the fourth quarter with a knee injury and did not return at New England (12/4) ... Was inactive vs. Carolina (12/10) due to a knee injury suffered at New England (12/4) ... Returned to the starting lineup vs. Denver (12/17) ... Was part of a team-record effort when the Chiefs did not permit a sack in those contests vs. the Patriots, Panthers and Broncos. Although out of the lineup vs. Carolina, started the other two contests in that record-setting three-game stretch. 1999: Saw duty in 12 games with three starts ... Played at left tackle and as a tackle eligible in goal line sets ... Also saw duty on the kickoff return unit in the season's final five contests ... Began the regular season on the NFL Roster Exemption list for the season's opening two contests at Chicago (9/12) and vs. Denver (9/19) after signing with the club on September 9th ... Made his NFL debut vs. New England (10/10) when he lined up as a tackle eligible on the club's goal line offense ... Made his first NFL start at left tackle, replacing an injured Glenn Parker at Oakland (11/28) ... Also started at left tackle for Parker vs. Pittsburgh (12/18) and at Seattle (12/26) ... Played but did not start in the regular season finale vs. Oakland (1/2/00).

College: Started all 37 games he saw duty in during his three-year college playing career under head coach LaVell Edwards at BYU ... An All-America pick his final season, also earned first team All-Western Athletic Conference honors as both a junior and a senior ... Was eligible for a fifth year of college action after redshirting as a true freshman in '93, but had already completed his degree and declared for the draft ... Served as a captain for the BYU offense and started all 13 games at left tackle in his final season in '98 ... Earned first team All-America honors from Football News that year and was named National Offensive Lineman of the Year selection by The Sports Network ... Was a first team All-WAC choice, as well ... Posted 127 knockdown blocks in his junior campaign for a BYU offense which averaged 381.7 yards per game ... Started nine games at left tackle as a sophomore, missing two contests due to injury ... Had 79 knockdown blocks on the year ... Did not play vs. Tulsa or Texas-El Paso due to a knee sprain ... Started all 15 games at left tackle as a freshman in '96 ... A freshman All-America selection of The Sporting News ... Delivered 76 knockdowns and helped the BYU offense roll up 478.0 yards per game ... Helped lead the club to a 19-15 win over Kansas State in the Cotton Bowl ... Did not play football from '94-95 ... Served on an LDS church mission to Tennessee ... Redshirted as a freshman in '93 ... Earned a degree in Communications from BYU.

Personal: Lettered three times in football and twice in track and field (shot put and discus) at McClintock High School in Tempe, Arizona ... An All-State, All-Region and All-City selection in football as both a junior and senior ... Full name: John Bernard Tait ... Single ... Resides in Overland Park, Kansas.

Games Played/Games Started: 1999 (12/3), 2000 (15/15) — 27/18.

Pro Career: Supremely talented cornerback enters camp competing for a starting job in his fourth pro season ... Expected to duke it out with William Bartee for the starting role at the Chiefs right CB position ... Has shown flashes of his brilliance during his previous three NFL campaigns ... Should he harness his vast athletic prowess on a consistent basis for Kansas City in 2001, would unquestionably see an even bigger role for the club ... Owns four career starts, including three a year ago and heads into this season looking to substantially build on that total ... Should benefit from the guidance of Chiefs secondary coach Peter Giunta and defensive coordinator Greg Robinson, who both have histories of getting the most out of their defensive backs ... Has made tremendous strides since joining the club as a seventh-round draft choice in '98 ... Expected to continue that progress in 2001 ... After appearing in just two games on defense and playing primarily on special teams as a rookie in '98, burst upon the scene as the Chiefs nickel corner in all 16 games in '99 and started one contest at left corner ... Appeared in 13 contests with three starts in 2000, but was hampered by a back injury for a good portion of the season ... Owns excellent recovery speed and remarkable vertical leap, batting down balls and coming up with big plays in key situations ... Is a candidate to continue Kansas City's solid legacy of top performers at the cornerback position ... Owns 41 games of regular season NFL experience with four starts ... Has tallied three interceptions for no yards with 46 tackles (35 solo), 13 passes defensed and one QB pressure ... Is also a key special teams performer who owns 20 NFL special team tackles after producing three blocked kicks during his collegiate career ... Has made the remarkable jump to the ranks of the NFL's up-and-coming cornerbacks after playing safety at the University of Nebraska ... Joined the Chiefs as the club's first of two selections in the seventh round (216th overall) of the '98 NFL Draft. 2000: Played in 13 games with three starts at left CB, collecting 22 tackles (19 solo) and one pass defensed ... ARKANSAS - PINE BLUFF
DRAFT: (NO. 3 - 2000)
NFL: 2 (2ND WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: MARCH 19, 1976
LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS

25

Pro Career: Bone-rattling strong safety entered the NFL as an unheralded third-round draft choice out of Arkansas - Pine Bluff a year ago . . . Although still a relative unknown on the national stage, by season's end was a household name to the numerous receivers who had treaded across his turf in the Chiefs secondary . . . Should only continue to improve in his second season as the club's starter at the strong safety position . . . Simply became the first Chiefs rookie to start all 16 games since CB Kevin Ross in '84, earned the Chiefs presitigious Mack Lee Hill Award presented annually to the team's top rookie or first-year performer and was a consensus All-Rookie selection, receiving those honors from Pro Football Weekly, Football News and Football Digest . . . Kansas City knew it had a talent on its hands when the club drafted him, but no one could have envisioned the impact this hard-hitting competitor would make during his remarkable rookie campaign in 2000 . . . Was billed by the Chiefs as potentially one of the best steals of the 2000 draft, a claim which certainly proved to be prophetic . . . Truly a unique story in today's age of NFL scouting which leaves virtually no stone unturned . . . Became eligible for the draft after the 2000 combine and was worked out on his college campus by just eight NFL clubs, including the Chiefs . . . Has a history of surprising people with his athletic skills, however . . . Was discovered at Arkansas - Pine Bluff by an assistant football coach who saw him dunk in an intramural basketball contest, leading to him joined the Golden Lions football team as a walk-on in '97 . . . Despite playing essentially just two seasons on defense in college, quickly made the transition to the pro game in Kansas City . . . Is still learning the finer points of playing against NFL offenses, but proved to be a quick study a year ago . . . Possesses uncanny natural instincts for the game which simply can't be taught . . . Has excellent range and can close ground in a hurry . . . Is a vicious hitter who isn't afraid to step up in run support or create mayhem for opposing receivers . . . Also worked on special teams in addition to his defensive exploits . . . In 16 career games (all starts), has produced two INTs for 28 yards, 101 tackles (83 solo), 11 passes defensed, two forced fumbles, a fumble recovery and eight special teams stops . . . The first Chiefs player to ever come out of Arkansas - Pine Bluff, which was formerly known as Arkansas AM&N . . . Was tabbed by Kansas City in the third round (85th overall) of the 2000 NFL Draft. 2000: Started all 16 games at strong safety, becoming the first rookie to start all 16 games since CB Kevin Ross in '84 . . . Voted by his teammates as the club's Mack Lee Hill Award recipient as the Chiefs most outstanding rookie or first-year player . . . Compiled 101 tackles (83 solo) to rank third on the team . . . Those 101 tackles were the fourth-highest total ever by a Chiefs rookie and the most-ever by a KC rookie defensive back . . . Led the team with 11 passes defensed and tied for second with two INTs . . . Also had 1.0 sack (-11.0 yards), two forced fumbles, a fumble recovery, three QB pressures and eight special teams tackles . . . Started in his first NFL game vs. Indianapolis (9/3), tallying eight tackles (five solo) and one pass defensed. Became the first Chiefs rookie to start on Opening Day since LB Percy Snow in '90 and was the first rookie safety to start for Kansas City in the first regular season game of the season since S Gary Barbaro in '76 . . . Collected nine solo tackles and one pass defensed at Tennessee (9/10) . . . Produced four tackles (three solo) and one special teams stop vs. San Diego (9/17) . . . Registered his first NFL sack at Denver (9/24), spinning around a would-be blocker to take down Gus Frerotte (-11.0 yards) and force a fumble on the play with Kansas City trailing 22-14 in the fourth quarter. That sack and strip marked a pivotal turnaround in the Chiefs 23-22 comeback victory . . . Compiled five tackles and forced a Shaun Alexander fumble in the fourth quarter vs. Seattle (10/2) . . . Had seven tackles (six solo) vs. Oakland (10/15) . . . Totaled four tackles (two solo), one QB pressure, one pass defensed and registered his first career INT off current KC signal-caller Trent Green (28 yards) vs. St. Louis (10/22) . . . Amassed five solo tackles, a career-high three passes defensed and an INT off Jon Kitna at Seattle (10/29), his second consecutive game with an INT. Also had two tackles on KO coverage . . . Posted six solo tackles on defense and two tackles on special teams at Oakland (11/5) . . . Compiled a career-high tying nine tackles (eight solo) at San Francisco (11/12) . . . Contributed seven tackles (six solo) and two passes defensed vs. Buffalo (11/19) . . . Produced six tackles and two QB pressures at San Diego (11/26) . . . Totaled eight tackles (six solo) and a fumble recovery at New England (12/4) ... Tallied four solo tackles, two passes defensed and two tackles on KO coverage vs. Carolina (12/10) ... Collected five tackles and a special teams tackle vs. Denver (12/17) ... Posted eight tackles (seven solo) and a pass defensed at Atlanta (12/24).

College: Saw duty in 33 games (22 starts) during his collegiate career at Arkansas-Pine Bluff, totaling 121 tackles (76 solo), nine tackles for a loss (-22 yards), eight interceptions for 88 yards, a fumble recovery, a forced fumble and 21 passes defensed ... Also contributed a sack and 20 special teams stops ... Talented athlete who didn't originally enroll at Arkansas - Pine Bluff with the intention of playing collegiate football ... Was discovered by a Pine Bluff assistant gridiron coach after he saw him dunk in an intramural basketball contest in November of '96 ... Subsequently joined the Golden Lions as a walk-on in '97 after not playing as a freshman in '96 ... Started all 11 games at free safety and ranked third on the squad with 62 tackles (36 solo) in '99 ... Produced four INTs for 68 yards and also added six tackles for loss (-18 yards), five passes defensed ... Got a season-high 10 tackles vs. Alabama A&M ... Was a second team All-Southwestern Conference performer in '98 at free safety ... In 11 starts, racked up 54 tackles (35 solo), four interceptions for 17 yards, a forced fumble and a pair of tackles for loss ... Led the conference with a career-high 16 passes defensed ... Joined the team as a walk-on as a sophomore in '97 ... Was named the club's special teams MVP by the coaching staff ... Had five tackles, one sack and a fumble recovery in his first season with the club ... Also racked up an incredible 20 tackles on special teams ... Majored in Business Management at Arkansas - Pine Bluff.

Pro Career: Strong-willed Iowan joined Kansas City as an unrestricted free agent from Chicago on March 15th of this year ... Enters training camp as the club's starting center, marking the first time in over a decade that Kansas City has made a change at that position ... Doesn't tip the scales at or above 300 pounds like of many NFL offensive lineman, but plays much bigger than his size with a determined and fundamentally-sound style ... Is a tenacious blocker, who earned his stripes working in the trenches of the NFC Central, long-regarded as a haven for some of the league's best blue-collar players ... Participated fully in the club's off-season program, displaying a hard-working style true to his Midwestern roots ... Will follow in the footsteps of native Chicagoan, Tim Grunhard, who was arguably one of the finest centers in the illustrious 42-year history of the Chiefs franchise ... After 12 distinguished seasons in the Red and Gold from '90-00, Grunhard officially handed Kansas City's centering duties to Weigmann when he officially announced his retirement on April 29th ... "I'd like to believe we've signed a young Tim Grunhard, someone who has a great passion for the game, a leadership flair about him that could carry on the tradition on how that position should be played," observed Chiefs head coach Dick Vermeil observed this off-season ... While replacing Grunhard will be an unenviable task, certainly has the on-field credentials to step into that role ... Owns 52 games of experience with Chicago and the N.Y. Jets ... Opened 25 games at center during his tenure with the Bears and has seen action in 49 straight contests ... Played in all 48 regular season games with Chicago during the last three seasons, starting 10 contests a year ago and 15 in '98 ... Joined the Bears on September 24th of '97 after being released by the N.Y. Jets after seeing action in the first three games of the season with that club ... Was claimed by the Jets off waivers from Indianapollis on October 29th of '96 ... Spent time on both the active roster and practice squad of the Colts in '96, but did not see game action ... Originally entered the NFL ranks as a rookie free agent with Indianapolis, signing on April 26th of '96. At Chicago (1997-00): Saw duty in 49 games (25 starts) in a little over three full seasons with the Bears ... Returned one kickoff for eight yards. 2000: Played in all 16 games for the third straight year ... Backed up Olin Kreutz at center for the season's first three games before moving back into the starting lineup vs. Detroit (9/24) ... Also opened at Green Bay (10/1), vs. New Orleans (10/8) and vs. Minnesota (10/15) ... Worked behind Kruetz for the next four games ... Started the club's final five games beginning with a contest at the N.Y. Jets (11/26). 1999: Played in all 16 contests for the second consecutive year ... Served as the club's back-up center and played on special teams. 1998: Saw action at center in all 16 games with 15 starts and also contributed on special teams ... Merited initial NFL start in the season opener vs. Jacksonville (9/6) ... Returned a kickoff eight yards at Arizona (10/11) ... Started every game except the club's contest vs. Green Bay (12/27). 1997: Saw reserve action in one contest ... Was claimed off waivers on September 24th after being released by the Jets the previous day ... Inactive at Dallas (9/28) and for the next nine games rehabbing a shoulder injury ... Was active but did not play at St. Louis (12/14) ... Saw his first action in a Bears uniform at Tampa Bay (12/21). At N.Y. Jets (1996-97): Saw duty in three games for the Jets on special teams. 1997: Saw duty in three games ... First regular season NFL action came at Seattle (8/31) ... Also played vs. Buffalo (9/7) and at New England (9/14) ... Was inactive vs. Oakland (9/21) before being released the following day. 1996: Claimed off waivers from Indianapolis on September 29th ... Was inactive vs. New England (11/10) and at Indianapolis (11/17) ... Active, but did not play at Buffalo (11/24) ... Was inactive for the next three games vs. Houston (12/1), at New England (12/8) and vs. Philadelphia (12/14) ... Active but did not play in the season finale vs. Miami (12/22). At Indianapolis (1996): Spent the first two weeks of the regular season on the club's practice squad ... Was promoted to the 53-man roster on September 10th ... Did not play vs. Dallas (9/15) and was subsequently placed back on the practice squad on September 23rd ... Promoted back to the active roster on October 15th, but did not play vs. New England (10/20) or at Washington (10/27) ... Was released by the Colts on October 28th.

College: Started every game his senior year with 27 career starts as a center for Iowa ... One of four co-captains for the Hawkeyes ... Lead the offensive line with an average of 199.8 yards on the ground and 213.8 yards in the air per game ... Collected All-Big 10 honorable mention, co-MVP for the season, and Offensive Coaches Hustle Award honors his senior year ... Started eight games as a junior missing two games due to injury ... Member of offensive line allowing only 10 QB sacks in 11 games ... Finished his sophomore season having started the first four games and final three games at center, missing five games due to injury ... Saw action in five games as a freshman ... Honor roll student majored in Communication Studies.

Pro Career: Fearless free safety who is one of the most tenacious tacklers in the game today ... Enters his sixth season with the Chiefs and his fifth as the club's starting free safety ... Has opened 63 of 64 games at free safety for Kansas City the past four seasons ... Dedicated defensive standout could be poised to become the next Pro Bowl performer in the Kansas City secondary ... Is the latest in a long line of stellar Kansas City safeties, a list which includes the likes of Chiefs Hall of Famers Lloyd Burruss, Deron Cherry and Johnny Robinson ... Joins DE John Browning and LB Donnie Edwards as the longest-tenured Chiefs defensive players on the roster after that trio joined the club in the '96 NFL Draft ... Owns a reserved personality off the field, but specializes in producing highlight-quality hits once he gets between the stripes ... Arguably the toughest player on the entire Kansas City squad, frequently turns his body into a human projectile in order to bring opponents to the ground ... Simply loves to play the game at its physical fullest and has been compared by some to a heat-seeking missile once he gets an opponent in his crosshairs ... Earned a reputation as an intimidating tackler in college and has punished opponents with regularity at the pro level ... Will do whatever necessary to win a game, whether it's excelling in pass coverage, stuffing the run or serving as a pass rusher ... Has consistently ranked among the club's leading tacklers and has averaged 110.3 tackles in his previous four seasons as a starter ... Durable performer who has just missed one contest since joining the Chiefs as the club's number one draft choice in '96, playing in 79 of a possible 80 games over that span ... Blessed with an astounding pain threshold, played over half of the '98 season with six screws and a metal plate inserted into a broken right hand ... Despite that injured appendage, still started all 16 games and finished third on the squad with 124 tackles that year ... Blessed with extremely long limbs and excellent leaping ability which only serve to complement his tremendous range and reach in the secondary ... Registered triple-digit tackles three straight years from '97-99 and has at least one INT each of the past four seasons ... Shared the club's kickoff return chores with Tamarick Vanover as a rookie in '96 and also served as a reserve cornerback before switching back to his natural free safety spot in '97 ... Has seen action in 79 regular season games (63 starts), producing nine INTs with 109 return yards to go along with 450 tackles (306 solo), three fumble recoveries and seven forced fumbles ... Has also racked up 3.0 sacks (-17.0 yards), 36 passes defensed, 20 QB pressures and 24 special teams stops ... Recovered a blocked field goal attempt in '98, as well ... WIDE RECEIVER - 6-1 - 172

FLORIDA STATE

DRAFT (NO. 3B – 2001)

BORN: FEBRUARY 6, 1977

College: Talented wide receiver who arrives in Kansas City after being tabbed as the Chiefs second pick in the third round (77th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft ... Solid route-runner with excellent speed and ability to get out of the break ... A natural pass catcher who will likely add strength and size in Kansas City's off-season program in order to enhance his ability getting off the press against NFL cornerbacks ... Played in 43 games (19 starts) during his four seasons at Florida State ... Caught 115 passes for 2,098 yards (18.2 average) and 17 touchdowns ... His 115 grabs rank 12th on the school's career-record list while his 2,098 yards and 17 scoring grabs place him ninth in FSU annals ... Became the fifth receiver in school history to gain over 1,000 yards receiving in a season joining the likes of Peter Warrick, E.G. Green, Andre Cooper, Barry Smith and Ron Sellers ... Backed up Warrick and Ron Dugans his first three years with the club before bursting onto the national scene a year ago. 2000: Started all 11 games at flanker, leading the team with 63 receptions for 1,340 yards (21.3 avg.) and 11 touchdowns ... His 63 catches ranked seventh on the school's single season-record list and were the most by a Seminole since Cooper's 75 catches in '95 ... Only Sellers (1,496 in '68) gained more yards receiving in a Seminoles uniform in a single season ... Those 11 receiving scores ranked behind only Sellers (12 in '68), Smith (13 in '72) and Cooper (15 in '95) on FSU's single-season receiving chart ... Averaged 111.7 receiving yards per game ... A first team All-America selection by the Football Writers Association, American Football Coaches Association, The NFL Draft Report and Football News ... An All-Atlantic Coast Conference first team pick ... Finalist for the Fred Biletnikoff Award, given annually to the nation's top receiver ... Opened the season with nine catches for 137 yards vs. BYU ... Caught six passes for 70 yards vs. Georgia Tech ... Added five catches for 132 yards and two scores vs. North Carolina ... Had seven receptions for 145 yards vs. Miami (Fla.) ... Gained 131 yards on four catches with two scores vs. Virginia ... Caught four passes for 163 yards and a career long 98-yard touchdown vs. Clemson, topping the previous long in Florida State history of 96 yards by Jimmy Jordan from Kurt Unglaub in '76 ... BIG 12 TERRITORY

The Big 12 Championship Game made its inaugural stop at Arrowhead Stadium on December 2nd of 2000 when eventual National Champion Oklahoma defeated Kansas State by a 27-24 margin. Arrowhead is certainly in the heart of Big 12 territory and the Chiefs 2001 roster reflects that. Heading into training camp 14 alumni from Big 12 schools are on the Kansas City roster representing the most players from a single conference on the Chiefs roster in 2001. Baylor, Kansas State, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Texas each boast two alumni on the Chiefs roster while one player apiece hails from Colorado, Iowa State, Missouri and Texas A&M.

Pro Career: A tribute to the work ethic of an earlier time and an earlier game, Tim Grunhard announced his retirement from pro football on April 29th of 2001 after 11 years in the National Football League, all of them with the Kansas City Chiefs ... "He was possibly the best second-round draft choice I have ever acquired," said Chiefs President Carl Peterson, the man who drafted him back in '90 ... At the press conference to announce his retirement, Peterson added: "Few long-tenured players today will ever begin and end their careers with the same team. Tim Grunhard has done that. The Kansas City Chiefs, Lamar Hunt and the Hunt family, myself and thousands of Chiefs fans, his coaches, teammates and team employees say 'thank you' to the Irish center from Notre Dame who came our way." ... Fiery of temperament and a leader in the locker room, on the field and in the community, Grunhard was the centerpiece of one of the best offensive lines in the National Football League over the decade of the '90s ... Spearheaded a Chiefs offensive attack that ranked among the NFL's top five in rushing including four out of the last six seasons ... The Chiefs paced the NFL in that category in '95, averaging 138.9 rushing yards per game, marking the only time in Kansas City history the club has boasted the NFL's top rushing offense as the Chiefs won the AFC West title with a 13-3 record ... Broke into the starting lineup after just two games in his rookie season replacing Pro Football Hall of Fame center Mike Webster and never relinquished the position ... Peterson admitted that, "We were hoping he could back up the great NFL center Mike Webster and with Mike as his tutor Tim became one of the finest centers in Chiefs history." ... Over his career, he started 120 consecutive games until the 2000 season when he was forced to miss the team's game at Oakland (11/5/00) with a sprained left ankle ... His 169 regular season games played are the 11th-most in team history and only Jack Rudnay (178) played more at the center position ... But Rudnay never appeared in as many playoff games as a member of Chiefs as Grunhard who, along with teammates Dave Szott, John Alt and the late Derrick Thomas, played in more postseason contests (10) than any players in team history ... His career was a testimony to durability without any loss in the quality of play ... Was one of only 26 NFL players in league history to play on one team's roster for 10 years and achieve 100 wins ... Szott and Thomas joined Grunhard in that distinction as Kansas City went 102-58 during the '90s ... Grunhard, along with All-Pro left guard Szott and six-time Pro Bowl left guard Will Shields, formed "The Law Firm" of Szott, Grunhard and Shields which anchored the interior of Kansas City's offensive front throughout most of the '90s ... That trio started 80 consecutive regular season games together from the second game of the '93 season to the '98 season-opener, marking one of the most enduring stretches of offensive line supremacy in team annals ... Considered a feisty and tough competitor, was once described by his college coach at Notre Dame, Lou Holtz, as a "throwback to a day when helmets could be folded and stuck in your back pocket. He'd love football even if he didn't have a facemask" ... Continued to display those qualities when he moved to the NFL and his efforts and intensity were rewarded with selections to the "All-Madden" team and USA Today's "All-Joe" squad before earning an NFL All-Pro nod following the '99 season ... All his post-season and in-season accolades were the result of his gritty and unrelenting play on the field ... "After a game you knew you were in a battle for sixty minutes when you lined up against him," said Mike Solari, his offensive line coach for four years in Kansas City. "His work ethic was second to none and he had a burning desire to win each play." ... Cut his teeth as an All-Chicago Catholic League offensive guard at St. Laurence High School in Burbank, Illinois and went on to play on Notre Dame's more successful teams during the Lou Holtz era when the Irish ran off 24 wins in 25 games in his junior and senior years ... He was also part of a Fighting Irish squad which reigned as National Champions after the '88 season ... Upon his arrival in Kansas City as the team's second-round draft choice (40th overall) in '90, he quickly embraced the town and made it his own. 2000: Started 15 games at center, sharing offensive captain duties with right guard Will Shields ... Was an intergal part of an offensive line that helped Kansas City post 4,149 passing yards on the season, the second-highest tally in team history ... Was also part of an offensive front which tied a team record by going three straight games without allowing a sack, pulling that rare trifecto at New England (12/4), vs. Carolina (12/10) and vs. Denver (12/17) ... Started his 120th straight game at center at Seattle (10/29), leaving the game in the third quarter with a left ankle sprain. He did not return ... Had a streak of 120 straight starts dating back to the '93 season-opener at Tampa Bay (9/5/93) snapped at Oakland (11/5), when he sat out due to a left ankle sprain ... Returned to the starting lineup at San Francisco (11/12). 1999: Started all 16 games at center for a seventh straight year ... Was named to his first Pro Bowl, becoming the first Chiefs center to play in that game since '77 ... Served as a major contributor to a Chiefs offense that ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing in '99, averaging 130.1 yards per game ... Helped protect QB Elvis Grbac, who was sacked just 26 times, the fourth-lowest total in the league ... Served as the club's offensive captain at Chicago (9/12) ... Started his 100th consecutive game at center at San Diego (10/3). Left the game in the second quarter due to a strained right hamstring, but returned to start the second half ... Suffered a bruised right hip on the last play of the third quarter and left the game early at Denver (12/5), his 150th NFL contest ... Captained the offense along with Szott and started his 112th consecutive game at center vs. Oakland (1/2/00). 1998: Opened 16 games at center for the sixth consecutive season despite undergoing surgery on his right elbow in late August ... Joined Will Shields and Tony Gonzalez as the club's only offensive players to start every game ... Helped pave the way for Donnell Bennett's 115-yard rushing effort vs. Oakland (9/6) ... Part of a Chiefs offense which racked up a season-high 376 yards of total offense vs. Arizona (11/29) ... Helped spring Bam Morris for 137 yards vs. Dallas (12/13), the best single-game rushing output by a Chiefs RB since '91 ... Started his 96th straight game at Oakland (12/26). 1997: Opened all 16 contests at center and was named to USA Today's "All-Joe" team which annually recognizes the NFL's best blue-collar players ... Received his first berth on the All-Madden Team, as well ... Helped Kansas City pound out 135.7 yards per game on the ground, a figure which ranked fourth in the AFC and fifth in the NFL ... Paved the way for four different Chiefs RBs (Greg Hill, Marcus Allen, Kimble Anders and Donnell Bennett) who each topped the 350-yard mark, a first in Chiefs history ... Started his 10th career playoff contest for the Chiefs vs. Denver (1/4/98). 1996: Served as co-captain of the Kansas City offense, starting all 16 games for the fourth consecutive season ... Did not miss a single play at the center position ... Made his 100th career NFL appearance vs. Green Bay (11/10) and opened the 100th game of his career vs. Indianapolis (12/15) ... Helped the Chiefs rack up 2,009 yards on the ground, the fourth-best mark in the entire NFL in '96. 1995: Unquestionably one of the key contributors on a talented Chiefs offense ... Started all 16 regular season games for the third consecutive season ... Led one of the most cohesive offensive fronts in all of football which created plenty of room for the Chiefs league-leading ground game (138.9 yards-per-game avg.) ... Turned bull rushes into a bear market, limiting opposing defenses to a mere 21 sacks, the lowest tally in the AFC, the third-lowest mark in the NFL, and the second-stingiest total in team annals ... Opened the playoff tilt vs. Indianapolis (1/7/96), as well. 1994: Continued to play at an All-Pro level ... Started all 16 games for the third time in last four years ... Joined Dave Szott and Will Shields as the only three offensive players to start all 16 contests ... Anchor of offensive front that allowed just 19 sacks, fewest in Chiefs history and third-fewest in the NFL ... Opened the Chiefs playoff loss at Miami (12/31). 1993: Was steady as always during the Chiefs first-ever run to the AFC Championship Game ... Was an honorable mention All-NFL pick of Associated Press ... Started all 16 games and missed very few snaps ... He and left tackle John Alt were the team's only two offensive linemen to open all 16 games ... Was the anchor of a unit that got better as the season progressed, as the team allowed just six sacks the final six games ... Started all three playoff contests. 1992: Was the Chiefs most consistent lineman in '92 ... Started the first 12 games of the season before suffering a sprained foot at N.Y. Jets (11/29) ... Was inactive for the final four regular season games ... Started Kansas City's playoff loss at San Diego (1/2/93). 1991: Was the Chiefs most consistent offensive lineman in '91 ... Started all 16 regular season games and both playoff tilts ... Kansas City permitted just 21 sacks in '91, fewest in AFC and third-fewest in NFL ... Helped the Chiefs average 4.3 yards per carry, team's best since '87. 1990: Named to Pro Football Weekly's and The National's All-Rookie squads ... Opened nine of the 14 games he played in ... Missed one game because of a thumb injury and another because of a death in the family ... Although Mike Webster started the first two games, Grunhard played in all but three offensive series in those two games ... Started the Chiefs playoff contest at Miami (1/5/91) ... Excelled as a rookie center, although he never played the position in high school or college; did deep snap at Notre Dame.

College: Was a force on an offensive line that helped Notre Dame generate a 24-1 record during his junior and senior years ... Started at right guard final two seasons, including Notre Dame's '88 National Championship campaign ... Was a second team All-America pick by NEA and an honorable mention choice of UPI, The Sporting News and Football News ... Played in every game as a sophomore and made four starts at left guard ... Handled the Irish deep snapping chores all four years ... Irish coach Lou Holtz said: "Tim's a throwback to a day when helmets could be folded up and stuck in your back pocket. He'd love football even if he didn't have a facemask." ... Graduated from Notre Dame with a degree in Political Science.

Personal: Was a first team All-Chicago Catholic League offensive guard at St. Laurence High School in Burbank, Illinois ... Earned two letters in track and baseball ... WARREN MOON

QUARTERBACK - 6-3 - 224

WASHINGTON
UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT (1999)
NFL: 17 (2 WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: NOVEMBER 18, 1956
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA
GP/GS: (208/203) PLAYOFFS: (10/10)

Pro Career: Concluded his career as the most prolific passer in pro football history following a stellar 23 seasons of professional football (17 in the NFL and two of those with Kansas City) that's sure to land him in the Hall of Fame . . . Remarkably, participated in four decades of pro competition after beginning his storied career with the Canadian Football League's Edmonton Eskimos in '78 . . . In fact, during his final NFL season, Kansas City had three rookies on the 2000 roster who were born the same year Moon inaugurated his CFL career - Pat Dennis, Dante Hall and Desmond Kitchings . . . Joined the Chiefs as an unrestricted free agent from Seattle on April 27th of '99 . . . During his final NFL season, he held the title as the NFL's "Leading Active Passer", owning more attempts (6,823), completions (3,988), yards (49,325) and touchdowns (291) than any other quarterback in 2000 . . . Started a remarkable 203 of the 208 regular season NFL contests he participated in . . . Classy competitor owns one of the most distinguished resumes of any signal-caller to ever play the game . . . Was also one of the league's most giving players off the field, earning the league's prestigious NFL Man of Year Award in '89 for his ongoing charitable endeavors . . . Served as the club's top backup to starter Elvis Grbac and provided a sterling example of professionalism in the locker room for not only Kansas City's quarterbacks, but every player on the roster . . . Became the oldest QB in Chiefs franchise history to start a game when at the age of 44 years, 8 days he guided Kansas City into San Diego (11/26/00) . . . Prior to that start, the oldest Chiefs QB to start a game was Len Dawson at 40 years, 140 days old who ironically also performed the task against San Diego (12/7/75) . . . Began his phenomenal pro tenure with an incredible six-year run ('78-83) with the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League, winning five straight Grey Cups ('78-82) with that club . . . During his stellar CFL stint he saw duty in 96 regular season contests (41 starts), passing for 21,228 yards, completing 1,369 of 2,832 aerials with 144 touchdowns and 77 interceptions, adding 10 postseason games (nine starts) to his Canadian resume with 138 completions on 257 attempts, good for 2,353 yards, 12 TDs and seven INTs . . . Led his Edmonton squads to a 78-23-5 regular season record (.813) and a 9-1 (.900) postseason mark before signing with the NFL's Houston Oilers as an unrestricted free agent on February 3rd of '84, ending what had been one the biggest recruiting battles in league history since the AFL-NFL merger . . . Spent 10 seasons with Houston ('84-93) before making stops in Minnesota ('94-96) and Seattle ('97-98) prior to joining the Chiefs ('99-00) . . . Including his regular and postseason totals in both the CFL and NFL, has seen duty in an incredible 324 meaningful professional contests, starting 263 of those games . . . That combined regular and postseason CFL and NFL tally reveals 9,880 attempts, 5,754 completions (58.2%) with 73,561 yards, 464 touchdowns and 331 interceptions, good for a 84.0 rating using the NFL passer formula, in addition to 976 rushes for 3,939

yards and 40 scores . . . Those 73,561 career passing yards in both leagues translate into an astounding 42.0 miles . . . In 208 games of regular season NFL play (203 starts) with the Chiefs, Oilers, Vikings and Seahawks, has completed 3,988 of 6,823 passes (58.4%) for 49,325 yards with 291 touchdowns and 233 interceptions, good for an 81.1 passer rating . . . Has also rushed 543 times for 1,736 yards for 22 TDs in regular season NFL play, giving him 51,061 yards of total offense . . . His pass attempt, pass completion, passing yardage totals and total offense totals all rank third in league history behind only Marino (8,358 attempts, 4,967 completions, 61,361 passing yards and 61,448 yards of total offense) and John Elway (7,250 attempts, 4,123 completions, 51,475 passing yards and 54,882 yards of total offense) . . . His total of 291 career NFL touchdown passes total is fourth on the league's all-time list, trailing only Marino (420), Fran Tarkenton (342) and Elway (300) . . . His nine 3,000-yard passing seasons are third in league history behind Marino (13) and Elway (12), while his 49 300-yard games are third in NFL annals behind Marino (60) and Dan Fouts (51) . . . Holds the league record for quarterbacks with eight straight nominations to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl ('88-95) and added a ninth appearance following the '97 campaign . . . Has established the single-season passing yardage marks for three separate NFL franchises: Titans, formerly known as the Oilers (4,364 yards in '91), Vikings (4,364 yards in '94) and Seahawks (3,678 yards in '97) . . . Owns the NFL single-season record with nine 300-yard games in '90, including an unforgettable 527-yard effort at Kansas City on December 16 of '90, the second-most ever in an NFL game (Norm Van Brocklin - 554 yards in '51) . . . Joins Marino (Miami, '84-85) and Fouts (San Diego, '80-81) as one of three players in league history to have back-to-back 4,000-yard seasons and is the only one to do it for two different teams (Oilers '90-91 and Vikings '94-95) . . . Has four total 4,000-yard seasons, trailing only Marino who owns six . . . Owns a 102-101 record as a starting NFL quarterback, including an impressive 90-68 mark (.570) since the beginning of the '87 season . . . Set an NFL record with 404 pass completions for the Oilers in '91 and joined Marino and Elway as just the third quarterback since the AFL-NFL merger to start 200 games, reaching that milestone against the Chiefs on November 8th of '98. At Kansas City (1999-00): Saw action in three contests (one start) ... Completed 16 of 35 pass attempts (45.7%) for 228 yards, one TD and one INT ... Also rushed twice for two yards ... Was sacked five times for 46 yards during his stint with Kansas City . . . Became the oldest QB in franchise history to start a game when at the age of 44 years, 8 days he guided the Chiefs into San Diego (11/26/00) ... Prior to Moon's start, the oldest Chiefs QB to start a game was Len Dawson at 40 years, 140 days old who ironically also performed the task against San Diego (12/7/75). 2000: Played in two games (one start) ... CHIEFS HISTORY

1959 — Lamar Hunt established and organized the American Football League with six original cities — Dallas, New York, Houston, Denver, Los Angeles and Minneapolis (Buffalo and Boston were added and Oakland replaced Minneapolis). "Before there was a player, coach or general manager in the league, there was Lamar Hunt," said Boston's Billy Sullivan. "Hunt was the cornerstone, the integrity of the league. Without him, there would have been no AFL." An unknown assistant at Miami (Florida), Hank Stram, was hired by Hunt to coach the club.

1960 — For their inaugural season in the Cotton Bowl, the Texans had a strong home-state identity with quarterback Cotton Davidson (Baylor), fullback Jack Spikes (Texas Christian) and running back Abner Haynes (North Texas State). Haynes led the league in rushing with 875 yards and touchdowns with nine. The Texans had a flashy, high scoring club, and only three close losses kept them from challenging for the division title. The Texans averaged 24,500 for their home games, the highest average in the league.

1961 — The Texans and the NFL's Dallas Cowboys both drafted E.J. Holub, described by many scouts as "the best football player in America." Holub decided to play for the Texans, joining three future Chiefs Hall of Famers – Jerry Mays, Fred Arbanas and Jim Tyrer.

1962 — Stram brought in quarterback Len Dawson, who spent six uneventful years in the NFL, to quarterback the club. Another key addition was Kansas running back Curtis McClinton. Haynes enjoyed his finest season with 1,049 yards and an AFL-high 13 touchdowns. The Texans clinched the Western Division championship in November and finished with an 11-3 record. AFL writers voted Dawson, who threw 29 touchdown passes, player of the year, and Stram coach of the year. Dallas won the AFL Championship on December 23 when Tommy Brooker connected on a 25-yard field goal during the second overtime of the title game, giving the Texans a 20-17 victory over the Houston Oilers.

1963 — On May 14, Hunt announced he was moving the franchise to Kansas City and renaming it the Chiefs. H. Roe Bartle, Kansas City's mayor nicknamed "Chief," promised to enlarge Municipal Stadium and guaranteed Hunt three times as many season ticket sales as the Texans had in Dallas. Rookie Stone Johnson suffered a fatal injury in a preseason game and his jersey number 33 was subsequently retired. Kansas City opened the regular season with a 59-7 victory over Denver, but managed just one win and two ties in its next nine games. Three highly-touted rookies, Buck Buchanan, Ed Budde and Bobby Bell, became starters on their way to a combined 526 games with the team.

1964 — The Chiefs struggled to a 7-7 record as many of the team's best players, including E.J. Holub, Fred Arbanas and Johnny Robinson, missed several games with injuries. An average of just 18,126 fans attended each home game, prompting discussion at the AFL owners' meeting about the Chiefs future in Kansas City.

1965 — The Chiefs made Kansas star Gale Sayers their first-round draft pick, but lost him in a bidding war with the Chicago Bears. The Chiefs were able to nab wide receiver Otis Taylor from Prairie View, while Mack Lee Hill, a virtually unknown free agent running back, muscled his way into the starting lineup. In a relatively routine knee surgery late in the season, Hill died on the operating table. The club finished with a 7-5-2 record with three losses by a field goal or less.

1966 — The Chiefs signed Heisman Trophy winner Mike Garrett from USC, even though he was drafted by his hometown Los Angeles Rams of the NFL. A crowd of 43,885, the largest ever to witness a sports event in Kansas City, turned out for the home opener against the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills. The Chiefs dropped a 29-14 decision to the Bills, but, after the contest, Stram and Buffalo head coach Joe Collier negotiated a trade in the middle of the field. Kansas City got kicker Mike Mercer for a fifth-round pick, solidifying one of the few weaknesses on the squad. Garrett earned AFL Rookie of the Year honors, rushing for 801 yards with a lofty 5.5 yards-per-carry average. Dawson led the league in passing as the Chiefs finished three games in front of Oakland for the Western Division title.

1967 — Using a dazzling I-formation offense and a smothering defense, the Chiefs dominated the Bills in Buffalo, 31-7, on New Year's day to win the franchise's second AFL crown and a place in the first AFL-NFL World Championship Game, later renamed Super Bowl I. On January 15 at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, the Chiefs met Vince Lombardi's powerful Green Bay Packers. The Chiefs played the Packers close for a half, trailing 14-10, but Green Bay took control in the final two quarters, winning the game by a score of 35-10. The Chiefs looked to the draft to strengthen their defense and found a pair of linebacking gems in Willie Lanier from Morgan State and Jim Lynch from Notre Dame. The club's special teams also got a boost with the addition of kicker Jan Stenerud and return man Noland (Super Gnat) Smith. On August 23, the Chiefs and Chicago Bears played a preseason game in the first contest between AFL and NFL teams in Kansas City. The Chiefs throttled the Bears, 66-24, at Municipal Stadium. Interest in the team skyrocketed, forcing an increase in seating capacity at Municipal Stadium from 40,000 to 47,000. Later in the year, Jackson County voters approved a $43 million bond issue for construction of a sports complex. Injuries again hit the club hard in the regular season as the Chiefs clawed their way to a 9-5 record.

1968 — Dawson led the AFL in passing for the fourth time as the Chiefs finished the year with a 12-2 record and a tie with the Raiders for the Western Division championship. Oakland easily defeated Kansas City, in the AFL Playoffs 41-6, to advance to the AFL Championship Game against the New York Jets.

1969 — The Chiefs opened the season with impressive wins over San Diego and Boston, but lost Dawson with a knee injury. The next week, backup Jacky Lee went down with a broken ankle, leaving the team's most crucial position in the hands of two-year pro Mike Livingston, who engineered a seven-game win streak. Two months into the campaign, Dawson returned, helping the Chiefs to an 11-3 record, good for second in the division behind Oakland, who was 12-1-1. In the first round of the playoffs, Kansas City rode its dominating defense en route to a 13-6 win over the Super Bowl champion New York Jets, while Oakland pounded Houston, 56-7.

1970 — On January 4, the Chiefs defeated the Raiders, 17-7, to capture the AFL crown. It was the final game in AFL history, as the Chiefs became the league's only three-time champions. The biggest moment in Kansas City sports history came to a peak as the Chiefs became World Champions by turning back the Minnesota Vikings, by a score of 23-7, in Super Bowl IV. The Chiefs used the game as a crusade for the American Football League, and wore patches on their jerseys saying "AFL-10," which referred to the league's 10-year existence. The following season would see the AFL merge with the NFL. Oddsmakers established the Vikings as two-touchdown favorites, yet the Chiefs used three Stenerud field goals and a Garrett touchdown run to take a 16-0 halftime lead. A dynamic 46-yard touchdown pass from Dawson to Taylor in the third quarter sealed the victory. Dawson was named the game's Most Valuable Player. Despite injuries to key players and the trade of Garrett to the Chargers, the Chiefs finished the year with a 7-5-2 record, but did not qualify for the playoffs.

1971 — Taylor led the NFL in receiving yards with 1,110 and Ed Podolak became the team's top rusher. The linebacking trio of Lanier, Bell and Lynch was the league's best. In the season's next-to-last game with the Raiders, a late field goal by Stenerud gave the Chiefs a 16-14 victory and a Western Division title. The team finished with a 10-3-1 mark, one-and-a-half games ahead of Oakland. Kansas City and Miami hooked up for one of pro football's most memorable games on Christmas Day in the first round of the playoffs. The Eastern Division champion Dolphins won a dramatic double-overtime thriller, 27-24, in the longest game in NFL history. Podolak accounted for an incredible 350 yards on rushes, receptions and returns. It would be the last game played in Municipal Stadium.

1972 — Chiefs founder Lamar Hunt became the first AFL figure to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29 in Canton, Ohio. All-Pro safety Johnny Robinson retired and Dawson ended speculation about his retirement by signing a two-year contract. The Chiefs opened play in Arrowhead Stadium, one of the most magnificent facilities in pro sports. The largest crowd in Chiefs history, 82,094, watched the home team defeat the Raiders, 27-14, on November 5. The Chiefs got off to a 5-3 start, then lost three straight, and ended the year with an 8-6 record and out of playoff contention.

1973 — The defense remained solid but the offense struggled as Dawson was hurt for much of the season. Livingston led the club into first place in late November, but a pair of losses and a tie, gave the team its second straight second-place finish.

1974 — The Chiefs age was beginning to show. Several of the club's key players were entering the twilight of their careers: Dawson was 39, Tyrer was 35, Bell, Buchanan and Budde were 34, Hill was 33, and Taylor was 32. The result was the team's first losing season in 11 years. One of the year's few bright spots in the 5-9 season was Emmitt Thomas' league-leading 12 interceptions. Bell, an eight-time All-Pro, concluded his playing career.

1975 — Paul Wiggin, an assistant coach with the San Francisco 49ers, replaced Stram as the team's head coach and directed the Chiefs to four wins in his first five games. The high point of the season was a 34-31 upset of the Dallas Cowboys on Monday Night Football. Injuries crippled the team, leading to a second straight 5-9 finish. Dawson, the top passer in Chiefs history, announced his retirement after 14 memorable seasons with the franchise. After eight All-Pro seasons, Buchanan also finished his last year of play.

1976 — After lingering in Dawson's shadow for eight seasons, Livingston was firmly entrenched as the team's starting quarterback. Even though he played well, the Chiefs still ended the year with their third consecutive 5-9 record.

1977 — The Chiefs suffered their worst season ever, winning just twice. Tom Bettis replaced Wiggin at midseason as the team's head coach, but was able to win just once in seven tries. The heart and soul of the Chiefs defense departed when roommates Lanier and Lynch, a pair of 11-year veterans, retired after the season's end.

1978 — Marv Levy, the former head coach of the Canadian Football League's Montreal Alouettes, was named head coach. His first four draft picks were defensive players, including standout defensive end Art Still of Kentucky and linebacker Gary Spani of Kansas State. Levy installed the Wing-T as his offense. The Chiefs had the second-most productive ground game in the league and a record five different runners had 100-yard games, including Tony Reed, the team's first 1,000-yard back in 11 years. The team showed signs of improvement, and ended their first 16-game regular season with a 4-12 mark.

1979 — With the second overall pick in the draft, the team landed Colorado State defensive end Mike Bell, a pass rush specialist and perfect complement for Still. Clemson quarterback Steve Fuller was also chosen in the first round by the Chiefs, and by midseason, he had replaced Livingston. With Fuller at the helm, the Chiefs improved from a 1-3 start to finish 7-9.

1980 — In a then-controversial move, the Chiefs released Stenerud, the club's all-time leading scorer, in favor of journeyman Nick Lowery, who had been cut 11 times by eight different teams himself. Despite injuries to key players, the Chiefs made steady improvement. The team came back from an 0-4 start to finish 8-8. The defense came of age with Still, Spani, safety Gary Barbaro and cornerback Gary Green playing major roles. After Fuller was sidelined with a knee injury late in the season, little-known Bill Kenney took over and led the club to two victories in the final three weeks.

1981 — Kenney remained at quarterback and directed the Chiefs to a 6-2 start, including a 37-33 win over the defending Super Bowl champion Steelers in Pittsburgh. The Chiefs were poised to make the playoffs for the first time in 10 years before dropping three straight games in December. A season-ending victory over the Vikings guaranteed the Chiefs their first winning record since 1973. Rookie running back Joe Delaney, a second-round pick from Northwest Louisiana rushed for a then club-record 1,121 yards.

1982 — The Chiefs split their first two games of the year before the players' strike began. The walkout would not be settled until mid-November, and the Chiefs dropped the first four games following the strike's end. Victories in two of the season's final three games left the club with a 3-6 record.

1983 — Tragedy struck the club on June 29, when Delaney, the team's young star running back, drowned trying to save the lives of three youngsters in Monroe, Louisiana. A month later, linebacker Bobby Bell became the first Chiefs player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton. John Mackovic, in his first season as the club's head coach, had trouble finding a suitable replacement for Delaney as the running game suffered. Kenney was coming of age, throwing for 4,348 yards, a Chiefs record and then the fourth-highest total in NFL history. His primary target was wide receiver Carlos Carson, who hauled in 80 passes for 1,351 yards. Despite the team's high-flying offense, the final result was a 6-10 finish.

1984 — The Chiefs used their two first-round draft picks to bolster their lines, picking Pitt All-America nose tackle Bill Maas then Iowa's huge offensive tackle John Alt. Maas had an immediate impact and was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Kenney suffered a broken thumb during the preseason and was sidelined until the season's seventh week. Todd Blackledge, a first-round pick the previous season, opened the first six contests and had the club 3-3. Inconsistency marked the rest of the season which saw the team conclude the year with an 8-8 mark.

1985 — The Chiefs got off to a flying start, winning three of their first four games. One of the wins, a 28-7 drubbing of the Seattle Seahawks on September 29, saw free safety Deron Cherry tie an NFL record with four interceptions. That would be one of the few remaining bright spots in a 6-10 season.

1986 — Linebacker Willie Lanier was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2. The pieces started coming together for Mackovic, who directed the club to a 7-3 record 10 weeks into the season. The club's defense and special teams were especially effective. Three straight losses in November put the Chiefs playoff chances in jeopardy, though. A 37-10 win over the Broncos at Arrowhead and the team's first-ever win at L.A. Memorial Coliseum, a 20-17 squeaker over the Raiders, put the 9-6 Chiefs in position to reach the playoffs. A December 21 date in Pittsburgh was all that stood in their way. Despite being outgained 515 yards to 171, the Chiefs were able to notch a 24-19 victory as all of the team's points came from the special teams. That earned the club an AFC Wild Card berth, the club's first playoff appearance in 15 years. On December 28 at Giants Stadium, the Jets defeated the upstart Chiefs, 35-15.

1987 — Quarterback Len Dawson was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 8 in Canton, just a few miles from his hometown of Alliance, Ohio. Special teams coordinator Frank Gansz was promoted to head coach, and he quickly used the draft to solve the Chiefs running woes by selecting nimble Paul Palmer of Temple in the first round and powerful Enugu, Nigeria, native Christian Okoye from tiny Azusa Pacific in the second. Both rookies made a splash in the season-opening win over the Chargers as Palmer returned a kickoff for a touchdown and Okoye dashed for 105 yards. The Chiefs suffered a setback at Seattle the following week, just before another players' strike took place. NFL teams put together "replacement" squads, mostly consisting of players cut in training camp. The Chiefs version lost all three games, and by the time the strike was finished, the team stood 1-4. Five straight losses followed, giving the Chiefs a team-record nine-game skid. Kansas City won three of its last five for a 4-11 mark.

1988 — Defensive end Neil Smith of Nebraska became the team's first-round pick after the club traded its second-round choice to the Detroit Lions in order to move one place up in the first round. For the second straight season, the Chiefs were able to win just four times. Twelve-year veteran Steve DeBerg, acquired in an offseason trade with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, became the club's starting quarterback. On December 19, one day after the season's end, Carl Peterson took over as the club's President/General Manager and Chief Operating Officer.

1989 — Marty Schottenheimer, who directed the Cleveland Browns to two AFC Championship Game appearances, became the seventh head coach in Chiefs history on January 24. With the fourth overall pick in the draft, the team selected Butkus Award winner Derrick Thomas, Alabama's All-America linebacker. The team started slow, winning three of its first eight games. DeBerg, Ron Jaworski, and Steve Pelluer each took turns as the team's starting quarterback. DeBerg regained the starting job for the final five weeks of the season, generating four wins that put the Chiefs one-half game shy of a playoff berth. The 8-7-1 record was good for second place in the division. Okoye set a club record and became the first Chief to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,480 yards, while Thomas won consensus Rookie of the Year honors.

1990 — Defensive tackle Buck Buchanan was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 4. The Chiefs got out of the starting gate quickly, winning three of their first four games. The club then struggled, splitting its next six games, before tearing up the league in the home stretch, winning six of its last seven outings. The team's 11-5 record was the club's best since the 1969 Super Bowl season and advanced the team to the playoffs for just the second time since 1971. Free agent running back Barry Word topped the team with 1,015 yards, but the unquestioned leader on offense was DeBerg, who tossed 23 touchdown passes with just four interceptions. Kansas City led the NFL with 60 sacks, including 20 by Thomas, the NFL's sack king. An NFL-record seven of Thomas' sacks came on November 11 against Seattle, a game the Seahawks miraculously won, 17-16, on a last-second touchdown by future Chief Dave Krieg. That loss would bring on the furious stretch run.

1991 — On January 5 at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami, the Chiefs suffered a heart-breaking, 17-16 loss to the Dolphins in the AFC First Round Playoff tilt. On July 27, Jan Stenerud became the first pure placekicker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The Chiefs enjoyed another strong 10-6 regular season. The home portion of the schedule was highlighted by a pair of prime-time Monday night affairs. On October 7, the Chiefs toppled the defending AFC Champion Bills, 33-6, in the club's first home Monday night game in eight years. Three weeks later, the Chiefs tallied a thrilling come-from-behind win over the Raiders in front of a national audience. On December 28, the Chiefs played host to the Raiders in the first playoff game ever at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs posted their first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV with a 10-6 decision over the Raiders as Kansas City forced six Los Angeles turnovers.

1992 — On January 5, the Chiefs visited Buffalo for an AFC Divisional Playoff matchup. The Bills dynamic offense proved to be too much for the Chiefs in a 37-14 setback that propelled Buffalo toward the Super Bowl. A melancholy summer awaited the Chiefs, who mourned the passing of Player Personnel Director Whitey Dovell on May 22, and Hall of Famer Buck Buchanan on July 16. Six-time Pro Bowl safety Deron Cherry, owner of 50 career interceptions, announced his retirement in July. The Chiefs battled through an injury-riddled season, during which a playoff berth never seemed certain. On the regular season's final Sunday, the Chiefs faced the Broncos in a game that would send the winner into the playoffs. The Chiefs defense tallied three touchdowns and "Plan B" signee Dave Krieg tossed a pair of scoring passes as the Chiefs buried the Broncos, 42-20. First-round draft pick Dale Carter of Tennessee earned the Bert Bell trophy as the NFL's Rookie of the Year.

1993 — On January 2 in San Diego, the Chiefs made a quick exit from the playoffs as the Chargers posted a 17-0 victory. The Chiefs spent the off-season retooling their offense. On April 20, the Chiefs traded for quarterback Joe Montana, who directed the San Francisco 49ers to four Super Bowl victories. The Chiefs swapped their first-round pick in the '93 draft to the 49ers in exchange for Montana, safety David Whitmore and San Francisco's third-round pick in '94. Kansas City wasn't done loading up the offense. On June 9 the club signed unrestricted free agent running back Marcus Allen, a certain Hall of Famer and the MVP of Super Bowl XVIII. The additions paid off as the Chiefs went 11-5, won their first AFC West title since '71 and appeared in the AFC Championship Game.

1994 — Kansas City got its first true taste of "Montana Magic" as the NFL's all-time leading passer engineered a brilliant comeback in a first-round playoff win over Pittsburgh on Jan. 8. The Chiefs trailed the Steelers, 17-10, entering the fourth quarter, and then, 24-17, as the two-minute warning sounded. On fourth-and-goal from the seven, Montana fired a game-tying TD pass to wide receiver Tim Barnett. In overtime, kicker Nick Lowery booted a 32-yard field goal as Arrowhead erupted. On Jan. 16, the Chiefs traveled to Houston, where the Oilers sat poised for their 12th straight win. The heavily-favored Oilers opened up a 13-7, fourth-quarter lead, but once again, Montana had a comeback in mind. First, he hit wide receiver J.J. Birden for an 11-yard TD, then he found wide receiver Willie Davis open in the end zone from 18 yards out. Allen nailed the game shut with a 21-yard TD dash and the Chiefs found themselves on the favorable side of a 28-20 decision. The Chiefs playoff journey ended in Buffalo on Jan. 23 as the Bills won their fourth straight AFC title game by a score of 30-13. The Chiefs added cornerback Mark Collins and linebacker George Jamison through free agency and quarterback Steve Bono and safety William White through trades. Also new at Arrowhead in '94 was a grass playing surface, the first ever at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs started the year with three straight wins, but found themselves 8-7 with their playoff hopes in jeopardy. In the do-or-die season finale at the L.A. Coliseum, Allen had his finest game as a Chief, rushing 33 times for 132 yards en route to a 19-9 win. On New Year's Eve, the Chiefs made a rapid departure from the playoffs, dropping a 27-17 decision at Miami.

1995 — Quarterback Joe Montana announced his retirement from football after 16 years in the NFL, including the last two with the Chiefs, on April 18. Immediately, so-called media experts predicted much gloom and doom for the '95 Chiefs. The team responded by posting an NFL-best 13-3 record with unblemished 8-0 marks in the AFC West and in games played at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs led the NFL in rushing offense scoring defense and turnover ratio, the three hallmarks of a solid football team. During the first six weeks of the season, the Chiefs were victorious in three overtime games. In an October 9 thriller on Monday Night Football, first-year wide receiver Tamarick Vanover returned a punt 86 yards for a touchdown in overtime to defeat the San Diego Chargers.

1996 — On a blustery, January 7 afternoon with the temperature at 11 degrees and wind chills at -9, the Chiefs dropped an AFC Divisional Playoff Game to the Indianapolis Colts, 10-7, at Arrowhead Stadium. More Chiefs (seven) played in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl on February 4 than any other AFC team: fullback Kimble Anders, quarterback Steve Bono, cornerback Dale Carter, defensive tackle Dan Saleaumua, guard Will Shields, defensive end Neil Smith, and linebacker Derrick Thomas. The Chiefs finished with a 9-7 record and ended a six-year streak of playoff qualification. During the season, running back Marcus Allen set three NFL records: most career rushing touchdowns, most games played by a running back and most pass receptions by a running back.

1997 — After missing the playoffs in '96 for the first time since '89, Kansas City dramatically retooled its roster in '97. The Chiefs line-up featured 11 new starters, headlined by free agent signees QB Elvis Grbac, WR Andre Rison and TE Ted Popson on offense. On defense, the club's top four picks from the '96 Draft - S Jerome Woods, S Reggie Tongue, DE

John Browning and LB Donnie Edwards - emerged as starters, as well. All the new faces quickly formed a cohesive unit as the Chiefs posted a 13-3 record and their second AFC West title in the past three years. The club engineered several dramatic finishes, the first of which came on September 8 at Oakland when Grbac collaborated with Rison on an improbable 32-yard TD pass with seconds remaining to provide the Chiefs with a 28-27 win over the Raiders. After posting a 6-2 record during the season's first half, Kansas City's good fortune finally appeared to run out on November 3 vs. Pittsburgh when Grbac suffered a broken clavicle. However, back-up QB Rich Gannon would come on to preserve a win in that contest and lead the team to a 5-1 mark in their next six outings. K Pete Stoyanovich provided one of the year's most memorable moments, connecting on a line-drive 54-yard FG to give Kansas City a 24-22 win over Denver on November 16. Grbac returned to the starting line-up for the regular season finale vs. New Orleans as the squad finished the regular season with an 8-0 tally at Arrowhead Stadium.

1998 — The two teams with the AFC's top records squared off for the third time when 12-4 Denver visited 13-3 Kansas City for an AFC Divisional Playoff contest on January 4. Despite holding an edge in total yardage, the Chiefs could not convert on several key scoring opportunities, dropping a 14-10 decision to their division foes. Six players represented Kansas City at the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, including CB James Hasty and WR Andre Rison who made their first appearances as members of the Chiefs. On April 9, RB Marcus Allen announced his retirement, concluding a brilliant 16-year NFL career, which included five stellar seasons in Kansas City. A '98 campaign which began with much promise had its high hopes dashed as the Chiefs suffered several major injuries beginning in a season-opening victory over the Oakland Raiders. Starting quarterback Elvis Grbac was lost for a considerable amount of the season due to a shoulder on the final play of the game's first half, while All-Pro left guard Dave Szott's year came to an end with a biceps tear in the second stanza of that same contest. In total, 11 different starters missed a total of 45 games due to injury as the Chiefs went 7-9 to miss the playoffs for just the second time during the '90s, snapping a string of nine consecutive winning seasons. The club was also hampered by crucial penalties, as the team set dubious NFL records for penalties (158), penalty yardage (1,304) and first downs allowed by penalty (58).

1999 — On January 11, head coach Marty Schottenheimer announced his retirement after 10 seasons of distinguished service with the club. His 101-58-1 (.634) record gave him the best winning percentage of any coach in franchise history. During his tenure, the Chiefs captured three AFC West titles, qualified for the playoffs seven times and made the team's first-ever appearance in the AFC Championship Game in '93. Schottenheimer posted a 54-26 record (.675) against his AFC West opponents, including a 18-3 mark (.857) against the Raiders. A veteran of 17 NFL seasons as an assistant coach, Gunther Cunningham was appointed the eighth head coach in franchise history on January 22. During his four seasons ('95-98) as the Chiefs defensive coordinator, Kansas City's defense allowed a league-low 16.4 points per game. Over those four years, the Chiefs won two AFC West titles and posted a 23-9 (.719) record against the rest of the division. The club responded their new leader's high-energy style as Cunningham produced a 9-7 record in his initial season at the club's helm, the best record of any rookie head coach in franchise history and the best mark of any first-year head coach in the NFL in '99. The club became the sixth team in NFL history to record 100 regular season wins in a decade with a 16-10 triumph at Denver on December 5. Only Buffalo (103-57) finished the '90s with a better record than Kansas City's 102-58 mark. Perhaps two biggest factors in the Chiefs success during the decade were the takeaway/giveaway column and the running game. Under Cunningham, the team firmly regained their grips on both categories in '99. Kansas City led the NFL with a +21 turnover ratio in '99 and won the NFL's turnover triple crown in the '90s with a remarkable +128 turnover ratio, a league-high 365 takeaways and an NFL-low 237 giveaways. The Chiefs also recorded 11 return TDs on the season, including a franchise-best nine on defense. Cunningham's "maul ball" running philosophy proved fruitful as the Chiefs ran the ball more times (521) than any other team in the league and ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing with 130.1 yards per game. After a three-game mid-season losing streak put the club at 5-5 and on the brink of playoff elimination, the team rallied for a four-game winning string and needed a win in one of its last two contests to secure a postseason berth. A 23-14 loss at Seattle on December 26 would set up a make-or-break game in the regular season finale vs. Oakland.

2000 — A win vs. Oakland at Arrowhead in the regular season finale on January 2 of the new century would seal the AFC West title for the Chiefs, while a loss would put the club out of the playoffs. Kansas City leaped out to a 17-0 lead vs. the Raiders, but a blocked punt would turn the momentum in one of the wildest contests in the storied Chiefs-Raiders series. The game was eventually won by Oakland 41-38 in overtime, providing an ominous start to a year which would turn tragic for the team on January 23. Nine-time Pro Bowl linebacker Derrick Thomas was seriously injured in a one-vehicle accident just east of the Kansas City International Airport on I-435. Ten other individuals were killed in a separate, 24-vehicle accident that same day just north of KCI on I-29. Thomas was moved to Jackson Memorial Hospital in his hometown of Miami the following day. Although confined to a wheelchair, Thomas had made substantial progress and was in good spirits when he was visited by Chiefs President Carl Peterson in Miami on February 7. The next day, Thomas' condition took a shocking turn and at 10:10 AM (ET) on February 8, he was pronounced dead after suffering cardiac arrest. February 11 was declared "Derrick Thomas Red Friday" in Kansas City and on February 14th nearly 23,000 mourners paid their final respects to their fallen hero at Arrowhead Stadium, where Thomas' body lied in state and a B-2 Stealth bomber from Whiteman Air Force Base flew over at 12:01 PM. On February 15 at Kemper Arena, over 6,000 individuals attended a public memorial service for Thomas. On February 19 Derrick Vincent Thomas was buried in his hometown of Miami following a memorial service at the Mt. Calvary Church. On March 4, Peterson announced at the annual 101 Banquet that at the suggestion of Clark Hunt, the Chiefs Most Valuable Player Award would hence be known as the Derrick Thomas Award. Thomas would be honored prior to the club's season opener at Arrowhead on September 3, but the Chiefs would fall 27-14 to the Indianapolis Colts. Kansas City would lose a 17-14 OT decision the following week at Tennessee, but would then bounce back win five of their next six contests to sit 5-3 at the season's midway point. On October 2, the Chiefs faced Seattle in a Monday Night Football contest which was simulcast to 4,391 fans in Kauffman Stadium. The 82,893 fans assembled at Arrowhead and Kauffman Stadiums marked the largest on-site attendance figure in team history. The club's early-season success was also highlighted by a 54-34 win over the defending Super Bowl champion St. Louis Rams on October 22, a contest which marked the most points ever scored at Arrowhead. However, a stretch of five road games over a six-week span would take its toll on the club as the Chiefs dropped five straight contests to fall out of playoff contention, finishing the year at 7-9.

2001 — Following the club's disappointing finish, head coach Gunther Cunningham was relieved of his duties on January 5. In two years at the helm of the club, Cunningham finished with a 16-16 record. On January 12, Dick Vermeil was named the ninth head coach in franchise history. Just one of four coaches in NFL history to lead two different teams to the Super Bowl, Vermeil guided St. Louis to a win in Super Bowl XXXIV following the '99 season in his most recent head coaching endeavor. In Kansas City, Vermeil was reunited with Chiefs President Carl Peterson, whose association dated back 27 years to UCLA. After originally attempting to hire Vermeil upon his arrival in Kansas City in '89, Peterson pulled off the feat and provided the franchise with a renewed sense of optimism entering the 2001 season.

HOMES OF THE CHIEFS

ARROWHEAD STADIUM
1972-PRESENT

Arrowhead Stadium, present home of the Kansas City Chiefs, is one of the finest facilities in the NFL. It is part of the Harry S Truman Sports Complex, which also includes 42,000-seat Kauffman Stadium, home of the Kansas City Royals baseball club. Since its dedication on August 12, 1972, for a preseason game vs. the St. Louis Cardinals, 16,398,230 spectators have passed through Arrowhead's turnstiles. After 23 seasons of artificial turf, Arrowhead sported a grass playing surface for the first time in '94.

Location: One Arrowhead Drive

Municipal Stadium served as the Chiefs original home in Kansas City after previously housing two short-lived NFL franchises, the Kansas City Blues (1924) and the Kansas City Cowboys (1925-26). The Chiefs and the Kansas City Athletics baseball club shared the facility until the A's departed for Oakland following the '67 season. Kansas City went undefeated (7-0) at home during the '71 regular season, but the final contest (and only playoff game) in Municipal Stadium's history will live in infamy for Chiefs fans, a devastating double overtime 27-24 playoff loss to the Miami Dolphins on Christmas Day of '71, a contest which remains the NFL's longest game at 82 minutes, 40 seconds.

Construction Data: Opened - 1923
Upper Deck Added - 1948-49

The Cotton Bowl served as the home of the American Football League's Dallas Texans from 1960-62 before the franchise moved to Kansas City in '63 and became known as the Chiefs. The Texans shared the stadium with the NFL's expansion Dallas Cowboys and the facility still serves as the home of Southern Methodist University, the alma mater of Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. The Texans final contest in the Cotton Bowl was a 26-17 win over the San Diego Chargers on December 16, 1962, before a sparse crowd of 18,384 fans. The Texans would win a 20-17 double-overtime thriller the next week at Houston to capture the first of three AFL titles.

THE ARROWHEAD STADIUM STORY

The Kansas City Chiefs and St. Louis Cardinals played the inaugural game at Arrowhead Stadium on August 12, 1972. Today, the facility remains one of the finest sports stadiums in the world. Everything is still in top shape as the Truman Sports Complex prepares to celebrate its 29th distinguished season of service in 2000. Other venues of a similar vintage have long since been termed obsolete, but thanks to the foresight and vision of the leadership of Jackson County, the Chiefs staff led by Jack Steadman who helped develop the complex, and the taxpayers who made it a reality, Arrowhead has indeed, stood the test of time.

At the time of its dedication in 1972, the legendary founder of the Chicago Bears, George Halas called Arrowhead, "the most revolutionary, futuristic, sports complex I have ever seen." Hal Lebovitz, Sports Editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer added, "It took courage to sell the citizens of Kansas City on the twin park plan. But they bought it because they want the best."

In the late 1960s, after design and seating capacity concerns caused plans for a single, multi-purpose domed stadium to be scrapped, Kansas City opted to construct two separate stadiums, one for football and one for baseball. Voters approved the Sports Complex bond issue in 1967, which included plans for a revolutionary concept - the world's first rolling stadium roof (pictured below). Construction cost overruns and project delays caused by a lengthy strike eventually forced the roof concept to be put on hold, but Arrowhead was completed in time for the 1972 season.

In 1984, the Jackson County Sports Authority again investigated the feasibility of a dome - this time made of fabric - but that concept too was shelved as being unnecessary and financially impractical.

ALL AT ARROWHEAD

Arrowhead attendance: 78,502; Kauffman Stadium attendance: 4,391*

A decade later, in 1994, under Arrowhead's continued open-air arrangement, a natural playing surface was installed in the facility for the first time, just one of numerous improvements which have been made under the direction of Chiefs President, General Manager, and CEO Carl Peterson. From 1994-96 other multi-million dollar projects have modernized and expanded the Arrowhead Club, the Chiefs team and office facilities, as well as the stadium's concession areas. In 1998 the club installed a pair of 23' x 42' Mitsubishi ArrowVision video screens in both end zones, and this year the Chiefs once again expanded their administrative offices at Arrowhead. In 1999 all 33,975 seats in the upper level of the stadium were replaced, while all 35,277 lower level seats were replaced for the 2000 season.

Undoubtedly one of the finest facilities in the NFL, Arrowhead and the fans who consistently fill it (84 consecutive sell-outs) have helped produce a distinct home-field advantage for the Chiefs. During the '90s, no NFL team had a better regular season home winning percentage than Kansas City, which produced a 65-15 (.813) record over from 1990-99. Over 30 years after the first plans were being devised for Kansas City's unique two stadium setup, other metropolitan areas are, only now, in the process of attempting to construct similar facilities.

Original plans for the Truman Sports Complex called for a rolling roof which could cover Arrowhead or its baseball counterpart, Kauffman Stadium - a revolutionary concept at the time.

During Arrowhead's 30th Anniversary season in 2001, Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt, expressed the organization's thanks to Colorado-based architect, the late Charles Deaton, who conceived the two stadium concept. Hunt praised the governmental bodies who took the initiative, and the workers who built Arrowhead, as well as the support of the Jackson County taxpayers who financed this futuristic venture. Hunt pointed out that Kansas City's franchise and its fans have now enjoyed America's top football facility for 30 years and wished to extend on behalf of the entire the Chiefs organization a hearty salute to all who have unquestionably made Arrowhead Stadium - The Home of the . . . CHIEFS!

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

1962 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Texans 20, Oilers 17 (2 OT)
December 23, 1962
Jeppesen Stadium (37,981)

A contest that moved the infant American Football League into the national consciousness proved to be the first of three AFL titles for Hank Stram's Texans/Chiefs.

Following second place finishes in each of the league's first two seasons, the Texans ran away with the AFL West championship in 1962. Dallas finished 11-3, a full four games in front, and was matched with the Houston Oilers, also 11-3, who had won the AFL title in 1960 and 1961 over the Los Angeles, then San Diego Chargers.

The Texans, paced by a pair of touchdowns from Abner Haynes, took a 17-0 halftime advantage. Haynes scored first on a 28-yard pass from Len Dawson and then on a two-yard run after Tommy Brooker had given Dallas a 3-0 first-quarter advantage with a 16-yard field goal.

But the momentum quickly shifted to the Oilers in the second half. George Blanda, then a "young" 35-year-old, passed 15 yards to Willard Dewveall for a touchdown and kicked a 31-yard field goal before Charley Tolar burst over from the one to tie the game at 17-17 in the fourth quarter.

The two teams then went into the first sudden death overtime in AFL annals. The Texans won the toss and Stram elected to kick off, maintaining his defense could hold the Oilers long enough for Dawson to get the ball in good field position. Herein came the famous "kick to the clock" episode in which Texans captain Haynes inadvertently elected for his team to kick into the wind instead of having it as the consolation for not receiving the football.

Neither club mounted a serious challenge in the early stages of overtime, but as the fifth quarter was drawing to a close, Dallas defensive end Bill Hull intercepted a Blanda pass and returned it to midfield. Dawson then passed to Jack Spikes for 10 yards; Spikes, the game's most valuable player, then ran for 19 and the Texans were in field goal range. At the 2:54 mark of the sixth quarter, Brooker kicked a 25-yard field goal to give the Texans a 20-17 victory and the American Football League championship. The game lasted 77 minutes and 54 seconds and would be the longest in pro football history until the Chiefs and Miami Dolphins played over 82 minutes nearly a decade later in 1971.

1966 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 31, Bills 7
January 1, 1967
War Memorial Stadium (42,080)

With a berth in Super Bowl I as the prize, the Chiefs visited ancient War Memorial Stadium for a New Year's Day clash with the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills.

The game, played in frigid, sub-freezing temperatures, produced its first break on the opening kickoff, Jerrel Wilson recovered a Bills fumble on the Buffalo 31-yard line. Three plays later, Len Dawson passed 29 yards to Fred Arbanas for the first touchdown and a 7-0 Kansas City lead.

Buffalo, though, tied the game near the end of the opening period when Jack Kemp hit Elbert Dubenion on a 69-yard pass play. Few thought it would be the Bills final score of the day.

The Chiefs defense stiffened and Dawson led the offense to 10 second-quarter points. Otis Taylor caught a 29-yard touchdown pass and Mike Mercer added a 32-yard field goal, aided by a 72-yard pass interception by Johnny Robinson.

Mike Garrett then applied the coup de grace for the Chiefs by scoring on runs of one and 18 yards. Kansas City won its second AFL title in four years and awaited the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I.

SUPER BOWL I

Packers 35, Chiefs 10
January 15, 1967
Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (63,036)

Representing themselves and the American Football League in the first championship match with the National Football League, the Chiefs played well for one half before bowing to the supremacy of the Green Bay Packers.

Vince Lombardi's Packers, one of the great pro football teams of all time, won Super Bowl I by a 35-10 score. The Packers held a slim 14-10 advantage at the half before the game turned on one play in the third quarter.

Green Bay opened the scoring when Bart Starr passed 37 yards to Max McGee, who made a remarkable one-handed catch for the touchdown. Len Dawson tied the game for the Chiefs when he passed to Curtis McClinton for a second period touchdown. The Packers then went back on top, 14-7 before Mike Mercer kicked a 31-yard field goal just before the half ended.

The Chiefs momentum carried over into the third quarter as Kansas City moved to a first down on its initial possession. But then the game's key play, one that doomed the underdog Chiefs, unfolded when Willie Wood intercepted a Dawson pass intended for Fred Arbanas at midfield. Wood returned it all the way to the Chiefs five-yard line, where Elijah Pitts ran for a third Green Bay touchdown and an insurmountable 21-10 lead. The Packers would add two more scores en route to a 35-10 win.

1969 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 17, Raiders 7
January 4, 1970
Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum (54,544)

On the day the American Football League played the final game of its 10-year history, the Kansas City Chiefs became the only three-time AFL champion. The Chiefs, through a curious playoff system, played their Western Division rivals, the Oakland Raiders, for the league's last title. Oakland, which had won the AFL West and held a pair of regular season wins over the Chiefs, went down to a 17-7 defeat.

The contest, unlike other Raiders-Chiefs matchups, was marked by turnovers. The two clubs managed one first-half touchdown apiece, Oakland's on a three-yard run by Charlie Smith, Kansas City responding with a one-yard plunge by Wendell Hayes after Len Dawson had hit on passes of 14 yards to Otis Taylor and 41 yards to Frank Pitts.

In the third quarter, George Blanda twice missed field goal attempts that would have moved Oakland in front. Midway through the period, Kansas City mounted a drive from its own two-yard line, the field position a result of a fumble which luckily was recovered before it bounded into the end zone. Dawson and Taylor pulled Kansas City out of the hole with a 35-yard pass and run play. Robert Holmes added 23 more on a flare pass in the left flat and then scored the go-ahead touchdown five plays later.

At this point the game became a defensive struggle. Led by defensive charges from the entire front four of Aaron Brown, Buck Buchanan, Curley Culp and Jerry Mays, the Chiefs continually harassed Raiders quarterback Daryle Lamonica. But the turnovers which would plague both teams were only beginning.

In the fourth quarter, turnovers gave Oakland the football three times in Kansas City territory. Three times the Chiefs responded with interceptions, one each by Jim Marsalis, Jim Kearney and Emmitt Thomas. Thomas' steal was his second of the day and covered 62 yards to the Oakland 18-yard line. Jan Stenerud's field goal provided a 17-7 lead and a return to the Super Bowl.

SUPER BOWL IV

Chiefs 23, Vikings 7
January 11, 1970
Tulane Stadium (80,562)

Kansas City's finest sports hour concluded at 5:20 in the afternoon of Sunday, January 11, 1970, when the Chiefs defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 23-7, for the world championship of pro football.

The Chiefs, who finished 11-3 on the season and defeated the New York Jets and Oakland Raiders in the playoffs, closed out their first decade as the outstanding team in the American Football League, which, with Super Bowl IV, came to an end. Beginning in 1970, the two leagues merged, with the AFL becoming the American Football Conference of the NFL.

Minnesota, a prohibitive favorite, was 12-2 during the regular season and at one point had won 12 games in succession.

The Chiefs took an early lead when Jan Stenerud kicked a 48-yard first quarter field goal. Stenerud's kick remains in Super Bowl annuls as the second-longest field goal in the game's history. He then followed with field goals of 32 and 25 yards for a 9-0 lead.

Kansas City received the first break in the game when the Vikings Charlie West fumbled a kickoff and Remi Prudhomme recovered at the Minnesota 19-yard line. After an eight-yard loss, Len Dawson handed off to Wendell Hayes, who rambled for 13 yards up the middle on a draw play. A 10-yard pass to Otis Taylor gave the Chiefs a first down at the four. Three plays later, Mike Garrett burst off-tackle for the touchdown. The Chiefs held a 16-0 halftime lead, stunning the Vikings and a nationwide television audience.

Minnesota mounted a mild third-quarter comeback when Dave Osborn scored from four yards out to cut the margin to 16-7. But any hopes the Vikings had of getting closer were dashed by Otis Taylor, who lived up to his big-play reputation repeatedly through that season.

Dawson hit Taylor on a short hitch pattern, but when Earsell Mackbee missed the initial tackle, Taylor was loose down the right sideline, high-stepping his way to a 46-yard touchdown. After three quarters, the Chiefs again held a 16-point lead.

As was so often the case in 1969, the defense came to the fore. Minnesota had the ball three times in the final period and, as in the Oakland game the previous week, the Chiefs snuffed out all three chances with interceptions. Middle linebacker Willie Lanier picked off a Joe Kapp pass to halt a rally at the Chiefs 34-yard line. Later on, Johnny Robinson, playing with what turned out to be three broken ribs, grabbed another errant Kapp throw. In the game's closing minutes, Emmitt Thomas intercepted his fourth pass of the playoffs. The Chiefs then ran out the clock to capture the AFL's second consecutive Super Bowl triumph.

1993 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Bills 30, Chiefs 13
January 23, 1994
Rich Stadium (76,642)

The Chiefs knew that they had to stop the run in order to win the game, and the 229 rushing yards the Bills put up was all the explanation needed in a 30-13 AFC Championship Game setback. The Chiefs were playing in their first-ever AFC title game, while the Bills were making it four straight.

Neither team's offense was able to move the ball effectively at the start of the first quarter. Midway through the frame, though, RB Thurman Thomas would start to get on track. His easy 12-yard TD scamper gave the Bills a 7-0 lead, but a pair of field goals by K Nick Lowery, cut Buffalo's lead to one as the first quarter came to a close.The second quarter was all Buffalo as the club scored on three straight possessions, getting a three-yard TD run from Thomas and two Steve Christie field goals. The Chiefs had a chance to cut into the lead as the half ended, but a pass by QB Joe Montana slipped through the hands of RB Kimble Anders, stationed in the end zone, and into the waiting arms of Buffalo S Henry Jones. The Bills led 20-6 at the half as Thomas had already amassed 129 rushing yards.

The Chiefs got the ball to open the second half, but three plays in, Montana suffered a concussion and was sidelined for the remainder of a very chilly afternoon. With 2:58 left in the third quarter, Kansas City shaved the Bills lead down to seven points with a 14-play, 90-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard plunge by RB Marcus Allen. Buffalo answered with an 18-yard TD run by, who else, Thurman Thomas.

The Chiefs were outgained by just 51 yards (389 to 338), but allowed Thomas to gain 186 of the team's 229 rushing yards. Before exiting, Montana was nine-of-23 for 125 yards and one INT, while QB Dave Krieg was 16-of-29 for 125 yards and one INT. TE Keith Cash was again the team's receiving leader with six catches for 87 yards. DE Neil Smith and S Kevin Ross each contributed 11 tackles.

MACK LEE HILL AWARD

Each year since 1966, the Chiefs have selected a recipient for the Mack Lee Hill Award. It is a tribute to the late Mack Lee Hill, an outstanding running back who played for the Chiefs in 1964 and 1965. He was described as a man who played as much with his heart as he did with his driving legs in the early days of the American Football League.

In memory and tribute to Hill, the award is presented annually to the Chiefs rookie or first-year player who, as the inscription on the trophy reads - "best exemplifies the spirit of the late Mack Lee Hill ... the man with the giant heart and the quiet way." In selecting the recipient, the Chiefs veterans look for a first-year player who has displayed the spirit and attitude of Mack Lee Hill.

The winner of the 2000 Mack Lee Hill Award was strong safety Greg Wesley. Although a relative unknown when he came to Kansas City, by season's end had introduced himself to a number of opponents. This tenacious rookie became familiar with any foe who dared cross his path and did not discriminate, delivering bone-jarring hits to receivers, running backs and quarterbacks, alike. This unheralded third-round pick began his rise to prominence as college walk-on at Arkansas-Pine Bluff before proving to be one of the steals in the 2000 NFL Draft.

Chiefs President Carl Peterson presented S Greg Wesley with the Mack Lee Hill Award at the annual 101 Banquet. The third-round draftee was the first Chiefs rookie to start all 16 games since '84.

A quick learner of the NFL game, this England, Arkansas native by moving into the starting lineup in the season opener vs. Indianapolis, a position which he did not surrender the entire season. He became the first rookie to start on Opening Day since LB Percy Snow in '90 and the first Kansas City safety to start on Opening Day since S Gary Barbaro in '76. CB Kevin Ross ('84) was the last rookie to start all 16 games for the Chiefs until Wesley did it in 2000.

Once Wesley moved into the starting role he provided almost immediate dividends and continued to hone his skills each week. In his first pro start he showed why he might have been one of the best deals of the 2000 draft when he produced eight tackles and one pass defensed vs. the Colts. He finished the year with 101 tackles becoming the third rookie in Chiefs annals to top the century mark in tackles with 101 and the first since LB Dino Hackett in '86. His tackle total ranked fourth all-time in Chiefs annals for rookies. Those 101 stops also ranked first among the defensive backs on the team and third on the team. An all-around performer, he also intercepted two passes for 28 yards, 11 passes defensed and eight special teams stops. A consensus All-Rookie selection, Wesley earned those accolades from Pro Football Weekly, Football News and Football Digest.

Unquestionably, Greg Wesley's unique road from the basketball pickup courts to the NFL fields paid off as he made a name for himself in the Chiefs Red and Gold in 2000. No doubt, the late Mack Lee Hill would have enjoyed seeing Wesley with the same passion for the game and "quiet way" Hill displayed over 30 years ago.

Running back Mack Lee Hill bursts forward for yardage against the Raiders during his memorable two-year pro career with the Chiefs.

DERRICK THOMAS AWARD

Chiefs President Carl Peterson presented WR Derrick Alexander with the Chiefs 2000 MVP Award. Alexander established several career highs last season and set a Kansas City single-season record with mark with 1,391 receiving yards.

For the past twenty-two years the Chiefs have upheld a tradition of selecting the club's Most Valuable Player. Named in honor of the late Derrick Thomas, this Chiefs custom is especially meaningful for its recipients not only because of the man that it is named in honor of, but also because it is selected by a vote of their peers. Thomas was the heart and sole of the Kansas City defense from 1989-99 and will always be regarded as one of the best linebackers to play the game.

After being named Kansas City's MVP for 2000, wide receiver Derrick Alexander now shares more than just a first name with Thomas, who was a two-time winner of the award himself. Since joining the Chiefs as an unrestricted free-agent in 1998, Alexander has emerged as one of the premier wide receivers in the NFL.

His 2000 statistics speak for themselves, starting all 16 games and compiling 78 catches for a team-record 1,391 yards (17.8 avg.) and ten touchdowns, all of which were career highs. His 78 receptions were the third-highest single-season total in franchise history and his 17.8 yards per catch average ranked tops in the AFC. 2000 marked the third time in his career that he cleared the 1,000 yard mark on the season but achieved this year's milestone in just 11 games, the fastest in franchise history.

After a standout career at the University of Michigan, Alexander began his NFL career as the second of two first-round draft picks (29th overall) of the Cleveland Browns in '94. He moved to Baltimore when the franchise relocated and continued to increase his productivity becoming an everyday starter and putting together back-to-back seasons with over 1,000 yards receiving.

Last season Alexander was also honored with the Chiefs nomination for the 2000 Walter Payton/NFL Man of the Year Award for his efforts in the community and on the field. In addition to his own production, Alexander also had the added responsibility of mentoring several rookies and young players on the Chiefs offense last season, including fellow wide receiver, Sylvester Morris.

In just three seasons with Kansas City Alexander has played a major role in turning the club into one of the league's most explosive offensive teams. Thanks in large part to this big-play specialist, the Chiefs 4,149 passing yards in 2000, the second-highest tally in team history. Alexander has also developed a knack for burning teams with long catches, grabbing a team-record 24 passes of 20 yards or more. He also established himself as the franchise's all-time leader in deep pass receptions with a total of 55 20-plus yard catches over his Chiefs career. His elusive open-field running and outstanding hands make him truly dangerous and a threat to score every time he touches the ball. In Kansas City's new high-flying offense under head coach Dick Vermeil, Alexander should only continue to rack up numbers in 2001 and beyond.

During his 11 years in a Chiefs uniform, Derrick Thomas was one of the most brilliant performers and brightest personalities ever to wear a Chiefs uniform. Unquestionably, Derrick Thomas' legacy will live on in Kansas City and across the National Football League.
